Single Breasted Sack Suits $7.50

Here to-day—a Beautiful style with every kink of fashion in its make up—Of course you're not restricted to one style nor to a half dozen—Has any one as much variety as we, but a little hint, that fancy mixed brown Cassimere is just the thing. Rich looking? Yes and it will wear like hickory. The coat with welted seams is lined with Princess Serge nothing better for service. Material all wool.

Single & Double Breasted $10.00 SACK SUITS.

Yes, a stronghold with us, selling $10 Suits—We try to put as much value as possible in our $10 and you will see how well we have succeeded—Of Cassimere, a blue gray stripe effect, men with an eye to style are wearing—The sack coat with its well built shoulder and the Sim stay there front (will not break or curl back) is lined with Princess serge, Mixed Cassimeres, Scotches and Tweeds, Serge, Diagonls, Thibets and Cheviots, well made, good tailoring, perfect fitting, satisfaction to the last thread.

Single & Double Breasted $12.50 SACK SUITS.

The cloth is beautiful. The style and workmanship unsurpassed—Steel grays in Worsted and brown Scotches are the best selling mixed colors. Vicuna in black has the lead over the Worsteds. Cheviots and undressed Worsted, single breasted coats with blunt corner of three or four button—double breasted with long lapel closing with three buttons. But what's the use in going into details And because we sell more clothing than any one and some two stores in town ours must be better than any other at or near our prices.

Men's Winter Overcoats $9.50

Almost every day brings in a lot of these stunning and swagger coats from the hands of the makers. We need them, we've showed as many as we've had room and even with the warm weather as it is we've never sold them as quickly before. Wise men look ahead. All wool-Frieze and Kersey, the best wearing stuff we know of. Loose or Semi-Loose (a happy medium between close and loose back) two lengths, to your ankles or a little below the knees. Regular $12.50 value—as we've often said—You'll find it so.

Men's Winter Overcoats $12.50

The big roomy stylish looking coats with or without belt for you—young man or shorter closer fitting coats for men of other taste. There are overcoats and overcoats, see that yours is right, that it hangs and fits as it ought to—If you'll let us we'll take the worry off your mind. Cloths Beaver, Kersey and Melton, mixtures and plain colors. Silk velvet collars, sleeves satin lined, body lining all wool serge.

Men's Winter Overcoats $15.00

Strictly hand tailored. You may talk about your fine coat. But this one tops them all. We want the very best dressers to see it—Of black Kersey, Frieze and Melton quite as important as the goods—Hand padded and felled collars and lapels—Button holes hand finished—The set of those shoulders—all due to the thoroughness of the making and the art of knowing how.

Men's Storm Overcoats $5, $7, $10, $12.50.
