-----We are authorized by Mr. James R. Hughes to make the following announcement. The Bellefonte Academy will positively open its fall term on Tuesday, Sept. 20th, in the Brockerhoff building on Bishop street. The school rooms for the Academic and Intermediate grades will be on the first floor, while accommodations for the boarding department will be provided on the second and third floors of the same building and also in the residence at the Acad-emy. Miss Overton and her assistants will conduct the primary work on the third floor of the Academy residence. Miss Lyon will give all instructions in music for the present in her town studio in the home of the Misses Benner. ing and also in the residence at the Acad of the Misses Benner.

----- Tuesday afternoon the WATCHMAN office just for a minute thought the terrible Japs had been transported across the sea and were bombarding the building. There was a terrific explosion and almost simultaneously a rattle of flying missiles and broken glass, and by rare good luck one employee just missed being hit on the head by a piece of rock, he having just moved from his regular place of work not ten seconds previous. The bombardment proved to be a shower of rock from an unusually heavy blast on the point of the hill in the rear of the Bush Arcade, where a out is being made to widen the street. Six windows were broken in the WATCHMAN building and large stones hurled almost to the Bush house.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING MEAT. - On Tuesday three young men from College township, William and John Gilliland and Robert Jackson, were brought to Bellefonte and given a hearing on the charge of stealing meat from the smoke-house of Mr. George Dale, of near Lemont. The evidence submitted showed that on one night seven pieces of meat were taken and that some nights afterward three more pieces, all that Mr. Dale had, were taken. The evidence was strong against the young men and they were held in $300 bail for their appearance at November term of court for trial. Bail was promptly furnished.

FOSTER'S LONG RANGE FORECASTS .-17th, Eastern States 18th. A warm wave will cross west of the Rockies about 13th, great central valleys 15th, Eastern States 17th. A cool wave will cross west of the Rockies about 16th, great central valleys

While the storms of September are expected to be unusually severe throughout the month, the one above described will add fury to a much disturbed atmosphere. On 15th an electrical disturbance may be expected. Temperatures will run to great extremes, inclined to high rather than to low temperatures. Early killing frosts are not expected. Frosts may occur in Northern latitudes with the cool waves to cross the continent 13th to 17th and 18th to 22nd, but not of the killing kind.

Immediately following the date of this weather bulletin events will be of great intensity, particularly on the lower lakes, in the Obio valley, New England States and taking care of her. on the Atlantic coast. Not much rain will accompany these disturbances in a general way, but in a few places of small extent heavy downpours will occur.

Great intensity of storm forces is sometimes developed in one form, sometimes in another and may change to heat, or cold, or expected within the period 14th to 24th.
