Acmocratice Hatchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., December 18, 1903.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub ished unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Philipsburgers expect to be able to ride on their new trolley by Christmas day. ----Communion services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday. -Mrs. M. W. Jackson is ill at the home of her daughter Mrs. W. F. Reeder, on "the hill."

-The family of Samuel Gault has moved back to town after a resid ence of two years in Wilkinsburg.

-A little daughter is the latest ac. erous. quisition to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker.

----Cloth bound books, 10 ets., Bush's -After being off duty for months on account of an ulcerated eye Herman Robb work as a shoe maker

-Miss Bertha Gill, of Pleasant Gap, and Archie Hardy, of Huntingdon, were operation for appendicitis. married in Huntingdon on Wednesday by the Rev. M. L. Smith.

----- Dan Runkle, of Spring Mills, got stave mill on Tuesday, and an ugly charged. wound was the result of the contact.

-The ladies of Centre Hall are going to have the Franklin and Marshall glee the Bellefonte hospital.

-The revival in the M. E. church at Unionville is still going on. More than the meetings are well attended.

ly a resident of this place, is suffering with Stomach trouble was the cause of his death. acute Bright's disease and with the hope of Deceased was born near Gatesburg about finding relief he and Mrs. Schreyer will 75 years ago and spent his entire life in the spend the winter in Cuba and others of the Antilles.

---- Owing to their inability to dispose of their lumber in the yards P. B. Crider life of usefulness and was esteemed as a & Son will not retire from the retail busi- good citizen. His home was one of the ness on April 1st, as announced some time most hospitable on Spruce creek. A few ago. They have rented the property for another year.

- Clothing-confidence and real values at Montgomery & Co.

evening January 15th. Games have been scheduled with Susquehanna University, Williamsport High school, Lock Haven day. Normal, State College and other teams.

-The rabbit season closed on Tuesday. Owing to the severe cold there were not body was laid away in the cemetery of the many hunters out for the last day and people of Harris and part of College townships have fairly overwhelmed the Bellefonte hospital with the size of a donation they sent here by freight on Wednesday evening. It included everything imaginable and in such profusion as only comes from the country districts where the open hearted, generous helpful people live.

THE BIGGEST DONATION OF ALL .- The

The donation was the result of a general canvass of all of Harris township and a little corner of College. Miss Nettie McFarlane was one of the prime movers in it and associated in the work were Mrs. A. A. Black, Mrs. Mary Woods, Mrs. John Strouse, of Boalsburg; Misses Ella Ross and Freda Hess, of Linden Hall, and Mrs. Green Irvin and Mrs. Edward Sellers, of Oak Hall. It would take up nearly all of our space to mention the list of the contributors but what they gave gives an idea of how many they were and how gen-

HOSPITAL NOTES.-Three patients have been admitted to the hosnital within the veek

John Haines, of Snow Shoe Intersection, was operated for an infected finger, the sechas recovered sufficiently to resume his oud finger of the right hand being taken off. Emanuel Korman, from Penns valley, was admitted for treatment prior to an

Miss Martha Peters, of Hecla Park, was admitted for treatment. Mrs. Grant Hoover, with her two babies, his right hand against a circular saw in a and Mrs. Parsons, of Scotia, have been dis-

---- Charles Long died at his home in Philipsburg on Tuesday night as a result of club give a concert in Grange hall in that a stroke of paralysis suffered some time place New Years night for the benefit of ago. Deceased was a native of Staffordshire, England, and came to this country in 1868. He was 67 years old.

* WILLIAM GATES .- The venerable Wilthe four weeks it has been in progress and Ferguson township, passed away at the & Co. home of his son, J. Frank Gates, near

-Harry Schreyer, of Chicago, former- Graysville, on Monday morning at 5 o'clock. pursuit of agriculture ; having lived for 40 years on one of the Robert Glenn farms near Rock Springs, where he rounded out a years ago he disposed of his farm stock and since that time had made his home among his children.

