THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

No Paper Next Week.

In accordance with our usual custom to take a week off in the middle of each year there will be no paper issued from this office next week. The business and job departments will be open, however, and all orders will receive prompt attention.

—Charley Rote, of this place, is instructing the Forest city band of Scotia.

—Mrs. Minnie White was discharged from the Bellefonte hospital on Monday morning.

—Mrs. Heaton, of Peru, killed a large blacksnake in the kitchen of her home a few days ago.

—The foundation walls have been begun for Reynolds Shope's new residence on south Thomas street.

—The big firemen's festival at Milesburg is due on July 25th. Remember the date, for there will be great doings down there.

—The farmers' institute committee for Clinton county will meet at the home of A. F. Sweely, in Mackeyville, on Saturday, July 11th.

—Rev. Dr. H. C. Holloway will preach a sermon on Sunday evening in the Lutheran church on "the hand of God in American history."

—The sale of the Penns Cave property, which was started Wednesday, was postponed until July 29th. Only $3,800 was bid at the opening.

—Miss Margaret Emigh, of Stormstown, was brought to this place on Monday morning, suffering with appendicitis. Dr. J. A. Thompson brought her down to the hospital.

—Herman Holz, of the firm of Joseph Bros. & Co., lifted the first letter from the post-office after it was open for business in its new location in Temple court, on Wednesday morning.

—The balloon man made a beautiful ascension from the glass works meadow on Wednesday evening. He came down on top of a tree in Mr. Frank McCoy's yard on Linn street.

—Earl C. Tuten has resigned as a substitute carrier in the Bellefonte post-office and John F. Garthoff, of east Bishop street, who passed the civil service examination about a year ago, has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

—The Hecla park dances opened on Friday night with a crowd of a hundred or more. The afternoon and evening were ideal to be out of doors. The Bellefonte orchestra made its debut as a park attraction and proved quite satisfactory.

—The Gentry Bros. show tent was wrecked by a storm in Williamsport on Tuesday. It blew down during the afternoon performance causing a panic among the spectators, many of whom were women and children. The show was in Bellefonte on Saturday.

—A valuable horse owned by farmer Tom Beaver died on Saturday morning. That evening he sold a fine team of greys to the Gentry circus and the trouble the showmen had in persuading one of the critters to go into their car was enough to make a regiment of men swear for a month.

—Miss Helen Schaeffer sang in the Methodist church on Sunday morning to a decidedly appreciative audience. It was her debut as a choir soloist. She has been attending the North Broad St. Conservatory of music in Philadelphia and her voice shows the cultivation it has received.

—Sunday was an eventful one among the children in Bellefonte. The Presbyterian, Reformed, Lutheran, United Brethren and A. M. E. churches all had their children's day services at the usual morning or evening hour. The fine weather was all that could have been desired for the little folks. The programs in all the churches were fine.

—The plans for the proposed Y. M. C. A. building and gymnasium are here and have been attracting quite a great deal of attention from those interested. The new property is laid out to be a very useful ornament to the town and if it is once gotten into successful working order its field of usefulness will have no limitations.

—The marriage of Miss Tessie Woodring and Mr. William G. Weston, which was celebrated in the Presbyterian church at Port Matilda on the 24th ult. was an event of unusual importance in the social realm of that place. Over one hundred guests were present and immediately after the ceremony a reception was tendered the bride and groom at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woodring, the bride's parents. They will make their home in Pittsburg.

—The new combination passenger and baggage coach which is being built in the Bellefonte Central shops at Coleville will be ready for the road soon. It will be the finest coach in service between Bellefonte and State College and Supt. Thomas has been sparing no time or expense to make it a credit to any car shops. The coach will have three compartments, baggage, smoking and passenger; the latter having chairs and a couch. It will be upholstered in old gold plush, with self adjusting windows and shades. The color of the outside will be the same as that of the Pullman cars.

