

Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

—Rev. Richard Crittenden is very ill at his home on east Curtin street.

—Miss Martha McEntire has resigned her position in Zeller's drug store and will take up stenography.

—Wesley H. Spangler gave one of his unique entertainments in the Coleville band hall on Tuesday evening.

—Ogden Malin celebrated the eleventh anniversary of his birth by entertaining a few of his young friends on Friday evening.

—The front of the Cruse property on east Linn street has been greatly improved by the new concrete steps and a terrace.

—The racing season will open at Look Haven tomorrow when S. O. Watts' "Joe Wilkes" and D. L. Miller's "Orange Chief" will race for $175.

—Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes has resigned as organist in the Presbyterian church and Fred Weaver, the 15-year-old son of J. C. Weaver, is to be given a trial.

—On Saturday the Bellefonte Academy base ball team knocked the stellar propensities out of the "All Star" combination by the score of 11 to 6.

—Mrs. Arthur Black, nee Lula Rote of this place, is critically ill with peritonitis in Altoona. Her mother, Mrs. Jas. L. Rote, was sent for on Saturday.

—The new pool and billiard room of the Kniesly Bros. in the Reynolds bank building was opened on Saturday and late into the night all the tables were being used.

—The annual convention of the Centre county Sunday school association will be held at Unionville on May 13th and 14th. Every Sunday school in the county is entitled to two delegates.

—The annual reception to be given by the Alumni Association of the Bellefonte High school to the graduating class will take place in the armory of Co. B, on the evening of May 26th.

—Geo. B. Johnson, of Beaver Falls, has presented the Bellefonte Masons with a handsome quartered oak altar and cushions in memory of his father, the late John Thomas Johnson, who was master of the lodge in 1868.

—Owing to the number of counter attractions Friday night Fred High's monologue and character portraying entertainment, that had been billed for Petriken hall, was postponed. Tickets will be good for the new date, which will be announced later.

—Mrs. Scott Lambert fell through the floor in the barn on Beaver's farm, east of town, on Friday and broke a bone in one of her ankles. It was such a bad fracture that the bone protruded through the flesh. She was taken to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment.

—While at his work as conductor of the shifter crew in the P. R. R. yards here on Saturday morning Joseph Kelleher slipped from a car and fell into the race just north of the High street crossing. The fall dislocated his shoulder and shook him up badly.

—Mrs. Wilbur F. Reeder, vice-regent of the D. A. R. of the State, has been made a member of the Ways and Means committee for building Continental hall, the memorial which the Daughters expect to erect in Washington at a cost of a quarter of a million.

—Fred Beizer, who is making things hum in the butcher business out at Karthauss was in town during the fore part of the week looking up his friends and old haunts here. Fred is like all the rest of the Beizer boys, a hustler at whatever he undertakes and that is the reason he is meeting with so much success over there.

—Harry W. Dickinson, Harry W. Russell, Harry Caspar, Florence M. Lamb, Fannie Newsham, Mary E. Clark, Pearl Powers, Grace Davis, Mrs. Jennie Taggart, Mrs. Elva E. Russell and Mrs. Ed. Irvin constituted the class that was confirmed at St. John's Episcopal church Friday evening by Bishop Talbot.

—It was far too important an event to have been lost sight of but Mr. Gross Mingle wore his honors so modestly that few people knew until almost a week had slipped by that he was the pop of about as fine a boy as ever came to Bellefonte. The young man arrived on the 17th and both he and his mother are doing nicely.

—Miss May V. Rhone, of Centre Hall, daughter of Leonard Rhone, the State Grange leader, will take the place of Frank S. Chapin, of Milton, as chief clerk in the office of State Economic Zoologist Surface, at Harrisburg. Miss Rhone held this place during the Hastings administration, and was one of the first of the late Governor's appointees removed by ex-Secretary Hamilton.

—On Saturday morning one of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co's dray horses was thrown on the High street crossing of the P. R. R. and might have broken a leg. It appears that the planks that are used for filling in on the crossing are too far from the rails and a horse's foot can easily become fastened in the opening left. In fact this was the third horse that had been thrown down within the week.