Surviving him are J. Frank Gates, of Graysville; Thomas, of Altoona ; William

-The Bellefonte Academy basket ball P., of Baileyville ; Mrs. Frank Zewig, of team expects to open the season on Friday Harrisburg. His brothers and sisters are Martha and Perry, of Warriors-mark; Mrs. Fannie Harpster and Mrs. Emanuel Sun-

Rev. R. M. Campbell officiated at the burial on Wednesday afternoon when the Presbyterian church at Graysville, of which

-Aug S. Kech, of Snow Shoe, has been elected manager of the Bucknell University foot ball team for next season.

-See Bush's low prices on Holiday Goods.

-----Onite a number of nice letters have been coming to this office recently. Le them come; the more the better and a green enclosure is specially appreciated at this time of year.

---- Are you looking for oranges, lemons, bananas, white grapes, or anything in thorities of Liberty township made strenufruits nuts or confectionery. We have it. ons efforts to prevent the spread of the dis-Sechler & Co.

-On Tuesday evening Dr. Helen A. Snyder, of State College, delivered the last of her series of lectures on Italian Art in this place. St. John's parrish house netted about $75.00 for improvements as a result of the series. ly were likely getting it. Harry Rupert,a son-iu-law of Mrs. Nestlerode is the latest -There is no guess work in making victim of the epidemic. our mince meat. Everything is weighed and measured, always of uniform high grade. Try it on our recommendation. Its just fine and will please you. Sechler & Co.

BURNED.-The two story frame church which the Lutherans have used for a place -The Nittany country club was aglow of worship at Pine Hall for about 30 years with light and life last night on the occasion of the first of a series of large functions was totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday that will be given there during the winter. evening. About fifty members and their friends were The fire was discovered about 6 o'clock and had gained such headway as to be alin attendance, some going down on the 2:40 together beyond control. While the origin train to spend the afternoon playing bridge. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock and the is not known it is supposed to have caught party returned by special train about midfrom a super-heated flue. Early that afternoon fire had been made in the stoves to night.

get the church warm enough for the sing--Clothing-confidence and real values ers who were to be there to rehearse Christat Montgomery & Co. mas music.

-When you want anything in our line The church was 45x60 and only lately don't shop the town and then come to us had been considerably remodeled. ITwo at last. Save time and labor by coming to organs were burned up. The building forty people have been converted during liam Gates, one of the best known men in us first and get what you want. Sechler was insured in the Patron's company. While we have no authority for the

> -While down the valley gunning on last Thursday Henry Tibbens and Ed Harper met with a mishap that made it a very sorry trip, especially for the former. They put their horse in the stable on Mr. Tibbens' farm and when they returned about 2:30 in the afternoon they found the animal's hind leg broken between the stifle and knee. She had been kicked by another horse and the break was of such a nature

----Clothing-confidence and real values ors from Lancaster were awarded the deciat Montgomery & Co. sion.

-We passed by Sechler & Co., in Bush House block, Bellefonte, and we saw in one window, a fine lot of Naples Walnuts. White Grapes, Plum Pudding, Grape Fruit, Oranges, Lemons, and several kinds of nuts "for by" the walnuts.

is handing around a very tidy little vest B. Rupp and Amos E. Kraybill. -S. E. Goss, the insurance agent pocket memorandum book that not only -The will of the late Mrs. Catharine SMALL-POX AT EAGLEVILLE. - The ex-Curtin has been entered for probate and at Bush's. pected has happened and there is now a well developed case of small pox in the divides the estate left by the departed War family of John A. Nestlerode who lives a Governor to her four surviving children, share and share alike. The heirs are Mis. quarter of a mile from the Eagleville station. Two weeks ago William Nestlerode, George F. Harris, Mrs. K. C. Breese, William Curtin and Mrs. M. D. Burnett. The a son, and his family from Youngstown, latter's interest is left in trust with her place on Wednesday the 23rd. O., visited their relatives in Liberty township and on their way home a physician brother as trustee. The children of Mrs. Curtin's deceased daughter, Mrs. Sage, discovered that Nestlerode and his sister had small pox and they were taken from were not given a share because their father, who is a multi-millionaire, had requested the train at Altoona to the pest house. As that they receive no part, as he had already soon as the affair became known the auamply provided for them. This fact being set forth in the will. The estate will be kept intact. Its value is estimated at ease. The family of John A. Nestlerode about $200,000, though nobody but the and others who were exposed to the disease heirs know the real amount. were quarantined and Dr. Kurtz, of Howard, was delegated to look after the health

-Fine celery with turkey is a necessiof those in quarantine. Sunday he found ty to most every one. Sechler has as good that Mrs. Nestlerode had taken the disease as is in the market. "Don't forget ti." and that several other members of the fami-

News Purely Personal.