THE CARNIVAL.—The long expected, much advertised and variously discussed street fair or carnival is here. It came in from Sunbury in four baggage and two passenger coaches, on Sunday evening, and got set up for business by Tuesday, though that day the rain interfered with the success of the carnival and the people did not seem to catch the spirit of the occasion until Wednesday evening, when there was an abandonment of stilted manners and young and old joined in merry revelry about the various little shows. While the bands and the barkers keep up a continual babel of discordant sounds the spectators make merry with confetti and all manner of trick toys.

It is really a very enjoyable scene that greets the eye on the Diamond, where most of the shows are assembled, after night fall, and up to this time, though there has been the greatest license and liberty given, we have failed to note a single act of impropriety or suggestion of the unseemly.

While the carnival is not as extensive as had been anticipated it has some very clever features and if it grows no worse with its continuance we will have only a great lot of jollity as a memento of the visit here of the Hatch-Adams combination.

As for the business that has been done; it has not been very large, though it is expected that tomorrow will be a record breaker. There have not been many country people in town for the reason that they are all detained at home by work that the long wet weather has piled up on them late in the season.

The attractions that are offered are a balloon ascension with parachute drop, a high dive; Lunette, the flying girl, moving pictures, plantation scenes and songs, magic, snake eating, dancing girls and a merry-go-round; not one of which can honestly be branded as a fake.

THE ACADEMY RECEPTION.—A large and very delightful reception was that given at the Bellefonte Academy, Tuesday evening, June 30th, by Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hughes, and Miss Overton.

The annual academy reception at commencement time has become one of the brilliant functions of the year, but it is pre-eminently for the students and their friends and is naturally participated in largely by the young people and those most closely interested in them. On Tuesday evening it was alumni of years standing and friends, perhaps not so young in years as the June graduate, but even younger in enthusiasm and zest to enjoy. Education knows no distinctions of age or beauty and is the surest basis for congeniality and real enjoyment. Added to this there was everything in the environment to insure pleasure—music by Smiths orchestra, grounds beautiful with Japanese lanterns, flowers galore, in the ladies hair, in their hands, in vases, on tables; even the moon; so shy the last month, smiled on the occasion.

In the receiving line were Mr. James P. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hughes, Miss Overton, Mrs. Charles Hughes, of Baltimore, Md., her sister, Miss Graham, Miss Ottal Hughes. About three hundred guests were present. Dr. and Mrs. Dimm, of Millinburg, being among those from out of town. Mrs. Dimm, nee Miss Snodgrass is well known here as a visitor at the home of Mr. F. Potts Green.

It seems very fitting that this charming reception should close the most successful year in the history of the Academy, for the hosts and hostesses who made Tuesday evening's success are the same personalities that have made the Academy one of the best college preparatory schools in the State.

INTO A MAN TRAP.—For several years the coal holes in front of the Arcade have been a source of danger to pedestrians along the south side of High street. The council has repeatedly notified the owner to repair them, but the notices have either been treated with utter disdain or acted upon with some temporary makeshift.

On Sunday afternoon the traps worked with such effect as to badly injure one man and frighten another one almost sick—if nothing worse. "The Great Bunkerer" the female impersonator who had just arrived in town, was walking along the street, all unconscious of the tilting grate, when he stepped on it and went down to his thigh. He was so badly injured that he lapsed into unconsciousness and was taken in charge by Dr. Hayes. When examined later at the Hagg hotel it was found that both his ankles were badly sprained and his wrist hurt. The showman will be laid up about three weeks as a result of his injury.

A little earlier in the afternoon J. S. McCargar went through the same grate. While his injuries were not as serious as those of "The Great Bunkerer" he was very sick for a few moments as a result of the severe shock he received.

A FIRE AVERTED BY A GIRL'S PRESENCE OF MIND.—A little courage and presence of mind probably averted a destructive fire on east High street, on Monday evening about 5 o'clock.

Mabel Garbrick, a domestic in the family of district attorney N. B. Spangler, had lighted an oil stove preparatory to getting supper and then stepped out to the front of the house for a few moments. When she returned she found that the stove had exploded and that the kitchen was ablaze. Instead of falling over in a faint or wringing her hands and shrieking the girl went to work with the promptness of a fireman and soon had the flames under control. Though she burned herself quite a little in the effort. The damage to the kitchen was considerable.

