Bellefonte, Pa., November 18, 1904.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pul lished unless accompanied by the real name he writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Rev. W. B. Cox began protracted meeting services in the Evangelical church on Sunday.

-Monday evening Mrs. David R. Foreman entertained at dinner the lady school teachers of Philipsburg.

The brick work of the Y. M. C. A. building is now finished and the carpenters are at work putting the roof on the building.

The many friends of Mrs. Laurie, wife of Rev. William Laurie, will be pleased to know that she is fast recovering from her recent serious illness.

-Margaret Leslie Roan, the little that place, November 3rd.

-Master Hunter Knisely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Knisely, is just recovering from severe burns sustained by falling from the bathtub against an oil stove.

Mrs. Moses Levi, of west Beaver street, has been confined to the house the the past three months, suffering with catarrh fever and muscular rheumatism.

-On Tuesday Mr. Henry Detweiler. a teacher in attendance at the county institute, was hastily summoned to his home in Smullton owing to the serious illness of his wife.

---Governor Pennypacker and a number of other state notables arrived at Lemont last evening and were met at the station by Mrs. Henry Treyz, and Mr. and Mrs. G. the entire cadet batallion and escorted to T. Treyz, of Cooks Falls, N. Y.; Mr. and State College.

-Next Sunday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, the annual Home Mission day services will be held in St. John's Reformed church. The Sunday school and congregation will unite in this service.

-Yesterday morning Allen Waite, Ferd Beezer Clay Rider and six more of Bellefonte's glass workers departed for Mt. Jewett, McKean county, where they have secured good jobs in the glass plant operated there.

-Volmer & Sims, decorators, of Harrisburg, passed through Bellefonte yesterday morning on their way to State College where they went to do the decorating for today's "Pennsylvania Day" exercises and Carnegie hall dedication.

-Mr. Frank Edwards, a young man who is preparing for missionary work in the wilds of Africa, was in Bellefonte Sun- Mrs. Will McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. day and gave an interesting as well as very Mingle, Mrs. John C. Bair, the Hon. and a member of the Tioga county bar, but instructive talk on "Africa and some of its Mrs. John Noll, Mrs. Louis Haas and Geo. people," in the U. B. church

-The Moshannon Manufacturing company's plant, at Philipsburg, recently leased by John Botwright, was entirely destroyed by fire, Tuesday night. The entire loss is about $15,000, on which there was possibly a half insurance. -The Linden Hall lumber company is tearing down its plant at the Bear Meadows after having operated in that locality the past sixteen years. The plant will be moved to White Deer, where the company will continue lumbering opera-

---Wednesday morning Catharine, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy, of east High street, was badly bitten in the face by a dog with which she was playing. Dr. Feidt cauterized the wound and the little girl is getting along as well as possible.

tween the ankle and her knee.

near the home of Samuel Bruss, west of were on the body when it was found. Centre Hall. The animal was shot by Robert Bloom.

be made.

Millheim. Going up Nittany mountain ment of Mr. Noah H. Swayne II. unharmed, and continued their trip down mined to do out there.

-Thursday evening, of last week, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hindman entertained a large party of friends at their home on east Cartin street. As the Hindmans were on intending to board during the winter, the party was in the form of a farewell reception. The house vacated by the Hindmans will be occupied by Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick and family and Dr. Tryon will

by the Kilpatricks.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVER-SARY.-Few events that have occurred in Bellefonte in recent years have been fraught with as much jollity as was the golden anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Gotlieb Haag on Monday. Both are so well known and popular folks that all who were fortunate enough to be invited to the celebration of the affair knew that a good time awaited them.