-Arthur Fortney, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town yesterday

-C. D. Houtz, of Lemont, was in town on busi ness on Wednesday. -Mrs. A. S. Garman, of Tyrone, spent Tuesday

THE PINE HALL LUTHERAN CHURCH with friends at her old home he -William Tibbens, former county auditor, was down from Houserville on Wednesday. -Mrs Potsy Stewart of Linn street went to Hagerstown on Tuesday to see her daughter, Mrs. Mary Miller, who is seriously ill.

-Miss Eunice Clark, of the hospital force, is at her home near Coalport, in Clearfield county, for a week's visit. She went Wednesday.

-Mrs. Joseph Erwin Berches, is here from Knoxville, Tennessee, and will spend the Holidays with her sister Mrs. Wilbur F. Reeder. -Mrs. Jean McKee Beck, of Wilkinsburg, is here for a visit at the Stitzer home on High street She will probably spend the Holidays here. -Mrs. Earl Way, of Wilmerding, was in town Tuesday between trains on her way home to Waddle to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Mary Meek.

-H. C. Baney, president of the Baney Syndicate in Atlantic City, N. J., has been in town for a few days visiting friends and attending to some business.

statement it is likely that when the church -Dr. H. K. Hoy, of Altoona, was in town on is rebuilt there will be a strong sentiment business on Wednesday. As yet he has been unable to dispose of his large farm near State in favor of locating it at State College, College. which would eventually mean the removal

-Mrs. Esther Sellers her daughter. Miss Elsie. Mrs. James Waddle and Miss S. A. Meek, all of Buffalo Run, were in town yesterday Christmas s hopping

-George Furey, Fred Lane, Strohm Lose and Ben Brown, a quartet of Bellefonte boys who FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL THE WINhave been employed about Pittsburg, are home NER. - The semi-final debate between for the Holidays.

Franklin and Marshall and The Pennsyl--Mrs. Frank McCoy, with her two children rom New London, and Herbert McCoy, of Alvania State College orators took place at toona, spent Sunday at the home of Charles Mcthe College last Friday night and the visit-Coy on north Thomas street.

-Jacob Meyer, of Linden Hall, was among the throng of strangers in town on Saturday, but then The question debated was "Resolved Mr. Meyer isn't so much of a stranger either for he gets to town quite frequently. that labor unions tend to injure the indus-

-Mrs. Geo. C. Butz, of State College, was in trial welfare of the country." State had town shopping yesterday and went home last the affirmative and was represented by evening ladened with so many bundles that the Walter V. Williams, Oscar C. Hays and little ones at their home couldn't help becoming Alex Hart Jr. Franklin and Marshall took suspicious.

the negative side of the question; being -William Armor, of Ax Mann, dropped in represented by Martin W. Witmer, Paul Saturday to order the WATCHMAN sent to a rela tive out in Kansas; a Christmas remembrance that will be duly appreciated.

Hon. A. O. Furst, of this place, was the -Miss Helen Miller, of Altoona, and, who is presiding officer. The judges were Dr.

---Cameras and supplies $1.00 to $25.00

--- Mrs. Catharine Wieland, of Linden Hall, has sent out invitations for the marriage of her daughter. Sarah Elizabeth, and Murray Leitzell. The marriage is to take

-If you are fond of a rich, mild cream cheese, we have it. Sechler & Co.

-Jacob Cass, who lives by himself on the old Stine place near Waddles, came to town a few days ago; leaving his stock in the care of a neighbor. In his stable were three calves, a pig, a horse, and a bull dog with a litter of pups. Jacob remained away several days and upon his return he found that the bull dog had killed his pig and devoured nearly all of it. in addition to chewing the legs nearly off the three calves and attacking the horse viciously. In fact the dog had to be shot before anyone could get into the stable.

