Bellefonte, Pa., Jvne 12, 1903.

Correspondents .- No communications pub lished unless accompanied by the real name of

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

___James Fox, of Bishop street, is re covering from his recent illness. - A valuable cow owned by Mrs.

Samuel Vonada died on Sunday. -Miss Bess Sharp is reported as being -The Aaronsburg band will hold a the dreams of most people. lawn festival on Saturday evening June

-Zeb Bathurst has blossomed out as the manager of a base ball team over in Philipsburg.

into position on Sunday.

H. Y. Stitzer is advertising money to are a borrower look it up.

during a storm on Tuesday afternoon. -O. J. Stover who had been flooking after some business interests at Old Fort, N. C., is back at his former home at Eagle--S. Kline Woodring, attorney-at-law, College now. has removed from the Fortney & Walker offices into the suite occupied by Orvis, follows: Bower & Orvis.

-Miss Daise Keichline, of this place, and Miss Nora Kunes, of Eagleville, were guests at the Winter-Mason wedding in Lock Haven, last week.

-005,840 was the number that drew the barrel of flour recently chanced off by the Coleville band. As yet the holder of the lucky number has not been found. -Reuben Turner was admitted to the hospital on Saturday and operated on the next day. Mrs. White, of Axe Mann, was admitted for an operation on Monday. The angual meeting of the Bellefonte school board resulted in the election of the following officers: President, G. W. Rees: secretary, H. C. Quigley; treasurer, John P. Harris.

-The Hatch-Adams Carnival Co. will be here June 29th to July 4th to hold a firemen's street fair and carnival. It will be something entirely new for Bellefonte and a great time may be expected.

--- Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shuey entertained a party of little folks at their home on celebration of their little daughter Sara's eighth birthday anniversary.

issue where those interested can peruse it.

-The third district of Centre county Christian Endeavor will hold its second quarterly convention, in the Buffalo Run Presbyterian church, Thursday afternoon and evening. June 18th. All are invited to -The Citizens Hook and Ladder Co. of Milesburg will hold their annual festival on the evening of July 25th. The firemen down there are beginning to prepare for it now, so there will be big doings when the affair comes off.

-About 11 o'clock Friday night a farm house about 2 miles below Aaronsburg, occupied by Cyrus Bower, took fire and was totally destroyed. Bower saved most of his househeld goods. The house was owned by Frank Bower. No one seems to know the origin of the fire.

-A fine portrait in oil of the late Gov. D. H. Hastings is on exhibition in Blair's window. It was executed by Antrim & Landsy, the Philadelphia portrait artists. It is an exceptionally striking likeness of the Governor, especially as to coloring and of his favorite photograph published in the WATCHMAN at the time of his death

-Arrangements have been about completed for the transfer of the Crider property on High street to the Y. M. C. A. Just as soon as it is paid for the work of remodeling and building the gymnasium will be begun. The Association has been chartered with the following trustees James A. Beaver, Harry Keller, W. I. Fleming, W. Harrison Walker, Edwin F. Garman and Clement Dale.

-The Bellefonte Academy base ball team met the Susquebanna University nine on the meadow here, on Friday afternoon, and a great game resulted. The visitors were beaten by the score of 6 to 4 and were unable to make a run up to the last inning, when McLafferty, the regular Academy pitcher, retired and Sharp went into the box. The Susquehanna boys found him easy and piled up four runs. The game was exciting throughout, full of sharp Miss Elizabeth Gross, of Ax Mann, were fielding and pretty plays.

-James Bailey, who has a barber shop under Lyon & Co's store, met with a very serious mishap on Friday morning. He was in the act of filling a gasoline stove that he used to heat water for shaving when it exploded; throwing the gasoline about the shop and burning Bailey's face, arms and hands badly. The interior of the shop took fire and an alarm was rung in, but the firemen were on the ground so promptly that the flames had done little damage before they were subdued. Bailey was taken to the hospital for treatment.