—Farmers are busy cutting grass and cultivating corn.

—The work of paving east Tenth street in Tyrone has been begun.

—The property of the Nittany Rod and Gun club at Hecla park is to be sold next Monday and will probably be bought by a party of Bellefonters who will attempt to reorganize the club on a different scale.

—The voodoo doctor seems to have been quite a successful means of getting away with undesirable husbands in Philadelphia, up to last week, when the law decided that possibly it would be better to get away with the voodoo doctor.

—The wedding of Miss Margaret Jane Wallace, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Wm. E. Wallace, of Clearfield, and Mr. J. Fred Weaver, which was celebrated in that place on Wednesday afternoon, was one of the most notable social events that has occurred in Clearfield for years.

—The thirty first annual camp meeting at Newton Hamilton will open on August 13th and close August 24th. Daily religious services will begin at 8 a. m. and close with preaching in the evening at 8. The music during the meeting will be in charge of Rev. J. H. Ake, of Mapleton.

—A Tyrone youngster who had been playing "follow the leader" with his companions and climbing over roofs and jumping from high elevations in the hazardous game, got to dreaming about it last Friday night and made a jump out of his bed room window to the street, fifteen feet below. His left arm was broken.

—Miss Mary E. Gray, a daughter of the late Summerfield Gray, of Phillipsburg, and Mr. James Hawkins, of Phillipsburg, were married at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Annie Russell, at McDonald, last week. The bride and groom are now in Phillipsburg, where they expect to make their future home.

—The strike situation about Phillipsburg has developed to the stage of frenzy where the wives and children of the striking brick makers have taken a part. On Saturday a Mrs. Holt, of South Phillipsburg, whose husband did not strike, was carrying him by his dinner. She was escorted along the way by a howling, jeering mob of women and children who pounded pans and hooted at her. The performance frightened the woman so badly that she took her family and left the vicinity the very same afternoon.

—The charity ball, given in the armory last Thursday evening under the patronage of Mrs. M. D. Burnett, Miss Mary Blanchard and the Ladies Auxiliary was a success in every way. Though simple in decorations the armory looked more beautiful than it has ever appeared before, the music was superb and the dancing was continued until 2:30. Quite to the surprise of everyone the net receipts were $114.00. It seemed impossible that so much could be cleared at the low price of 50 cents charged for tickets.

—The plans for the new Y. M. C. A. in Bellefonte are on exhibition and are proving quite a revelation to those who had no idea of what the board of directors had in view when they made the phenomenal canvass of a few months ago for $12,000. Only a few more thousand need be raised before the entire property can be built according to the specifications, but at present the work of improvement will be confined to the building of the gymnasium and such changes in the old building only as are absolutely necessary. The Association property is being moved to the new home, the Irvin house, on High street.

—Mr. "Brack" Powell got into the toils again on Sunday. In company with several other black fellows he was playing cards down at "the turn" along the mountain. They say that things were not coming "Brack's" way as fast as he thought they should so he fished twenty dollars out of "Brownie's" clothes. "Brownie" is another bad descendant of Ham, who was supposed to be sleeping while the game was in progress, but it appears that he had one lamp turned on "Brack." "Brack's" patron Saint, Mr. Kelley, refused to give him any aid so he went to jail until Monday when a hearing was given him. "Brownie" told so many different stories that "Brack" was discharged. Inasmuch as "Brack" expects to be married on July 4th the liberation was most timely.

SECURED A NICE POSITION.—The friends of Miss Elizabeth Morrison will be pleased to learn that she has been re-employed by the Underwriters Association of the middle district of Pennsylvania and given a position of much more pecuniary value than the one she formerly held in this place.

It will be remembered that the office she had charge of here several months ago was closed, leaving her out of a position, but the Association has asked her to accept a place in its Williamsport office and she left for her new work on Wednesday.

It is certain that faithfulness to duty will actuate her every motive in the new position to which she has been called.

MOVED TO THE JAIL.—On Tuesday Jas. Lewis, the wounded burglar who has been in the Bellefonte hospital since he was shot by treasurer Foster during the capture in the Seven mountains on the 20th ult., was moved to the jail.