MRS. WILLIAM S. GLENN—Mrs. Mary Henderson Glenn, wife of Dr. William S. Glenn, of State College, passed away at her home in that place on last Thursday night after an illness of five months with pleurisy. Before Thanksgiving she took a severe cold which almost immediately developed into pleurisy and from the very first her condition was most serious. Drs. Locke and Kirk, of this place, first opened up the pleural sac that she might have relief and then just as soon as Dr. Vischer, of Philadelphia, could get there he performed a second operation and inserted a drainage tube. Twice afterward he came up and consulted with her attending physicians and it was only because of their constant attention and the best of care that her life was spared as long as it was. During her sickness she rallied several times and a few weeks ago, was able to walk about her room but her respiration and temperature were much above normal and for ten days previous to her death oxygen was used constantly.

Mrs. Glenn was a daughter of Robert and the late Martha Henderson. She was born September 5th, 1862, in Clearfield county, where her father then resided. Her girlhood days were spent at the family home in Benner township, and when only seventeen years of age she was united in marriage to Dr. William S. Glenn, who soon afterward began the practice of medicine at State College. There she lived the greater portion of her life and there she was revered by every one. She was a very quiet woman, but the influence and usefulness of her life can scarcely be overestimated. She was the mother of six children, all of whom are commendatory of her influence and training; she nursed her own mother through the latter's last long illness and for many years she cared for her father in her own home. Endowed with an amiable and unselfish disposition, she constantly employed herself in doing for others and her home was always attractive for her family and friends. There her death is an irreparable loss and though time will eventually reconcile the sorrow it can never efface the influence of her beneficent and kind life.

Surviving here are her husband and six children, Olin, of Pittsburg; Harold, Bees, Grover, Will and Annie at home. Of her father's family her father and two brothers are living. Mrs. Jane Dolan, her only sister, having passed away at her home in Philadelphia on Wednesday, after a long illness and is to be buried tomorrow just one week after her sister.

—If the Barlow and Wilson minstrel combination that showed here Monday night were to combine with Ward Kelley's big lady minstrels there would be two of the funniest shows working together that has tried to impose on our theatre-goers for some time.

—Last night there were just thirty seats unsold for the production of "A Night Off" which the college boys are to make at Garman's tonight under the patronage of the D. A. R. It is altogether probable that the S. R. O. sign will be out long before 8 o'clock.

—Applications for the position of gardener and general utility man about the Bellefonte hospital should be made to Geo. R. Meek at once. The applicant must have a wife who can do laundry work. They will be furnished with a home, boarded and paid a good salary.

—Mr. Jacob Kniesly wants it understood that he is still a blacksmith and is working at the old stand; notwithstanding the erroneous reports that he is interested in the new Kniesly pool room in the Reynolds bank building. The latter enterprise belongs to his brothers John and George.

—Nelson McKinley and Miss Margaret Letterman were married at the home of the groom, in Milesburg, on Sunday afternoon at 5:30. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. B. Shultz, of the Evangelical church, and only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present to witness it.

—Walter M. Camp, State '91, is another graduate of that institution who is meeting with remarkable success in his work as a civil engineer. He not only stands high as a practical engineer, but is also editor of the Railway and Engineer Review of Chicago. His latest production is a book on railroad construction which deals in detail with all phases of the subject.

—The Hope Fire Co., of Phillipsburg, are in distress because they have been unable to meet a note of $560 due on a new fire engine they purchased recently. The La France Co. from which the engine was purchased demand payment of the note or forfeiture of the engine. Phillipsburg's council held a special meeting last evening to devise means of relieving the Hope Co. in their dilemma.

—James A. Norris, a tobaccoist and confectioneer, died in Phillipsburg early Friday morning after a decline that began about a year ago when his lungs became affected. He was then following his profession as a dentist in Pittsburg, and with the hope of improving his health he moved to Phillipsburg, but all to no purpose, for he declined steadily to his death. He was a son of Col. J. S. Norris, of Woodland, and was 31 years old. His wife, parents and a brother and two sisters survive him. His body was taken to Woodland for burial on Sunday.

