THE PENNSYLVANIA

STATE COLLEGE

OFFERS EXCEPTIONAL ADVANTAGES.

TUITION IS FREE IN ALL COURSES.

faking Effect in Sept. 1900, the General Courses have been extensively modified, so as to furnish a much more varied range of electives, after the Freshman year, than heretofore, including History; the English, French, German, Spanish, Latin and Greek Languages and Literatures; Psychology; Ethics, Pedagogies, and Political Science. These courses are especially adapted to the wants of those who seek either the most thorough training for the Profession of Teaching, or a general College Education.

The courses in Chemistry, Civil, Electrical, Mechanical and Mining Engineering are among the very best in the United States. Graduates have no difficulty in securing and holding positions.

YOUNG WOMEN are admitted to all courses on the same terms as Young Men.

THE WINTER SESSION onens January 7th 1903. For specimen examination papers or for catalogue giving full information repsecting courses study, expenses, etc., and showing positions held by graduates, address Chosen as Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army at San Francisco. Meet Next Year in Boston. The Reports of the Officers.

The thirty-seventh annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic opened last Thursday morning at the Grand opera house in San Francisco. Commander-inchief Thomas J. Stewart read his annual report which was received with applause. The report of Senior Vice Commanderin-chief William M. Olin was then presented. His principal official duty during the year had been to represent the National encampment at the dedication of the statue of Major General Joseph Hooker on the state grounds in Boston.

these officers were elected: Commander-in-chief, General John C. Black, of Illinois; senior vice commander, Colonel C. Mason Keene, of California, junior vice commander, Colonel Harry Kessler, of Montana; surgeou-in-chief, George A. Harmon, of Ohio; chaplain-in-chief, Winfield Scott, Arizona.

The only contest of officers was over taken of the policy for which two bellets were taken.

chaplain, for which two ballots were taken. On the first ballot, Bross, of Nebraska, received 288 votes; Scott, of Arizona, 306, and Bradford, of Washington, 35. Bradford withdrew and Scott was elected on the second ballot.

Boston and Denver were the only places named for the next place of meeting. Be-fore the ballot had proceeded far, it became apparent that Denver had no chance and it was withdrawn. Boston was selected by acclamation.

Altoona Shopmen Suspended.

The Pennsylvania railroad company's a violent manner and ordered the party to leave, being very profuse in the use of pro-fanity. Magistrate Patton, of Lewistown, fined Miller $21 and costs for cursing. Subsequently Miller was again arraigned before magistrate Zerbe for the use of pro-fanity while attending the bearing in usual summer retrenchment policy struck Altoona Monday, when orders were issued and notices posted in the upper and lower car shops reducing the working hours. A number of men, about 200, were also suspended. The orders issued reduce the working time to forty-five hours a week, which means that the men will work five days of nine hours each a week, with Satanswer at court to the charge of assault urday off.