HIGH SCHOOL RHETORICALS .- The one section of the Senior class of the High school will deliver Christmas orations in the High school rooms on next Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. The class being too large for all to take part at one time the other section will deliver orations at Easter. The following is a list of the members of the class and the subject of their orations. Gratitude

Lela Ardery American Antiquities Elsie Bibl Bismark Trood Bidwell The Wonders of Yellowstone Park Bessie Bronse Commercial and Naval Powers Arthur Brown Individual Liberty Cora Brungar Literary Merit of the Drama Helen Ceader The Uniting of the Pacific and Atlantic Jesse Derstine Radium and Its Possibilities Charley Donachy Mary Queen of Scots, Jessie Etters Aftermath of Hero-Worship Laura Faxon Victims of Great Expectations Mable Garbrick Edith Graham Indian Characteristics Historical Rides Alpha Hafer Elements of Success Florence Lowry Transit in the U.S. Walter Rankin The Voice of Flowers Bernice Shuey The Mission of Music Gussie Smith Literary Masterpieces Florence Tanner Moral Effects of Custom Lillian Walker Western Supremacy Harry Wian

John Wood

SAMUEL SWARTZ .- A well known merchant and citizen of Tussevville, died at his home in that place on Monday morning early after a long illness of stomach trouble. He was seventy years of age and was an upright, estimable man. He is survived by his wife and the following children : Adda Jane, Emiline, Charles W. and F. Thomas. Funeral services were held yesterday by the pastor of the Evangelical church of which he was an earnest member. Interment was made at Sprucetown.

A Simile

----Sechler & Co., keep the finest oysters in Bellefonte. They have them now large and fresh. They make your mouth water to look at them.

that they had to take her out and shoot her.

those who were had poor luck because the rabbits were mostly holed up and the ones that were not were very hard for dogs to rap.

---- Do not fail to visit the Home Journal booth at the bazar and supper held in Bullock's building by the ladies' sewing circle of the Milesburg Presbyterian church, Dec. 18th and 19th. Subscriptions to Journal and Saturday Evening Post received. Supper 25cts.

-Work is progressing rapidly on the car barn that is being erected at the Bellefonte batchery for the accommodation of the car that will be used for transporting the trout fry to various parts of the State. It is to be 75x25 and the extra room it will afford will be utilized as a store house for the fish cans.

-The fellow who shot one of the ferr ets used to keep Platt-Barber & Co's ware house here rid of rats might have found something less contemptible to occupy his time. The ferret was out of the building at the time, but the employees were on the hunt for it when they learned of its being shot.

but not too long to give the public op- dren are Mrs. Samuel Ploutz, Osceola; Mrs. portunity of learning all the attractions of Josiah Evans, Clearfield; Mrs. Hamer Santhe home talent entertainment Mr. key, Mrs. Charles Campbell, and Samuel Hindman is planning to give for the benefit B., and George G. Parker, all of Philipsof the Y. M. C. A. Full particulars will burg. One sister, Mrs. Andrew Hunter, of be given later as the money spenders are Philipsburg and one brother, Fred Dale, of just now too busy doing Xmas shopping to Osceola, also survive; her maiden name hedevote many minutes to reading a Y. M. ing Mary Ann Dale. C. A. program.

---- Mr. and Mrs. Dempster L. Meek have sent out invitations for the marriage citizen of Mill Hall, died suddenly at his of their daughter, Mary, and Mr. Francis home in that place on Monday morning of M. Musser, of Altoona. The wedding is heart trouble. He was born in York to take place at the family home at Waddle county 68 years ago but had been a resion Tuesday morning, December 22nd, at dent of Mill Hall since childhood. He was 10:30 o'clock. Rev. Eslinger, of the Buf- an active member of the Methodist church, falo Run Methodist church, will pronounce | the town council and the G. A. R. He is she ceremony and the bride and groom are going to Chicago for their wedding journey. and interment was made in Cedar Hill

