THE CENTRE COUNTY PHILADEL-PHIANS BANQUET .- The banquet of the Centre county association of Philadelphia at Dooner's hotel in that city on Tuesday evening must have been a very delightful affair, if credence is to be given the accounts of it that are being retold here by those who were fortunate enough to be among the sixty-five guests. Dr. Roland G. Curtin, president of the association, was the toast-master and the guests of honor were Gen. James A. Beaver, Hon. A. K. McClure, Hon. A. O. Furst and Hon. John G. Love, although Col. McClure and Judge Love were the only two present to respond to the formal toasts of the evening. There were impromptu talks by many others of the merry party of old Centre countians who feasted in the city of Brotherly Love. Judge Love spoke on "Centre County Historically;" Col. McClure on "Some Reminiscenses of Centre County;" Gen. Fisher, "Some Experiences of Forty Years Ago Tonight, When I Escaped From Libby Prison Through the Tunnel;" R. M. Foster, "Centre County of Today;" Col. Spangler, "Centre County and the Pennsylvania Germans."

The following menu was served:

MENU. Radishes Olives Celery Snapper Soup Boiled Kennebec Salmon

Sauce Hollandai Sauterne Tenderloin of Beef, with Mushrooms

Parisienne Potatoe Roast Stuffed Squab

Neapolitan Ice Cream Assorted Cakes French Coffee

Cigars The banquet committee of arrangements composed Ira D. Garman, chairman, Thomas Foster, Dr. S. Gray Mattern, Max Liveright and L. Olin Meek.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilson are both sick with the grip. Mrs. John Wagner, who has the small-pox, is some better at this writing.

It is reported that the Hannon family are over the small-pox but cannot go out yet. George Barrett was called home from Hollidaysburg on Tuesday on account of the illness of his wife. Jause Mrs. John The ter she lason Chair, of Snow Shoe, were vistant at the fees home a few days this week.

Miss Mary Wilson came home last Friday ; having spent several weeks with relatives at Centre Hall Bellefonte and State College. The share holders of the Howard canning company, met in Lucas hall Saturday, Feb. 6th. The location committee reported that they had secured a piece of ground from Edward Shope for the location of the factory. There being some dispute as to doing more business the meeting was postponed until Saturday, Feb. 20th. Later it was discovered in staking off the ground for the factory that the site selected is too small, so the committee had to select another location and chose a lot below town known as the stony batter on the Bernard Lauth estate.

LOCAL INSTITUTE.—The teachers of district No. 2, of Centre county held their local institute at Boalsburg last Friday and Saturday, in the lecture rooms of the Reformed church. Prof. Gramley, of the Boalsburg High school, acted as president and fitted the position quite well. It was shortly after 7 o'clock Friday evening when he called for order. Rev. A. A. Black offered prayer. Rev. J. I. Thompson in a neat cut speed paid the teachers a most cordial welcome. Miss Florence Duck, on the part of the teachers, made the response in a few well chosen words. Prof. P. H. Meyer, with a choir of seven voices, rendered fine selections of music at each session. The attendance of teachers as well as patrons was excellent. Every session was well attended by the citizens of Boalsburg and the surrounding country. After the Friday evening session Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Boal invited the association to their home for refreshments that were served with a liberal hand. Prof. John A. Young A. M., of the Centre Hall school, was introduced and thanked Mr. and Mrs. Boal for their kindness and cordiality in making everybody feel at home.

The Saturday program was carried out with but a few changes. Hartswick, Thompson, Keller, Dr. Kidder and county Sup't. Gramley were all present. Col. D. F. Fortney, of Bellefonte, was introduced and took for his subject the "School Library" quoting the law authorizing school boards to lay 1 mill tax for the purpose. He also made many valuable suggestions for suitable publication whereby the library could be furnished with but a small expense.

Mr. Theodore Boal offered to furnish tuition free to the spring term of the Boalsburg High school for the best essay on local history, said essay to contain over three hundred words.

It was past 4 o'clock Saturday evening when the program was exhausted. Everybody joined in singing and in repeating the Lord's prayer and Rev. Black announced the benediction.

Sunday forenoon rather a brisk thunder shower passed over this place and the rest of the day was pleasant, but Monday dawned with a high wind and cold.

The party at the home of Thomas Decker, one evening last week, was attended by a number of the young people from this town and they report having a fine time. The Oak Hall roller mills was closed down Monday owing to the breaking of one of the waterwheels late Saturday, but within a few days they will be running full capacity again. Four men from Millheim have been cutting apple and walnut logs in this neighborhood and having them sawed by the Linden Hall Lumber Co., the lumber is to be used in the manufacture of furniture.

Saturday afternoon as John I. Thompson and daughters, Helen and Bess, were driving down through the campus, at State College. on their way home, a bolt broke causing the sleigh tongue to drop to the ground and frightening the horses and throwing all out of the sleigh and Mr. Thompson was rolled some ten or fitteen feet in the snow, but no one was hurt, although the sleigh was broken before the horses could be gotten under control again

The local teachers institute held at Boalsburg Friday and Saturday was well attended by the public and every one took great interest in all discussions, and to make the teachers feel welcome Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Boal took them to their mansion and banqueted them and when they had done justice to same, they took them around to show all the improvements made and their many mementos that they have collected from many parts of the world, some of which are very old and highly prized by their present owners.

On last Wednesday all the roads leading to Lemont were lined with carriages and buggies heading to the Presbyterian parsonage at Lemont. It was the occasion of a reception or a donation to the new pastor, Rev. Walter Harnish and his wife. Their granary and larder were replenished to gospel measure, full and running over. Everybody seemed to be in a gleeful mood, wishing Rev. and Mrs. Harnish a pleasant and profitable sojourn among their people. The ladies of the congregation furnished refreshments.