Mr. and Mrs Haag received in the parlors of the hotel that bears their name and when all of the guests had assembled the formal ceremonies were opened by a little talk in retrospection by the Rev. Dr. Holloway, of the Lutheran church. He gave way to Rev. John Wood, of the Methodist church, who recalled the silver anniversary of the estimable couple. It was celebrated at their old hotel at Pleasant Gap and just a few days after Rev. Wood had arrived at that place to begin work in his second charge in the ministry. Following Mr. Thos. A. Harter, of the Gazette, Senator W. C. Heinle and Col. J. L. Spangler spoke. Theu Gotlieb. himself, arose to the occasion very handsomely daughter of Robert Roan, who recently by making a speech that pleased everybody moved from Coleville to Juniata, died in and winding it up with a Dutch song in which Col. Spangler joined while everyone else tried to figure out what it was. The dinner that was served by mine host Mosebarger of the Haag hotel was a feature of the festivities for the tables were burdened with most delectable food. There were so many guests that they filled the dining room three times.

After the dinner there was more merry making and the happy bride and groom were among the foremost; in enjoyment of it. In fact they were both in remarkable health and spirits that day and it is the WATCHMAN'S wish that all the remaining ones of their lives will be freighted with a fullness of happiness and contentment.

Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Treyz and daughter Lillian, of Fishers Eddy, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Moeschline, of Sunbury ; Henry Mundrick, of Patterson, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. James Smetzler, of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mulfinger and their daughter Maggie, Commissioner A. V. Miller, Mrs. Mary Dolan, and W. H. Noll, of Pleasant Gap; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole, Sen. W. C. Heinle, Capt. H. S. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Doll, Rev. and Mrs. John Wood, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Holloway, Col. and Mrs. Amos Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ceader, Mr. and Mrs. M. Fauble. Mr. and Mrs. ly. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haag, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Sharer, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Harter, A. Baum, J. H. Sands, Hon. Fred Kurtz, Col. J. L. Spangler, Capt. and Mrs. the cellar stairs, sustaining a cut on the as at Danville.

R. Meek. WAS NOT A BELLEFONTE GIRL.-Last Saturday's Pittsburg papers contained a examination for admission. The comidentified by Samuel M. Irwin, of Brad- Though the present examining rules are dock, as that of Rose Washburn, aged 21 very hard the committee were as leinent years, of Bellefoute, and a cousin of Mr. with Mr. Horton as possible, but even Irwin. The entire article is a canard so then he failed to pass the examination. far as the indentification of the body of the young woman is concerned, as Miss Washburn is in Bellefonte alive and well and has been here for weeks back. When died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. from St. John's Catholic church, of which shown the newspaper story relating to her alleged suicide she was very much surprised and declared that she had not been in Pittsburg for weeks. Later the body of the drowned girl was identified by David H. Baird, a flagman parents came to this country when Mrs. Michael Shields and Jacob Gross. on the Pittsburg division of the Pennsyl-- Alice Schilling, the bright ten-year- vania railroad, as that of his sister, Miss old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fannie Baird, aged 24 years. The young Schilling, of west Beaver street, while woman was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. going down to the fair grounds, Sunday Samuel T. Baird, of Mount Union, and the afternoon, stepped on a rolling stone, fell parents scout the suicide theory, believing and broke both bones of her right leg be- that their daughter was a victim of foul play. She worked in one of the large de--Two weeks ago while Mrs. Charles partment stores in Pittsburg and when she Corl and two other women, of Boalsburg, left her boarding place, Thursday evening, were driving home from Centre Hall, their in company with a young man, she wore horse fell and broke his leg near the a watch and several rings, one a diamond. shoulder blade. The accident occurred Neither the watch nor any of the rings

A NEW RECORD AT THE NITTANY ---On Wednesday Mr. Charles Moersch- FURNACE. -- For the first fifteen days of bercher, of Freeland, Luzerne county, November the out-put of the Nittany furpurchased from Mr. Jesse Cox his whole- nace was an average of 1281 tons per day, sale beer business, restaurant and pool or just 26 tons more than the daily average and billiard room in this place. Mr. for any previous half month since the fur-Moerschbercher will take charge just as nace was built. The high water mark was soon as the wholesale license transfer can reached on the 15th when 134 tons of first class pig were turned out. This is not -On Sunday Frank T. and Milton only an excellent showing for the furnace Kerns started to drive to their home in but speaks well for the superior manage-they got out of the buggy and walked to Inasmuch as all hands are treated to fine make it easier for the horse. A man came cigars every time a record is broken realong riding a motor-cycle and the puffing ports as above warrant the suggestion that frightened the animal which ran away and the Nittany company will soon have to held on Monday, interment being made at was finally caught at the old Gregg farm, start a factory of its own in order to keep Bigler. where the Messrs. Kerns secured their rig, pace with what the men seem deter-