COMMENCEMENT AT THE PENNSYL-VANIA STATE COLLEGE. - The forty-third | temple. annual commencement exercises, which will begin at The Pennsylvania State College, with the baccalaureate sermon tomorrow morning, will usher in the new era of hopefulness that has dawned for that institution. During the week the new Schwab auditorium will be formally presented to the trustees, the excavations for the new Carnegie library will be about completed, the ground for the magnificent new agricultural building which the recent Legislature provided for will be broken and time alone will tell what further lavish bequests Mr. and Mrs. Schwab will have quite ill at her home on east Lamb street. to announce. Certain it is that their in--The Coburn band expects to play in terest in the growing Centre county instithe parade at Lock Haven on the Fourth. tution will lead to something far beyond

These are some of the specially auspicious events that are to be expected next week and everyone is invited to be present to participate in the enjoyment of them. The recent destruction of the Inn by fire has seriously reduced the facilities for com--The Pennsy's new iron bridge over fortably entertaining guests, but the College Bald Eagle creek at Milesburg was swung has made provision for all who may at- proved. Mrs. C. S. McCormick, of Lock survived by two brothers and one sister, tend.

The members of the various fraternities loan at 5 per cent. in this issue. If you will give up their homes to lady visitors and hundreds of the boys in the main -Hail stones as large as marbles fell dormitories will do the same. They will along the Ridges near Yarnell and Romola be given sleeping quarters on cots in the various class rooms and Harrison, the caterer, will serve meals in the armory at the same rate as the hotels. Of course everything will be a little crude, but who will notice or complain of any little short coming under circumstances that obtain at the

The complete program for the week is

SUNDAY. JUNE 14. 10.30 a. m.-Baccalaureate Sermon, by The Rev. Lawrence M. Colfelt, D. D., Philadelphia MONDAY, JUNE 15. 2.00 p. m.-Class-Day Exercises of the Class

3.30 p. m.-Field Sports between the Carlisle Indians and State. 8.00 p. m.-Junior Oratorical Contest.

8.00-Annual Meeting of the Board of Trustee TUESDAY, JUNE 16. 10.00 a. m. -Dedication of the new Auditorius 12.00 m. -Alumni Luncheon (in the Armory.) 2.30 p. m.-Meeting of the Alumni Association 2.30 p. m .- Meeting (in Room No. 121) of Dele gates and Alumni to elect Trustees. 4.00 p. m. Exhibition Drill, by the Cadet Batta

8.00 p. m. Presentation of "A Night Off." by "The Thespians." WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17.

10.00 a. m.-Graduation Exercises of the Clas Commencement Address, by The Hon. Hamp on L. Carson, Attorney-General of Pennsylvania

IN A NEW BUSINESS.-No sooner bad Mr. G. R. Spigelmyer disposed of hi Racket stores to the Irvin Bros. than he began to look about for something that would occupy his time, yet give him plenty High street, on Thursday evening, in of out-of-door life. For a quarter of a century he has been behind counters and in the business office of mercantile establish--Teachers for the Boggs township ments and now he has entered a new field. schools will be elected on Saturday, June a business in which his wonderful activity Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Krape, at Lamar. was Sunday afternoon. Among the profusion church were conducted by Mr. L. B. Hindman 27th. A fuller notice of the conditions and acumen will find no bounds, for the the scene of a very pretty wedding cere- of beautiful floral tributes, the caskets world is the market he will have to as a member of the Bullock Swing and

> He has entered a co-partnership with L C. Bullock, of Milesburg, for the manufacture of the famous porch and lawn swings, roller chairs, hammocks and carts the latter is the inventor of. They will have their works at Milesburg, but the business of the company will be done from this

Starting off with the acknowledged superiority and usefulness of their patents and combining with it the known hustling ability of these two men the possibilities of the new concern seem to have no limit. Everyone who has used a Bullock porch or lawn swing will tell you that it is cheaper than those of any other make and as for durability --- well, there is no wear out to Both Mr. Bullock and Mr. Spigelmyer expect to devote all of their time to the business in the future.

RUN OVER BY THE CARS.-Cordelia Sager, a fourteen year old daughter of Isaac Sager, who lives near the "Red Schoo expression. The pose is the same as that House," was on her way to work in the shirt factory yesterday morning when she was run down by a "floating" caboose on the C. R. R. of Pa. She was taken to the Bellefonte hospital, where it was found that the flesh was stripped from the bones of her right leg from the knee down, though the surgeons hope to be able to fix her un without an amputation.

