

MRS. LOWELEE.—Mrs. Margaret A. Lowelee, wife of the late Geo. E. Lowelee and only daughter of Rev. Samuel and Frances Gray Register, died at her home in Washington on Friday morning, June 3rd. Interment was made in Mt. Olivet cemetery in Baltimore on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Lowelee had not been well since the sudden death of her husband, more than a year ago and although apparently active, gracious and bright as ever yet it was evident to those who knew her well that her heart was much affected. In January or February she was operated upon for appendicitis and was in the hospital for eleven weeks, but she had recovered sufficiently to reside over her home and be out as usual when she was taken ill several weeks ago. She was a granddaughter of the late Jacob Gray, of Half-Moon, and is remembered by her relatives there as a woman of unusual charm and interest. She was fifty-six years of age and is survived by four children, three daughters and one son. Of her father's family her four brothers are living.

Mrs. JAMES FOX.—Sad indeed was the death of Mrs. James Fox, which occurred in the Bellefonte hospital on Tuesday afternoon. A lovely young girl, a bride of scarcely more than a year and only recently the mother of a little boy baby she has been called home before the life of womanhood had really begun.

While she had not been well for several weeks it was hoped that she would eventually regain her former strength. On Sunday she suffered a total collapse and was taken to the hospital where it was thought she could receive better attention, but the case was hopeless even then.

Mrs. Fox was Gertrude Clevenstine Showers, a daughter of Daniel and Carrie Showers, and was born at Ax Mann Jan. 8th, 1884. About a year ago she was married to James Fox, who survives her with their child.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Lutheran church.

MRS. MARY GARSTING.—At the age of 76 years, 5 months and 2 days Mrs. Mary Garsting passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. John D. Keen, near Millheim, on Saturday evening; from the effects of a stroke of paralysis. Deceased was originally Miss Mary Breen and was born in Gregg township. Her first marriage was to Nathaniel Kotsmeyer in 1868 and after his death she married Wm. Garsting. Two brothers and two sisters survive her.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. I. N. Bair, of the United Evangelical church, of which she was a member and interment was made in the George's valley cemetery Tuesday.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archev, Geo. O. Huyek, of Williamsport, and Lula J. Fetzer, of Runville. Claude C. Adams and Della Pearce, both of Philipsburg.

Chas. E. Plontz and Rose Karney, both of Sandy Ridge.

Frank E. Daley, of Romola, and Florence B. Oyer, of Howard.

James H. Parsons and Stella M. Stover, both of Unionville.

Harry J. Yearick, of Nittany, and Annie L. Daley, of Romola.

G. Clayton Stine, of Wilksburg, and Eva Beck, of Warriorsmark.

S. Lundy Lucas and Caroline M. Eckenroth, both of Fleming.

American Jacks Have Landed in Africa. Admiral Chadwick Has Placed Marines on Guard Over Belgian Legation.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—American marines have landed in Africa. Admiral Chadwick, this afternoon cabled the Navy Department from Tangier, as follows:

"I have placed a guard at the Belgian legation, having been asked to do so by our consular general here."

It is said at the State Department there is ample precedent for the employment of an American naval force for the temporary protection of the exposed interests of another power, which has no available force at hand. A few years ago it was the common understanding that British vessels should protect American interests in South American ports where the United States had no warships and that the United States gunboats should look after British interests exposed in the same way.

We also have looked after German interests in San Domingo and elsewhere. It is stated that Admiral Chadwick, in landing his marines in Africa for the first time in half a century, therefore was but meeting the requirement of international comity. It is supposed here that the Belgian legation is in an outlying section of the city easily accessible to the tritsemen of the interior.

LONDON, June 8.—The correspondent of The Times, at Tangier, says the Sultan has not yet complied with all of Rasuli's demands. Those unsettled will necessitate considerable further negotiations. There is likelihood that the captives will be released speedily.

Shot His Wife and Then Killed Himself.

SHAMOKIN, PA., June 7.—Harry T. Wolf, a railroader, shot his wife on the street here to-night, and then killed himself. His victim will likely die. Wolf sued his wife for alleged assault and battery, and the case being dismissed, the couple left the office of the justice together. On reaching the street Wolf sent a bullet into his wife's body and another one through his heart.

"Mollie, dear, don't quarrel with your little cousin; you should love him."

"Well, I love him 'cos he's my cousin; but I don't like him at all, mamma."