-Last Friday evening the young people of Lock Haven gave a private dance in Scott's bazaar in honor of Misses Daisv Barnes, Margaret Woods and Evelyn Show the point of breaking up housekeeping, friends in that city. About fifteen couples were present and the music was furnished by the Germania orchestra.

-H. C. Quigley, Esq., continues to slowly improve from the very severe atmove from the Harrison house on Bishop tack of pneumonia with which he has suf- home of Arthur Ricker, at Pine Station, of street to the house on Howard street vacated fered for more than a month, but is not pneumonia contracted while on a visit yet regarded as out of danger.

-The Clearfield county teachers' institute will convene December 19th.

The name of the postoffice at Kipple, Blair county, has been changed to Juniata.

-Mrs. Kate Switzer, of Philipsburg, has gone to Florida for the winter for the benefit of her health.

-Mr. Chas. Honshauer, of Lock Haven, Pa., will open a dancing school in the Bush Arcade hall, beginning this -Very successful protracted meeting services are being held in the Valley View chapel by the pastor, Rev. David J. Davis. Monday evening Rev. A. Davidson, of Bellefonte, preached an interesting sermon to the large audience present.

-At a meeting of the line officers of the Fifth regiment, N. G. P., held at the all who became acquainted with him. He Logan house, Altoona, on Tuesday, Cap- died at the advanced age of 80 years, leavtain John C. Dunkle, of Company A, Huntingdon, was elected Major of the his memory. Speaking of the funeral a regiment to succeed Major S. H. Hughes, Missoula paper says: "The funeral took afternoon; expecting to spend about a week in -Early in the week came a letter from our old friend is alive and hustling. It the services and a large number of friends didn't exactly say that in the letter, but as of the family followed the remains to the there was enough of the "long green" in it grave. The services were simple but imto send his paper ahead for another year we pressive, and a large number of floral took it for granted that Robert is a hust- tributes gave mute testimony to the

-J. H. B. Hartman, of Millheim, and Mrs. Sarah E. Musser, of Penn Hall, were married at the home of Solomon Homan. in Williamsport, Sunday evening, by the Rev. L. L. Lohr. Their marriage was anticipated but the two people stole a march on their friends by quietly slipping away and baving the knot tied before their neighbors realized what was going on.

-Last Friday J. Edward Waite and bride, nee Miss Mary Hoffman, of Columbia 10th inst., arrived in Bellefonte and the stepsister, all living in Bellefonte. same day his mother, Mrs. Anna Waite, Northfield, Mass.

-Wednesday Dr. Tryon moved from H. H. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Philip head that required nine stitches to close.

Beezer, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gross, Mr. and -Last Saturday Mr. James K. Horton, who was desirous of locating in Philipsburg and becoming a member of the Centre county bar, appeared before the examining committee here to undergo an long account of the suicide of a young mittee is composed of ex-Judge A.O. woman who jumped into the Allegheny Furst, John Blanchard, J. C. Meyer, river Thursday night and whose body was Harry Keller and J. Thomas Mitchell.

> Walker was a young girl and early in life she married James Walker and, until her with her daughter, Mrs. Nolan.