—In Tyrone Tuesday morning little Alexander Gardner, the 6-year-old son of Amos Gardner, was burned to death in a most horrible way. He climbed into a pen near the stable at his home and another little boy, who was on top of the pen, dropped some lighted oil down on the pile of straw that half filled it. There was a blaze in an instant. The straw flared up all about the little fellow who had no way of escape except through the hole in the roof which he was too small to reach. In a few seconds he was overcome and when the neighbors got to the scene his little body was burned almost to a crisp.

—John Love, the 7 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Martz, of Tusseyville, died at his home on Sunday, the 19th. His illness began with an attack of tonsillitis and then Bright's disease developed, causing his death within a week. Revs. Rariok and Schuyler conducted the funeral services on the following Wednesday and interment was made in the Union cemetery at Tusseyville.

—J. Wesley Hasson, aged 79 years and 11 days, died at his home in Phillipsburg shortly after 4 o'clock, Tuesday morning. Deceased was born at Hanging Rocks, Ohio, and located in Phillipsburg in 1865. He was an exemplary citizen, a member of the Methodist church and is survived by his three sons and one daughter.

—Enoch Bartholomew, a well-known Mill Hall resident, died on Friday morning.

—The new Huntington and Clearfield telephone company, of which W. L. Main is superintendent, has phones working in Phillipsburg already.

—Harry Stover, formerly of Bellefonte, is in the Altoona hospital suffering from burns about the face and nose, which he received on Saturday near Pitcairn. He is a locomotive fireman.

—State's first base ball trip ended with one defeat and two victories for State. The scores were as follows: Franklin and Marshall 8, State 7; Mt. St. Mary's 0, State 6; Annapolis 0, State 1.

—Geo. L. Potter has been promoted from the position of general manager to the office of third vice president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. He is a native of Bellefonte and a brother of James H. Potter.

—S. H. Stouffer, a Tyrone apiarist, had a swarm of bees early in the week; an unusually early performance for bees. How about this Mr. Emmanuel Noll, do you propose that this Tyrone gentleman be ahead of you?

—If the Barlow and Wilson minstrel combination that showed here Monday night were to combine with Ward Kelley's big lady minstrels there would be two of the funniest shows working together that has tried to impose on our theatre-goers for some time.

—Last night there were just thirty seats unsold for the production of "A Night Off" which the college boys are to make at Garman's tonight under the patronage of the D. A. R. It is altogether probable that the S. R. O. sign will be out long before 8 o'clock.

—Applications for the position of gardener and general utility man about the Bellefonte hospital should be made to Geo. R. Meek at once. The applicant must have a wife who can do laundry work. They will be furnished with a home, boarded and paid a good salary.

—Mr. Jacob Kniesly wants it understood that he is still a blacksmith and is working at the old stand; notwithstanding the erroneous reports that he is interested in the new Kniesly pool room in the Reynolds bank building. The latter enterprise belongs to his brothers John and George.

—Nelson McKinley and Miss Margaret Letterman were married at the home of the groom, in Milesburg, on Sunday afternoon at 5:30. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. B. Shultz, of the Evangelical church, and only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present to witness it.

—Walter M. Camp, State '91, is another graduate of that institution who is meeting with remarkable success in his work as a civil engineer. He not only stands high as a practical engineer, but is also editor of the Railway and Engineer Review of Chicago. His latest production is a book on railroad construction which deals in detail with all phases of the subject.

—The Hope Fire Co., of Phillipsburg, are in distress because they have been unable to meet a note of $560 due on a new fire engine they purchased recently. The La France Co. from which the engine was purchased demand payment of the note or forfeiture of the engine. Phillipsburg's council held a special meeting last evening to devise means of relieving the Hope Co. in their dilemma.