She was walking up to town on the railroad tracks when an out-going freight hore down upon her. It was made up of only one engine and caboose, the latter "floating" behind in order that the engine could take out a draft of cars standing on the furnace viaduet. Cordelia stepped aside to let the engine pass then stepped back onto the tracks not noticing the caboose beyond. When it was almost upon her she threw herself from the tracks, but her right leg was caught with the result given above.

PROUDFOOT-GROSS .- At noon on Wednesday Ira Proudfoot, of Milesburg, and Catholic church on Bishop street. Miss Mary Gross, a sister of the bride, and J. F. Johnston, of Tyrone, were their at-

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast vas served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gross, and an informal reception followed until an afternoon train bore the happy couple away to Atlantic City for their honeymoon.

Upon their return they will reside in Altoona, where the groom is employed in the railroad shops.

-DuBois Masons are going to build a

-Forty new houses are in course of erection in Osceola.

-The barn of Henry Homer on the mountain near Coburn was struck by by fire.

-The Newton Hamilton camp meeting will open August 12th, 1903. Rev. M. C. Pifer, of the Walnut Ave church, Altoona, will have charge of the services. For particulars as to the price of tents. Ect. von should unite J. K. Rhodes, Lewistown,

-On Sunday evening Harry Good, of Haven, came up to this place in his autoand went home by rail.

-Mrs. J. H. Huston, of Clintondale, who was injured in a runaway accident last week is reported as being much im-Haven, who was in the carriage with her sufficiently to get home last Thursday.

-Mrs. Laura May Eyer, who died at her home near Warriors-mark on Friday morning, in her thirty-ninth year, was a daughter of William Woomer and was born in the Bald Eagle valley. She was a sister of E. S. Woomer, of Philipsburg, and Mrs. William VanScoyoc, of Altoona. Interment was made in the Tyrone cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

-Jane Lee, colored, was locked up on ing could render, but all to no purpose. Monday afternoon, charged with drunkenlockup Wednesday until when she was re- Francis. leased.

--- The brick house on the McCormick farm west of State College was struck by lightning during the storm on Wednesday afternoon and damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars. Fortunately the family of Milford Corl, the occupant, were all outside at the time and were not injured. The lightning tore off the plastering, wrecked a chimney and upset a stove.

-It is of interest to Centre county reterans to know that the last Legislature passed a bill providing transportation for all Pennsylvania soldiers, who at any time during the war were confined in Andersonville, Ga. prison, to and from their homes and Americus, Ga., in order that they may attend the dedication of the monument to be erected to the memory of Pennsylvania soldiers who died while in prison there.

-At noon on Wednesday the home of united in marriage to Mr. Charles E. Wells, of Altoona, by the Rev. Warren Mattern, of Salona. About fifty guests were present. Miss Mae Walker, of Clintondale, was maid of honor and wore a gown of white and carried pink carnations. man. The bride wore white chiffon and lace and carried bride's roses.

A NEW TENNIS CLUB.-Last Thursday night the Linn street tennis club was organized in this place with Harry Keller, president: H. S. Ray, secretary and treasurer, and W. Harrison Walker, John J. Bower and Wallace Gephart as the board of governors. The membership includes H. C. Quigley, John M. Dale, John M. Shugert, Joseph L. Montgomery, Wilson Gephart, Robert Morris, Fred Blanchard, A. Jackson, J. Thomas Mitchell, Edw. L. Hov. Geo. R. Meek.

THE ACADEMY RECEPTION.-The annual reception of the Bellefonte Academy will be given on Friday evening of this week from 8 to 10:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends of the Academy. No cards of invitation will be issued.

The board of directors, the teachers and the graduating class of the public schools will be gladly welcomed.

Music will be furnished during the ever ing by C. J. Smith's orchestra. These receptions have been delightfully successful in the past and the approaching reception is anticipated with great pleasure.

NARROWLY ESCAPED DROWNING-That Annie Rhule and her little four year old prother and sister did not go down to watery graves at Spring Mills last Saturday s due to the prompt action and heroism of Mrs. Krider Frank, who plunged into Penus creek, waist deep, and dragged them from the water just as they were sinking the last time.

