-On Thanksgiving day-Nov. 24ththe Hoy family, one of the largest in the county, with relatives and friends will hold a reunion at the Jno. S. Hoy homestead about one and a half miles west of Jacksonville in Marion township, in honor of Cyrus Hoy, Esq., of Minnesota, who is now visiting relatives in the county. Should the entire relationship turn out it will be one of the largest gatherings of the kind ever held within this county.

-Wednesday morning of last week Charles Weaver, of Moshannon, found the mutilated body of a man lying along side the railroad track about two miles east of that place. Though the body was so out up as to be unrecognizable from the clothing the remains were identified as those of Albert Johnson, a man who had been in that neighborhood only a short time and about whom nothing was known. He had evidently been walking on the track and was run down by a train. "The Strollers," the comic opera

that will be sung at Garman's, next Monday night, will be worth every cent of the advance in the price of seats. Don't miss the show and later regret that you were not there when you hear some one else tell how good it was. Nixon & Zimmerman are the most extensive theatrical managers in the business and the show they will give Bellefonte will be exactly the same in every detail of setting and roster as that given in the big cities.

-----It is but a very small per centage of married couples who live to enjoy what is known as a "Golden Wedding." Our good friends Mr. and Mrs. Haag, should they both live until Monday of next week. will have this distinction, and expect to celebrate the event by giving a general reception to their many friends. Cards are out for this occasion, and Mr. Haag is event of his life. We know that it will be the universal wish of those who know both Mr. and Mrs. Haag that time may deal so gently with them that many, many more anniversaries will be passed by them before they are called to that existence in which marriage and anniversaries are unknown, and the regulation and usuages of this world are of little account.

GORDON-MILLER.-At noon, Thursday of last week, a pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, on Phœnix avenue, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ella Miller to Jacob L. A NARROW ESCAPE.-Last Thursday evening Samuel Hoover of Hannah Furnace narrowly escaped instant death for while returning, about eight o'clock in the evening, from Tyrone where he had been with a load of produce his wagon was struck by an engine on the crossing at Vail. The wagon was thrown to one side of the railroad, the horse to the other and Mr. Hoover onto the pilot of the engine. The horse was badly hurt and Mr. Hoover suffered a cutton the hand and face and was badly bruised. His injuries were such as to necessitate taking him back to Tyrone where they were dressed by Dr. Gemmill in the operating room of the station. The next morning he had recovered sufficiently from the shock to be taken home and it is thought no serious impairment of health will result from the accident.

STATE-DICKINSON FOOT BALL GAME. -On account of the State-Dickinson foot ball game at Williamsport, Saturday, Norember 12th, the Central R.R. of Pa. in connection with the Bellefonte Central R. R. will sell tickets from all points to Williamsport and return at one-way fare for the round trip, good going Friday, November 11th and 12th and for return on or before Nov. 14th.

For this occasion a special through train will leave State College Friday at 1:30 and Bellefonte at 5:30 p. m. and on Saturday about 8:00 a. m. from State College and 9:00 a. m. from Bellefonte, returning leave Williamsport for Bellefonte and State College at 9:00 p. m.

By the way, Mr. Stevens is now considering the making of Bellefonte his home and it is just n ossible he may move his family here within the vear.

-W. Wardner Williard, who now occupies th p ulpit in the Fairview Methodist church, Al toona, came down to vote, on Tuesday. He is having enjoyable experiences in his work and is to be congratulated that his first charge should have fallen in such a pleasant field. His cong regation is also to be congratulated on having uch an upright, conscientious and altogethe worthy-of-emulation young man to teach them christian living.

-Mrs. Mary Nolan, after six weeks of greeting relatives and friends in Bellefonte, Snow Shoe and Clearfield, turned her face westward on Monday morning. That the return to the hustle and hustle of Chicago be not too abrupt, she wil make short visits in Tyrone, Johnstown and Windber. It is nine years since Mrs. Nolan has been here but it is to be hoped that the ter pounds gain in weight while here will so offse the increasing charms of Chicago that another nine years will not elapse before she again see fit to come among us.

-Mr. C. A.