—James A. Norris, a tobaccoist and confectioneer, died in Phillipsburg early Friday morning after a decline that began about a year ago when his lungs became affected. He was then following his profession as a dentist in Pittsburg, and with the hope of improving his health he moved to Phillipsburg, but all to no purpose, for he declined steadily to his death. He was a son of Col. J. S. Norris, of Woodland, and was 31 years old. His wife, parents and a brother and two sisters survive him. His body was taken to Woodland for burial on Sunday.

—In Tyrone Tuesday morning little Alexander Gardner, the 6-year-old son of Amos Gardner, was burned to death in a most horrible way. He climbed into a pen near the stable at his home and another little boy, who was on top of the pen, dropped some lighted oil down on the pile of straw that half filled it. There was a blaze in an instant. The straw flared up all about the little fellow who had no way of escape except through the hole in the roof which he was too small to reach. In a few seconds he was overcome and when the neighbors got to the scene his little body was burned almost to a crisp.

THE HARRIS-HENCH NUPPIALS.—The wedding of Mr. Wilbur F. Harris and Miss Lillie Coyle Hench, which occurred in Harrisburg on Wednesday was an event in which many Bellefonters were interested. Not alone because Mr. Harris had been a very popular resident of this place for years but because his bride has become quite well known through her several visits to the town and the pleasing part she has taken in a number of concerts. Of their wedding the Harrisburg Star Independent of Wednesday publishes the following:

At 1 o'clock this afternoon Miss Lillie Coyle Hench was united in marriage to Mr. Wilbur F. Harris, Rev. J. Ritchie performing the ceremony in Market Square Presbyterian church. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and other potted greens.

Mrs. James E. Kunkel, of Philadelphia, was matron of honor; there were no bridesmaids. Mr. James H. Harris, of Bellefonte, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. John T. Harris, of Altoona; Mr. James E. Kunkel, of Philadelphia; Mr. Guy H. Davies and Dr. W. T. Davies, of this city. Preceded by the ushers and her matron of honor the bride entered the church upon the arm of her father, Mr. Nicholas I. Hench. She was met at the head of the aisle by the groom, and Dr. Smith proceeded with the service, the bride being given away by her father. During the ceremony Miss Florence Connor, of London, England, a friend of Miss Hench, played Wagner's beautiful composition, "Dreams," as a violin solo. Prior to the arrival of the wedding party Miss Connor rendered Chopin's "Nocturne in E Flat." Miss McDowell, the church organist, presided at the organ.

The bride was becomingly gowned in champagne colored crepe de chine, trimmed with a bertha of old point lace. She wore a hat of eun lace and pink roses, and carried a bouquet of bride roses and maiden hair ferns. Mrs. Kunkel wore a shirred gown of light green aëolian trimmed with duchess lace, with a hat of green leaves, violets and tallie. Her bouquet was maiden hair ferns.

Breakfast was served to the wedding party and members of the families of the bride and groom at the home of the bride, 1015 North Front street, the decorations being of palms and out flowers. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Henry P. Harris and Miss Mary Harris Weaver, of Bellefonte, mother and cousin of the groom, and Miss Florence Connor, of London, England. The wedding gifts were many and handsome.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris will reside in Mechanicsburg. The groom is with the firm of N. I. Hench & Co. Mr. Harris was executive clerk to the late Governor D. H. Hastings during the latter's administration and was later editor of the Bellefonte Republican and Daily News. He is a son of H. P. Harris Esq., of Bellefonte, where he was prominent in social and political circles until he retired from the newspaper business to enter the wholesale notion firm in this city of which his father-in-law is the head.

DONATION DAY AT THE HOSPITAL.—Several weeks ago May 2nd was announced as the date which had been selected for a general donation at the hospital. The building though will not be ready for occupancy by that time, owing to the delay in the repairs and the donation party has been postponed for one week, that is on Saturday, May 9th. On that day a committee of the Aid society will be at the hospital to receive visitors, show them about and to take account of all the articles and supplies that are donated.

We have appealed to the public so many times in behalf of the institution that additional words seems quite unnecessary. Groceries and eatables of all kinds will be most acceptable, as well as furniture for living and bed rooms, but the following is a list of articles very necessary just at present.

