Preliminary Political Work.

Only two weeks remain in which to complete preparations for the election. That is to say two weeks from next Tuesday is election day and the work of preparation to be effective must be finished by the Saturday night previous to the opening of the polls. Of course, getting the voters to the polls is of the utmost importance and that is a work of election day. If that is neglected the time and labor spent in the preliminary work will be wasted. But in the absence of ample arrangements for the election day work it will be impossible to perform it. In other words, getting voters to the polls on election day is not a haphazard matter. It must be done systematically after full preparation.

We can assure the Democrats of Centre county that the preliminary work throughout the State has been as carefully and systematically performed as has been possible to do. In no previous campaign has the State Central committee been so closely in touch with the local workers and individual voters as it is at present. This result has been achieved at the expense of a vast amount of labor and considerable outlay of money. Little more can be achieved by the state committee. What remains to be done is necessarily the work of the local committees and individual voters. There is ample time to perform it if sufficient energy is expended and proper intelligence displayed by those upon whom it devolves.

Between now and the Saturday night previous to the election every Democratic voter should have the name of every other Democrat in his school district and be precisely informed with respect to his inclinations regarding the election. If he is fully qualified to vote, that is to say if he is registered, assessed and has his taxes paid there is nothing to do but get him to the polls. If there is any delinquency in his qualification the necessary witnesses should be gotten ready when witnesses are needed. If the voter is sick or unable to come to the election on account of infirmity a carriage should be provided for him and if detained until late by his work he should be helped to the polls.

In other counties such arrangements will be made and such plans carried out. The Democrats of Centre county ought and we are certain will not be behind other counties in this patriotic work. With such vigilance and energy the most substantial victory can be secured. It will not only guarantee the election of our candidate for Judge, but it will give a complete triumph on the county ticket. It is a most important election and no Centre county Democrat ought to fail in the performance of his full duty.

The man who has rubbed shoulder to shoulder with you at your work, who has been sober and respectable and honest all of his life is the man for you to vote for. Vote for NOLL for Assembly.

A prominent Bellefonte Republican leader said, Monday night, "We can't blame the people for not swallowing the dose we give them on our county ticket, this fall, but we must all turn in and save LOVE, no matter what becomes of the rest." He might have been expressing his own mind, but the cry to "save LOVE" will fall on deaf ears when it comes up to the men in Centre county whom LOVE has always fought because they dared to be friends of the late Governor HASTINGS.

Strike that is Justified.

For the first time in the history of trades unions in this State, so far as the subject has come within our knowledge, the labor organizations of Pennsylvania have organized a strike which is certain to do them good and will do harm to no interest that deserves to be conserved by the public. That is to say according to the Trades Union News of Philadelphia the labor organizations of the State are preparing to organize a strike against the atrocious Republican machine at the polls on election day. The influencing cause of this movement is the fact that in the construction of the new capital building at Harrisburg, an essentially political job, scab labor is in control and the protests of the unions have failed to cause a correction of the injustice.

What the union laborers say concerning the work on the new capital building is true. The contractor, a favorite of the Republican political machine, has not only refused to consider the protests of organized labor against the employment of "scab" workmen on the job, but in every possible way he has taken pains to show that his preference is for that kind of labor. In other words his customary response to the protests of union labor is to give additional advantages to the "scabs" and make what he is pleased to term the "open shops" as unpleasant for the union laborers as possible. In fact he has finally made their condition so intolerable that they were obliged to abandon the fight and leave the field to the exclusive occupancy of the "scabs."

With characteristic conservatism the union labor men invoked every available expedient to correct this fault before resorting to a strike. They appealed first to the contractor, then to Senator PENROSE, chairman of the Republican State committee and finally to GEO. B. CORTELYOU, chairman of the Republican National committee. Being intelligent men they understood that it being what is called "a political job" it must be reached through political channels. The contractor refused to even hear their grievances; PENROSE promised relief but failed to make good and CORTELYOU simply declared the President is on record as in favor of the open shop and therefore he could do nothing. Under the circumstances they have no recourse other than to strike against the machine on election day and that they have determined to do.

We want the most creditable representatives in the Legislature that it will be possible for us to have. For that reason everyone should vote for KEPLER and NOLL.

Col. ED. IRVIN is a lucky fellow, indeed. He will be elected Senator without opposition. We know of no Republican, however, who is more entitled to such good fortune.

