Jacob Bortoff and wife were to Altoona this last week to call upon his two sisters, who have been quite ill of late.
Dr. W. H. Fry reports lots to do, for he says that he puts in twenty-four hours for a day and that talks well for the Captain.
John I. Williams returned to Altoona, where he will resume work at his trade, there being lots of work there this season.
The farmers are beginning to look over the oats that was put out early, for it is not coming up, owing to the cold that followed the sowing.
Luther Campbell and family are at present afflicted with diphtheria, but by what can be learned none of them are dangerously ill now.
William Houser and family have come to town to stay for a month to take a rest, as Mr. Houser's health is poor, from the close confinement in the store at Brishin.
Rev. Harnish will preach a sermon for the Lemont lodge of I. O. O. F. Sunday, May 15th, and it is hoped that the attendance will be large for the writer speaks an interesting discourse.
Elmer Lowder came near bleeding to death Wednesday night and Thursday forenoon, for it baffled all that home treatment could do for him and Drs. Kidder and Woods had to be called in before the bleeding could be stopped. He is now improving slowly.

Pine Grove Mention.
Dr. Schuyler very ably filled the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday evening.
Lawrence Gates is confined to his home with pulmonary trouble.
A. Stewart Bailey spent Sunday at State College with his brother Calvin.
Walter Woods, who is a medical student at the University in Philadelphia, is home.
Jas. A. Beaver Miller, one of Bellefonte's legal lights, was here yesterday inspecting his farm.
Mrs. W. S. Tate, who has been ill for several weeks, with pulmonary trouble is improving but slowly.
Our mutual friend Joseph Hoy is quite ill at his State College home, threatened with paralysis.
B. Frank Homan, of Oak Hall, was scurrying around in this section last week selling National cream separators.
We want to report another little Democrat at Oscar Heckman's home at Pine Hall. It arrived Sunday morning.
The venerable Charles Snyder, who has been ill, is able to drive out again as usual, looking after his vast business interests.
Pawnee Bill's show was not largely attended from this section. From what we hear Walter L. Main's show will have an attendance from hereabouts.
Mrs. Catharine Archey, who is bordering on the eighties, has been visiting friends in Altoona the past week and is not so well since her return home.
David Rossman, one of the representative citizens of Pleasant Gap, paid his son George a visit last week at his new home near Baileyville.
Samuel Garner is obliged to lay by the busy cares of the farm and nurse a monster carbuncle on the back of his head over which he is making all sorts of wry faces.
Dr. J. B. Krebs, of Northumberland, is here for a week's angling along the mountain stream, while his wife and little daughter are visiting friends at Centre Line.
Mrs. J. W. Keller, with her dutiful son Ned Harrison, enjoyed an early morning drive Sunday morning and spent the day at the cozy home of E. S. Tressler at Rock Springs.
The new brick plant at Pine Hall is about completed. This week will see all the machinery in place and ready for operation. When once in running order it will be quite an enterprise.

Elmer Lowder, of Oak Hall, had a close call for his life on Monday of last week when he suffered a severe hemorrhage at the nose. By the untiring effort of Dr. Kitter the flow of blood was stopped and the young man is slowly regaining his usual vigor.
Max the peddler, well-known in this section, is wearing a pair of badly bunged up peepers that Daniel Zones made on last Friday evening in a fistfight encounter at James Peters home, where Mr. Zones was engaged as helper on the farm. The peddler stopped there for the night. Bad blood had existed for some years between the two men. The peddler promptly had Zones arrested and he gave him before 'Squire Miller' for appearance at court. Mr. Peters discharged Mr. Zones and made the peddler take the road long after nightfall. Thus the matter stands until decided at the temple of justice.

Books, Magazines, Etc.
THE MAY McCLEURE'S.—McCleure's Magazine for May makes the most casual reader stop and think. As usual it covers a wide range of human interest, but the impressive effect of the number is produced by another appalling picture of the results of our industrial warfare. It is found in Bay Standard Baker's article on the great labor conflict in Colorado between the striking miners and mine operators under the fitting title, "The Reign of Lawlessness." It is a story of industrial, economic, social and civic crime of absorbing interest and deep significance. Here Mr. Baker finds the fruits of law-breaking by both capital and labor in riot and bloodshed, destruction of life and property, anarchy and military Medical.

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD
The cause of all pimples, boils, and other eruptions, as well as of that tired feeling and poor appetite, which are so common at this season, is impure blood—blood that is diseased and impoverished by humors, morbid or effete matters, which should be gotten rid of without delay.
The best way to purify the blood, as thousands know, is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills.
World-wide experience confirms the statement that these great medicines make the blood pure and rich, clear the complexion, remove that tired feeling, improve the appetite, build up the whole system, and form in combination the ideal Blood Medicine.

despotism. The people of Colorado have broken the law and are being punished for it.
The inside narrative of the Hayes-Tilden election contest, written from new sources of information and hitherto unpublished facts by Joseph M. Rogers in an entirely non-partisan manner tells how this crisis in American political history was met and civil war averted.
Thomas Nelson Page concludes his series of papers on the Negro Problem.
A new serial by the author of "Emmy Lou," George Madden Martin, entitled "The House of Fulfillment," begins in this number. This is Mrs. Martin's first novel and the thousand of readers who love wise little "Emmy Lou," will rejoice to find that the author has transferred into this larger element the same story-telling charm and power which made her earlier work "a classic of child life."
McClure's has attracted to its columns a remarkably clever bunch of young writers, several of whom appear to great advantage in this number.

Shoes.

THE ARCH SUPPORT
—OF A—
"DOROTHY DODD"
THE FATAL SPOT

In everybody's foot there is one weak spot. The toes are strong, the ball of the foot is firm, the heel is unyielding, but the ARCH of the foot, under the instep, is a weak place. Being arched it is wholly unsupported; being weak, it is the one place that gets tired. But all the same it's the muscle by which you walk. You stretch it at every step. It is the one part of the foot that needs to be helped.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe supports the arch of the foot by a special curved shank between the inner and outer soles; this shank exactly follows the arch of the foot. It holds its shape and supports the foot. You can walk twice as far without fatigue. Just try on a pair.

DOROTHY DODD
THEY COST $3.00 and $3.50.
