Silly Neatness.

One hears so much nowadays about hygenic housekeeping and sanitary matters generally that it seems impossible that any woman who can read ordinary printed matter can fail to have some knowledge on this important question. But for all that it is certain that the woman whose housekeeping may be described as "nasty-nice," and whose methods are of fifty years ago, has by no means died out in the land. She lingers here and there with her old-fashioned prejudices and preferences.

She prides herself, it may be, on the fact that every article of clothing of herself or of her children taken off at night is carefully folded, one piece upon the other, before she gets into bed. This is a piece of folly exacted by elders in past days—a remnant of old-fashioned Victorian tidiness. Almost better the methods of the average man who flings one garment here and another there. At last they get some chance to ventilate. It is better still when clothes are separated and hung for the night near the open windows.

Then there is the woman who prides herself upon the fact that her bed is never seen unmade; that before she goes down to breakfast it is immaculately remade, with its French bolster and its starched "shams" and its interior, alas! still warm. It may be a radiant piece of furniture, but all the same it is a fusty, unhealthy sleeping place.

Then there is the housekeeper who goes out against dust as if she were a London policeman and dust a street gamin. She has but one idea—it must be "moved on," and so with a flapping cloth or that ridiculous household utensil, the feather duster, she stirs it up and whacks it from place to place, but never learns to gather it up into a soft duster and remove it to some place where it will be rebreathed.

The care of clothes in a closet is another matter often mismanaged. Everyone knows how quickly wardrobes grow fusty and the happy day may come when architects will manage some method of ventilation for cupboards other than by occasionally leaving the doors wide open. In the meantime, if all clothes are perfectly cooled and aired before they are hung up, and if they are carried out from time to time and hung in the open air for a few hours, this difficulty will be very largely met.

The lives of women who keep house will be simplified and sweetened when they all learn to "use their brains to save their bodies."—Youth's Companion.

TIME IS THE TEST

THE TESTIMONY OF BELLEFONTE PEOPLE STAND THE TEST

The test of time is what tells the tale. "A new broom sweeps clean" but will it wear well is what interests most. The public soon find out when misrepresentations are made and merit alone will stand the test of time. Bellefonte people appreciate merit and many months ago local citizens make the statements which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? A cure that lasts is the kind that every sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

James Rine of High street employed in the planing mill, says: I can speak as highly now of Doan's Kidney Pills as I did years ago and my case is pretty good evidence that the cures made by them are not temporary. I have not had any of the severe pain in my back since I used Doan's Kidney Pills while before I could not put on my shoes and could hardly drag myself around. Though I have had slight touches of backache it never amounted to much. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to hundreds of people and I know of those who have had the greatest relief from suffering by using them. I can say they are reliable and permanent in their effects."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Japs Slaughtered by Russian Force.

Detachment of Sharpshooters on Island of Samoliland, Surprise a Patrol of Fifty Scouts, Proceeding in Three Boats.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 12.—General Kuropatkin, in a despatch to the Emperor, bearing today's date, says that General Krasnalinski, on the night of April 8th, ordered a detachment of sharpshooters to cross to the left bank of the Yalu, opposite Wiju. The sharpshooters landed on the island of Samoliland and surprised a patrol of fifty Japanese scouts just as the latter were approaching the east side of the island in three boats.

The Russians allowed the Japanese to land and then fired on them.

Nearly all the Japanese were shot, bayoneted or drowned and the boats sunk. The Russians sustained no losses.

Non-commissioned officers Louchkine and Souhaschonov distinguished themselves in the fight.

On the following day the Japanese lowered their flag at Wiju and their outposts, which lately have been seen, fell back.

On the night of April 9th, four Russians crossed the Yalu to Yenampo(Yougampho) and made towards a Russian village where they found a squadron of Japanese cavalry. They remained there twelve hours when they were betrayed by Koreans and found themselves obliged to swim the river, their boat having stuck on a sand bank. One soldier lost his life. The Japanese pursued the Russians in a boat but were in turn attacked by a Russian boat which had come to the rescue of the swimmers. The Japanese were all killed and their boat sunk.

MAKES A CLEAN SWEEP.—There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the Salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures Burns, Sores, Bruises, Cuts, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It's only 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by Green's druggist.
