this continent are three men of Philadel-phia: Henry Phipps, the philanthropist; Dr. Flick, the self-sacrificing man of science, and Dr. Mazyck P. Ravenel, the noted bacteriologist, laboratory worker and phy-sician. The first experiments in America along this line are to be made in Philadel-phia within the next few months. Mr. Phipps is the man behind the gun, the man with the money and the nerve and the scal to spend it. His wealth is esti-mated in excess of $100,000,000. To Dr. Lawrence F.
