

Lemont.

J. O. Williams returned to Altoona last week. May 12th brought us a very hard frost or freeze. We got our much needed rain Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Robert C. Jackson is quite ill again this week. W. W. Shreck transacted business in Bellefonte Monday. C. D. Houtz and wife were in Bellefonte shopping on Monday. John Stamm was seen on our streets last Friday and looks much better now. James Gilliland disposed of a fine herd of beef cattle the beginning of last week. There were nine in the class that took the teacher's examination at Lemont on Tuesday. James C. Williams and wife are all smiles over the advent of a great big girl last Monday. Frances Woodring was called to the bedside of her mother, who is very ill at present. A. A. Pletcher was in this neighborhood looking up the interests of the Milwaukee company. The saw mill that has been on the Shreck tract for several months, was moved out Wednesday last week. R. F. Evey is now prepared to deal out first-class soda water and soft drinks which will accommodate travelers in warm weather. Jacob Houtz, who has been a great sufferer for a long while, is slowly growing worse and there can be no hope entertained for his recovery. The sermon preached by Rev. Walter Harsh, Sunday, was well attended by both Odd Fellows and other people, and they were all highly pleased with the discourse. Andrew Lytle, one of the supervisors of College township, has been very busy the last two weeks crushing stone on the south side of the township, for he intends having good roads. Engineer H. N. Kerns had the ill luck to get the end of his thumb taken off by getting it in the eccentric of the engine Tuesday afternoon, while he was running the township crusher.

Pine Grove Mention.

Orecoats were in demand the beginning of the week. Warren Bailey took Horace Greeley's advice Wednesday. Lee Markle is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis. Edward Goss is the guest of his brother-in-law, Hon. J. W. Kepler. Mothersbaugh and Fortney are baling up the surplus hay in this section. H. M. Krebs and A. S. Bailey attended the I. O. O. F. service at Lemont Sunday. Mrs. David Kustaborder is confined to bed with a severe attack of rheumatism. George Smith, who has been employed in the Altoona shops, is at home on a strike. Taylor and Milliken purchased a car load of cows here last week for the Philadelphia market. Many of our farmers are planting their corn over this week. Poor seed is the general complaint. Andrew Jackson Tate is representing Penns valley lodge 276, in session at Easton this week. E. K. Smith, of Oak Hall, spent several days here looking up his share of the insurance business. Judge Hess came up from Bellefonte Saturday to inspect his worldly possessions and to spend a few days with the boys. Mrs. Frank Krumrine and her bright little boy are down from Altoona this week visiting State College friends. John I. Markle, of Bellwood, is spending a week with his family helping to plant potatoes and dig the garden. Woods Bathgate, who is holding a chief clerkship in Altoona, spent Sunday at the parental home at Lemont. M. E. Heberling is this week beautifying Mr. Brown's home with a fresh coat of paint and clean paper on the walls. J. C. Palmer circulated among the farmers this week in quest of wool for his spring trade. Thus far but five fleeces have been sheared. J. H. Ross, merchant and grain dealer of Linden Hall, was in town on Monday attending to some repairs that are being made on the old home farm. L. H. Musser is hustling around here distributing a car load of machinery, binders, mowers, cultivators and rakes. Harry Sowers is his right bower and sees to the handling of the goods. Dr. L. H. Houder is holding the rein over a high stepper which he brought from Luther Peters, and with which he does not propose to take anybody's dust, as when driving the old nag. Next Sunday at 10:30 o'clock, Rev. Walter Harsh will preach the memorial sermon to Captain Campbell post G. A. R. in the Presbyterian church here. Every one is invited to attend, and especially old soldiers. Blaine Brown and his father, A. M. Brown, went to Dauphin on Tuesday to consult a specialist for catarrhal trouble with which Blaine is sadly afflicted. He will remain a month at least for treatment. At a meeting of the building committee of the new Pine Hall Lutheran church on Monday evening, "Squire" Keller, of this place, being the lowest bidder, was awarded the contract for the building. Work will be commenced at once. Grandmother Ann Gregory is suffering from a partial stroke of paralysis, which affected her entire left side. As she is past seventy-six there is not much hope of her complete recovery, although she is bearing her affliction very bravely.

Tribute of Respect.

WHEREAS—An all-wise Providence has seen fit to remove from our midst by death, sister Catharine Leitzell, who for over fifty years was a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and a devoted and untiring worker and teacher in the Sunday school; therefore, Resolved—That we, the officers, teachers and scholars of Spring Mills M. E. Sunday school, express our heartfelt sorrow for the loss of so valuable a member and so earnest a worker. That, while we acknowledge our very great loss, we meekly bow to the will of Him who doeth all things well, knowing that "To live is Christ and to die is gain." That we extend to the husband and family of the deceased our deepest sympathies in this, their very sad bereavement, and commend to them the God in whom she put her trust. That we drape her seat in the Sabbath school in mourning for a period of thirty days, and that copies of these resolutions be published in several of our county papers and copies be sent to the husband and family of the deceased; also that they be recorded on the books of the secretary of the Sunday school. M. SHIRES, LIZZIE STOVER, IDA CONDO, Committee.

Medical.

100 DOSES FOR ONE DOLLAR Economy in medicine must be measured by two things—cost and effect. It cannot be measured by either alone. It is greatest in that medicine that does the most for the money—that radically and permanently cures at the least expense. That medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies and enriches the blood, cures pimples, eczema and all eruptions, tired, languid feelings, loss of appetite, general debility, and builds up the whole system. "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it reliable and giving perfect satisfaction. It takes away that tired feeling, gives energy and puts the blood in good condition." Miss ERIE COLONEL, 1535 10th St., N. W. Washington, D. C. Accept no substitute for HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA No substitute, no other preparation, acts like it. Insist on having Hood's and get it. 49-20
