Pine Grove Mention.

Most of the corn crop will be cribbed this week.

Samuel E. Weber now helloes from his own phone—the Commercial.

John Weiland is beautifying his home with a fresh coat of paint.

Postmaster Archey, of Penna Furnace, is off to the St. Louis exposition.

John Fagan and wife came down from Altoona Tuesday for a few days outing.

Cap't. H. S. Taylor and N. B. Spangler were scrimmaging around here a few days ago.

The venerable Thos. Kustaborder with his wife spent Tuesday in town, both quite brisk for their years.

Grandmother Bair is a very sick woman at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Elder, in the Glades.

Mrs. E. C. Ross is laid up with a billious attack. Her sister, Miss Irene Irvin, is administering to her wants.

Mary Kogin and Ed. Frank, of Rock Springs, spent Sunday with the former's mother on Chestnut street, here.

Mrs. Mary Dale and children, of the Branch, spent several days at her parental home here in the beginning of the week.

Mrs. Wm. Houtz got an ugly fall recently sustaining a wound on her head, causing her to be delirious for a time. She is now around as usual.

Mr. Zimmerman last week sold his saw mill out-fit in the Shingletown gap to a Mr. White, of Lock Haven, who intends running it on full time.

Last Tuesday was a big day at the Roger and Riesh cider mill at Strubles, where they squeezed out sixty thousand and seventy gallons of cider. Next!

Mrs. Birdie Rudy, of State College, spent several days in town last week among friends of her youth, who are always glad to see her smiling countenance.

Dr. Houser's high stepper, while tied to a hitching post last Thursday, broke loose and ran away, demolishing the buggy and scattering the pills all along the road.

Col. D. F. Fortney, of Bellefonte, was enjoytng a drive last week through Penns and Spruce Creek valleys, greeting old friends and making some new ones.

The clover seed hullers are very busy. The largest crop in many years is reported. Ernest Hess reported 65 bushels and his neighbor, Frank Lohr 55 bushels of prime seed.

John H. Breon is about through with his fall work on the farm but his good frau gave him an indoor job to sing Lull-a-by-baby to a dear little girl, No. 10, of their pleasant family.

Mrs. L. C. Thomas, who has been visiting relatives in Centre and Huntingdon counties for the last month, left for her home at Latrobe last Saturday, delighted with her sojourn here.

Geo. P. Garver, of Philadelphia, came up for a few days gunning with John Sausser man and John Smith, of Spring Mills. They had forty squirrels to their credit and still on the firing line.

Dr. Warrion Schadman and his splendid wife came up from Lancaster on Tuesday to take a weeks outing gunning and to see how his cousin Hon. J. Will Kepler, is looming up in his campaign.

We are sorry to note so many on the sick-list. Mrs. G. W. Garbrick and Mrs. Henry Fredericks, of Boalsburg, and Geo. Johnson and John Archey, of Graysville, are all suffering from the effects of a stroke of paralysis.

One day last week while shaking carpet Rev. R. M. Campbell had his left eye injured so badly as to cause much alarm. After being under Dr. Houser's treatment for some days he was advised to go to Pittsburg where he went on Wednesday to be treated by an eye specialist. His congregation, as well as his many friends wish for him a speedy cure and a safe return to his pastorate and family

Had it not been for Mrs. Samuel Kimport's acute smell their all would soon have gone up in smoke. One evening last week when up stairs she became alarmed about some smoke and on going down stairs and opening the stair door the flames gushed up stairs. It took heroic work to outen the fire which was caused from a stump of a tobie in an over-coat pocket, where it slowly burned into a blaze that in a few minutes might have caused a big fire.

Spring Mills.

It is said that some barn yard turkeys suffered last week.

Our farmers are still busy husking corn. The crop is a very large one.

A snow cloud passed over the village on Sunday last, giving us a reminder of winter by depositing a few flakes—first snow of the season.

W. A. Gramley has quite a large number of chickens on his new stock farm located a short distance below the village. Mr. Gramley intends entering into the business rather extensively.

John Jackson is rejoicing over the arrival of a great big son last Friday and J. W. Tate's of a fine little girl the same day.

Zac Holt has been hauling chemical wood as fast as four teams can, during the week, as there will be a fall in the price in a few days.

Arthur Kimport was circulating among his Democratic friends in these parts this week, looking up his interests. He is favorably spoken of by all, and it is hoped he will get every vote in this precinct.

Mrs. F. D. Osman and Mrs. Chas. Homan, of Centre Furnace, visited at the home of James Poorman, of Boalsburg, Tuesday of this week.

John Dale, of Houtzdale, is here calling upon his sister, Mrs. Philip Wirtz, of Houserville. He is beginning to show that the weight of years is bearing heavily upon him.

WHAT UNCLE JOE KNEW ABOUT THE TARIFF.

Do you understand the tariff
My dear, old uncle Joe?
Some talk of tariff high
And some of tariff low.

The election day is coming,
I want to vote, you know,
Now tell me all about it.
My dear old uncle Joe.

Well I don't know much about it
But this much, Bill, I know
The trusts keep eating turkey
While we keep eating crow.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

THE MAKING OF MCCLURE'S.—The November of McClure's concludes with some interesting comment, "On the Making of McClure's Magazine," which discusses the work of McClure's famous staff writers, both in the words of the editors and those of the press. Ida M. Tarbell, Ray Stannard Baker, Lincoln Steffens, Samuel Hopkins Adams, and William Allen White, all receive special mention, and brief statements concerning their work and abilities are made for each. The great reading public which enjoys the resulting magazine itself month by month will be glad of this opportunity to look behind the curtain and see how it is made, as well as to see and learn from its own pages something of the people who make it.

Some very interesting side-lights are thrown on the operation of the McClure machine, notably that on the cost of the special articles contributed by its staff writers, which ranges from $1,000 to $3,000 each, fully half of them costing as much as $2,500. This, the editors assure us, is the most expensive reading matter furnished in the magazine world, but they state that they know of no other way of securing for McClure's Magazine that high degree of truthfulness, accuracy, and interest, which they require, and for which McClure's is known.
