

CO. TREASURER PHIL D. FOSTER.

deposited and named above were J. S. Biehlmer, A. J. Riehl, Wm. A. Catherman, Wm. Boozer, Bruce Runkle, Elmer Runkle, F. M. McCoy, Clyde Bradford, G. R. Meiss, J. Wm. Bradford, Daniel Bradford, Samuel Stump.

After sheriff Taylor had returned from his second trip to Potter's Mills he made the discovery that the revolver he carried is faulty and misses five or six times in succession.

On the way from Centre Hall with the officers the prisoners talked little. They did say, however, that they had no idea that they were being pursued by determined men. They thought a lot of simple folk who could be scared off any time with a revolver shot were on their trail.

The sheriff of Midline county, with his posse, arrived at the scene about 15 minutes after the men had been captured. Of course he was outside his jurisdiction, but had been telephoned for in event the men had gotten farther over the mountains.

While in the hotel at Potter's Mills the wounded man is credited with having said many things, but his guards while there, Michael Smith and Thomas Palmer, brand all of them as fabrications. On Saturday night he asked Palmer if the other men had been captured. Palmer said "yes." "Were any of them wounded?" asked the burglar again. "No," said Palmer. "Didn't they put up a fight?" Inquired the other, and when told that they didn't he just smiled but said nothing.

The WATCHMAN is reasonably convinced that the wounded man is James Lewis, who was sent to the western penitentiary from Williamsport in the fall of 1897 for having helped William Moore rob the post-office at Barnesboro. They were arrested at Lewistown. Moore declared Lewis was not implicated but he was sent up for four years and ten months, consequently was only recently discharged. Note this prediction of the WATCHMAN and see whether the man who now says he is Showalter or Gewalt wasn't giving his name as James Lewis the last time he was in court.

If the wounded man is James Lewis and there is little doubt that William Moore, his pal, was very probably traveling with this gang. Moore was pardoned out of the Pen by President McKinley. Stories are in circulation that a fifth man carrying a satchel was seen with this party also that a fellow was driving ahead of them. If these be so Moore was likely the man.

It is very evident that Showalter-Gewalt or Lewis is the brains of the quartet, although Palmer has been acting captain of the ones in jail. He has been seen in this section before in the role of an umbrella mender.

While district attorney Spangler has a clear case against the men it is likely he will turn them over to the federal authorities for trial. This will not only save the county the expense of the trial but the expense of maintaining them in the penitentiary. Post office inspector Jas. F. Wardle, of Altoona, was here looking into the case on Tuesday. If they are turned over to the federal authorities they will be tried before the U. S. court in Scranton during the first week of October.

The revolver which the man who was shot had in his hands was faulty. The hammer would fall several times before the plunger would strike the cartridge.

Sheriff Taylor will receive the reward offered by the post-office department for such captures. It will amount to $400 or $500 probably.

Mr. Motz from Woodward was in town on Monday, but failed to positively identify any of the goods as stolen from him, though he said he had articles like some of them in the store. Yesterday D. R. Persey, hotel keeper, and A. L. Reedy, a clothing man from Laurelton were here. They identified old coins, a 32 cal. revolver, an undershirt and top shirt as having been taken from them.

Agents are working Tyrone for Bullocks porch and lawn swings and yesterday orders for forty-four of the swings and chairs were received at the factory.

The property of the Nittany Rod and Gun club is advertised to be sold on Monday, July 6th. The failure to propagate quail on the preserve proved the cause of the abandonment of the club.

William Adams, a colored driver for Tom Beaver, was badly hurt by being run over by a loaded ore wagon at Gatesburg bank on Tuesday. His team ran into a stump and he was thrown off the wagon, the wheels passing over his body.

Spring Mills.

Mrs. Donachy and son Benjamin, of Lewistown, are here on a visit to Mrs. Donachy's parents, Mr. H. B. Herring.

Notwithstanding Penns creek is fished to death, after every shower or rain storm, concave shores are lined with fishermen who will sit for hours waiting patiently for the gentle nibble.

Merchant O. T. Corman remarked to a farmer a day or two since in my hearing, that he was short over a thousand pounds in his present orders for wool, and would pay cash or trade for any amount offered. Mr. Corman's addition to his general store is doing a large produce business.

TIRED OF BEING A WIDOW.—Somewhere within the confines of Bellefonte lives a twenty-five year old female who says she has brown curly hair, weighs 132 lbs, is heir to $40,000 and is tired of her widow's weeds.

The WATCHMAN made this rather interesting discovery through the following notice of a police raid of a matrimonial agency in Chicago, that appeared in the Evening Journal in that city on June 26th.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., widow, 25 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, weighs 132 pounds, brown curly hair, gray eyes, fair complexion. American Lutheran, sunny nature; I keep house and do fancy work; an dressmaker and musician; will inherit $40,000; answer to all who send stamps.

The above circular in the possession of the Star Matrimonial Agency, 5514 Iowa street, Austin, was among the evidences seized last night by detectives Woodriddle and Herts, who, with six members of chief O'Neill's gambling detail, raided the office of that concern and arrested the proprietor, W. A. Henry. The raid was unexpected and caused a panic among the women clerks, two of whom escaped through an open window.

The three young women whom the police found in the agency at the time of the raid were not molested. Just who this lovely young widow could be we have been unable to discover, but why she should have to try a matrimonial agency to secure another man to take care of her 132 lbs, her curly brown locks and that $40,000 night-mare when such eligibles as Al Dale and editor Chas. Kurtz are to be found right in her own church makes the mystery all the thicker.

Stock Now Selling

—AT 50 CENTS A SHARE—

Is a gilt-edged investment, and why it is recognized as such by all who will not put their investments into any enterprise unless they see great and speedy profit ahead.

Owing to the vast popular demand, the stock of the International Broom Company will be advanced to in July. A further rise to Seventy-five Cents a share will occur about September 1st.

The high place The New Broom gained in public favor is due to the Company's ability to produce solid proof of every statement.

WE ASSERT:

That the demand for The New Broom is as wide as the civilized world.

That it is the only sanitary broom made.

That the Brooklyn factory made in April, 1903, twice as many brooms as in March and four times as many as in February, and earned a profit of more than 25 per cent. over its operating expenses on its production.

That there is a sub-company in Ottawa and applications under consideration for the establishing of twenty more.

That dealers, wholesale and retail, think so well of The New Broom that they are becoming stockholders in the Company.

If we could not prove all this, and more, we should not expect any careful and conservative investor to buy this stock. It does not remain long at 50 cents a share. No manipulation of ours will put it up. The inexorable law of trade will do that, to the great profit of investors who are wise enough to come in now.

Parties who are thoroughly familiar with the plans and projects of the Company and the possibilities of The New Broom unhesitatingly declare that this stock should very soon pay a dividend on the par value and rapidly advance until it sells for $2.00 or $3.00 per share.

Intending investors can visit the factory and obtain particulars and proof of every claim on application to our local fiscal agents, where will be found a full line of the various grades of Brooms manufactured by this Company.