-Dr. Edward Gray, President of cemetery on Wednesday afternoon. Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport and who is well know to the majority of our readers as his boyhood days were spent in Half-moon valley has recently undergone lingering illness of consumption. She had a very serious operation. Grave apprebensions were entertained as to the results but the operation is said to have been a beautiful christian character. She was 22 success and the chances for recovery of the years old and a daughter of Joseph H. patient are good. The news of Dr. Gray's Hayes. Interment will be made at Cedar illness came as a surprise to his friends here as be has enjoyed unusually good health for the past two years. A fall last winter, however, gave rise to complications late William Kramer who lived near which necessitated the operation. It is to Mackeyville for years, died at the home of be hoped that Dr. Gray's illness will be a her son William, in Nittany valley, on short one and result in ultimate recovery Tuesday night. Interment will be made as he is a man interested in too many good in the Disciple graveyard at Salona this night on the way to Wilkesbarre for interworks to be easily spared.

1 -MRS. JOSEPH MILLER .--- Mrs. Magdalena Miller, mother of Courad Miller, of this place, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harrison Henry, in Tyrone, on Saturday morning. Her death was caused by pleuro pneumonia after an illness of four weeks

a member.

Mrs. Miller was a native of Zurzac, Switzerland, and was born March 25th, 1826, but had been in this country about 51 years, or since she was 26 years old. Most of that time was spent in the Cooper settlement, near Kylertown, Clearfield county, where her husband, Joseph Miller, died on August 4th, 1880. She is survived by six daughters and three sons. Funeral services were held on Monday morning in St. Matthews church.

Interment was made in Clearfield county. H H H

MRS. DAVID H. PARKER .- Mrs. David H. Parker died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Campbell, in Philipsburg, on Sunday morning, after having been ill with dropsy for about six weeks. She was about 80 years old and a very estimable woman; having been a life long member of ---- February fifth seems a long time off the Methodist church. Her surviving chil-

1

-John S. Flanigan, a well known survived by two daughters and two sons,

- II 1 ---- Miss Josephine Hayes died at her home at Parvin, on Tnesday night, after a bore her suffering patiently and welcomed her death because she was sustained by a Hill this morning.

-Mrs. Martha Kramer, widow of the morning.

sets forth the strong points of some of his companies, but is full of useful information. as well.

-Strange that Spring Grove, York county, has not before this had an influx of emigrants greater than ever started to possess a western territory for it is certainly an Elysian village! It numbers eight hundred inhabitants and is lighted with electricity, heated with steam-the gift of a philanthropic citizen who also erected a very pretty hotel which he lets free of rent Hon. C. A. Mayer, of Lock Haven, holds township. While he holds two offices he is not but without a license. The churches all flourish as they are backed by such cheerful bench longer than any judge in Pennsylsupport that debt is unknown; there is a Y. M. C. A. with a splendidly equipped of service the Democrat, of his home city, gymnasium and the secretary of which receives $100 per month. A public subscription for Y. M. C. A., church or any other institution is unknown as deficiency or need anywhere is supplied by the unsolicited generosity of those able who seek rather than are sought for opportunities to give. Question-is this a progressive twentieth century village or is it nourishing principles of socialism such as Sheldon would countenance or has it not yet forgotten the true charity of our forefathers and which was more akin to the Christ doctrine than that generally obtaining nowadays?

-In shopping for Holiday goods don't overlook our fine teas and coffees. They are just what you want. Try them. Sechler & Co.

KILLED IN A RAIL WAY ACCIDENT .-James Brown and Thomas Toner, known about here as "Hock," were iun down by a way passenger train near Brisbin, in Clearfield county, on Tuesday afternoon. Brown was killed outright and Toner was bruised badly but not seriously hurt. In fact he was discharged yesterday from the Philipsburg hospital, to which institution he was taken after the accident.

The two men left Bellefonte about two weeks ago with four horses which they desired to trade or sell to good advantage. When the accident occurred they were crossing the track in a buggy leading two of their horses. Brown had both legs broken and his skull fractured. He lived about three-quarters of an hour and died at the Hontzdale station. Toner is a brother of James Toner, the Bellefonte liveryman. Brown is not so well known here having only been a resident of the town a short time. He with his wife and father William Brown, res ide in a small house in the alley near the steam heat works. The dead man is 32 years of age and was born in Ashlamd, Pa. He is survived by his err: Patrick, of Scranton; John of DuBois; Michael, of Philipsburg.

ment.

