

Odd Fellows' Reunion at Milton One of Splendor.

Twenty Thousand Visitors Present and Twenty-five Hundred Members in Parade.

MILTON, Pa., April 28.—The nine-tenth reunion of the Anniversary Association of Pennsylvania Odd Fellows to-day brought to Milton twenty thousand visitors. It was the largest day in the town's history. The parade was the most imposing ever held by the association, and fully twenty-five hundred Odd Fellows marched to the music of their bands.

At the annual session of the association these officers were re-elected: President, William Kiess; secretary, H. B. Eberly; treasurer, H. C. Kreamer, Williamsport. As selected as the next place of meeting. After the parade an address of welcome was delivered by Chief Burgess Wildun Scott and the response by Professor A. R. Rutt, of Gettysburg Lodge, No. 124. The address of welcome on behalf of the Odd Fellows was made by W. D. Snyder, of Mutual Lodge, No. 84, and the response by William H. Kiess, president of the Pennsylvania Odd Fellows' Association. Addresses were also made by Grand Master Edwin L. Ritter, Grand Marshal Grant A. McGlathery and Grand Secretary Joseph H. Mackey, the latter three of Philadelphia.

A special session of the Grand Lodge was held in the evening for admission of Past Grands to the Grand Lodge, over one hundred being passed. At the close of this special session there was a session open to Scarlet degree members for exemplifying the unwritten work. This closed the most successful meeting ever held in this district, and showed the healthy growth since the reunion in Milton seventeen years ago. Major William H. Straub was chief marshal and L. H. Gingrich chairman of the entertainment committee for to-day's exercises.

Smulton.

Miss Emma Walker Sundayed with her parents. Chas. Geary was a guest of his parents over Sunday. Smulton and Rebersburg turned out well at the Coburn examination last Thursday. Messrs. Chas. Drumm and Adam Greeninger and Mrs. Newton Brungard are on the sick list. Dr. Musser, of Aaronsburg, was the guest of G. H. Smull on Sunday prior to his trip to Cuba. John Emerick is repairing his new home and also tearing down the old log house on the corner of the lot.

Pine Grove Mention.

Harry Musser says a new little girl is at his home. Cal Irvin reports another baby at his home it is number 9. Miss Mattie Everhart is ill at her home on the Branch with heart trouble. James Koch, of Buffalo Run, spent several days among friends here last week. Alfred Lee imagines his eye sight has improved since the arrival of a new baby girl at his home. Ed Isenberg is breaking ground for a new house at Baileyville which is to be pushed to a finish. Wm. Brouse and Lee Segner, of Boalsburg, came up Sunday to see Wm. Brouse Sr., who is quite feeble. The brick kiln plant at Struble is almost completed and is expected to be in operation in a few days. On last Saturday evening while chopping wood on his wood pile Henry Krebs split his big toe and is confined to the house. Jacob Weber and his son Samuel are beautifying the Major Ross mansion just west of town with some fresh paper and paint. William Metterling, of Centre Hall, visited our farmers the beginning of the week hunting a car load of horses for the eastern market. Amos Kauffman, of Zion, is here looking after his broad and fertile acres—the old Struble home, which he means to make a blow farm. Col. John R. Lemon, of W. Va., came up to spend a few days at his Gatesburg home and attend to some business matters that required his presence. J. B. Krebs & Bros. are building an addition to their store room on Main street. It will be a fifty foot store room and will be one of the best in our town. Jacob Reed returned from the city on Saturday. Dr. Radcliff examined his eyes but refused to operate on them as the cataracts were not fully developed. A. M. Brown, lumberman, farmer, stockman and banker was in town on Monday handling the lines over a pair of spanking sorrels that he is training for the fair. We are glad to note the recovery of Mrs. Harry Musser whose life was almost despaired of. Several physicians had been in attendance, but she is now on a fair way to recovery. William E. Reed is laid up with some broken ribs. His horse kicked him in the side on Tuesday morning. He had slipped up to the best and laid his hand on it without speaking to it and in consequence it kicked. Mrs. John H. Miller, who was taken to the University hospital in Philadelphia last week for an operation is said to have endured the operation quite well. She was accompanied by her friend and schoolmate Mrs. J. G. Heberling nee Dunlap. Judge Hess came up from his Bellefonte home the beginning of the week to spend a day on the farm. He pretended that he was here to show them how to plant pumpkins that they would grow but the truth of the matter was, he was here to replenish his larder and granary for the summer season. Post master J. W. Stuart, of State College, received a check from the U. S. Treasury at Washington, for $21.04 for reimbursement of war supplies he paid while Quartermaster of the 148th Regt., in the spring of 1865. He had forgotten it entirely, but it appears that Uncle Sam pays his bills though it be a generation after they are contracted. Rev. R. M. Illingworth is arranging to move his family to Tionesta, where he has accepted a call. He is one of the most popular young divines in the State and any congregation should be proud of receiving his services. He and his interesting family will carry with them the good wishes of all to their new home among the mountains.

Rev. Edgar Heckman, of State College, will preach the memorial sermon to Capt. J. O. Campbell, Post G. A. R. on Sunday, May 24th, at 2 o'clock in the M. E. church, of this place. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody, especially the old soldiers whether they are G. A. R. members or not.

At the joint meeting of the elders at Lemont last Friday it was agreed to consolidate Buffalo Run, Lemont, Pine Grove and Boalsburg charges and extend a call to some pastor to be agreed upon. For the present the charges will be supplied by the Presbytery. Rev. R. M. Campbell will fill the pulpit on May 10th in the morning.