Mrs. Walker was the mother of nine children, four daughters and five sons, all was housekeeper for her father, her mother Nolan and Mrs. Jacob Rapp, of Bellefonte; of Tyrone and also a charter member of Mrs. Martha Eorsythe, of Houtzdale; son, of Bellefonte: Daniel and John K., of Trenton, N. J.

and this morning the remains will be ment was made in the Tyrone cemetery. taken on the 9.53 train to Snow Shoe for

SHAW. - Robert Shaw, a native of Philipsburg, but who had made his home at Blue Ball for many years, died, last Friday evening, aged 71 years. Deceased ate a hearty supper at 6 o'clock and died two hours afterward. A wife, three sons and four daughters survive. The funeral was home near Eagleville Tuesday morning, of and B. C. and D. F., at home; Mrs. Mary tuberculosis of the lungs, aged 78 years. He Markle, of Pleasant Gap, and Mrs. Mary is survived by the following children: Ira, Hinds and Nora V., at home. The funeral William, Allison, Clarence, Percy, of Cen- was held on Saturday, Rev. J. M. Price tre county; Mrs. Leonard Metzger, of officiating. Interment was made at Beech Creek, and Mrs. John L. J. Mc- Hublersburg. Gregor, of Flemington. The funeral will be held this morning at 10 o'clock.

Salona, died, Monday morning, at the Deceased was a resident of South Philipswith the Rickers.

HARPSTER.-On the 12th ult., at Missoula, Montana, peacefully passed away Mr. Jacob F. Harpster, formerly a well-known resident of Centre Hall, this county. Mr. Harpster spent his entire life up to 1893 within the limits of the county, a greater portion of the time following his trade of blacksmithing at Centre Hall, where he made many warm friends. In 1893, he went west and settled in Missoula where a daughter, Mrs. Moore, resided, and at which place he made his home since. Mr. Harpster was one of the kind of men who always make their impress upon the community-earnest, positive and honest. What he believed, he believed firmly; what he undertook to do he did earnestly ; whatever cause he espoused he did it with an honesty of purpose that none could doubt. He was sincere in every effort he made and passed through life without doing harm to any one and earning the respect of ing five daughters and four sons to revere place from Woman's Hall, (Montana University) the interment being in the valley Robert Laws, of Osceola, that tells us that cemetery. Rev. Walter Hays conducted esteem in which the deceased was held.'

DROPPED DEAD .- Dr. George A. Beck, of Flemington, while standing in the postoffice at that place, on Monday, putting a stamp on a letter, gave a gasp and dropped dead. Deceased was born in Centre county 51 years ago last June. He is survived by his wife, three sons-Malcolm, Willard and Donald and one daughter, Florence. Donald is the only child at home. The other three children live in New York city. He is also survived by a county, to whom he was married on the stepmother, two stepbrothers and one

The deceased was reared in Jacksonville gave a reception in their honor at her home and in early life taught school. Later he on south Thomas street. All the children took a collegiate course, studied medicin e were present except Miss Laura, of East and began the practice of his profession at Howard, afterward moving to Bellefonte, and from here to Danville. About ten years ago he established himself at Flemthe Harrison house on east Bishop street ington, where he has since practiced bis to the Zeller house on Howard street, profession. His sudden death shocked the formerly occupied by Dr. Kilpatrick. His entire community, as his portly figure sister Mrs. Elliott, of Atlantic City, is and generally healthy appearance was a here and was assisting in the moving. In guarantee that he was a man in the full F. E. Naginey, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Knise- the evening she opened what she sup- vigor of health. Dr. Beck was widely posed was a closet door and went to step known, as he had lived so long and pracinside but the door proved to be the cellar ticed his profession over a large section of way and Mrs. Elliott got a bad fall down both Centre and Clinton counties, as well

> The funeral occurred yesterday morning, the remains being brought to Jacksonville for interment.

McCAFFERTY. - Mrs. Katharine Mc-Cafferty, widow of the late Richard Mc-Cafferty, died at the home of her son inlaw, Edward Brown Jr., on south Allegheny street, last Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Deceased had been a sufferer for over a year with a complication of diseases, being confined to her bed most of the time. She was born in Ireland and was 75 years of age. She is survived by two sons and one daughter, Martin, of Pittsburg and James McCafferty and Mrs. MRS. MARY WALKER.—At 12 o'clock Edward Brown, of Bellefonte. The funeral rest of us; He is a better looker than getter. noon, on Wednesday, Mrs. Mary Walker was held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning Jerry Nolan, on east High street, after she was a faithful member, Rev. Father being in declining health, the result of P. McArdle officiating. Interment was old age, for more than a year. Deceased made in the Catholic cemetery. The pallwas 77 years of age and, though of Ger- bearers were : Philip Beezer, Thomas man parentage, was born in France. Her Howley, James Noonan, Harry Flack,