His body was taken through here last

Herrin Y. Roop, of Lehanon Valley College; Prof. Llewellyn Philips, Bucknell Harris home on Howard street. University, and Mr. Frank C. Wellman. Shadyside Academy, Pittshurg.

- Domino coffee sugar, Maraschino cherries, three sized bottles, Burnett's extracts, sardines boneless and peeledfine olives, pure olive oil, figs, nut meats, fine table raisins. Sechler & Co.

----Clothing-confidence and real values of Rev. Aikens from Pine Grove to the latter place.

---- Kokaks for Xmas, at Bush's.

at Montgomery & Co.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS A JUDGE .- The the enviable position of having been on the vania. In speaking of his unequalled term speaks as follows :

Today, December 15th, he could be seen sitting upon the bench in the court house in this city, disposing of legal points with his usual dispatch and quietly celebrating the 73rd anniversary of his birth and at the same time celebrating the thirty-fifth anniversary of his service on the bench. This is the longest consecutive term any judge of any district in the State has Judge Mayer has five years of his present term yet to serve and judging from his appearance he will serve out that time and ave several years to spare to caper with the young fellows after he has rounded out his forty years on the bench.

DIPHTHERIA CLOSES A SCHOOL .- The Rock Forge school in Benner township has been closed because of the prevalence of diphtheria in that community. Four of Frank Shuey's and three of William Eminand as the children had been attending the school up to the time they became ill, and several of them afterwards, the health authorities decided to close the school for a time, at least. The diphtheria these children have said to be of a very malignant form.

-----Clothing-confidence and real values at Montgomery & Co.

REBUILDING THE ENGINE HOUSE.-The work of bricklaving for the new engine house of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania that is to replace the one destroyed by fire on the night of the 2nd inst was begun on Wednesday. The new building is to occupy the site of the old one and will be 60x163ft, with a shop annex 15x28. It is to be of brick, with a steel truss superstructure and slate roof; making it entirely fire proof.

DELOZIER-NEARHOOF.-Miss Mary E. Delozier, eldest daughter of John L. Delozier, and Ira S. Nearhoof, of Altoona, were married at noon on last Thursday, at the home of the bride's parents in Warriorsparents, his wife and the following broth- Mark, by the Rev. M. C. Piper. The groom is employed in the Juniata erecting shops and upon their return from their wedding trip to Washington will reside at of it, when he happened to hit on the happy that place.

member of the Harrington Concert company was in town on Tuesday visiting at the H. P.

-Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton B. Humes, of Jersey Shore, who had been visiting at the home of Col Wm. P., and Miss Myra Humes, on north Alle gheny street, departed on Wednesday.

-James Cornelly has entered Mercy hospital in Pittsburg to have a wound treated that never healed properly after he was operated for ap pendicitis in that institution several years ago.

-Nicholas Vallimont, of Pine Glenn, was in town yesterday on business pertaining to his duties as assessor and tax collector in Burnside to be envied for one of his annual trips is a twenty-one mile walk. -Miss Estalla Kohlbecker, of Milesburg, has gone to spend the Holidays with friends in Patterson, N. J., and New York city. She accompanied Miss Katie Metz, of the former place, who had been her guest. -Mrs. Bob Fay, Dr. and Mrs. Christie and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Large, of Altoona, were in town vesterday. Mrs. Fay came down to visit her parents and the others spent the night at the Nittany Country Club. Mr. Large is division freight agent of the P. R. R. Co.

-Rev. Fletcher Biddle, who is getting along amously well in his Curtin Heights Methodist church at Harrisburg, was in town on Tuesday afternoon botween trains on his way from visiting relatives up Buffalo Run and Osceola. -Mrs. Frank Frain went down to Newberry of Wednesday to stay with her parents until after Christmas. It is needless to say that Frank will not eat his Christmas dinner in Bellefonte, although he has had a lot of invitations to do a -Misses Anna and Christine Blanchard left for Chicago, on Tuesday, expecting to make the future home in that city with their brothe Frederick, who is connected with the Illinoi hizer's children are down with the disease Steel Co. He had apartments already furnishe for their reception.