He had recovered so far as to make his removal a matter of small hazard and was taken from the hospital to the jail in a cab. He has been none the worse of the change and it is thought will soon be permanently well.

W. FRED R. JACKSON.—W. Fred R. Jackson died in the hospital at Warren on Wednesday. He had been failing in health for more than a year and little hope of his recovery was entertained after it was discovered that tuberculosis had developed.

Fred was the second son of the late George W. Jackson, of this place. He was born here in September, 1871, making his age nearly 32 years. His early life was spent about the home and when quite young he entered the bank with his father; continuing in the institution that still bears their family name until his shattered health enforced his retirement. After the death of his father and the closing of their home on Linn street Fred went to the Bush house to live, and it was while there that his health became such that it was necessary to send him to the hospital, where he could receive more careful attention.

Quiet and almost a recluse in his life he was devoted to books and nature. He was a young man of sterling qualities, honest in every trait, straightforward and methodical in the extreme. Fred Jackson had many friends, because behind his seeming indifference to friendship there was a genuinely frank, sincere soul that really craved the companionship of his fellows. To those who knew him well the announcement of his death will have a peculiarly saddening effect, even though his passing was from a life that held little of brightness or hope for him.

Surviving him are his mother, his sister Mrs. George T. Brew, and his brothers Harry and Maurice.

The body will be brought here to-day and probably be laid away in the family lot in the Union cemetery this afternoon.

MRS. MARY CAMPBELL.—On Friday morning Mrs. Mary Campbell expired at her home in Milesburg, after an illness of long duration.

Deceased was born at Hartleton, Union county, 79 years ago and was the widow of the late William Campbell. When but a child of twelve she became a member of the Methodist church and for sixty-seven years she lived steadfast in the faith, approaching her grave with that calm resignation that already sees the brighter life beyond.

Surviving are her children, William H. Campbell and George W. Campbell, of Williamsport; Mrs. L. D. Throp, of Yarnell; Mrs. J. W. Zimmerman, of New York city, and Mrs. Linn Adams, of Milesburg.

Rev. R. H. Wharton officiated at the funeral on Monday afternoon and interment was made in the Union cemetery in this place.

MRS. CAROLINE LONG.—Mrs. Caroline Long, relict of Jacob Long, of Howard, died at her home in that place, last Friday morning, from the effects of diseases incident to old age. She was 70 years old.

Mrs. Long was a highly respected resident of that community, when in her active days she was foremost in church and charitable work. Her funeral on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock was largely attended. Rev. Artman, of Howard, and Rev. Brown, of the Bellefonte Evangelical church, officiated and interment was made in the Howard cemetery.

MRS. NANCY THOMPSON.—Mrs. Nancy Thompson, aged 89 years and 4 days, died at the home of her brother, Christian Holter, north of Howard on Tuesday evening of last week. She was the oldest member of that family and is survived by her brother Christian and one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Mahaffy, who is nearly 86 years old.

Interment was made in the Schenck cemetery last Thursday.

The great Centre county fair is coming on. Greater than ever and well worth your taking a part in.

ALVIN SHUEY.—Alvin Shuey, a highly respected resident of Lemont, died at his home in that place on Tuesday; after an illness of twelve weeks with cancer of the stomach.

Deceased was about 50 years old. His first wife, Alice Conde, preceded him to the grave many years ago; leaving him with one son, Willis. His second marriage was to Miss Julia Grove, who survives him.

Mr. Shuey was a member of the Lutheran church and of lodge No. 717, I. O. O. F. Funeral services were held at Shiloh; the Odd Fellows having had charge.

—Thos. Diskin died at his home in Pittsburg on Sunday, June 21st, in the 58th year and was buried from the home of his nephew on the following Tuesday. There was a Thomas Diskin, a resident of Bellefonte, a few years ago, who moved to Pittsburg; but it cannot be ascertained whether this is the same gentleman or not.

—Mrs. Snyder, aged 87, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Boyer on east High street, at noon Wednesday. She had been ill seven weeks. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Laurie, of the Presbyterian church, will officiate.