A foot bridge, or rather a plank, thrown over Penns creek, at the upper end of that village, simply as a short road home for Krider Frank, who resides close by. married in the parish house of St. John's He placed it there for his own convenience. On Saturday Annie Rhule ten years of age, with Harry and Mary, both four years old, children of Mrs. Margaret Rhule, attempted to cross the creek on the plank, but fell into the water. Their screams attracted the attention of Mrs. Krider Frank, who immediately ran to the bank of the creek and plunged into the water waist deep and rescued them. Harry was almost suffocated, but finally all recovered. It was a very narrow escape, and only the prompt action of Mrs. Frank averted a sad and near Scotia. They were standing together distressing accident.

CONSTANS BREW .- Constans Brew, died at his home in Toledo, Ohio, on Friday morning, after a long illness of Bright's disease. Interment was made in that city on Monday. Deceased was a son of the late Austin Brew, of this place, by his first marriage, lightning last week and totally destroyed and was born at Perdue's in 1852. His early life was spent about the family home here, where he acquired his preliminary education in the public schools and the Academy, later going to Dickinson Seminary, from which institution he was graduated. He was clerk to the prothonotary of Centre county for several years and later located in Toledo, where he entered the service of the Empire Transportion Co. and remained with that corporation until Chicago, who is visiting his parents in Lock his death. He was regarded as one of the most trusted employees of his company. mobile but bad weather made it impossi- As a young man he was well known here ble to get back, so he left the machine here and held in high esteem for his probity and genial disposition.

Surviving him are his widow, who was Mary Willis, a daughter of Dr. Willis, of Williamsport, and their daughter, Mrs. William Chaplain, of Toledo. He is also George T., of Oakland, Md.; Harry, of when the accident occurred bad recovered Pittsburg; and Mrs. Harry Fenlon, of Bellefonte. Also two half-brothers. Wm. P., of New York, and Thomas H., of Hazleton.

> MRS. FRANK WALZ .- After a long and patient illness Mrs. Frank Walz passed peacefully away at the home of her mother, on Logan street, early Wednesday morning. She had undergone several operations in Philadelphia hospitals and had had every attention that medical skill and nurs-

Mrs. Walz was Mary Cecilia, a daughter ness and disorderly conduct. She had cast of the late Peter and Mary McMahon and off her clothing and a bunch of vile epi- was born in this place about thirty-five thets in the presence of some Logan street years ago. In the spring of 1899 she was people and burgess Walker fined her $9.50, married to Frank Walz, who survives her or five days in jail. Jane's friends didn't with her mother and sisters Margaret and raise the fine for her so she lingered in the Katharine and brothers Joseph, George and

She was a gentle, unassuming woman, helpful and cheery in the home while ber health lasted and patient unto the end. Mass for the repose of her soul will be celebrated in St John's Catholic church tomorrow morning and Rev. Father McArdle will officiate at the interment.

A VERY SAD DEATH .- Mrs. Lou Reid Rose, wife of J. R. Rose, who is well known here, died very unexpectedly at her home in Columbus, O., ou last Thursday morning. She was a native of Connellsville and a very pleasant and accomplished young woman. After her marriage to Mr. Rose in 1897 she visited here with him and was very much liked by his friends. Interment was made at Connellsville on Sunday afternoon and of the funeral The Courier, on Monday, says:

"One of the saddest events that Connellsville people have known for some time was the funeral of Mrs. Lulu Reid Rose, wife of J. Reuben Rose, which occurred on Braddock and services in the United Brethren containing the earthly remains of the roung mother and infant son rested side by side. The services were conducted by Rev. W. R. Warren assisted by Rev. Dr. W. A. Eddie, at the home of Mrs. Reid's mother, Mrs. Josephine Reid, East Peach

The pall-bearers were H. F. Rose, Swiss gown of white and carried pink carnations. vale, and Ralph Rose, Allegheny, brothers Gny E. Swartz, of this place, was the best of J. Rose; Charles Wheeler, of Allegheny and P. H. Pendleton brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Rose; Alexander Patterson, of Pittsburg, who was best man at Mr. Rose's wedding, and Ralph Overholt, of Pittsburg, a close friend of the Reid family."