-Charley Moore, of Boalsburg, was in town on Tuesday and it was quite a surprise to learn that he is not teaching this fall. He is one of the old pedagogues of the county and the institute at Philipsburg will be minus a good one if Charley doesn't go over just to look on.

-Mrs. Jane Musser has closed her home in Spring township, south of town, and gone to Chatham, N. Y., to spend the winter with her daughter.Katharine,who is teaching stenography in a school at that place. She left yesterday expecting to stay in Williamsport last night with friends.

-Adam Shroyer, of Milesburg, dropped in on Wednesday to order the paper sent to a friend out in Missouri. Adam knows the kind of a Xmas gift to send. He knows that a man would far rather have a year's good reading than a pipe he can't smoke, or a neck tie that doesn't go well with his hair or some other equally useless bauble.

-Mrs. Charlotte Harter was in town on Friday on her way to Altoona to visit her relatives. She has closed her home in Millheim for the winter and before returning to it will spend sometime in Wilkinsburg with her daughter, Mrs. Saulsbury. Jessie, her youngest daughter, is in Chicago, where she is in a telephone exchange. -Emanuel Noll, the Bellefonte news broker for all of his friends in all parts of the country, dropped in on Tuesday to fix it up for next year's weekly letters to them. "Manny" is such a grea fellow to keep tab on his friends that his corespondence grew to the point when he would either have to employ a stenographer or drop most plan of sending the WATCHMAN to them.

ANNOUNCEMENT .--- I wish to announce that I have been appointed district agent of the Manhattan Life Insurance Company of New York, one of the strongest and best life insurance companies in the world. Many new and attractive plans of insurance, better than investments in stocks and bonds. FREDERICK K. FOSTER.

Sale Register.

DECEMBER 297H.—At the late residence of Isaac Tressler, in College township, five tracts of land, together with all buildings and appurte-nances. Sale at 9 o'clock, a. m.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Wheat-Red	871/2@88
" -No. 2
Corn -Yellow	5410,54%
" Mixed new	473/410,50
Oats	41@43
Flour-Winter, Per Br'l	3,100 3.30
" -Penna, Roller	3.60@3.75
" Favorite Brands	4.85 ( 500
Rye Flour Per Br'l	3.35
Baied hay—Choice Timothy No. 1 " " Mixed " 1	10.00/ 15.50
" " " Mixed " 1	11 00/0 14.00
Straw

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,

The following are the quotations up to six o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes

	Red wheat, old	80
	New wheat	80
	Rye, per bushel	56
•	Corn, shelled, per bushel	50
	Corn, ears, per bushel	50
	Corn, ears, per bushel, new	45
•	Oats, old and new, per bushel	35
r	Barley, per bushel	50
	Ground Plaster, per ton 8 50 to 1	9 50
	Buckwheat, per bushel	40
•	Cloverseed, per bushel
	Timothy seed per bushel$2.00 to $	2.25

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

Potatoes per bushel new	65
Onions Eggs, per dozen	75 28
Lard, per pound Country Shoulders	10
Sides	10
Hams Tallow, per pound	12
Butter, per pound	25

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to persons advertis-ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:

One

SPACE OCCUPIED	3m	6m	1 1 y
inch (12 lines this type	$ 5	$ 8 10	$ 10

20 30 55 100 10 15
 10
 13

 12
 20

 20
 35

 35 55
mn (5 inches) Quarter Column (5 inches) Half Column (10 inches) One Column (20 inches). Advertisements in special column 25 per cent.

Transient advs. per line, 3 insertion Each additional insertion, per line 20 cts 10 ots. and dispatch. The WATCHMAN office has been re-fitted with Fast Presses and New Type, and overything in the printing line can be excouted in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates. Terms-Cash.

Terms—Cash. All letters should be addressed to P. GEAY MEIN, Propriets