PROMINENT YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED. -Socially the most notable event of the week was the marriage of Miss Edith Holz, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holz, and Dr. Louis Friedman, of New York city, which was celebrated on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Allegheny

It is the privilege of but few brides to be married under more auspicious circumstances or amid a happier assemblage than Mrs. Friedman. The house was elaborately decorated with white and pink chrysarthemums, smilax, ferns and palms. Only these endearingly interested were present this week. As this is the first meeting for and neither means nor talent were spared in making it a memorable occasion. Miss Mary Bradley played Lohengrin's march for the processional and the bridal party included the bride and groom, Miss Fanny Lebost, of New York, a cousin of the bride, as maid of honor, Samuel Freidman, the groom's brother, as best man and Edmund and Emanuel Joseph, the bride's small cousins, as pages.

The marriage took place in the reception room under a canopy of flowers. Rev. Dr. Kline, of Altoona, pronounced the ceremony and Mr. Holz gave his daughter away. She is a tall, fine-looking young woman and made a strikingly handsome bride. Her gown was a splendid one of white silk made with a full court train and trimmed with Irish point lace. She wore a veil and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore white crepe de chin. After the ceremony an elaborate breakfast was served by Ceader.

Dr. Friedman and his bride, when they were driven to the station accompanied by many of the guests, met such a reception as few bridal couples are accorded. There the College boys were waiting for the train to Pittsburg. The gayly decorated cabs and showers of rice were signals for good rousing college cheers and from that until the 1:05 train departed the students kept the festivities from lagging. The wedding journey is to be spent in the South and after Dec. 20th Dr. and Mrs. Freidman of Rev. Aikens, where the ceremony was perwill make their home at 208, West 112th formed in the presence of only a few immestreet, New York.

BURGESS-HEWITT. - Earl C. Hewitt one of the most enthusiastic athletes that State College ever claimed and who was captain of the College foot ball team in 1901, was married in Erie on Wednesday noon to Miss May Burgess of that city. After a wedding journey to New York and Washington the newly married couple will make their home in Punxsutawney, where the groom is now engaged as a mining engineer.

MARRIED IN SYRACUSE. - The following clipping from the Post-Standard of Syracuse, N. Y., of Nov. 4th, will be of interest to many persons in this community who know the gentleman in the case and will join in our wish of the utmost or himself and his bride

The marriage of Miss Sadie Marie Lytle and Robert Barren Gardner of Pittsburg, Pa. mized at 6 o'clock last night at the was solemnized at 6 o'clock last night at the home of C. D. Rose, No. 127 Holland street. The ceremony was performed by Rev Alexander Wouters, pastor of the Methodist Presbyterian church. The rooms were prettily decorated with palms, ferns, pink and white cornetions. The ceremony was performed carnations. The ceremony was performed in front of a bank of huge palms.

The bridesmaids, Miss Jessie A. Smith and Miss Florence M. Sheldon, wore pink silk mull over pink taffeta and carried pink car-nations. William McCreary Gardner, of Pittsburg, was best man.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lytle, of Troy; Harry Gardner of New York; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gage, of Auburn and Irving Gage, of Buffalo. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner left in the evening on their wedding trip. They will be at home after December 31st at No. 179 Knox avenue, Pittsburg, where the groom has a position with an electrical supply company.

The bride received many beautiful presents of solid silver, cut glass and furniture.

on Tuesday two car loads of horses and mules to Laucaster for public sale on the 25th inst. Daniel Eberhart, one of Bellefonte's nimrods, was searching the Barrens in quest of game the beginning of the week. Grandmother Louck has been quite ill for a few days with heart trouble, but she is better now. She will close her house and will spend the winter with relatives in Altoona. In another column of this issue will be found a very interesting article on people of our community by the Rev. J. C. Oliver, who is well known about Pine Grove Mills. The ladies of the Presbyterian church have secured Miss Grace Barber, of the Philadelphia school of oratory, for a recital in the church on the evening of December 8th. William Metterling, of Centre Hall, was circulating among the farmers last week in quest of fresh cows, which he found scarce and made up his car with young stock. Jacob McClellen, who has been Hon. J. Will Kepter's right hand farmer, has resigned that position and is flitting to the Ed Duff mausion on Chestnut street. Mr. Alex B. Tanyer laid by his hatchet and saw at Pittsburg and is here for the hunting season. Thus far he has eight rabbits and ten squirrels to his score.

