THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

Wednesday was Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season.

Last Saturday morning James Ott fell on the ice on Linn street, injuring his chest so that he had to be assisted home.

As a prelude to Tuesday's election the Young American Republican club gave a smoker in their club rooms on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. B. Miller are rejoicing over the advent of a new baby girl in their family—it having arrived last Saturday morning.

Last Sunday being the 14th, St. Valentine's Day, those so inclined took the occasion on Saturday to send their missives—loving and otherwise.

James I. McClure has gone to State College where he has opened up an office as special representative for the Singer Sewing machine company.

Edward Sellers has purchased the old stone woolen mill at Oak Hall and will fit it up as a machine shop to be operated in conjunction with the foundry at that place.

Roger T. Bayard, who has been on the sick list the past four months, made his first trip down town last Saturday, and very pleased his friends were to see him around again.

Miss Mary V. Rhone, daughter of Hon. Leonard Rhone and who is a clerk in the State Dairy and Food department, is ill at her boarding place in Harrisburg, being threatened with pneumonia.

Miss Ida Klinger, daughter of Mr. John Klinger, of East Lamb street, while going down Ridge street to Linn Thursday of last week, slipped on the ice, fell and broke her left arm in two places. At this time she is getting along as well as can be expected.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church held a Valentine social in the chapel parlors on Tuesday evening. There were games of various kinds, choice refreshments and music by the Bellefonte orchestra.

L. H. Musser's team of drivers ran away up Buffalo Run on Friday and after going some distance they got into a barbed wire fence that used "Dan," Lincoln's favorite horse, up very badly. The sleigh was also demolished.

Mr. Edward M. Griest, who is now connected with the Platt-Barber company at Phillipsburg, has rented the Charles E. Murray property, on Tenth and Spruce streets, and will move his family from Unionville to that place in about two weeks.

A man who stopped off in Phillipsburg to visit his brother-in-law, Harry Newman, last week was quarantined for small-pox upon his arrival in Clearfield on Monday. When the Newmans heard it they were soared, of course, but as yet the disease has not broken out in their home.

This evening the Junior class of the Bellefonte High school will hold a Washington social in the High school room. The small admission of 10 cents should draw a large crowd to witness the delightful program of entertainment arranged for the evening. Ice cream, cake and candies will be served.

That prince of good fellows and sterling Democrat, Harry D. Rumberger, of Phillipsburg, was one of the lucky ones in the guessing contest of the Florida Tobacco company, and because he came close to guessing the number of cigars sold in the United States last November he received a check for $35 and twenty boxes of Cremo cigars. It is needless to say that all Harry's friends are "smoking up" these days.

Dr. George F. Harris is arranging to move his office from his present quarters in the Orider building to the two east rooms in the Curtin residence on High street, which he is now having remodeled and put in good condition late in the fall. The Phoenix pumping station continues a success, the reservoir being kept full all the time. Col. Reynolds called the attention of council to a number of breaks in the brick wall and cement of the reservoir which should be repaired.

Burgess Walker turned in $4 as fines for January. A borough note of $2.00 held by the Centre County bank was ordered renewed and interest paid. Mr. Stuart expects to take possession of his new property about March 1st and will conduct it for himself thereafter. He is the eldest son of the late Col. James F. Stuart, and as he enjoys the confidence of all the people of that community he will likely make a success of it.

LINCOLN DAY AT STATE COLLEGE.—Last Friday, February 12, Lincoln Day, was fittingly observed at State College with exercises appropriate to the occasion, the first time in the history of the College. And so successful were they that President Atherton announced that it was his hope that hereafter Lincoln Day would always be observed at the College. A special train, leaving here at 9 o'clock, conveyed a large party of Bellefonters to the College. In the party were former Senator Patton, of Michigan, the orator of the day; Senator A. E. Patton, of Curwensville, and his son, H. J. Patton; Gen. James A. Beaver, Judge John G. Love, Rev. Ambrose Schmidt, A. A. Dale, Esq., C. F. Montgomery, Henry C. Quigley, Register A. G. Archey, Hon. James Schofield, Rev. J. E. Morris, Col. Hiram Young, of the York Dispatch; Col. John A. Woodward, of Howard; Hon. H. R. Curtin, Roland; Hon. J. W. Kepler, Pine Grove Mills; James H. Potter, A. C. Mingle, M. I. Gardner, Thomas Beaver, and others, including a number of ladies. The party was met at the train by President Atherton and the faculty and after a cordial greeting they were escorted to the beautiful and commodious Schwab auditorium where the college students had already assembled. The visitors took seats on the platform.

