Miss Neta Breen is home again assisting her mother who is unable to use her arm since being thrown from the buggy.

Wesley Hackenberg has bought the store house formerly owned by G. B. Waite and has already taken possession of the same.

Mrs. Shoffstall and daughter, of Minersville, Schuylkill county, are spending a few days with the former's brother, Serenes Harry.

Irvin Harry and the Misses Frazier and Emert, of Mill Hall, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Serenes Harry.

Hubsburg.

John Maize and wife, of Millheim, were guests at the home of D. M. Whitman Sunday.

Wm. Callahan, of Flemington, was in town between trains Saturday on his way home from Zion.

Nora and Boyd Whitman spent Saturday and Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Markle, at Pleasant Gap.

The members of the Evangelical church will hold a social in Kessinger's vacant store room, Saturday night March 19th.

Albert Williams and family and Frain Bower and Peter Evers were at Beech Creek over Sunday to visit the former's parents.

Shoes.

Prof. A. P. Weaver will teach a spring term of school here from April 11th, continuing eight weeks.

The Hubsburg High school will hold its first annual commencement in the Presbyterian church at that place on Monday evening, March 28th, at 8 o'clock.

Charles Kass, lately returned from Nebraska, where he was employed by the Jayne Medical company, is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Crow.

Mrs. Love, who has been a resident of our town for a number of years, shipped her goods to Wilkesburg where she expects to have her home in the future.

Pine Grove Mention.

Gordon Harper is confined to bed with erysipelas.

Hon. J. W. Kepler transacted business in Philadelphia last week.

On Tuesday John E. McWilliams moved onto the D. G. Meek farm at Fairbrook.

John Gummo, whose tonsillitis was at first reported to be diphtheria, is recovering.

Through an ad in this paper O. M. Sheets found his collie dog. It pays to advertise.

Mrs. D. G. Meek, of State College, who had been quite ill for several days, is better.

Miss Alice Robison, of Bellefonte, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Minnie Goss.

Harry Musser, who had been seriously ill during the past week with throat trouble, is better now.

Merchant Harry Frautz will commence to dispose of his goods at auction on Saturday evening.

Mrs. O. G. Marts and her little son are down from Altoona visiting grand-pa Roush on Main street.

Ed. Williams and wife and William Brouse and wife, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday with friends in this place.

After an all winter's stay at her Gatesburg farm Mrs. Francis Knoche will return to Harrisburg next week.

L. C. Wian, Rockefeller's right hand man in these diggings, was supplying our merchants with oil on Monday.

Wm. Rodemeyer, of Stone-valley, is moving to the old Erb home and will assist Hon. J. W. Kepler on the farm this season.

John and Adam Hartswick, with their wives, spent Sunday at the hospitable home of J. A. Decker, on Water street.

Miss Mary Ward has laid aside her needles and patterns for a long visit among friends in Pittsburg and Youngstown, Ohio.

Dice Thomas and Adam Felty journeyed to Stone valley last Thursday in quest of farm help, which they succeeded in getting.

J. Calvin Markle, of Tyrone, came down on Monday to spend a few days with his son-in-law, John Johnson and Will Keller.

Dr. H. Clay Campbell, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday at his parental home at State College. His father is much improved in health.

John Neese and family, of Penn Hall, were visiting relatives in this section last week. Mr. Neese is one of Penns-valley's best farmers.

Harry Sager, of Reedsville, has rented the Campbell sister's home in the Glades and will be Henry McCracken's left bower on the farm this spring.

After a prolonged visit with friends in this county Mr. and Mrs. William Gummo are arranging to return to their home in Madison, Wisconsin.

Don't fail to hear Bob Seeds in the Grand Army hall this evening. He will lecture on the "Mistakes of Life" and you can bet it will be one of them if you don't hear him.

Miss Blanche Treester is home from Missouri for a visit with her parents at Rock Springs. She is a stenographer for a wealthy ranchman in the south-west.

Miss Myrtle Patton left last Tuesday for a short visit among relatives in Pittsburg, after which she will go to Philadelphia to live with her mother and clerk in a store.

A. M. Brown sold a spanking team of donkeys to Hon. John Hamilton, of State College, last week. At a sale he held at Bellefonte last week three mated teams brought $1400.00.

Ed. Cronemiller, of Wisconsin, was called home last week on account of the illness of his father. During his eighteen years sojourn in the Badger State he has grown very much in avoirdupoise.

Harry McCracken spent last week visiting his brother Rev. J. C. McCracken, in Johnstown. On his way back he stopped at the Williamsburg orphanage and secured a boy who is fortunate in finding a home with the McCrackens.

Will Wagner and family, of Altoona, attended the funeral of his aunt Mary Slack at Potters Mills last week. While here their little daughter Helen took sick with tonsillitis and could not be taken home until Wednesday.

Moon-light huxsters are nightly relieving many hen roosts in this community of the choicest fowls, and smoke houses of the biggest hams. One night last week they robbed A. J. Tate of every rooster he had; not even leaving one to crow in the morning.

At the annual meeting of our township fathers on Monday the accounts of the various officers made a good showing. The overseers have a surplus sufficient for next year, without laying more tax. The supervisors had clean sheets and plenty of cash to liquidate all outstanding obligations. This is not so bad for a purely Democratic administration.

At a meeting of the Pine Grove light company held at the St. Elmo on Monday evening it was decided to give an entertainment in I. O. O. F. hall for the benefit of the fund. The night of April 8th was selected as the time and the nature of the entertainment will be a "Mock trial." Miss Ella Livingston, the popular school teacher, has succeeded station agent J. H. Ward for breach of promise and they will try the case before the public. President J. Will Kepler presided at the meeting and the following functionaries were appointed: On invitation, W. H. Fry, L. D. Musser and H. M. Krebs; arrangements, J. D. Tanyer, J. L. Murphy and J. R. Smith; sheriff, F. W. Swabb; court crier, W. E. Reed; tip staff, J. W. Miller; tickets, J. J. Reed and M. E. Hoeblering.

Oppose Sub-Marine Boats. Senators Allege Experiments are a Naval Function.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The fortification appropriation bill was before the Senate all day today, the provision for the purchase of a sub-marine boat of a designated type taking up the entire session. The chair over-ruled a point of order made against the provision and then followed a discussion on the merits. It was favored by Messrs. Perkins, Cockrell, Platt, of Connections, Warren and Proctor, while Messrs. Daniel, Martin, Berry, Gallinger, Lodge and Mallory opposed the army entering into experiments with sub-marine boats and usurping what they alleged to be a naval function.