Mr. Samuel Weber who has been ill for some months has recovered so as to be ab e to visit relatives in Lancaster. On Sunday his only aunt on his mother's side, Mrs. Frederick Addes, 85 years old, was buried.

Mr. Will Thompson Jr., of Centre Furnace, is away down in the Sunny South looking after his extensive lumber and coal interests that are on a boom just now so that in all probability William will be wearing diamonds for the holiday season.

Rev. C. T. Aikens is attending a convention of his college class in Syracuse, N. Y. Mr. Aikens in sixteen years, we feel assured he will do his part in adding mirth to the oc casion. We wish him a safe return to his friends who hold him so near and dear.

We are in receipt of a copy of the North Baltimore Times published by W. Russel Port, formerly of our town and a son of our towns man W. D. Port. When Mr. Port first went to Ohio he engaged in the grocery business. But for the last three years has been connected with the Times, and now his name appears as publisher and proprietor. Mr. Port has served a complete apprenticeship and is well qualified to conduct a clean, truthful sheet. We are glad to extend a friendly greeting and hope his success will be far beyond our expectations.

HAPPILY MARRIED.-Last Friday evening the parlors of Squire Keller, on Main street, were all aglow. At 7:00 p. m. Geo. W. Koch and Miss Ida M. Keller were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. Rev. C. T. Aikens performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family. The usual wedding feast was served by Mrs. Keller.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Keller, and will do her part well. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Koch, of Fairbrook, and is a nate in obtaining so good a life helpmate.

A very unostentatious though none the less happy wedding was that of Luther Strouse and Miss Jennie Kramer, on Tuesday evening. They are both very popular young people from Pine Hall and drove up to the home diate relatives. The groom is a son of Joseph Strouse and a young man whose sturdy character and industrious disposition recommended him as a good husband. His bride is a daughter of Jacob Kramer and is a very attractive, accomplished girl.

Miss Mabel Osman, of Centre Furnace, is quite ill this week and it is feared that she is taking the fever. We are enjoying a taste of winter at this time which reminds us that November will soon be numbered with the past. Miss Fannie Shuey had a severe attack of neuralgia of the heart this week but at this time is much better. Dr. L. M. Houser and James Peters, of Rock Springs, transacted business in Bellefonte last Wednesday. William Shutt Jr., and family, of Axe Mann, enjoyed the week at the home of his parents at Oak Hall station.

A. M. Wasson, of Tyrone, is going the rounds of the neighborhood this week purchasing Thanksgiving turkeys, but by all reports be will find them scarce. Rev. Elliot, the gentleman who delivered the illustrated lecture which pleased all who had the pleasure of hearing and seeing it, was at one time pastor of this charge so when he came among the Methodists here he came among his friends.

Fred Peterson, of Tottenville, L. I., New York, a book keeper for the S. S. Profit of begging in New York. A woman was arraigned for begging and vagrancy in the Essex market police court in New York a few days ago who had among her belongings a heavy bundle tied in a large colored handkerchief, in which were found over $70 in pennies and other small coin, the whole mass weighing more than 15 pounds. This, according to the woman's story, she had collected in two weeks, seated on the curb at a corner on Bowery with a plate in her lap. Still more interesting was the disclosure made by a bank book of a savings bank in Syracuse, N. Y., in her possession, showing an account to the woman's credit of over $1,000. It appeared also that the woman had three grown-up children living in Syracuse who were able to care for her Yet so woe-begone and poverty-stricken most industrious young farmer and is fortu-nate in obtaining so good a life helpmate. did the woman appear when arraigned in court that not until her hoardings were disclosed would even a police court shyster

Books, Magazines, Etc.

The new publishers of Everybody's Magazine de clare the holiday issue of the publication to be much the best they have yet produced. It is not the typical Christmas number made up of stilted fiction and pictures of the festival in many lands. It is just an especially lively and entertaining magazine, full of really good stories, clever pic tures, and well written and timely articles. In Everybody's one never finds a distinguished name tacked to a dull tale. Among its contributors are the ablest writers of the day, but it is in connection with their best work, not their pot boilers The reading public, which has become familiar Rails and Spikes. with O. Henry, Juliet Wilbor Tompkins, and F. Walworth, for instance, will find in the holiday issue the most successful story each has written this year. Another big thing the magazine has is Eugene Burnard's pictures of Bible scenes, reproduced for the first time in America. Burnard is the greatest painter of secred subjects since the 'TRY US.
