-J. Milton Furey, well known here and at Pleasant Gap, was elected an alderman in the Second ward of Williamsport at the recent election

- Mrs. James Quinu, of east Logan street, fell on the walk last Friday and injured herself so severely that she was taken to the hospital for treatment. -Tomorrow, Saturday, evening the Williamsport High school and Bellefonte Athletic club basket hall teams will meet in the armory here. A great game is expected -A "Deestrict Skule" is to be conducted in the Methodist church at Pleasant Gap on the evening of March 5th, which means lots of fun for those who attend. Mrs. W. R. Gainfort met with quite a misfortune yesterday morning. While north Spring street she fell and broke her right arm. -Architect Robert Cole, of this place, has submitted the plans that have been accepted for the new public school building to be erected in Beech Creek, with the coming of spring. -Mrs. S. E. Henry, of Martha Furnace, tripped while descending the stairs with a lamp and some bed clothing, or e day last week and fell to the bottom, dislocating her shoulder. Joseph Gross, a brother of Jacob Gross, the Bellefonte tailor, is quarantined with smallpox in Johnstown. Jacob went out to see him last week and found that he was being cared for as well as was possible.

-- Marie Walsh, a daughter of Mr. John Walsh, of this place, who is in Philipsburg studying music, appeared in concert there one evening last week and the Ledger says she played "very beautiful-

-The N. Y. C. R. R. is said to be preparing to erect a new and very commodious station at Mill Hall. It will be designed especially to add more comfort to passengers of the C. R. R. of Pa. making connections at that point.

-- William P. Duncan is reported as being very ill at his home in Philipsburg. He took grip on Tuesday of last week and on Friday his condition became so alarming that his sisters were called from Wash ington to his hedside.

---It is quite probable that during the spring the Bellefonte school board will erect a small school building on the Spring street front of the North ward school grounds. It will be built to take the place of the present building on Howard street. rented from M. I. Gardner.

--- The Roger Bros. will appear at Garman's tomorrow night in "Next Door." The name is not significant of anything more than something to hang a lot of acrobatic work and specialties onto. There is no plot to the play, as it is a jumble of trick acts, singing, dancing and fun making by some clever people.

-Nehasne, the big passenger locome tive on the C. R. R. of Pa., got tired pull ing the train east on Monday night and deliberately stopped working when some where near Nittany. It was nearly an hour before engineer Gilmour and fireman Royer could coax her back to her work and the one driving rod bad to be taken off al

--- Miss Laura Rumberger, of Unionville, took part in a pupils' recital given in the concert hall of the Broad Street Conservatory of Music. 1329-31 South Broad street, Philadelphia, of which Gilbert R. Combs is director, Wednesday evening, February 24th. Miss Rumberger sang "Purple Pansies," by Johnson, with much feeling and expression.

--- The members of the Junior class of the Bellefonte High school entertained on Friday evening. They gave what they called a "Washington Social" and everything colonial was au fait. Refreshments and a musical program contributed much to the entertainment, which was as diversified as was possible under the circumstances. The "Social" realized $45 for the school fund. There was no dancing.

-Already there are many evidences of the winter's having been very hard on small game, especially game birds. From several sections of the mountainous portions of the county came reports that wild turkeys have been found frozen to death sary of their marriage. It was a complete in the snow, and in some instances they have been captured before death, but in such a starving condition that even with the best care they have succumbed. It is likely that very few of the few quail left hospitable Thompson home, where mirth in this gention have survived

THE REUNION OF THE 148TH.-The fifth annual reunion of the 148th Reg. Vol. Inf. 2nd Army Corps, which was held in 1st. Bellefonte on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, brought a goodly number of the fighters of that gallant old regiment together. While the weather was anything but what Bellefonte wanted for them while here their welcome was made warm enough to leave a lasting impression of the pleasure of this visit to the home of their old commander, Col. James A. Beaver.