—F. H. Clemson, with his sons Frederick and Daniel, went down to Atlantic City on Saturday for a stay of ten days or two weeks.

—Mrs. Jack Furst, with her little daughter, are here from Mt. Carmel, for a visit with their parents, the Hon. and Mrs. A. O. Furst.

—John Curry, an engineer on the Nickel Plate system, is here from Buffalo for a visit with his parents and sisters on Logan street.

—Mrs. J. T. Keithley, of Scottsdale, who will be remembered as Miss Ada Dolan, of this place, is visiting friends at her old home here.

—Miss Mary Sides, of Jersey Shore, came up for the charity ball last week and tarried for the carnival. She is a guest at the Bush home.

—Mrs. Templeton Cruse and her little son Andrew are here from Pittsburg visiting at the home of Mrs. Josephine Cruse on east Linn St.

—Emanuel Holler, of New York, has joined the house party at the home of Emil Joseph on High street. He arrived Tuesday morning.

—Misses Sara Wieland, of Linden Hall, and Miss Lenore Helms, of Oseola, were guests of Miss Jennie Irwin, at her home on Spring street, on Saturday.

—Mrs. Stewart Pearce, of Conneaut, Ohio, with her daughters Ruth and Elizabeth, are here for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. L. A. Schaeffer and Mrs. S. D. Ray.

—Mrs. J. L. Seibert, of north Allegheny street, is entertaining her aunt, Mrs. S. Kuhn, of Bloomsburg, and her sister, Mrs. B. D. Boalich, of Mt. Carmel.

—Mrs. J. H. Huston, of Clintonale, and Miss Jane Hammond, of Milton, are spending the carnival week at the Coburn home on north Allegheny street.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Irwin with their family and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Irwin drove up to Unionville on Sunday to spend the day, with their brother, Dr. Irwin.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Treys and Mr. and Mrs. John Treys, who had been guests of Gottlieb and Mrs. Haag for a week, left for their home at Cook's Falls, N. Y., on Tuesday.

—Chas. Wilson, of Julian, was in town on Saturday looking after some business matters and while here did not fail to have himself fixed up as one of the WATCHMAN's star subscribers.

—Miss Charlotte Crittenden, who has been teaching at the Ridge boys school at Washington, Conn., came home, Tuesday evening, to spend the summer with her father, Rev. R. Crittenden.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jennings arrived from Mannington, West Va., on Wednesday evening and will spend the summer here. Tom is in the glass factory at that place, which just went out of blast last Friday.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Valentine and their daughter, Miss Sara, who had been guests at "Burnham" for a week or more departed yesterday morning for one of the Maine resorts, where they expect to spend the summer.

—Rev. W. F. Carson, of the Milesburg Presbyterian circuit, is away on his vacation and will be gone until September. Rev. J. T. Scott, formerly on the Unionville and Buffalo Run charges, will preach his July engagements for him.

—We Weber and Jake DeHaas, of Howard, were in town on Wednesday looking for a live. We were returned at the old gentleman and they explained that it was the high diva, which Kid McComb is making here this week, that they were looking for.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller, with their children, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Quigley, with theirs, went to State College yesterday; expecting to spend a month or more at that place. They will live at the State College hotel. Both of the gentlemen are lawyers in this place and will keep their offices open during the day, going to the College on an evening train.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rote and their little daughter are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rote, near Ax Manan. For several years Harry has been in South Carolina, where he has been engaged in the watch-making and jewelry business, but he has sold out there and expects to join his uncle in Freeport, Ill.

—Squire W. Galer Morrison, of Curtin Works, was in town on Saturday and of course the circus had nothing to do with it. We didn't hear the "Squire" go as far as Col. John Daley and D. L. Meek did, for both of them had joy written over every feature of their physiognomies yet they stood and swore that they didn't even know there was a circus in town until they came in.

—Mr. M. F. Hazel, who lives on the Brockhoff farm near town, called at the WATCHMAN office, on Friday, and contributed much toward tiding us over the Fourth. He and Mrs. Hazel had just returned from Birmingham, where they attended the wedding of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Gates of that place. It was a great event in the Warriors-neck valley and attracted many guests to the Gates home.

