Allentown Girl Foully Murdered.

Body of Mabel H. Bechtel Brought to Her Home and Placed in an Alleyway, Where It is Discovers by Friends, Who had Been Anxious Concerning Her.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Oct. 27.—The police of Allentown to-day have a case of murder on their hands, which in many respects resembles the notorious case of Jennie Bosschetter, at Paterson, N. J., in 1893.

The girl, who worked in a silk mill here, was engaged to be married to a young man of the town, Alfred Eckstein, and was soon to have wed him. Late last evening, David Weisenberger, aged 32 years, of South Bethlehem, a traveling salesman for an Allentown cigar firm, has been paying marked attentions to the girl.

The girl's mother was worried when she did not return last evening, and sat up waiting for her. She told the police to-day that at midnight last night she heard carriage wheels near the house and went to the window to look out, thinking that it was her daughter.

The Bulgarian government is said to be demobilizing its reserves with great reluctance, and apprehensions are expressed in many quarters that the Turks will take advantage of the situation and attack Bulgaria at about the time of the approaching election, when the Bulgarian government will be obliged to send the reserves to their homes.

Dr. Rood, a leading physician here, accidentally inoculated himself with anti-tetanic serum while attending a child who was dying with lockjaw, and to-day his friends were startled by his announcement that he expects to be dead in one week.

Miss Bechtel was pretty and vivacious, and had a large circle of admirers among the young people of the town. The tragedy is the most startling this section has witnessed in years and developments are awaited with interest.

Chief Eastman has his entire police force at work, assisted by other detectives, but up to a late hour tonight they are baffled. Alfred Eckstein, one of the girl's lovers, to whom she was engaged and whose engagement ring was found in her pockets to-day, proved that he had not seen the girl since Sunday evening, and he accounts satisfactorily for all his movements.

Jesse McClure, a Farm Hand, Murdered His Two Sons.

He Said His Wife Had Left Him and Refused to See Him—He Describes the Crimes—Says He Expects to be Hanged.

MARION, IND., Oct. 25.—Jesse McClure, a farm hand, murdered his two sons, aged 5 and 7 years, this afternoon, leaving their bodies in a fence corner. While a mob was forming to capture and lynch him McClure drove in a rig to this city and gave himself up.

McClure lived near Frankton and had separated from his wife a year ago, she returning to her father's home. At noon to-day McClure hired a rig and drove to the farm of Mrs. McClure's father. He induced the children to take a ride with him. Driving a mile up the road he carried the children to a fence corner and shot them with a revolver.

Late this evening it was learned that a mob was being formed to come to Marion to-night and lynch McClure. Deputy Sheriff Williams then spirited the murderer away from the jail and started with him to Indianapolis.

Are Starving in Bulgaria.

Sofia is Filled With Insurgents Begging Food—Missionsaries Coming Here for Help.

VIENNA, Oct. 25.—Two Bulgarian missionaries named Furnajeff and Popoff are about to leave here for New York for the purpose of making a tour of the United States to raise funds for the destitute Bulgarians. They are both graduates of American colleges, Popoff studying at Hamilton and the former at Princeton.

The Bulgarian government is said to be demobilizing its reserves with great reluctance, and apprehensions are expressed in many quarters that the Turks will take advantage of the situation and attack Bulgaria at about the time of the approaching election, when the Bulgarian government will be obliged to send the reserves to their homes.

HENRY DETWEILER.—After an illness of more than a years duration with Bright's disease of the kidneys Henry Detweiler passed away at his home in Smullton early Tuesday morning.

He was born near Annville, Lebanon county, 74 years, 2 months and 25 days ago and when only 7 years old came with his parents to locate in Penn township, near Millheim. He lived there until he married Miss Catharine Yeakle and started out to make a home for himself. She lived only nine years after their marriage, leaving him with three of their four children, viz: John W., of Seattle, Washington; Lewis, of Eastiat, Washington, and James, of Johnsonburg. In 1859 he remarried, this time his bride was Miss Sarah Harter, who survives him with their two children, H. A. Detweiler and Mrs. G. P. Garrett, of Rebersburg.

Mr. Detweiler was a representative citizen of that community, active in public affairs and steadfast in his devotion to the Evangelical church, of which he was a useful member. Funeral services were held yesterday morning and interment was made at Rebersburg. Revs. Buck and Harman officiated.