The most important business brought before the regimental association was that of the history which is now well under way toward publication. It is hoped it will be one of most exhaustive treatises of the service days of any body of soldiers participating in the Civil war. It has been most carefully compiled and edited with a view more to making it a lasting and authentic memorial to the 148th than for the personal pleasure of the men themselves.

All of the business sessions were held in the rooms of Gregg post, No. 95, G. A. R. which are admiraby adapted for such meetings and meals were served in the Post dining rooms by restauranter Cox.

The public function of the reunion was held in the court house Wednesday evening, with Col. Beaver presiding. It was largely attended and the various addresses were punctuated by patriotic airs sung by a choir specially trained by Prof. P. H. Meyer. Burgess W. Harrison Walker delivered the address of welcome, after which the Rev. Dr. Holloway, Clement Dale Esq., Capt. Hugh S. Taylor, Senator W. C. Heinle, Col. D. F. Fortney, Adj. J. W. Muffly, of Iowa, and Rev. Wm.

Gemmill, of Allenwood, Pa., spoke. As this meeting was called principally on account of the history no officers were elected. An executive committee, with Col. Beaver as chairman, was appointed to fix a time when all m s. for the history must be in the hands of the editors. After walking on an icy walk at her home on this action the meeting was adjourned sine die.

ping of the gannister rock that is an out-

cropping at many points along the Bald

Eagle mountains. This rock is used by new process fire brick plants and because of its highly silicious state is of great value in the manufacture of certain grades of The expense of getting it out ought not o be great, since it is always found on the surface and forms a layer on the mountain ranging in thickness from one to four or five feet. The stone is usually in sizes that can be handled by a man, consequent-erection of chutes to carry it down the mountain sides. Owing to the fact that the layer of gannister rock in this section is not thick the industry could not be everlasting, but there is every reason to believe that there is enough of it to make fortunes for the first persons who go after it.

BELLEFONTE HAS A SUSPICIOUS CASE. -It is altogether likely that the epidemic that has been bothering Howard for some time has broken out in Bellefonte. Frank Barclay, a son of William Barclay, of east Bishop street, is quarantined at his home on account of having lately developed a case of "infectious, contagious skin dis-

He is Dr. Seibert's patient and he called Dr. Harris in consultation on the case. They were unable to decide whether it is small-pox or not because the disease is yet in the incipient form, but in order to forestall a possible outbreak here a rigid quarantine has been established.

Mr. Barclay had visited relatives in Marion township who are suffering with the same trouble that is prevalent in Howard and that is where he probably became

EVIDENTLY GROWING DESPERATE:-Since brother Tuten of the Republican took unto himself a wife there have been numerous indications of a spruce up in the appearance of our friends Kurtz, of the Democrat, and Speer, of the Gazette. No matter how futile it may prove, it is there all right enough and "your uncle Fuller" is not the man to deny that the trouble is decidedly contagious, too. But of all the wiles and snares resorted to by this trio of tripodial bachelors none will prove a marker for the scheme recently set afloat by some of our mistresses of the art preservative. Not content with the advantage Leap year accords them the WATCHMAN Wednesday unearthed the following unique and romantic little plan which the young ladies in the Republican and WATCHMAN offices organized to aid in their matrimonial hopes.

Two boys hunting muskrats in the vicinity of the chain works on Wednesday discovered a quaint little bottle floating on the surface of the water. It was tightly corked and attracted their attention because of its unusual appearance. When opened the bottle revealed a number of slips of paper. On the largest was written in a dashing, angular hand this note.

Whoever gets this bottle will please take one name therefrom and then send it on one name therefrom and then send it on down the creek. The name will be that of a charming girl who is willing to support a de-serving man in comfort and ease for the rest of his natural life, if he will only write and propose to her.

Then there were five slips, each containing the name of one of the young ladies in question.

The bottle was brought to this office Wednesday evening and this story was put in type by a man who has lost all hope of ever getting his other rib back, so that it will be as much of a surprise to the fair compositors of the Republican and WATCH-MAN offices, when they read it this morning, as it will be to you.