Named No Candidate For Senator.

It having become positively known that the Hon. JAMES KERR, of Clearfield, would not accept the Democratic nomination for Senator in this, the Thirty-fourth, district, the conferees reconvened in Clearfield on Wednesday to discuss the advisability of a substitute. After thoroughly going over the situation the conferees adopted the following resolution.

Resolved, "That we greatly regret that the unavoidable protracted absence abroad of the Hon. James Kerr makes it necessary for him to decline the nomination for Senate from the 34th Senatorial district, unanimously tendered him by the Democratic Senatorial Conference; and in view of the fact that the election is so near at hand, and it would be unfair to any candidate to be asked to organize a campaign at this late day, it is the sense of this Senatorial Conference that no nomination be made."

This action naturally leaves the place open on the ticket and insures the election of Col. ED. IRVIN, the Republican nominee, without opposition; unless the Democratic State Central committee, which met in Philadelphia last evening to discuss this matter among others, deems it best to make a nominal candidate.

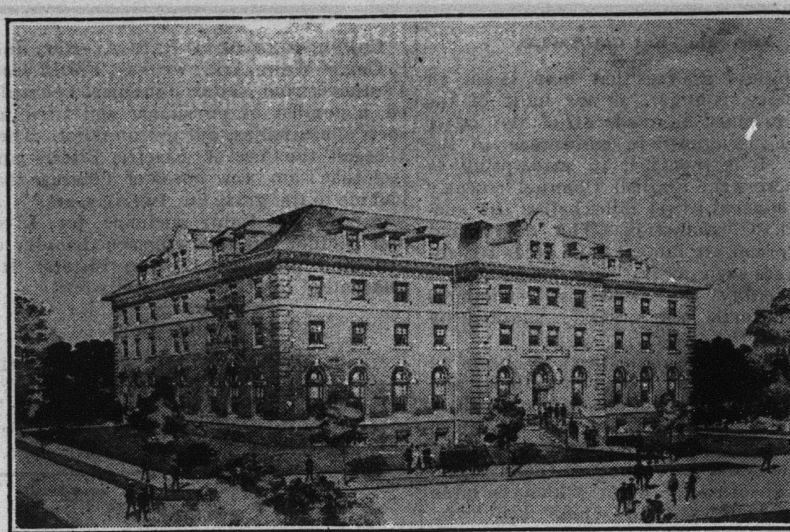

It is now too late for any one to make even a hopeful canvass and while we greatly deplore the miscarriage that leaves our party without a candidate we congratulate the people of the district that the inevitable outcome will be to give them such an able representative as Col. IRVIN will undoubtedly make.

While the interference of brewers associations in other parts of the State in the judicial fight in this county is not likely to assume such outrageous proportions as it did in the Clearfield county contest last fall, yet any effort at all on the part of such fellows in behalf of Judge LOVE will meet with the prompt and decisive rebuke it deserves at the hands of the good people of Centre county.

Everything is swinging ARTHUR KIMPORT's way. They all know that he is a most competent man and that is one reason that ARTHUR is going to get the large vote on the 8th.

Sorcerer's Frightful Crime.

KINGSTOWN, St. Vincent, Oct. 13.—Police investigation into the matter of the murder of a little white boy, whose heart and dismembered hands were found in the house of an obi-man (negro sorcerer), in the Island of St. Lucia, has resulted in the arrest of a seemingly intelligent negro butcher and a disclosure of barbarous superstition and diabolism that survives to a startling extent in the West Indies—the heritage of a savage ancestry. The child was the victim of the desire of a man concerned in some litigation to "work a spell" upon the Judge who was to try the case. To this end, at the direction of the obi-man, the negro decoyed the child to the house of the obi-man, and there the child was strangled and his corpse dismembered. The hands and heart were found in a utensil in the house of the obi-man. The body, when found, was much decomposed.

THE NEW McALLISTER DORMITORY AT STATE COLLEGE.

Divorce Law Remains as at Present.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—The house of deputies of the Episcopal convention at the close of a four-days' debate today rejected an amendment to the divorce canon which sought to prevent the remarriage of divorced persons by clergymen of that denomination. While the house of bishops may yet act on the matter it is certain that no change will be made by the present convention.

