Heart of Baltimore Burnt Out.

distance they travelled, were the last to stand the brunt of the flames, and when the fire began to burn itself out in the coal yard of the American Ice company, seven of their ten steamers were backed up against a bulkhead of the Patapsco river.

ICEBERG 100 FEET HIGH

One of the spectacular sights of Baltimore's Big Fire.

One of the spectacular sights of the district is the lofty iceberg, 100 feet high, left standing after the destruction of the wooden walls of an ice house of the American Ice company.

Close by this is the extensive lumber yards of Wilson & Co., a solid block of highly inflammable material, projecting into the burned area, which, strangely enough, was saved by the firemen.

At 1 o'clock this morning Fire Chief Horton ordered nine of the 18 Baltimore fire companies to houses and gave permission to Chester and Altona companies to return home.

No Disorder and No Looting. Save for its physical aspects, the story of the fire is a negative one in all that usually attends so vast a calamity.

Baltimore is as orderly as a village and only the throbbing of the laboring fire engines and the reverberating boom of dynamite as it brings dangerous walls to the ground, disturbs its wonted quiet.

So far there has been no call for aid. Profers of assistance have come from many quarters, from sister cities, from corporations and from private citizens, but Baltimore cannot say whether or not it will be needed or accepted.

Effect of Fire National in Scope. Baltimore, Feb. 9.—While the fire was confined within a certain territory of the city, the effect of the conflagration will be more or less national in its scope. Wholesale trade here has been paralyzed for months to come, and southern buyers, a large number of whom deal in Baltimore, will have to go elsewhere to purchase their goods.

RELIEF FOR BUSINESS MEN

Maryland Legislature Creates Ten Successive Holidays For Baltimore.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 9.—The general assembly met in the state house to consider plans for the relief of the fire conditions in Baltimore. Senator Gill, of Baltimore, introduced a bill authorizing Governor Warfield to declare 10 successive legal holidays in the stricken city so as to aid property owners and other losers by the fire to get their business affairs into as good a shape as possible.

Valentine Place-Cards.

Here, is a jolly scheme for valentine place-cards at the table. They are doll valentines made with split zephyr. They should be varied, as white, imps and "In-juns." The model is an "imp."

Cut two strings a yard each in length, and double by bringing ends to ends. Double again; double the third time. The loop is the top. As this is to be an imp we use yellow sewing silk. Thread a needle and catch securely under the loop; this gives the starting point for the head, as well as ends to attach the card.

Will Arrange School Exhibits.

Miss Alice M. Yierden, of DuBois, will have charge of the school work exhibit of Pennsylvania at St. Louis exposition. Miss Zierden is a graduate of Bucknell university and was in charge of the Buffalo and Charleston expositions.

Refuge for Aged Women.

Louisville Man Leaves Fortune to Establish Home for Old Women.

By his will, made public recently, Capt. Daniel G. Parr, who died at Louisville, Ky., recently, leaves immediately $400,000 in personalty and after the death of his last grandchild, $450,000 in realty, or his entire estate, toward the establishment and maintenance of "Parr's Rest," a refuge for old and infirm women.

Captain Parr refrained from making a will until a short time ago, when, after seeing an aged woman, poorly clad and sick he remarked: "A refuge which would make unnecessary such suffering as that woman's would be worth half a hundred Carnegie libraries."

Captain Parr was 79 years old. His legal heirs probably will contest the will.

Returning the Favor

"And which do you favor, your father or your mother," asked the visitor. "Ma," replied Bobby, "because she don't lick me. But I look like pa, everybody says."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Followed Instructions.

"How about that little bill," asked the doctor.

"Why, doctor," was the reply, "only a little while before you sent it in you told me not to let anything worry me and I haven't."—Chicago Post.

Soph—"Those football players say they are coming down here today to clean things up. Freshman—"Oh, I guess they are good cleaners. It's a scrub-team, you know."

NEARLY FORFEITS HIS LIFE.—A runaway almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Buckle's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at Green's Drug Store.

RHEUMATISM

Is a rack on which you need not suffer long.

It depends on an acid condition of the blood, which affects the muscles and joints, causes inflammation and pain, results from defective digestion and a torpid action of the liver, kidneys and skin.

Sciatica lumbago and stiff neck are forms of it.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of rheumatism. I was so I could not lift anything and my knees were so stiff I could hardly get up or down stairs. Since taking three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I have never felt a symptom of rheumatism, and I gladly recommend Hood's for this disease." Mrs. HATTIE TURNER, Belvoir, Mo.
