

Flue Grove Mention.

J. Cal Goheen and sister spent Monday in town.

Mrs. Anthonia Aikens and Mr. Ed. Elder are on the sick list.

Miss Sadie Dannley, of State College, spent Sunday at her home here.

Samuel Martz and John Roop are going to quit farming in the spring.

Miss Lizzie Markle, of Tyrone, is visiting friends in this section this week.

D. C. Krebs and wife, of State College, were greeting friends in town this week.

Rev. E. K. Harnish will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday at 2:15.

Mrs. Emma Cramer came over from Punxsutawney for a week's outing at Boalsburg.

Clarence Weaver, one of our young farmers Sundayed with his parents down Penns Valley.

Mr. A. S. Bailey is laid up with a very sore eye caused by a flying chip while chopping wood.

Aunt Polly Mitchell has been quite poorly the past week but we are glad to say she is now much better.

The many friends of A. B. Tanyer will be glad to learn of his recovery from a long spell of fever.

Sheep dogs attacked W. H. Goss' flock on Monday night, killing several and crippling a number of others.

Amos Koch transacted business over at McElveys Fort on Monday, taking time to greet old neighbors.

Mrs. F. R. Stark, of Scranton, is visiting her brother, Prof. Stanley, who has been ill but is now much better.

Newton E. Dreibleis says he has another mouth to feed and body to clothe. Its a girl and it arrived Sunday.

After April 1st next Amos Koch will till the fertile and broad acres of the well known Awt farm on the Branch.

Superintendent of public schools C. L. Gramley is this week paying his respects to the schools here to find the average attendance.

Miss Anna, the accomplished daughter of ex-prothonotary W. F. Smith, of Millheim, is visiting at the home of L. W. Kimpfort, at Boalsburg.

John Bumgardner is loading a double-decker stock car at Oak Hall today for the Eastern market. John is a hustler from away back.

Ex-sheriff W. Miles Walker was circulating among his old cronies here in the beginning of the week and did not forget to talk politics, too.

Mrs. Rebecca Ard who has for the last two weeks, been visiting at Houtzdale is home again delighted with her trip to that mountainous town.

Mrs. Kate Irvin, of Williamsport, has been greeting old friends here the past two weeks, looking as though the hand of time has touched her but lightly.

Miss Lizzie Tyson, while assisting her father take a barrel of cider off the wagon, was seriously hurt about the face by the plank tilting.

We are glad to note the improvement of our old friend Squire Potter, who has been housed up from a fall. He is rapidly recovering and hopes to be able to be out at the election.

Geo. Lomez, of Bellefonte; H. A. Schall and W. L. Zimmerman, of Fleming; D. C. Keller, of Centre Hall; W. W. Pettengill, of Lock Haven, and that price of good fellows, Geo. Woodring, of Port Matilda, registered at the St. Elmo last week.

Harry Ishler has purchased Mr. Thompson's butchering outfit at Snow Shoe, and expects to take charge of the block at once. Harry is a genial good fellow and is deserving of a share of the patronage, as we feel assured he will give satisfaction.

A party of some twenty hunters from Northumberland, Altoona, Boalsburg and this place are arranging for a two week's hunt and will go into quarters over on Stone Creek. Among them are some noted nimrods and they will be entertained by our townsman H. M. Krebs.

While D. G. Meek's team was standing untied on Main street, at State College, last Friday, it took flight at Mr. Lyon's automobile and ran away. As the grade was down hill to Centre Furnace they made good time, scattering hardware all along the pike, but fortunately little damage was done.

Leap year or straw ride parties are becoming quite popular. On last Thursday evening Luther Peters, with his spanking four-in-hand team, brought a jolly lot of youngsters from Oak Hall to the home of Frank Fishburn in the Glades, where Mrs. Fishburn and daughters furnished refreshments.

On the first day of the hunt everybody that had a gun or could borrow one took to the woods only to return in the evening tired, hungry and ragged. Geo. Rossman, of Baileyville, came in with a fine deer he shot on old Tussey above Rock Spring.

The Riley crew, at Boalsburg, got three deer, Robt. Galbraith a fine doe; Ed. and Cal Riley each got a yearling.

On Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock Albert Garbrick tied his bride, Julia Jordan, to the marriage altar at the Lutheran parsonage here, when Rev. Aikens, in his usual happy manner, said the words that made them man and wife. The groom is an industrious young man, well worthy the hand of the good helpmate he got. The bride is a daughter of Geo. Jordan, near State College. After a brief honeymoon the young couple will go to housekeeping at Circleville.

Last Saturday was a red letter day at the home of Geo. Markle, on Buffalo Run. Early in the morning all roads leading to his home were lined with rigs—the inmates bent on having a good time. By 10 o'clock the home and yard was full of jolly people who had been bidden to the big feast that Mrs. Markle and her assistants had prepared in honor of her mother's eighty-third birthday. Dinner was served at 11 o'clock and lasted until 5 o'clock in the evening, when there was still enough left to feed as many more. Nancy Koch, for who the party was given, is quite brisk for one of her years. Wm. Krape and Amos Koch, who are each past 82 years were among her schoolmates and were present to relate many of their early reminiscences, which were enjoyed by the younger folks present. She was the mother of five children, three of whom were present; twelve grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren. It was evening when the guests took their leave wishing her a long lease of life. Mrs. Koch was the recipient of many useful presents.