-Mrs. Fanny Mitchell Hillibish, widow of James Hillibish died at the home of her brother, Joseph Mitchell, near Snow Shoe Intersection, on Wednesday evening after a long illness of cancer. She was fifty nine years of age and an earnest, faithful member of the Methodist church. Funeral services will be held at the home Edmund Blanchard, Ed. Richard, Maurice of her brother on Sunday and interment will be made at Unionville.

MRS. JOHN CARPER.-At the ripe old age of 84 years, 7 months and 16 days Mrs. John Carper passed away at her home at Linden Hall, on last Friday. She was a devoted member of the Reformed church and a veritable mother in Israel in the community in which she spent her long

Surviving her are her son John, who lives near this place, and her one daughter, Mary. Rev. A. A. Black, of Boalsburg, officiated at the interment on Monday

-Charles L. Bollinger, who died at the home of Mrs. H. M. Sausser, in Tyrone, Monday afternoon, was a native of Aaronsburg, this county. He was born in the latter place December 10th, 1850, and when a young man learned the trade of a tailor, later living at Rock Springs, Philipsburg, Tyrone, and Ashville, N. C. He was an unmarried man and a member of the Presbyterian church and the J. O. U. A. M. His mother, one sister and two brothers survive him.

-Mrs. William B. Maitland, formerly a resident of this place, died at her home in Williamsport recently, after an illness of long duration. Surviving her are her husband, two sons and four daughters.

-Mrs. Wilson, relict of John Wilson, died of apoplexy at her home in Eagleville, on Saturday. Deceased was 82 years old.

FIVE AT ONE STROKE .- During the storm Wednesday afternoon a stroke of ligtning killed five cows belonging to Corl Bloom, who lives on the Miles Gray farm clear away from any trees.

News Purely Personal.

-W. H. Walker returned from a business trip to Pittsburg on Tuesday morning.

-Miss Kate Shugert arrived home from school t Bryan Mawr on Saturday.

-Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parrish spent Sunday at the former's home in Ebensburg.

-Coburn Rogers is home from the University

Medical school for his summer vacation -Gilbert A. Beaver, of New York, arrived own during the fore part of the week -Robert Cole, the architect, spent the latter part of last week at Spangler and Hastings -Miss Sallie Hagerman, of Linn street, is visitng Miss Anna Williams, in Philipsburg.

-Miss Henrietta Butts returned from a visit of en days in Philadelphia on Monday evening. -Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Good, of Ashcola, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Ward over Sunday. -Mrs. A. J. Epp. of Reading, is visiting at the ome of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cox. on Water street. -Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hasel, with the their two children, spent Sunday with friends at Bel

-Col. Austin Curtin, of Roland, was in town o ousiness for the Boggs township school board on Tuesday.

-Clarence Harper, a son of J. C. Harper, has ecured a position with the Standard Steel Co. at -Miss Sue Weaver, of State College, tarried in town over Monday night on her way home from a visit to Ramey. -Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gettig, with their child returned from a visit with Pittsburg friends on Tuesday morning. -Will Crissman, a son of H. C. Crissman, of Pittsburg, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Harry Garbrick, at Coleville. -J. S. Gearhart, the Adams express representative in this place, spent Sunday at his parenta home in Clearfield. -Ammon Karstetter, who has a contract for large building at Wynburne, spent Sunday at his ome at Pleasant Gap. -Misses Mary McQuistion, of this place, and Margaret Miles, of Martha, spent Sunday with relatives at Centre Hall. -Mrs. John Dawson, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of Mrs. William Dawson, corner of Spring and Bishcp streets. -Miss Lola Strohm returned to her home as Centre Hill, on Saturday afternoon, after an extended visit with friends here. -Col. and Mrs. W. F. Reeder are entertaining