DIED IN TYRONE. - Miss Nora Ammerhusband's death thirty-eight years ago, the man died at the home of her father, Mr. family lived in Snow Shoe. Since the Joseph Ammerman, of Tyrone, at 1.30 death of her husband Mrs. Walker made o'clock last Saturday morning, after but a her home with one of her sons in Brisbin two weeks illness with heart disease. Deuntil August, 1903, when she came to live ceased was born in Unionville, this county, but the family have resided in Tyrone the past thirty-one years, where Miss Nora of whom survive and are as follows: Mrs. baving died some years ago. She was a friends. William Temple, of McKeesport; Mrs. Jerry member of the First Presbyterian church Woman's Relief Corps, No. 9. In addi-Edward J. and George, of Brisbin; Sinnick- tion to her father three brothers survive, namely: W. J. Ammerman, of Clearfield; H. S. and P. O. Ammerman, of Tyrone. Funeral services were held at the house The funeral was held Monday forenoon, of Mrs. Nolan last evening at 8 o'clock Rev. Geo. T. Gunter officiating. Inter-

WHITMAN. -Mrs. D. M. Whitman died at her home in Hublersburg, Thursday Frank went on to Danville where he spent Sunevening of last week, of a complication of diseases. Deceased's maiden name was Isabella Maize and she was born at New Berlin, Union county, October 21st. 1846. While yet a young girl her parents moved to Millheim where she spent ber girlhord days. Mrs. Whitman's death is a sad blow to her husband who has been in ill health the past four months. In addition of time but the two Brouses did not so much disto her husband eight children, five boys and three girls survive, namely : C. E., of BITNER.-John W. Bitner died at his Middletown: J. W. and T. B., of Renovo,

FRANK.-August Frank, who was struck by an engine at the passenger station, Philipsburg, Tuesday evening of last week -Mrs. James Herr, an old resident of died in the Cottage hospital on Saturday

News Parely Pursonal.

-Hon. A. O. Furst transacted business in Williamsport this week.

-Ex-county commissioner Thomas W. Fisher was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday. -Miss Mary Butts is visiting in Philadelphia for a few days. She went down on Tuesday. -Judge-elect Ellis L. Orvis spent the latter part of last week on a business trip to Phila delphia.

-Mrs. Sadie Larimar went to Philadelphia, on Sunday, to visit friends a few days and, incidentally, to have her eyes examined.

-Miss Mildred Grim, of Thomas street, spent Sunday at Lewisburg with Miss Margaret Roland, who is a student at Bucknell University

-Mrs. Maria Rhoads, of Linn street, left for St. Louis on Saturday evening. She met her son Joseph at Tyrone and is his guest on the trip.

-Charles R. Kurtz, editor of the Centre Democrat, and Charles Mensch, of the Gazette office, spent, the past week at the big exposition in St. -After visiting her parents here for three months Miss Margaret Sechler returned to Baltimore, on Monday, to resume her work as a -Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker and Miss Annie Shortlidge left for Philadelphia Wednesday

-Messrs. Joseph and Samuel Smith, employed in the Pittsburg company's glass plant at Washington, Pa., spent last Sunday with their families in this pla -Mrs. George B. Thompson, of Alto, spent Wednesday with her mother in this place. She was on her way home from a week's shopping trip to Philadelphia. -John Curtin, Wallace Gephart and Hugh Crider made up the Bellefonte contingent that represented us at the Yale-Princeton game a Princeton, on Saturday. -Miss Mary McQuistion, of west High street returned, Monday, from quite an extended visit with relatives in Iowa and other parts of the middle west States. While away she visited the St.

