Lemont.

Mrs. Sallie Moore, of Philipsburg, is circulating among friends in these parts.

A few from this town were to the fair last Thursday and by reports had a pleasant time.

William Mulbarger moved into his new quarters Tuesday and it is a cosy little home.

Uriah Stover, who is suffering with dropsy is lying at the point of death with very little hope of his recovery.

E. K. Smith reports a fine time while attending the state Sabbath school convention at Scranton last week.

Harry Houtz had the misfortune to lose a fine hog last week. He cannot say what the cause was but hopes it is not the disease reported from Bedford county.

William E. Williams, of Altoona, came home to take advantage of the first days of the hunting season and to see old Nittany mountain in autumn attire.

The hunters came home Thursday with smiles beaming all over their faces and some had four, while others had as many as seven with a few pheasants to top out.

Rev. J. F. Schultz, pastor of the United Evangelical church at Lemont, will preach a sermon for the old folks on Sunday morning, Oct. 25th, at 10 o'clock to which all the old folks are invited.

Aaron Thomas and men from Centre Hall reported for duty Thursday of last week when the United Evangelicals had a new roof put on their church which is the first of the repairs that they intend making.

By all reports there are several bear on Nittany mountain this fall, for Jacob Markle saw them trim some chestnut trees. Mathias Durner found one at his grape vine and they have been in cornfields that lie close to the mountain.

Corn cutting is now a thing of the past for this year and many of the farmers are already busy husking, for even then it will be like corn husking of the good times when October and November were the months set apart to do that.

Center Furnace school was closed by the directors, of College township as Arthur Peters, the teacher, makes his home near Oak Hall and the patrons of the school entertained fears that he might carry the small pox to that place, so they thought it advisable to close the school for a few weeks at least.

Many people in the nighborhood are getting vaccinated now when they stand in danger of taking small pox and it is advisable for them to get vaccinated for it is very hard to tell where the disease may break out next the way things have gone at Oak Hall. Every word that was said by this paper was only too true, for I was on the ground myself up to the time that the schools were closed and could see that there was on stop put to the diseased children playing with the school children.

Mail Letters on Train.

Postmaster General Payne has issued an order which will prove of great convenience to persons who desire to mail letters on the train, and commercial men especially are greatly pleased with the order, which is as follows: "Railway postal clerks are required to keep constantly on hand a supply of one and two-cent postage stamps for the accommodation of the public at the car, and such stamps must not be sold for any more than their face value."

Hublersburg.

Cora Whitman is visiting her brother at Renovo.

Charley Miller, of Johnstown, visited his mother part of the week.

Mrs. Ann Davis, of Philipsburg, is a guest at the home of E. L. Bergstresser.

Martha Sherr, of McElhattan, is spending the week at the home of Dr. McCormick.

Harvey Noll and family spent part of last week at Madisonburg; called there by the death of a brother.

Cyrus Keller and son James, of Williamsport, spent Thursday and Friday at the home of J. R. Kessinger.

Pearl Hoy attended the wedding of her aunt Talitha Miller to Thomas Bittner, in Lock Haven, Thursday night last.

David Love and Mr. Speer, of Pittsburg, and James McCormick, of Allegheny, were guests at the home of Mrs. Love recently.

Ezra Rathmell, of Philadelphia, accompanied by Edgar Nichols, of Williamsport, spent Thursday hunting squirrel in our vicinity.

Mrs. Erba Little, of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Percy Karskaddin, of Lock Haven, visited at the home of J. H. Carner part of last week.

Mrs. Stover and two children, of Bellefonte, Mrs. Ohl, of Renovo, and Miss Anna Bower, of Aaronsburg, were pleasant visitors at Hublers over Sunday.

Mr. J. P. Correll and wife, of Easton, also Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Sigmund, of Salona, and Mrs. Glossner, of Lock Haven, were a pleasant party at the home of L. H. Yocum Tuesday.