- Ward pillows, 32x18 inches.
Nurses' " 22x32 "
Small round pillows, for surgical cases, made of hair, cotton or cut straw.
Spreads for single beds, and 7-4 sheets.
Sash curtains for 24 windows.
Refrigerator.
Canned and dried fruits.
Jelly and grape juice.
Flour, vegetables, lard and meat.
Knives, forks, spoons and dishes.
Table linen and kitchen utensils.
Rugs for dining and nurses' rooms.
Screens for the ward beds.
Chairs for the house and porches.
Brooms, scrub brushes and soap.
A washing machine, tubs and wringer.

—Conetans Commandery, No. 33, K. T. installed their new officers for the year on Friday night. Though strictly private the ceremonial was made quite elaborate and the beauty and impressiveness of it was brightened by the beautiful environments afforded by the new temple. Em. Sir W. I. Fleming, grand generalissimo of the grand commandery of Pennsylvania, was the installing officer and after administering the charge invested the different officials with the insignia of their respective offices. A quartet choir composed of Misses Henrietta Butts and Elizabeth Dorworth and Messrs. Hard P. Harris and Phil D. Waddle, with Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes, as accompanist, sang during the ceremony. After the installation Ceader served a banquet in the dining rooms of the temple. The new officers are: Em. Com., Em. Sir J. S. McCargar; generalissimo, Sir Boyd A. Musser; captain general, Sir M. S. McDowell; treasurer, Em. Sir Hammon Seohler; recorder, Sir W. Homer Crissman; prelate, Sir and Rev. R. H. Wharton; assistant prelate, Sir and Rev. G. I. Brown; senior warden, Sir Frank Warfield; junior warden, Jesse T. Cherry; standard bearer, Sir Philip D. Foster; sword bearer, Sir W. L. Daggett; warden, Sir Sidney Kramrine; captain of the guard, Sir D. S. Stuart; 1st guard, Sir Oscar E. Miles; 2nd guard, Sir Geo. C. Watson; 3rd guard, Sir H. P. Schoeffer; sentinel, Sir J. Robert Cole.

—The Free Methodists are to hold a two weeks' camp meeting at Hunter's park commencing Monday, July 24th.

News Purely Personal.

—Col. and Mrs. J. P. Coburn spent Sunday at their former home in Aaronsburg.

—Ward Fleming returned to his studies at Haverford on Monday afternoon.

—James A. McClain, of Spangler, spent Sunday with his mother and sister in this place.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eckenroth, of Howard street, are visiting friends in Pittsburg this week.

—Clarence Longacre came up from Williamsport to spend Friday at his home in this place.

—Boyd A. Musser came up from his new home in York, on Friday, to close up some business here.

—Dr. S. C. Musser, of Aaronsburg, was in town on Wednesday, to attend the funeral of C. M. Bower.

—Misses Jane Furst and May Crider attended the Cochran-Perley wedding in Williamsport Tuesday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Decker, with their little boy, are here for a visit with grandfather Anderson, on Bishop street.

—Miss Adaline Harris departed for Harrisburg on Saturday; to visit Mrs. Ross Hickok until Tuesday when she returned.

—Miss Grace Armor, after a visit of several months with friends in New York and Massachusetts, returned home on Saturday.

—Mrs. H. F. Harris, Miss Mary Harris Weaver and James H. Harris attended the Harris-Hench wedding in Harrisburg on Wednesday.

—H. M. Krebs was down from Penna. Furnace yesterday looking after some business matters that needed his personal attention here.

—Mrs. Jennie Breese, of Downingtown, was an arrival on Monday afternoon. She expects to spend a few days with her mother here.

—Wilbur Twitmore, U. S. A. returned to his regiment in Washington barracks on Monday. He had been home on ten days' furlough.

—Edmund Blanchard went to Pittsburg Wednesday afternoon on business for the McCoy-Linn Iron Co. and returned Wednesday morning.

—Mrs. Mary Dale, of Lemont, who had been visiting for a few days at the home of her son Jack on Linn street, returned home on Tuesday.