Louis exposition -Mr. Frank P. Davis, who had been in Bellefonte since before the election on a visit with his family, departed last Saturday for Beaver Falls where he holds a very good position with the Standard Scale company. Bellefonters who transacted business in Lock Haven on Tuesday while Misses Eva Crissman and Adelaide Lyon spent the day with friends in the same city. -Bert Robb, of the Centre County Banking Co., left in the mountains. returned home, Saturday night after a week's stay in Pittsburg, where he had "the time of his life," of course, with some of the cronies who worked with him when he was hunting titles for

-Mr. J. C. F. Motz, who is now one of th prosperous lumbermen at Monessen, Pa., ac ompanied by his mother, Mrs. Amanda Motz, of Woodward, passed through Bellefonte Monday on his way home from naving a good hunt in the eastern part of the county.

-Mr. James Clark, stenographer in the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania offices here, shouldered his gun, on Wednesday evening, and hied himself to Beech Creek where he joined a hunting party that will spend the next week at the Big Run camp in the Alleghenies.

-Superior court Judge James A. Beaver and phia where the judge is this week sitting in the sessions of the Superior court for the eastern district. Before returning home both Judge and bert, in New York.

-Just when the WATCHMAN was about to go to press last week Mr. J. C. Sunday and wife, of Pennsylvania Furnace, called in to have a look around and that accounts for no mention being made of their visit last week. Mr. Sunday is one of Ferguson township's wide-a-wake farmers and pro gressive citizens.

-Dave Stuart, sighing for a sniff of the mountains and longing for a look over the old place at Pine Glenn, struck off in that direction on Monday and expects to spend the remainder of th open season looking for game. You notice he says looking, because Dave is very much like the

-Mr. H. A. Detweiler, of Smullton, was among the well known teachers at institute this week. He did think of breaking away from Centre county educational circles some time ago and went to Florida, but, happily, he did not like it there and is once more back among the pedagogues of old Centre.

-Geo. Meyers, of Rochester, N. Y., spent Friday in town as the guest of Mrs. Louisa Bush He had been in New York and New Jersey superintending the operation of the Standard voting machine of which his father is the inventor. From all reports it worked with entire satisfa tion, wherever it was tried.

-Mr. George M. Dimeling, one of Clearfield's most prominent as well as prosperous lumbermen and who was favorably mentioned for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district last summer but who declined the honor on ecount of a press of business matters, was in Bellefonte Monday night greeting his many

-Hon. J. H. Osmer and wife, of Franklin, Pa., departed, Tuesday, after a week in Bellefonte spent very pleasantly at the home of Mr. Osner's niece, Mrs. Hibler, on Allegheny street. Mr. Osmer at one time represented his district in Congress where he was regarded an able representative. His trip to Bellefonte was one of both usiness and pleasure.

-Mr. Frank E. Newbaker, one of the principal all-'round factotums at the Potter-Hoy hardware co mpany, went to Sunbury, Saturday, and closed a very nice deal the company had hanging fire there. Finishing his business in that place day at his home, did some business for the Potter-Hoy firm on Monday and returned to Belle fonte Tuesday.

-Mr. William Brouse, of Philadelphia, was in Bellefonte visiting his cousin, Mr. R. S. Brouse and family. It is about thirty years since the two men saw each other and then they were both boys, but when they met on Monday there was that familiarity about both of them that led to mutual recognition. Thirty years is a big lapse cuss what transpired in the three decades as they recounted reminiscences of their boyhood days at Ogontz when both were Sunday school scholars in Mr. Jay Cooke's class. -Last Thursday morning Master Richard Brouse, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brouse, departed for Philadelphia to join the crew of the schoolship Saratoga, on which he was enrolled a cadet. Dick arrived in Philadelphia all right, went down to the water front but there got bewildered and could not find his ship He wandered around aimlessly an hour or more then gave it up and went back to the Broad street station where he took the midnight train for home arriving here the next morning, almost famished, as he had not taken time to get anything to eat from the time he left home until he burg and was aged 67 years. He is survived by a small family. The remains were taken to Morrisdale, on Monday, for behind the counter in his father's store.

-Mr. J. A. Mattern, of Clearfield, was a Belle

-Mrs. J. M. Decker, of east Bishop street, is spending the week in Philadelphia.