Mrs. John I. Rogers and her daughter Kathyrn. from Wyncote, a Philadelphia suburb. -Former sheriff John Spangler, of Centre Hall, pent Saturday at the home of his son Col. J. L. Spangler, on north Allegheny street. -Mrs. Isaac Lose came up from her new home in Lock Haven the latter part of last week to spend a few days with friends here. -Miss Elizabeth Faxon, our talented young locutionist, with her sister Belle, is in Philadelphia visiting their sister, Mrs. Ander -Our old friend Levi Daughenbaugh, of Clear field, who had been over in this section visiting friends for a few days, returned on Tuesday. -Mrs. George Beezer and her little son Herbert are away for a few weeks visit with friends in Lock Haven, Williamsport and Jersey -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frain touched at Old Point Comfort on Wednesday. They are on their wedding tour and are taking in resorts along the Atlantic coast -Mrs. Mary Peters, of Philadelphia, who had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. K. Hicklin, in this place, for a few days, departed on Satur day morning.

-Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Perks spent Sunday at er of Harry Hagg, has been visiting the latter here for a few days. They have not met before in twenty one years. -Mr. and Mrs. S. Hunter Knisely accompanied their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Andrew Knisely, to her home in Shamokin on Tuesday, and will visit here for several weeks.

-Mr. and Mrs. Lee Larimer, of Jersey Shore came up for the amateur minstrel show, on Fri day night, and remained over Sunday with Lee's parents, on Thomas street.

-George Bayard, who is managing a drug store at Arcadia, Indiana county, left for that olace on Monday afternoon; after a visit of ten days at his home here.

-John D. Meyer, principal of the Bellefonte High school, is attending commencement exercises of Franklin and Marshall, his alma mater. at Lancaster, this week.

-Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jones, with their tw children, came down from Tyrone, Saturday night, and staved until Sunday evening at the Armor home on east Linn street.

-Col. John A. Woodward, of Howard, was in town on Monday arranging for the farmers institute which will be held in this county next winter under the direction of the state department of -William T. Speer arrived home from St

Luke's hospital in Philadelphia, on Saturday evening, and is rapidly recovering from the peration he underment. His physician thinks he will be an entirely well man in a month or so -Joseph D Harris, whose enviable position with the B. & O. R. R. Co. was the result of appliation and hard work from the bottom up, has resigned to accept a place with the Westinghouse Co. in Pittsburg, it is said, at a salary of $6,000 a year. His brother Guy, who has been home visiting a few days, will go with him. -Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deitrick, of Madisonburg. ere in town on Tuesday doing some shopping and visiting the former's brother Frank, of eas Bishop street, Mr. Deitrick says some of the crops look very promising down their way, but that the corn on the limestone hills had to grow down because the ground was too hard for it to get up through.

-Mr. and Mrs. William J. Potter, of Philadel phia, are visiting at the home of the former's parents, John F. Potter's Esq. in Milesburg. Will will be remembered as the young man whose modelings in clay attracted so much attention here a few years ago. He has since gone through the Academy of Fine Arts and is now an instruc tor there. His wife is an artist, also

-Lalon F. Haves "Tacky" and "Bill" Harding, two old State graduates who were very popu lar in Bellefonte, dropped in on Tuesday evening on their way back to the College for a short visit. Haves is a nephew of Dr. T. R. Haves, of thi place, and has not been back since he was gradu ated in 1899. On Tuesday he sails from New York for Honduras in the interest of a mining concern with which he is connected.

-"Judge" Michael Hess, of Willowbank street, has just returned from what proved a very de lightful driving trip through Penns and Brush valleys. In company with Mr. William Hess, the veteran Philipsburg merchant, they drove into every quarter of the country where they had relatives and spent a week most enjoyably delving into family history and conversing with members of the freund-shaft they hadn't met for years. On Wednesday Mr. William Hess went to Pine Grove to visit some of the family there. He is traveling around for the benefit of his health

-Miss Jennie Fauble arrived home from Har isburg last evening.

-M. Fauble, George Beezer and James Toner

were in Philipsburg yesterday attending a horse

-Mr. and Mrs. John Irwin, of Altoona, spent Sunday at the home of the former's brother

Robert, on Spring street. -Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Hickok and Miss Adaline Harris attended the Hickok-Cochran wedding in Williamsport yesterday. -Miss Anne Blanchard left for Philadelphia on Wednesday afternoon. There she will join Mrs. Wister Morris for a trip abroad.