President Atherton presided and after an invocation by Prof. Gill the Lord's prayer was chanted by a large student choir of male voices. The anthem "To Thee, Oh Country Great and Free," was also sung by the choir, after which, in a few appropriate words, Gen. Beaver introduced the distinguished orator of the day, Senator John Patton, of Grand Rapids, Michigan. Senator Patton received a warm greeting and his address, which was eloquent and scholarly, was well received. His subject was of course "Abraham Lincoln" and the speaker paid a splendid tribute to this matchless American, one of the greatest, if not the greatest, man this country has ever produced.

The Battle Hymn of the Republic was sung with spirit after which Wade H. Barnes, of the Senior class, delivered an eloquent address on "Lincoln the Man." This was followed by another student, John C. Elder, on "Lincoln the President." The exercises were brought to a close by the singing of America.

THE LENTEN SEASON.—Formal announcement of the approach of Lent was made in all Catholic churches Sunday by the reading of the Bishop's annual proclamation concerning the manner of observing the lenten season. Ash Wednesday, this week, was the beginning of Lent, and the regulations for the observance of the solemn season do not differ materially from those of other years.

Throughout the entire Lenten period the services in the Catholic churches are of unusual solemnity. The first day of Lent, Ash Wednesday, is marked by ceremonies of a very solemn nature. On that day, when the public penance was in force in the church, the guilty presented themselves at the altar to avow their faults and to receive ashes on their heads. After the abolition of public penance, the church, not wishing to deprive her children of the great teachings, continued in the pious ceremony of laying them on the brows of the faithful at the beginning of Lent. The priests make a sign of the cross on the foreheads of the penitent with ashes secured from the burning of palms remaining from Palm Sunday of the year before.

Certain days of Lent are observed with more ceremony than others. Among the number are the first Sunday in Lent, better known as the Sunday of the Torches; fourth Sunday in Lent, called Laetare Sunday; Passion Sunday; Feast of the Annunciation, March 25; Palm Sunday, March 27; Holy Thursday, March 31; Good Friday, April 1; Easter, April 3.

BOROUGH COUNCIL.—Only six members were present at Monday evening's meeting of the borough council, over which Col. Reynolds presided in the absence of president Cunningham. Nothing of great importance transpired during the session. Burgess Walker suggested the advisability of testing the fire plugs of the town to see if they are all in good working order, and Sup't. Ryan assured council that the entire system had been thoroughly overhauled and put in good condition late in the fall. The Phoenix pumping station continues a success, the reservoir being kept full all the time. Col. Reynolds called the attention of council to a number of breaks in the brick wall and cement of the reservoir which should be repaired.

Burgess Walker turned in $4 as fines for January. A borough note of $2.00 held by the Centre County bank was ordered renewed and interest paid. Solicitor Fortney's bill of $180.00 for one year's salary and extra services was approved after being discussed by council. The following bills were approved and ordered paid:

B. A. C. WINS THE SECOND GAME.—The second game in the basket ball series between the Bellefonte Athletic club and the Bellefonte Academy was played Thursday evening of last week and won by the former five by the score of 25 to 19. Guy Cox and Samuel Haupt as ushers, Mr. Edward Peters, as best man, and Miss Bertie Haupt as bridesmaid. They were met at the altar by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Rev. Mr. Carson asked to be dismissed from the pastorate of the Milesburg and Lick Run churches on account of the severe physical labor involved which he found beyond his strength. After commissioner George Stroop had reported the action of the church acquiescing in the request of the pastor the Presbytery dissolved the relation.

Rev. Mr. Mudge presented a certificate of dismissal from the Presbytery of Chester, and after the usual examination was received into this Presbytery. He was installed as pastor of the Lewistown church on Wednesday evening of this week, Rev. G. T. Gunter, of Tyrone, being alternate for Dr. Laurie who delivered the charge to the people.

There was an interesting marriage at the First Methodist church this afternoon, where a large congregation had gathered to witness the ceremony. No cards, but verbal invitations were responded to by the numerous admirers of the couple. The ushers were Messrs. T. Fletcher Bell and Sam Fullilove, who politely seated the guests.
