Greedy Bill.

Mrs. Racesaver has among her numerous children a pair of 10-year-old twins, boys, so closely alike that often, when she is not paying particular attention, she herself is paying particular attention, she herself is liable to mistake one for the other. In school Jimmy, who is a meek and mild in-fant, has more than once been punished for the misdeeds of Bill, who is "tough," and proud of the fact. Nothing pleases him better than to play Jacob to his brother's Fact. Esau

It was baking day in the Recesaver house not long ago, and the twins had been play-ing out of doors for several hours with the other children. One of them, the ubiquitous Bill, came into the house and said : "Oh, mamma, them pies do smell good, and I'm so hungry. Can't I have a piece." "Yes, you may," said kind Mrs. Race-

BOILDERS' and PLASTERERS' SAND saver, without noticing which twin it was, "if you'll go out and play again." And she gave him a generous slice.

Bill ran around the corner of the house oy the bunch or cord as may suit purchasers and devoured the pie; then, running in again, he said : "Oh, mamma, Bill has a slice of pie; I want a slice of pie !" And he got it, too. And when poor Jimmy, the Esau, came running in a few minutes later demanding pie he was denounced for greediness until the truth Telephone Calls { Central 1312. Commercial 682. came out. Whereupon Bill lost his supper.

Hicks Predicts Rain.

In his forecast of November weather prophet Irl R. Hicks makes the following rognostications.

First storm period begins in October, but is central on November the 1st and extends to the 4th. A low and falling barometer will be spreading eastwardly across the country by the 1st, attended by change to much warmer and wide areas of autumnal rains. As the rising barometer reaches difrains. As the rising barometer reaches dif-ferent localites in its eastern progress, the northwestern rim of rain areas will turn to snow, and the clearing weather following will bring frost, freezing and cold wind. Second storm period is central on the 6th and 7th, but the full moon on the 5th will bring an early culmination of whatever disturbances may occur at this time. Nothdisturbances may occur at this time. Noth ing out of the usual order may occur at that period. A fall of the barometer, higher temperature, cloudiness turning to more rain, and turning to snow and cold, northerly winds northward, will be perfectly natural. The third storm period runs from th 10th to 16th, being central on the 12th. About the 10th it will turn much warmer, winds will turn to southerly, the barome ter will begin falling in the west, cloudi ness will rapidly ensue, and rain will fol These areas of rain will pass east wardly over the country from about Thurs-day, the 12th, to Sunday, the 15th, being followed up closely on the west and on the porth by a transmission of the set of north by a temperature that will turn the rain to sleet. An early November blizzard is not at all improbable at this time.

The fourth storm period will culminate on the 19th, in connection with the new moon. The 17th to 19th is the normal time of the period. Threatening, frosty, sleety weather will most likely hold over from the third storm period, running into this fourth storm period, but about the 19th storm conditions will intensify and northwest, look for a rapid rise of the barometer, high northerly winds and change to quite cold. Most parts of the country, even to the south, will feel the force of this

Watch and see. The 5th storm period extends from the 22nd to 27th, being central on the 24th. The cold weather will break up as we enter the fifth storm period, the barom-eter will begin falling in the west about the 23rd, cloud areas will form in the same regions by the 24th and rains will take up their progress eastward, passing quite over the country to the Atlantic to the days immediately following. It is a rare exception when the temperature does not rise, with cloudiness and precipitation in many parts of the country, about the dates when the moon passes over the celestial equator. The 28th being such a date, we may reasonably expect a con-tinuation of threatening and falling weather over the 28th and into the reactionary days at the end of the month. Should a high barometer and change to cold, clearing weather come about the 26th and 27th, a very rapid change to warmer, with more much colder will be heading down from the northwest at the end of November.