It is really too bad to break in upon such a lovely little game, but it would be worse to have had all our compositors married off before we knew where to get others.

MISS JANE POTTER: -- Last Thursday evening Miss Jane Potter died very suddenly in Will's eye hospital, in Philadelphia, presumably of pneumonia. Only a few days previous she had entered the institution to undergo a slight operation on her eyes. Her brother Henry was with her at the time and as she seemed to be recovering nicely from the operation he went on to visit some relatives in New York. While he was there she suddenly expired and her brother John F., of Milesburg, went down at once to bring the body to her late home near Linden Hall.

Deceased was 68 years old and is survived by her sisters Mary, at home, and Mrs. Kent, of Lycoming county, and her brothers John F., Henry and Joshua, who is at Clairton, Pa.

Interment was made in the Prebyterian cemetery at Centre Hill on Wednesday.

WILLIAM JACKSON. - After an illness of several weeks of pneumonia William Jackson, aged 65 years, died at his home at Alto, on the B. C. R. R., at noon on Sun-

He was formerly a resident of Centre home of former sheriff B. F. Schaeffer, at Furnace, but for a year past had been farming at Alto. His widow and the following children survive him: Sylvester, of Altoona; George, of State College; Clyde, of Centre Furnace; Mrs. Arthur Evey, of State College, and Clara, at home.

Deceased was a very respectable gentleman who will be missed in that community. Interment will be made at Houserville on Wednesday morning.

MRS. ANNIE EBBS .- Mrs. Annie Ebbs passed away at her home at Lyonton, just east of Bellefonte, on Sunday morning. She was 87 years, 6 months and 13 days old and her death was due mostly to a general collapse, though until quite recently she was very active for one of her years. Since the Holidays she had, unaided, preced a quilt of unique design which she presented to her niece, Mrs Hunter Knisely, of this place.

Interment was made Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

-In a letter received on Wednesday from S. Frank VanOrmer, who we supposed to be still flourishing as a broker in butter and eggs at Harrisburg, we were quite surprised to learn that he is now permanently located in San Diego. Cal. Frank was formerly a resident of Bellefonte and his movements are more or less interesting to friends here. He writes that he has found a cli mate there about as near Heaven as he expects to get anywhere on this terrestrial ball and, added to the climate, there is the possibility of San Diego being the great export port for the southvest when the Rock Island rail-road is completed and the Panama canal dug. The city has been slumbering for ten years, but there are indications of its waking up since Frank got to town, so look out for San Diego.

SMALL-POX AT HOWARD BECOMING SERIOUS.-For several weeks there has been more or less uneasiness felt at Howard and vicinity over the prevalence of an epidemic that is supposed to be small--Miss Mary Hamilton has leased the pox. Owing to the conflict of opinion as to whether it is really small-pox or not there has been no rigid quarantine estabing school there, when she re-opens it after lished; the result of which has been the development of many new cases. Last week Dr. Groff, of Lewisburg, a member of the state board of health, visited Howard and pronounced the disease with which the members of the family of Henry Smith are affected to be smallpox. The place was quarantined at once, as was the home of William Leathers and the two Shay boys, all of whom are said to have it. Alfred Strickland and Sumner Wolf are both ill, presumably with the same trouble, though no quarantine is observed at their homes.

It is evident from reports that are being circulated that there is considerable bad feeling among the citizens of Howard as a result of the disease. However that may be they are surely not unwise enough to let any personal feelings stand in the way of any precaution that might eradicate the disease. Instead of clashing about what it really is would it not be better to stamp it out first and do the arguing afterwards? It is very evident that the disease is a loathsome one, that it is spreading and is infectious, therefore we are of the opinion that the people of Howard would be conserving their own welfare best if they were to accept it as the worst and fight it accordingly.

The schools of Howard have been ordered closed for four weeks and there will be no further church services until further