—Miss Rebecca Lyon was here from Philadelphia for a short visit with her aunt, Mrs. R. V. Pugh, on Curtin street. She departed Wednesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lukenbach, with their two children, came down from Tyrone Wednesday to attend the funeral of the late C. M. Bower.

—Mrs. G. Willard Hall is visiting her sister Mrs. Hoffman in Williamsport this week; thence she will go to Erie which city it is to be her permanent home.

—T. C. Bell came in from Wilkingsburg on Tuesday to attend the funeral of Hon. C. M. Bower. Mr. Bell was once a member of Mr. Bower's bible class.

—E. K. Rhoads and his sister, Miss Rebecca, were arrivals from Philadelphia Friday evening. They had spent a week or more recreating in that city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sheffer, with their two children, arrived home from Scranton, on Friday afternoon. They had been visiting Mrs. Sheffer's parents.

—Mrs. J. D. Geisinger, who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Catherine Tripple, on Spring street, left for her home in Harrisburg on Tuesday morning.

—Clarence Harper, who is employed by the Westinghouse Co. in Pittsburg, returned to his work on Tuesday, after a visit of about ten days at his home here.

—Chas. C. Bell, of Huntingdon, was in town on Wednesday for the funeral. Bellefonters were sorry to learn from him that Mrs. Bell has not been at all well lately.

—Michael Beizer, one of the brothers of the firm of architects who presented the fine pipe organ to St. John's Catholic church, in this place, is here visiting his mother and other friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Humpton, with their two children, were in town on Monday doing some shopping. Mr. Humpton has lost none of his popularity since running for commissioner.

—Miss Freda Baum left for Atlantic City, N. J., Wednesday morning. It is hoped that the rest and change at the seashore will restore her shattered nerves. Her sister, Miss Sallie, accompanied her.

—Leroy and William Leathers, of Howard, were in town on Monday; the former to make his return as constable and the latter to settle up some of the business of their lamented father's, Ira C. Leathers, estate. They are both pleasant young fellows and show a disposition to do the right thing that is sure to bring them success in life.

—Our friend Anthony Gatens called on Saturday and we had a half hour's talk that would have made interesting reading had we been able to get a stenographic report of it. Those who know Anthony that many a bright gem of wit rolls from his tongue and Saturday he seemed to be in the best of humor for it.

—Among our callers during the fore part of the week was Michael Hayes, Supt. of one of our rises up the Run, but he wouldn't stay long enough to tell us anything about how the work is progressing up there. However, Mr. Hayes is such an efficient foreman that it could not be expected to be going other than smooth.

—Among the well known men from Penna. valley, who were in town for the funeral of the late C. M. Bower on Wednesday were Pierce Musser, W. F. Smith and Samuel Weiser, of Millheim; Wm. B. Mingle, of Centre Hall; Capt. W. C. Patterson, of State College; Noah Cronmiller, of Aaronsburg; Geo. L. Goodhart, of Centre Hill; Rev. D. M. Wolf, of Spring Mills.

—Rev. George M. Glenn, of Roaring Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Dempster L. Glenn and their little daughter Myra, of Sparrows Point, Md., Dr. Tom Glenn, of Rixford, McKean county, and Ollie Glenn, of Pittsburg, were in town on Monday being train on Wednesday.

—Achy, you all know who we mean, was up from Look Haven on Tuesday and spent the night and Wednesday with his friends here. Except for having grown a little stouter he looks no different than when he was the popular baker and confectioner in this place, and reports that he occupies an identical position in his new home. He came up to accompany Mrs. Achenbach home. She had been visiting the Misses Spook for a few days.

—Geo. W. McGaffey, the Phillipsburg financier, was in town on Wednesday to attend the funeral of the late C. M. Bower.

—Miss Louisa Calloway returned Wednesday afternoon from a visit with friends in Jersey Shore and Williamsport.

—Jacob Kerstetter, of Coburn, was a Bellefonte visitor during the fore part of the week and remained over to attend the funeral of C. M. Bower.

