

D. G. Meek and wife are back at their old home enjoying the fresh air and the abundance of good things which the farm affords. Their new home at State College is just under roof but they hope to be in possession of it by Thanksgiving.

Samuel Weber, the Boalsburg Wagonmaker, enjoyed a drive recently via State College to this place. He was agreeably surprised by the excellent roads in Ferguson township, our street lights, and frankly admitted that Pine Grove was ahead of Boalsburg in big porkers.

John B. Campbell and wife enjoyed a drive from Tyrone to our beautiful town last Sunday. It is ten years since he started out to make his fortune and many improvements have been made here in that time all of which he keenly noted. It was his wife's first visit down through the valley.

Smallton.

O. M. Wolf is slowly convalescing. William Wolfe was the guest of Otis Wolfe on Friday.

Mrs. George Miller and children have gone to her home.

A new buggy is in the possession of Geo. H. Smull.

Lynn Emerick is suffering from a boil on his hand.

Luther Miller and family are spending a week at Renovo.

Mrs. G. H. Smull spent a day of the past week at Lamar.

Miss Ida Jones, of Sugar valley, is visiting Mrs. Sydney Douthy.

Noah Fehl and sister Kathryn, spent Sunday in Nittany valley.

Chas. Geary left on Saturday to spend a few days under the parental roof.

Mrs. Amy, who has been working at John Waite's, returned to her home.

Mrs. Edwin Winters and son, of Millheim, spent a few days at the home of Perry Winters.

Our town and vicinity was fairly well represented at the Reformed picnic last Wednesday.

Irvin Harry, after spending a few days under the parental roof has returned to Mill Hall.

John Reifsnnyder, accompanied by four ladies, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Smull on Sunday.

Mrs. Bressler, of Sugar valley, is doing the work for her sister, Mrs. Lambert, who is not able to present to be around.

J. V. Brungard, Miss Vera Morris and Mayme Wolfe went to Lamar on Sunday, the latter remaining there for the winter.

School having opened on Monday, the town has become quite lonesome during the day as far as the children are concerned.

Rebersburg picnic, 1903, was held in Stover's woods on Friday last, by 21 young folks from this and adjoining town of Rebersburg. A delicious supper was served and refreshments consisted of ice cream and cake. Various games were indulged in and after singing a few songs they all left for their respective homes; a tired but delighted crowd.

Lemont.

James M. Grove, who has been very ill, is better.

The schools of College Twp. will open Monday Sept. 14th.

John B. Schreck and wife, of Grampian, are home for a few days' rest.

Robert U. Wasson has begun his work in the schools of Bellefonte.

The Methodist social was a fair success Thursday night of last week.

Miss Bessie Thompson is on the sick list this week but is slowly improving.

James O. Clark is improving very slowly.

Miss Mattie Ray, of Altoona, is visiting her many friends in these parts this week.

Rev. J. I. L. Ressler the presiding elder of the U. B. in C., preached at Houserville Friday evening.

Mrs. Maggie Armstrong, who has been ill for a long while, is improving as fast as can be expected.

D. G. Meyers, Lemont's barber, has decided to go to State College where he has been offered the tempting salary of $65 per month.

Harry F. Houtz and his good wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a bouncing 9 lb. son about a week ago. Both mother and son are doing fine.

Mrs. Julia Williams and Mrs. Alice Williams were pleasant callers at the home of Mrs. John R. Williams, Wednesday of last week.

H. Houtz Long, who has spent the last winter and summer in Philadelphia, looks old style, but says that he can not stay more than three weeks as the school will open.

Mrs. Jacob Houtz has been quite ill since she returned from Winburne, where she visited at the home of her daughter Mrs. Ed. Graham for a week.

John Lucas, one of our real old townsmen, but who is now residing in Kylertown, is reported quite ill with cancer of the stomach and will likely not live more than a month.

Samuel Tressler, who has been Irvin J. Dreese's student, has been appointed as assistant in the Lemont station with a fair salary. The people are well pleased for he is accommodating and trustworthy.

State College will not be able to accommodate all the students for the coming term with bed and board, so calls on Lemont to help it out. There will be a number to board in this town.

The directors of College township met Saturday evening and elected E. K. Smith as teacher of the Lemont grammar school and that winds up the list and all will be in readiness for Monday when the schools will open.

Frank Bohn, one of our enterprising farmers, had the ill luck recently to leave his teams run away while lifting some of his potatoes and in the mix up he had his right arm broken and was bruised up quite a bit.

William Schreck purchased the old homestead and of the Peter Schreck farm what is known as the William Sellers tract of the former; he sold the part west of the P. R. E. to E. C. Ross and of the latter tract he sold the timber.

The Pope a Moderate Smoker.

Pope Pius is a moderate smoker. Italian priests, even of the humble ranks, do not consider it clerical decorum to smoke in public, and Cardinal Sarto has always observed this rule, but in private he enjoys a good cigar.