Fourteen Lives Lost in Explosion. 3,000 Cattle and 30,000 Barrels of Whisky Destroyed by Fire.

PEORIA, ILL., June 5.—An explosion in the eleven-story warehouse of the Cornish Distillery company, the second largest in the world, yesterday afternoon, wrecked the building.

The ruins immediately took fire and communicated to three adjoining buildings, burning them to the ground. Fourteen men were buried beneath the ruins and burned to death, and six others were seriously injured. The loss on buildings, whisky and spirits will approximate $1,000,000. The fire spread to the stock yards district, where a dozen large cattle barns, filled with cattle for market, were burned.

The cause of the explosion has not been determined. The warehouse, containing in the neighborhood of 30,000 barrels of whisky, was instantaneously a seething caldron, and it was seen that no one inside the big structure could escape. The warehouse in crushing the smaller structures near by set them on fire, and the whisky from the burning barrels flooded everything in that section.

Large streams ran down grade toward the river, and in a short time there was a foot of whisky in the cattle pens east of the warehouse, where 3,000 steers were corralled. Their distress lasted but a few minutes, however for they were very soon roasted to death or suffocated. They were the property of Dood & Kiefer, of Chicago. It is impossible to compute their loss, but it will amount to thousands of dollars.

Lodging for Women at the St. Louis Fair.

The Wednesday Club, co-operating with the Humanity Club, wishes to give publicity to the following facts:

In order to give a measure of protection to women and girls coming to St. Louis during the time of the World's Fair, the following have agreed either to provide lodging houses for women or to guarantee the respectability of certain lodgings which they will investigate, and a list of which they will have on hand at a definite address. The ministers, priests and pastors of the churches with which these organizations are affiliated will send to the various headquarters addresses of such of their parishioners as will take lodgers. In this way lodgings in all parts of the city, of unimpeachable character and of moderate or low price, will be made available.

These organizations are: The Travelers' Aid, Women's Christian Association, 1514 Washington avenue; the Queen's Daughters, Rest Room, World's Fair grounds; the Salvation Army, southeast corner Eighth and Walnut streets; the Evangelical Lutheran City Mission Society, 1704 Market street.

Revenge: Revenge!! Revenge!!! A Black Revenge.

By Florence Warden, author of "The Secret of Princess Paul," "The House on the Marsh," etc. 'is a thrilling story which will begin in The Pittsburgh Sunday Dispatch June 12th. It is full of exciting situations, mingled with pretty love scenes. Miss Warden is one of the best known of England's popular novelists, and her latest production is considered her masterpiece. Be sure to get The Sunday Dispatch and read this remarkable story. Don't forget the date. Don't miss the enjoyment of a beautiful narrative. It is the story of the year.

Spring Mills.

Geo. W. Runkle and wife, of Elmira, N. Y., formerly of this place, are here visiting relatives and friends. They will remain several weeks.

Some parties held their potatoes most too long last week. They might have realized $1.00 and $1.10. Today they are worth 75c. Next week possibly a half dollar or less.

J. J. Condo has rented his blacksmith shop, which has been vacant since his appointment as turnkey to a Mr. Garman, of Osceola Mills. Garman has the reputation of being an expert blacksmith.

Wallace Musser, who received very serious injuries some ten days since, breaking his arm at the shoulder and otherwise injured by his horse running off, is improving. He was dragged along the road a considerable distance. After one of his lines broke he jumped from the wagon, but became tangled with the remaining line and was unable to extricate himself. It was a close call.

Andrew Corman has just put down a composition walk from the portico of his handsome residence to the front gate, which resembles huge blocks of stone. Daniel Schlegel, the master workman, had charge of the work. He first had the walk dug over two feet deep and filled it up with concrete and then applied the cement, making it out into four large blocks. It is certainly a very attractive and substantial footway. Mr. Schlegel says it is perfectly frost proof and more durable than half the stone now used for the same purpose.

A thunder storm passed over our village on Saturday last of unusual energy. The thunder and lightning was incessant and of a startling character. The winds approached a hurricane, wrecking fences and trees in every direction. A gigantic tree just above the new State (iron) bridge over Sinking creek, was blown down and in falling came within an acre of demolishing that costly structure. The rain descended in torrents, similar to a cloud burst. The wheat fields were leveled off as if done with a roller, gardens washed out and cellars flooded. The damage in this neighborhood is very considerable. The lightning struck in several places, but did no particular damage.