The present law of the church, which has been in operation since 1859, allows the remarriage of the innocent party to a divorce granted for infidelity. At several conventions attempts have been made to repeal this law and when a vote was taken today by the house of deputies, sitting as a committee of the whole, on the question of reporting the proposed amendment to the house itself the reformers were successful by a vote of 214 to 191 and this vote was regarded as representing the actual strength of the contending forces.

The final vote, however, was taken by dioceses and orders and, where a diocese was evenly divided in sentiment, its strength was counted in the negative. The vote by dioceses was: Clerical—For the amendment, 30; against, 21; divided, 10. Lay vote—For, 25, against, 54; divided, 6.

Practically the entire strength of the middle western states, the stronghold of the High church party, declared for the proposed reform, but the Pacific states and a number of the southern states voted against changing the present canon. The diocese of New York opposed the amendment, while that of Pennsylvania favored it. New England, Vermont, New Hampshire and western Massachusetts voted for a change, as did the lay deputies from Rhode Island. The clerical deputies from Maine favored the amendment, but the votes of Connecticut and Massachusetts were cast in the negative. The issue was not a party one, although the whole strength of the High church forces was given to the reform movement. The president of the house of deputies, the Rev. Dr. R. H. McKim of Washington, voted for the old canon, although the clerical vote of his diocese supported the proposed change.

The convention will have no session tomorrow.

Guest of Honor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Judge Parker was the guest of honor to-night at a dinner given by State Senator Victor J. Dowling, at the Democratic club. Other guests were John B. McDonald, John Fox, Charles F. Murphy, Cord Meyer and William S. Rodin.

Although the presence of the presidential candidate had not been announced, nearly the entire membership of the club and others called during the evening. The judge spent the evening at the club house.

While Judge Parker was engaged in receiving friends at his apartment, the number of callers was smaller than usual. He arose early and was busy until 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon, when he went for a walk, stopping at the Democratic club.

Connecticut politics received much attention today at Judge Parker's headquarters. Nearly half the visitors were from that State. The candidate considered the prospects of the Democratic party in Connecticut and went over the various reports he has received concerning the canvass in that State.

Numerous questions relating to the campaign were discussed with Judge Parker by William F. Sheehan, Colonel Daniel S. Lamont and Thomas F. Ryan. Other visitors today were General Nelson A. Miles, representative Bowers, of Mississippi, and A. Zindgraf, of Dallas.

Swears He Placed Floaters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19th.—Richard Van Cott, son of the postmaster, and a candidate for Assembly, and Banks on McAvoy, cashier in the General Post Office, listened to-day to Benjamin D. Levy, a former employe in the post office, who swears that he was hired by the two defendants to colonize in the Fifth Assembly district.

The witness told how he had been engaged to get more than 100 "boys" as he called them, and how they had been instructed to vote straight Republican tickets in the Fifth. The price these "floaters" were to get was six weeks' free board and lodging, $1 for registering and for their vote.

Levy told of having an interview with Van Cott on the night of October 4. "I told him I had about 100 boys in the park behind the statue," he said to me. "Will they double-cross you? I said 'No' he said, 'You know how I want them to go? And I said 'Yes, straight Republican,' and he said 'That's right.' I had sent Ralph Jones over to the park to look after the boys and Jones came back and said to Van Cott: 'There's an awful mob in the park.' Van Cott gave Jones $50 in $1 bills and then we started out and put some of the men in the various places we had been told to go. That night we placed 13 men."

The hearing will be continued on Monday.

Helen Keller at the Fair.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—Miss Helen Keller, of Wrentham, Mass., who has gained a national reputation through her manner of acquiring an education though born deaf, dumb and blind, has arrived here to attend the conference of superintendents of American schools for the deaf and to be present at the exercises in honor of "Helen Keller" Day at the world's fair on October 18th.

Bryan's Indiana Tour.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 19.—The audience assembled in Evan's hall to-night for the meeting which closed the itinerary of the seventh day of William J. Bryan's tour in Indiana was one of the largest Democratic gatherings ever held in this city.

Long before the special train brought Mr. Bryan into the city the spacious hall was filled to overflowing. When the speaker was escorted into the hall he was given an ovation.

Mr. Bryan's remarks followed closely the lines of his recent speech in Indianapolis. The issues were discussed generally with special emphasis upon the Philippine problem.