Claud Swab, son of Frank Swab, on the Jas. Mitchell farm near town, had an encounter with a bump sheep last Saturday. The little boy was outside of the gate playing when the sheep made the attack, butting the lad on the head making some ugly wounds. Dr. Walter Woods dressed and stitched the wounds and the boy is getting along nicely and hopes to get square with the buck some day.

Hubsburg.

Walter Agar spent Tuesday in town after an absence of four weeks. Harry McAulay returned to Pitscain after spending three months at home. Talitha and Margaret Hoy spent Sunday at the home of their uncle, Ed McClintock, at Jacksonville. John McEwen, whose health has been poor for some time, is visiting at the home of J. H. Carner and is looking much better. The sale of the personal property of Mrs. Brown deceased was well attended and proceeds amounted to nearly four hundred dollars.

Mrs. Robert Border, of Altoona, is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Stover, who has been afflicted with typhoid fever but is slightly convalescent. Stella, Rosalie and Kathryn, daughters of Dr. McCormick, after spending several weeks at the home of their grandmother at Pine Grove accompanied by their mother, returned home Monday. Mrs. David Yocum is greatly improving the appearance of her home near town by raising the back part to the same height as the front. She purposes painting the same after its completion.

Howard.

Mrs. Charles Workman visited over Sunday with relatives in this place. David Wilson and wife are spending a couple of weeks in Howard. We are sorry to say that Mrs. Caroline Long is seriously ill at this writing. Miss Alice Long, a student at the Lock Haven Normal, visited her parents over Sunday. Miss Louise Hensly, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Staten Island, arrived home last week. Wm. Long, of Main street, is the happiest man in town since that little girl came to make her home with him. J. L. DeHass, wife and daughter, with Abe Weber, attended the I. O. O. F. convention at Milton on Tuesday. The remains of Mrs. Ira Mitchell arrived here on Monday from Lima, Ohio, and interment was made in the Woodward cemetery. Walter Pletcher, of Tyrone, spent Saturday and Sunday here. He departed for Pittsburgh Sunday evening where he will be employed this summer. Sherman Holter, a student of the Commercial college at Williamsport, came home last Thursday on account of having a sick spell. We are glad to say he is better.

Lemont.

J. B. Mayes spent Sunday in Howard. This town was well represented in court this week. Andrew O'Neil Sundayed at the home of Jacob Houtz. Monday and Tuesday found heavy frosts in these parts. William Goeben and Thos. Riley were seen on our streets on Monday. William Rishel has been confined to his home with a sprained ankle. Miss Grace Barnhart and Louis Brown spent a pleasant week at Bald Eagle. Jacob Houser, of Houserville, is some better but far from being out of danger. Mrs. Jno. R. Williams is reported out of danger and on a fair way to regain her health. Mrs. Maggie Weaver made a sojourn of a few days in Altoona this week visiting her mother. John Dale Sr., of Houserville, reports feeling some better and has hopes of getting well again. Samuel Weaver was in Bellefonte on Saturday looking after some business of importance. Gardening in these parts has been moving along slowly owing to the heavy crop of wet weather. John Schreck and wife, of Grampian, are at present circulating among their many friends in these parts. Mrs. E. W. Evey, returned to her home at Duncannon on Saturday after making a sojourn two weeks in these parts. Oscar Williams made a flying visit here on Tuesday, and reports times not quite so good in Altoona as they have been. The farmers are all busy getting the ground ready to put in the oats and it is high time that it was in the ground. The Odd Fellows' sermon was a success on Sunday, but owing to the inclement weather the congregation was not large. The frosts and freezes have been keeping the fruit trees from coming out in full bloom and it is feared the fruit has been injured. C. W. Whitehill took in the sights at Altoona, Duncannon and Tyrone the last week and reports a grand time and lots to be seen. Mrs. Kate Rowan endured a surgical operation in St. Luke's hospital in Philadelphia on Saturday and by reports is getting along nicely. By some means or other Tussey mountains took fire on Tuesday along about Shingle-town gap, causing some of the people quite a bit of anxiety.

Christian Houser was seen on our streets on Saturday. Alvin Shuey moved from the Mrs. Henry Ethers house north of town to the property he purchased of Rev. D. E. Hepler on Tuesday. E. K. Smith has gone to Pittsburg to spend a week attending the convention of the Insurance company and to look up his interest in those parts. Rev. Hepler and family took leave of their many friends in these parts on Monday to go to his new field of work at Ansonville, Clearfield county. He goes with the good wishes of all the community. The promises for a good crop of wheat are not as bright as they were four or six weeks ago as the wheat is taking on a sickly look which cannot be accounted for by the farmers. The board of managers of the Presbyterian church met in their church and decided to take in more money point, which will then make Lemont, Boalsburg, Pine Grove Mills and Buffalo Run. Samuel Hazel, William and Thomas Houtz, William Raymond and George Keller represented the I. O. O. F.'s of this place at Milton on Tuesday and as they had a nice day they report a fine time. Jared Mayes goes around with a smile all over his face and when asked what is the good news he answers, "There is an interesting visitor at my house which I intend to keep for I think there is no one like the little Miss that came on Sunday."

Those who are familiar with the fine values for which our stores are noted will realize what this statement means. This season's styles are lighter and daintier than those of the past year.
