

Smullton.
Rev. G. W. McInay made a trip to Lamar on Friday.
Sydney Douth and family were away over Sunday.

The sick of our town are not improved much at this writing.

Mrs. John Smith, of Lamar, spent Saturday among friends.

Mrs. Yoder, of Salona, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Waite.

J. V. Brungard from Rockview was home on election day to cast his vote.

Mrs. Wm. Waite and Mrs. Ammon Strayer have returned from a visit in Millifinburg.

Noah Fehl and sister Kathryn attended a funeral at Tusseyville, Monday last week.

Adam Winters and family, of Fiedler, were visiting among friends and relatives last week.

Edwin C. Winters and family were guests of his father, Perry Winters, on Sunday of last week.

William Haffley, of Aaronsburg, was with his daughter, Mrs. G. W. Winters, during the past week.

Mrs. Robt. Hackenberg and grandson, Lester Miller, from Penns-valley, were in town on Saturday.

Miss Maude Winters left on Monday for Millheim, where she is employed in the knitting factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Housman and Miss Mayme Mennh, of Millheim, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Meeting is in progress in the M. E. church at this place. Rev. McInay has delivered some very able sermons.

On Sunday of the past week Mrs. John Stoyers pleasantly entertained her sister, Mrs. Wm. Lohr and husband from Millifinburg.

Mrs. McInay and her daughter Marion returned to their home in Spring Mills on Saturday after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Israel Haugh.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boush and daughters Edna and Mrs. Minnie Miller with her two children from Madisonburg were guests of Mrs. Israel Haugh.

S. A. Walizer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brungard were to Spring Mills Sunday of last week and attended the services held in the M. E. church for "Old Folks' Day."

James Detwiler, of Johnsonburg, attended the funeral of his aged father, Mr. Henry Detwiler, who died Oct. 26th. By his death our community loses one of its oldest citizens. His absence will be noticed everywhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winkleblecht and two sons, Arnie and Orvis, were called here from Renovo last week by the illness of their daughter Sallie, who had been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller. She is no better at this writing.

Lemont.

Chalmers Houtz transacted business in Bellefonte Thursday of last week.

Noll Bros. are making ready to move a sawmill into Schreck's woods near town.

The gentleman who nursed Mrs. Samuel Bible through her illness went home Saturday.

James C. Williams' little son, Theodore, has been confined to the house this last week with rheumatism.

Edward Sellers is building his barn much larger, as he finds the old one too small to house his stock.

The United Evangelicals are further improving the appearance of their church by having a coat of paint put on.

Friday and Saturday brought us the coldest days thus far and some snow, but Monday morning brought the ice.

Mrs. William Shutt, of Oak Hall, circulated among her many friends at Clintondale the fore part of the week.

The fourth and last quarterly conference of the United Evangelical church will convene at Centre Hall, Saturday Dec. 12th.

There was 123 votes polled in this township and everything was so quiet that it was hard to tell that an election was being held.

Rev. Harnish was installed Tuesday as pastor of the Lemont and Boalsburg congregations of the Presbyterian church, by Rev. Schuyler, of Centre Hall.

The directors of College township are enforcing the vaccination law from this date and will compel each pupil to produce a certificate of successful vaccination by Dec. 1st.

Dr. Dale has been appointed to vaccinate all who are unable to pay for the same.

School was opened again at Centre Furnace Monday a week ago and the primary school of Oak Hall was opened Monday with an attendance of four pupils out of 36. The parents are afraid to send their children right in the midst of the small pox, although the State has sent a man to clean up the school rooms and the Knopf property. Mrs. Bible is not well enough to have her room disinfected as yet and will not be for two or three weeks as she is getting better slowly. It is the hope of all that the dreadful disease can be held in control now.

On the Installation Plan.

Mrs. Brown—Oh, what lovely wedding presents! Such beautiful silverware and such rare china! Wasn't it nice to get such presents?

Mrs. Greene—Yes, it was; but we are now beginning to pay for them on the installment plan.

Mrs. Brown—Pay for them? On the installment plan? Why, Mrs. Greene, what do you mean?

Mrs. Greene—Why, the young people who gave us wedding presents are getting married, and we have to send them wedding presents.