—Frank Hess, of Phillipsburg, of whom very little is seen hereabouts since he has gone into the coal business so extensively, was in town attending court on Monday.

—Dr. M. A. Kirk returned Monday from Philadelphia. He took one of his patients down to St. Luke's hospital last Thursday and remained with her until after the operation on Saturday.

—D. B. DeLong, of Romola, was in town attending court during the fore part of the week and spent part of the time he wasn't needed at the court house very pleasantly in this office.

—Miss Mary Brown came up from Look Haven yesterday morning on account of the serious illness of her niece Miss Mable McFarlane, who was operated on yesterday morning at the hospital for appendicitis.

—Mr. H. D. Eberst was down from Martha Furnace last Friday looking after a few business matters and we noticed him in town again on Wednesday. He came down for Mr. Bower's funeral.

—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris and the Boy returned to their home in Aspinwall on Monday. Mrs. Tom and the "Boys" have been visiting in town for two weeks and Tom came in on Saturday to see that they got home safely.

—Geo. W. Weaver, of Romola, was in town during the fore part of the week attending court and was very much gratified when he discovered that the report that Maj. W. J. Singer had died Monday night at Rockaway Beach, was untrue. Dr. Locke had a letter from the Major on Tuesday.

ANOTHER BUSINESS CHANGE.—On Wednesday morning Jesse Cox took charge of the pool and billiard room, restaurant and wholesale beer business conducted for so many years by John Anderson in the McClain block. Mr. Anderson's failing health forced his retirement and he has sold out every branch of his business.

It is the intention of Mr. Cox to spend a thousand dollars or more on improvements at once; especially in the restaurant, which he intends to make as attractive as possible.

—Miss Mable Virginia Perks, daughter of Edward Perks, and Stewart B. Dunsmore, were married at the home of the brides parents in Phillipsburg on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. Dr. F. J. Clero of the Episcopal church officiated and only a few of their near friends were present. Miss Jesse Hudson and Miss Margaret Dunsmore were the attendants. The bride and groom will go to house keeping in their own home in Chester Hill.

THE STECK LECTURE.—Remember the great lecture to be delivered in the court house by Dr. Steck on Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. Be sure and go and hear it. This is what the Chambersburg Herald says of it: "Steck's lecture was a brilliant, impassioned, matchless effort." Tickets 25 and 35 cts. For benefit of the Lutheran church.

—Sol Schmidt completed his work a mercantile appraiser on Wednesday evening and it will appear in the papers next week. Mr. Schmidt would have gotten through sooner but for a very ugly sore he had on his left thumb. He narrowly escaped a serious siege of blood poisoning.

—The Bellefonte Odd Fellows attended the district convention of their order in Milton on Tuesday. There were about one hundred on their special and they were accompanied by the Zion band. They report having had a fine time.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.—The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Includes Wheat, Corn, Oats, Flour, Rye, Barley, Ground Flaxseed, Buckwheat, Cloverseed, Timothy seed.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER. The following are the quotations up to six o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes press:

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Includes Red wheat, old, New wheat, Rye, per bushel, Corn, sacked, per bushel, etc.

Corrected weekly by Sehler & Co. The following are the quotations up to six o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes press:

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Includes Potatoes per bushel, Onions, Eggs per dozen, Lard, per pound, Country Shoulders, Sides, Ham, Tallow, per pound, Butter, per pound.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00 when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearages is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance.

A liberal discount will be made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Space occupied and Price. Includes One inch (12 lines this type), Two inches, Three inches, Quarter Column (5 inches), Half Column (10 inches), One Column (20 inches).

Advertisements in special column 25 per cent additional.

Transient ads, per line; 3 insertions.....30 cts. Each additional insertion, per line.....5 cts. Local notices, per line.....20 cts. Business notices, per line.....10 cts. Job Printing of every kind done with neatness and dispatch. The WATCHMAN office has been refitted with Fast Presses and New Type, and everything in the printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates. Terms—Cash.

All letters should be addressed to P. GRAY WEEK, Proprietor.