-Elliot Vandeventer has gone to Baltimore to spend the summer with his father doing engineering work for the B. & O.

-Mrs. Harris Mann, of Lewistown, is expected home on Monday for a four week's visit at the home of her father, Wm. T. Speer. -Mrs. F. P. Blair and her son Bert arrived ome from Philadelphia on Tuesday evening. He has been attending the U. of P. Med. -Grant Hoover attended the banquet of local ire insurance agents of Pennsylvania at the Park hotel in Williamsport on Wednesday evening. -William Garner, of State College, was in town

n Friday looking after a few business matters and sent his label on the WATCHMAN away up to -Mrs. W. T. Malin, with her daughters Miss Sara and Mrs. Frank Shugert, left on Wednesday to spend several weeks visiting relatives in Che -Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Canfield, of Wyncote, with their children Caroline and Albert, are visiting at the homes of Ellis L. Orvis and Harry Keller, in this place. -Mr. Seth Daggett and Mr. Urell, of Tioga, who had been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wells Daggett at the Bush house for several weeks, departed on Monday morning. -Mrs. S. E. Hile, with her niece from Pleasant Gap, drove into Bellefonte Thursday afternoon to try a fine new horse which her son George, the umber operator of DuBois, had just presented to

-Miss Nell Smith, of Westport, has been visiting her schoolmates Misses Helen Harper and Sara Fitzgerald, of this place, and Miss Madge Orris, of Milesburg. They were all friends at the Lock Haven Normal.

-Mrs. Hiram M. Hiller arrived home Saturday evening from Cape Cruz, Cuba where she has been spending the winter with her husband, Dr. Hiller, who is superintendent of the Harrison sugar plantation at that place.

-'Squire J. H. Miller, of Rock Springs, was in own yesterday attending to some business. Beween his driving and walking and car riding he had a great time getting here because he was on the Bellefonte Central train that ran off the tracks.

-Mrs. James Schofield attended the wedding of her cousin, Mr. Fred Jones, of Osceola, and Miss Christina Thompson, of Houtzdale, which took place in the Presbyterian church at the latter place on Wednesday. She returned home last evening. -Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Struble, of Zion, were in town yesterday doing some shopping and calling on their friends. They said that produce and grain down in the country looked pretty hopeless before the recent rains began falling but now there is a brighter prospect. -Mrs. John I. Rogers, of Wyncote, and her daughter, Katharine are visiting Col. and Mrs.

W. F. Reeder. Next week Mrs. Reeder will entertain Mrs. James B. Lane and Miss Mary Thomas, of Philadelphia, Mrs. William Dix, of Dayton, Ohio, and several other congenial spirits at a house party. -Miss Mary Hunter Linn expects to sail for Europe on the 19th. She will take a White Star liner and will be in company with the Misses Emmy and Jennie Valentine, of Baltimore, who are going to Holland to study under the artist,

Chase. Miss Linn will tour the British Isles, France, Germany, Switzerland and sail from Italy. -Miss Kate Gummo, who came home from a miss hate cummo, who came home from a good position in San Diego, Cal., three years ago to nurse her aged mother and who has been at her old home up Buffalo Run most of the time since, left yesterday morning for Youkers, N. Y. There she will spend the summer with friends while she is deciding whether she will return to California or Germany where she would make her home with a wealthy aunt who is anxious to have her.

-Ed. Musser caught a trout that neasured 21 inches and weighed 2 lbs. and 14 ozs. in Elk creek, near Frank's shingle mill, at Millheim, last Thursday evening. Philadelphia Markets. The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening. lour-Winter, Per Br'l " —Penna. Roller..... " —Favorite Brands.

Rellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up clock, Thursday evening, when our paper New wheat...... Rye, per bushel...... Corn, shelled, per bu uckwheat, per bus $7 20 to $8 Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co. otatoes per bushel The Democratic Watchman Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

8 50 to 9

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:

3m 6m 1y One inch (12 lines this type. Advertisements in special column 25 per cent.

ransient advs. per line, 3 insertions

Cash. ters should be addressed to P. GRAY MEEK, Propriete