A SHOCKING DISCOVERY ALONG BUF-FALO RUN .- A very shocking discovery and what might reveal a case of infanticide, was made along Buffalo run, in the vicinity of Hasting's station, on Sunday morning, when John Lannen discovered the body of a child lodged against a rock in the water.

He was walking along the banks of the stream when his attention was suddenly arrested by the little object. Upon determining exactly what it was he notified district attorney N. B. Spangler who in turn notified coroner Huff and the county & Co. stores in this place; consequently she has detective. The officials did not reach the stream until the middle of the afternoon and meanwhile hundreds of curious persons had assembled to see the little child K. G. E. in session in that city. Mr. Thomas out in the water.

They found that it was a female just completed over into Penns-valley. They child, fully developed and about 19 inches long. It was evident that it had been in the water only a short time and had been alive when placed there. This latter belief was based on the fact that its lungs floated when placed in water. While absolutely nothing is known as to who is the guilty parent it is supposed that the child was the offspring of one of the foreign women living in that section. It was turned over to Wm. Witmer Jr., overseer for Benner township, for burial. Detective Rightnour is at work on the SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK IN CENTRE County.-Within the past week there has been quite a quickening of interest in Sunday school work in Centre county.

It begun with the annual county convention at Boalsburg on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Like all of the undertakings of the people of that community it was carried through with a success and enthusiasm that would put to shame the indifference of much larger places to such work.

In addition to a very helpful program by the prominent Sunday school workers of Centre county, as published in this paper recently, Hugh Cork, of Philadelphia, secretary for the state association and Miss Lawrence, of Johnsonburg, one of the primary workers of the State association, were present to lend their efforts in the direction of making Sunday schools more attractive. both for teacher and pupil.

There were 108 delegates in attendance and the meetings averaged 150 persons at the day sessions and 425 at night.

The following officers were elected: President, Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Centre Hall; vice-president, Rev. H. I. Crow, of Hublersburg; secretary, E. K. Smith, of Oak Hall Station; treasurer, A. Lukenbach, of Bellefonte; primary superintendent. Miss Elizabeth Thompson, of Lemont; home department, Rev. Artman, of Howard; normal superintendent, Rev. A. C. Lathrope, of Milesburg.

Aller, of the Methodist church; Rev. E. I. Confer, of Millmont. Pa.; J. R. Pheasant, Dr. E. S. Dorworth, and W. T. Leathers. The reply was made by Mr. Leathers, himself. He was so touched by the memories of the day and the presence of so many kind friends as to be scarcely able to express the sentiments he felt so much.

Withal it was an occasion long to be remembered and the Curtin band added to its joyousness by a delightful serenade in the evening.
