

THREE VERY OLD LADIES.—Mrs. D. M. Weaver, of Bellwood, is entertaining two of her mother's sisters, Mrs. Daniel Brungart, of Rebersburg, Centre county; and Mrs. Elvina Grieb, of Loganton, Clinton county. The former is eighty-eight years of age and the latter is seventy-seven. Her mother, Mrs. Wolf, who has resided with Mrs. Weaver for many years past, is eighty-two years of age and has been ill for several months. We are glad to say that she is improving and the three venerable old ladies are permitted to once more spend happy hours together talking over their younger days and the many pleasures of the past. That they may live to enjoy many more visits of the same kind is the best wishes of this paper.

—Never has the army looked prettier, rarely have the girls been more resplendent, and seldom the music better than they were at the leap-year party given by some of the young ladies of the town on Monday evening. The early part of the evening was devoted to a cotillon and general dancing followed. It was a night of enjoyment for those present that will likely never be surpassed and with it the young ladies have set a high mark of perfection for the annual golden rod dance to reach.

—Mrs. Clara LeGarde Stevens announces the marriage of her daughter Harriet Hannah to Mr. John Beaver White, on Thursday, June the ninth, at Stoke Poges church, Buckinghamshire, England. Mr. White is a nephew of Gen. Beaver, of this place, and was graduated from The Pennsylvania State College with the class of 1894. He is in England with the J. G. White electrical company.

THE ODD FELLOWS REUNION.—Today the Odd Fellows of Centre County will hold their annual reunion at State College. Elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment of visitors and a big time is in anticipation.

—Mr. Edgar Fisher and Miss Zerelda M. Zimmerman, both of Milesburg, were married at the M. E. parsonage in that place on Wednesday evening, June 15th, by the pastor, Rev W. C. Piper.

—We notice by the Freeport, Ill., Daily Bulletin, that P. O. Stiver, formerly of this county, has been chosen a delegate from his district to the Democratic national convention at St. Louis.

—On Saturday the Scotia base-ball players defeated the Stormstown nine by the score of 7 to 4.

—Dr. R. G. Van Valzah, of Springfield, Oregon, is to locate in Centre Hall.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. Emanuel Peters is visiting relatives in Altoona.

On Saturday Mrs. C. T. Aikens, entertained a number of friends. Among them were Mrs. W. C. Patterson, of State College; Mrs. Miller, of Catawissa; Miss Adaline Miller, Mr. Calp, of York; and Miss L. Matern, of Milesburg, was in the happy party.

We are glad to note the improvement of Thos. A. Frank who has been confined to the house all spring with the loss of his right eye. For a time it was feared that the other member would be effected. He is able to be around as usual and to do farm work.

Mr. Adolphus LaPorte Rogers, of Tyrone, and one of the bond holders of that city, spent Sunday with his friend J. Porter Lyon among the tall elms at Hearts-Ease, where every one is greeted with a royal welcome. Mr. Lyon was showing the burges around the country in his auto Monday.

Mrs. G. W. McWilliams is visiting her son George in the Altoona hospital where he has recently had a surgical operation for the removal of a growth in the nasal chamber. Several years ago he spent several months in Philadelphia University where he was treated for the same trouble. His many friends hope for his ultimate recovery.

The popular merchant at Baileysville, Warren S. Ward and wife attended the marriage of his niece Wednesday evening in the presence of one hundred and fifty guests at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Ward, at Tyrone. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents. The groom, Mr. Metcalf, is a prosperous business man of Tyrone, where the newly wedded couple will reside.

Sunday afternoon a heavy rain and wind storm, with some hail, swept over this section. The heaviest was at Graysville where hail fell as large as hulled walnuts. A freak of lightning struck Franklin Bowersox's home on Main street, doing but little damage but frightening the family badly. Mr. Bowersox is in hard luck. Only a few years ago his farm house was struck and later his barn and contents were burned to the ground.

The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church, at Pine Hall, have issued invitations for a birthday party to be held at the school house Saturday evening.

They send each a little sack
With orders to send or bring it back.
With as many cents as years you are old
And promise the number shall never be told.
They also promise to give plenty to eat
As well as a social treat.

The Ladies Aid with greetings most hearty,
Hope all will attend this birthday party.

Many of our farmers are sad when they look at their wheat fields and sadder yet when they view the cornfields with a sickly plant and a poor stand. Oats is doing well and the outlook for a big hay crop never was better, so that corn working, hay making and so many kinds of farm work are all coming in a bunch. It is an old adage that a poor beginning makes a good ending, but this can hardly be expected with the corn crop. Much of the seed is not yet up and with feeble plants the chances are anything but favorable.

Ira Harpster, of Gatesburg, attended the funeral of his uncle Jacob Harpster on the 16th inst. Deceased was well known in this section. He was one of the once numerous family of Harpsters born and raised at White Hall where the late Samuel Harpster, one of the pioneer settlers over one hundred years ago. The old log mansion is still in good state of preservation. Mr. Harpster visited the home of his children for the last time last spring. He then complained of stomach trouble of which he died on the 14th at his home near Clearfield town where he resided for almost sixty years as a substantial citizen, a courteous, clever and kind gentleman. He was a noted nimrod. His unerring aim brought down many wild beasts on the Alleghenies. Interment was in the Center grave yard. He was unmarried and is survived by a number of nephews and nieces.

Lemont.

John Stamm is not improving very fast.

John Glenn has been quite ill since Saturday, but is slowly improving.

The Evangelical children's day services were well attended Sunday.

Mrs. J. Y. Dale has been a great sufferer with rheumatism of late.

Mrs. Andrew Glenn had a light stroke last Thursday but is some better now.

J. Harvey Shuey's youngest son is confined to his home with diphtheria.

Lemont cornet band serenaded the town Friday evening, which was much enjoyed by the citizens.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

It having come to our notice that several persons in this vicinity have been circulating false and malicious reports about the Storey Cotton Company, and attempting to compare us with unquestionable concern, which they represent for a consideration, we hereby warn the said parties, that in future we will instruct our attorneys to prosecute vigorously and to the fullest extent of the law, all such persons. As we are an old, reliable, legally organized corporation, and we offer a reward of $5,000 which we will donate to any worthy charity designated by any one who can prove that we have ever failed or refused to settle in full, any just claim or demand against us, or that we have ever made a false or misleading statement of fact to injure any one, either verbally, by correspondence, printed matter or advertisement, and we will deposit the above sum in any reputable bank for the purpose named, which is merely a repetition of the same offer we have made many times for several years past, printed broadcast in all the leading papers in the United States, as well as in thousands of circular letters sent to correspondents through the mails. The offer is open to any one, and for further particulars apply to E. R. Reed, Field Manager, Beech Creek, Pa.

"A Day With HUDSON MAXIM."—Following the plan which St. Nicholas has carried out for several months, the July issue will have an instructive article designed to present valuable facts in a way entertaining to both young and old. "A Day With Hudson Maxim" is the title of Joseph H. Adams' sketch, which will tell many interesting details of the great inventor's life and work. Hudson Maxim's residence is in Brooklyn, where a visitor finds him as much at home among his high explosives as his cook is in her kitchen. Mr. Adams tells, among other things, of being invited to lunch on Welsh rabbit cooked in a chafing-dish over a lamp filled with—not alcohol but nitroglycerin.