JACOB G. BREON.—Heart failure caused the death of Jacob G. Breon, a retired farmer, at his home in Millheim on Tuesday morning. He was born in Gregg township, March 5th, 1834, and spent all his life in the pursuit of agriculture.

His first wife was Miss Matilda McKinley and their union was blessed with three sons and three daughters. Later he married Mary Weagley, who survives him with ten children. They are Mrs. Leah Markle, of Williamstown; Mrs. Louise Weaver, of Williamsport; Robert, in Kansas; Spear and Mrs. Jennie Kramer, in Penn township; Mrs. Kate Piper, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Ada Weaver, of Philadelphia; Mrs. May Yocum, of Altoona; Wallace and Charles, of Millheim.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon and interment will be made at the Cross church, in George's valley.

URIAH STOVER.—The venerable Uriah Stover passed away at his home at Houserville on Tuesday afternoon, after a long illness of dropsy. He was 79 years old and a man who bore the respect of all his friends and neighbors in that vicinity.

He is survived by his widow and several children. Interment was made at Houserville yesterday morning, with Rev. A. A. Black, of the Reformed church, of which he was a member, officiating.

Mrs. Hannah M. Adams, who was a daughter of the late S. G. and Catharine Mingle, and was born at Rebersburg about 44 years ago, died of heart failure on the street in Lock Haven last Thursday evening. She, with two other ladies, was on her way to attend the Epworth League convention, when she was suddenly stricken and expired in front of St. John's Lutheran parsonage. Her husband, Elmer E. Adams, and several sisters and brothers survive her.

Mrs. Mary J. Mark, wife of H. A. Mark, died at her home on Eleventh street, in Philipsburg, on Tuesday evening, after an illness with blood poisoning that lasted only a few days. She would have been 30 years old on the 7th of next December. Her husband, with five young children, survives her. Interment will be made this afternoon; after services have been held in the Lutheran church.

Mrs. Elizabeth Beamer died at her home near Dix Station, on last Thursday, at the age of 78 years. Her husband died a number of years ago, but the following children survive: Mrs. Jennie Lewis, of Olivia; Mrs. Nannie Spittler, of Dix; Mrs. Maggie Walk, of Hanna Furnace, and G. W. Beamer, of Olivia. Interment was made in Mt. Pleasant cemetery on Saturday.

OLIVE MARKS.—At the age of 23 years Olive, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Marks, of Port Matilda, died at her home last Saturday, after a lingering illness of consumption. Funeral services were held in the Baptist church of which she was a faithful member and interment was made Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Oscar Peters was in Osoeola over Sunday on account of the death and burial of her sister Mrs. Stimmuel Hughes. Mrs. Hughes was the oldest daughter of the late B. F. and Mrs. Mary Snyder, of Wingate. She had been in ill health for years with heart disease and is survived by her husband and two grown sons.

John Woodling, aged 71 years, 8 months and 7 days, died at his home in Rebersburg on last Friday morning, leaving a widow to survive him. Rev. Harman conducted funeral services at his late home on Sunday and interment was made in the Union cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Conrad Kreager, of Romola, who died in her 43rd year on Wednesday of last week, took place on Saturday afternoon. She was buried from her late home.

as well as can be expected and it is a pleasure to say no new cases have developed up to this writing. We hope the ones that are getting well may mark the end of the terrible disease's work in these parts.

Many of the people who have been vaccinated have become quite ill. Not a few having to go to bed for a day or so and others not being able to work for a week, but that need not frighten others, as it affords a great protection. We have quite a lot of people around here who are afraid to be vaccinated and then try to tell all kinds of discouraging stories to frighten others. It looks like one coward trying to guide another, for of all that have been vaccinated in this neighborhood there has not one died thus far.

Friday evening, as the freight over the B. N. and L. E. R. was passing D. A. Grove's, the crew noticed a fine black bear in his corn field, and on Saturday afternoon some wood haulers noticed one on the old John Holderman place. They ran and told Edward Williams and Robert C. Jackson who took guns and started for the place to get him. They were not long in finding him and had one fine shot but as they only wounded the bear it started to run and night coming on too soon they were unable to track it.