—Jerry Ryan with his son Edward, once residents of Centre county, but now living at Buffalo, N. Y., are visiting friends about their old home out at Romola. They were in town on Saturday with Col. John Daley looking up acquaintances of the days when Jerry was one of the Democratic war-horses of Curtin Twp. He is looking very well and while still having a fondness for "old Centre," is very well satisfied with his present home.

—Quite a party of Phillipsburgers were in town during the fore part of carnival week and enjoying very pleasant little excursions into the country from here. Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Andrews and their little daughter Ruth, and Mrs. C. U. Hoffer and her daughter Louise were at the Gerberich home on Thomas street, Mrs. Susan Todd and her daughter Miss Ethel, were at the Bush house. Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Lukenbach, of Tyrone, with their children were also and joined their old friends for a party to State College on Wednesday. They all left for their homes last evening.

—Sol Schmidt, of Phillipsburg, is in town attending to some business matters and enjoying the carnival.

—Burdine Butler, of Howard, was in town yesterday, but it wasn't the carnival that brought him up. It was business, with a little politics on the side.

GEARHART-FOX.—Mr. Howard F. Gearhart and Miss Mary Teresa Fox were married at the parish house of St. John's Catholic church, by the Rev. P. McArdle, last evening at 6 o'clock; only a few of their nearest relatives being present. Russell Blair was the groom's best man and Miss Anne M. Fox acted as maid for her sister.

Immediately after the wedding a large reception was given the bride and groom at the home of the bride's mother, on east Bishop street, where more than one hundred guests assembled to congratulate the young couple, both of whom are very popular in Bellefonte.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Gearhart departed on an evening train for a trip to Philadelphia, Atlantic City and New York.

The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. Mary Fox and is an accomplished vivacious young woman. Her husband is a native of Clearfield, but for several years has had charge of the Adams express office in this place and since coming to Bellefonte to live has made many friends who will wish him much joy in his married life. For her wedding Mrs. Gearhart wore white silk and chiffon over white silk. Her maid wore white silk trimmed with real lace and a large white hat.

BOGGS TWP. SCHOOL TEACHERS.—The Boggs Twp. school board, at its meeting on Saturday, June 27th, elected the following teachers for the ensuing year: Central City grammar, Alice S. Neff, Roland; Central primary, Nannie Delany, Milesburg; Curtin (Forge), Wilbur F. Leathers, Mount Eagle; Shopes, Lulu Cronister, Martha; Hols Hollow, Lillian Taylor, Bellefonte; Pleasant Valley, Anna L. Daley, Romola; Moose Run, Merrill Butler, Marsh Creek; Fairview, Maude Zimmerman, Pine Glenn; Walker at (Yarnell), J. F. Garthoff, Bellefonte.

Miss Alma Stein, of Zion, was elected to one of the Wallace Run schools. Which one she will select will be known at a later period. A teacher for the other one will be elected at the next meeting of the board.

Owing to the small number of scholars who attend the McCoy and Linn school and the Curtin (Rolling Mill) school, both will be discontinued the coming year, and the children who belong to the McCoy and Linn school will attend the Central City schools, and the children who belong to the Curtin (Rolling Mill) school will attend the Curtin (Forge) school and the Central City schools. School term begins Monday Sept. 14th, 1903.

THE HORSES WILL GO.—The Bellefonte Driving Association has arranged for an afternoon of horse racing at the fair grounds on July 4th. A number of horses have already been entered for the events and some fast go's may be expected, as the track is reported as being in prime condition.

Five or six Look Haven horses will be here and Jas. Chambers will start some of the string he has in training down at the park, so that there will be enough in each event to make a spirited race.

Every diver will be after the money and that is what makes good horse racing.

July 11th—At the residence of Mrs. Hanna Grove, in Hols Hollow, Boggs Twp., Thomas Latner will sell horse, hoes, wagon, harness, stove and 1/2 interest in grain in the grounds. Sale at 1 o'clock p. m.