A Phenomenal Majority.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Chairman Taggart and August Belmont, of the Democratic national executive committee, called on Charles F. Murphy at Tammany hall to-day. It was stated afterward by Mr. Taggart that the call was of a social character and that the members of the national committee were returning several calls that Mr. Murphy had made at headquarters. Mr. Murphy assured Messrs. Taggart and Belmont that New York city would give the national ticket a phenomenal majority.

Fair Almost Clear of Debt.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—The Louisiana purchase exposition has made the seventh of the stipulated $500,000 payments on the government loan of $4,000,000, which was advanced by the Federal authorities a few weeks previous to the opening of the world's fair.

This payment, together with the percentage payments made previous to the first stipulated payment, leaves a balance of $691,850.45 due the United States government.

—This week J. A. B. Miller, Esq., purchased the entire equipment in the law offices of the late Col. Wilbur F. Reeder, including the very extensive law library, cases, cabinets, desk, typewriter, etc., as well as all books and papers connected with Col. Reeder's practice. —THE NEW PHILIPSBURG BREWERY.—The fine new brewery that has just been completed in Philipsburg will be put in operation on Monday and the managers, Messrs. Weis and Holdenhofer, who will operate it under the firm name of the Philipsburg Brewing Co., promise a product both fine and pure.

The new brewery is a three story brick building and is located on north Front street, just below the Passmore house. It is equipped with the most modern appliances, has its own electric and ice plants and has an annual capacity of about 25,000 barrels.

Messrs. Weis and Holdenhofer are from Reynoldsville and are said to be expert master brewers so that the out-put of the new plant may be expected to make large inroads on that of the foreign brewing companies in that section.

BOROUGH COUNCIL.—The regular session of borough council, Monday evening, was a brief one, there being little business of importance to transact. The only committee that had anything to report was the Street committee and it merely a few repairs on the street and that the south Water street pavement was nearing completion. A sewer will be built on east Bishop street from the Undine hose house down to Allegheny street. Mr. Derstine made a motion, which was carried, that the burgess be requested to enforce the ordinance against loading and spitting on the sidewalks and pavements. The idea of Mr. Derstine was to keep loafers from congregating on and polluting the new pavement along Water street. This is all right, but why not enforce it on some of the corners in the business part of the town also?

KILLED AT JERSEY SHORE.—Emil A. Peterson, a Swedish boiler-maker who was a resident of Bellefonte a number of years, met with an accident at Jersey Shore on Tuesday which resulted in his death in the Williamsport hospital at 8:45 o'clock Wednesday morning. The accident occurred at 10:45 o'clock. Peterson, who was employed in the boiler department of the shops, was desirous of getting to Avis proper, and as the railroad tracks were blocked, he boarded the cars, when the train started and threw him under the wheels. One arm and one leg were cut off clean, while the other arm and leg were crushed. The young man was taken to the Williamsport hospital to have the members amputated, but he died from the shock.

Deceased was aged 30 years and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson, of Jersey Shore. He came to Bellefonte several years ago and worked as a machinist for the Central railroad of Pennsylvania until a few months ago when he went to Jersey Shore to work for the New York Central company. About four months ago Mr. Peterson was united in marriage with Miss Nora Kelly, a daughter of Mr. Wm. Kelly, superintendent of the Bellefonte furnace, and the young wife is almost prostrated over the terrible end of her husband.

SOME DELICIOUS DELICACIES SERVED AT SECHLER & CO.—Last week invitations were issued by Miss Julia Crowley, demonstrator of Burnett's flavoring extracts and coloring pastes, to the housekeepers of Bellefonte to attend the free cooking lessons and partake of the dainty desserts served this week at Sechler & Company's. That every housekeeper in town has not availed herself of this privilege is her loss for anything more delicious than the marshmallow cream, deviled cheese, etc., served for lunch could not be imagined. This, Friday, is the last day Miss Crowley will be here and the cooking lesson will be at ten o'clock this morning. If you have not tasted the dainty desserts served do not fail to do so to-day as they are worth going many blocks to taste and learn to make.

Burnett's vanilla was the first made in the United States, has received four of the highest medals in the world and is only one of the fine flavoring extracts and color pastes used by Miss Crowley as illustrations in her delicious concoctions.

GEO. W. BAISOR.—After saying that he did not feel well and wished to retire Geo. W. Baisor, one of the well known men of Buffalo Run valley, turned over in bed Sunday evening and passed away. His death was most unexpected. Though 66 years 4 months and 13 days old he had been active and apparently in the best of health up to a short time before his death.