-Mr. Harry Hartsock, who used to be on the clerical force at the Pennsylvania freight station here but who now holds a good position in Altoona, was in Bellefonte this week greeting old

-Messrs. H. Walton Mitchell, Ed. Quigley, 'Pud" Reed and Alex. Patterson are among the old State students who passed through Bellefonte yesterday to attend the Carnegie library dedicatory exercises today at State College.

--G. F. Weaver, of Penns Cave, who has figured quite prominently in county politics, is attending institute this week because he is one of the 'old regulars." George has been teaching for many years and is regarded as one of the best,

-Among the distinguished men in town last evening en route to State College was the Hon. S. R. Dresser, of Bradford. He was bearing the glory of his recent great victory in re-election to Congress quite in his usual modest way.

-Miss Jennie Reifsnyder, daughter of the late Squire Reifsnyder, of Millheim, and Miss Anna Smith, daughter of ex-prothonotary W. F. Smith, have been in Bellefonte this week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCargar while attending the teachers' institute.

-Last evening when ex-school teacher Al Pletcher, of Howard, and Harry Leathers, of Snow Shoe, were trying to talk us into forgoting that it was time for the paper to go to press who should step in but our old friend M. E. Heberling, of Pine Grove Mills. "Mus" is an old hunting companion and under ordinary conditions he would be very welcome but last night he was exceptionally so, because he was the escort of a trio of the most charming looking of the teachers at institute. They were Miss Nancy Heberling, of Penna Furnace; Miss Lydia Ray, of Gatesburg; and Miss Edith Buck, of Warriorsmark. The one regretable feature of their call was the fact that they couldn't find time to tarry as long as we would like to have had them stay.

AMONG THE HUNTERS.—The Panther hunting club has completed arrangements and will start early next Monday morning for their annual deer hunt in the Alleghenies. They will go out in the vicinity of Merritt's camp, in the Scootac region. Among those who will go are Linn Mc-Ginley, R. S. Brouse, John L. Knisely, -Messrs. J. W. Gephart. F. W. Crider and his M. A. Jackson, Harry Gerberich, John son, Burns M. Crider, and Maurice Baum were McGinley, Bruce Garman, Andrew Knisely. W. L. Cassidy and others, and they confidently as ever expect to bring home about all(?) the deer that the other hunters have

> The Bob Mann party from Curtin township went up into the Scootae region the first week of the season and killed four fine deer, but one day while the men were out on the chase some person or persons stole the two largest and the Mann party are still swearing vengeance.

Reports from the Larry creek region, in Sugar valley, state that not in the past twenty-five years have deer been so plentiful. Since the opening of the hunting season fifteen deer have been killed within a radius of twenty miles. Monday, of Mrs. Beaver departed last Saturday for Philadel- this week, Aaron Klechner, of Loganton, killed a 200-pound buck; W. G. Berry brought down a four-pronger which weighed 161 pounds while Jasper Bower, Chas Omers and Chester and Edward Schwenk each killed one.

> tains near Woodward, passed through Bellefonte Wednesday morning with fifteen pheasants, three wild ducks, three squirrels, one rabbit, a fox, a wild turkey and a leon.

A party of three Monessen nimrods who spent several days hunting in the moun-

WANTED-FRESH EGGS .-- Will pay 24 cents for all fresh eggs delivered to any of our plants or stations. See us before you sell your turkeys.

HOWARD CREAMERY CORP.

Philadelphia Markets.

	The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia
	the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday
3	evening.
	Wheat-Red
	Wheat—Red 1.12½@1.14
18	" -No. 2 1.12%@1.14
8	"—Mixed new
ij	Oats
	Flour-Winter Per Rr'l
	-Penna Roller
8	Rye Flour PerBr'l 4 40@4 60
8	Baled hay-Choice Timot No. 1 9 000 15 50
	Rye Flour PerBr' 4.40@4.60
ş	Straw 8.50@18.50
8	0.00(@18.00

Bellefonte Grain Market. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six 'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes Rye, per bushel shelled, per bushel 8 50 to 9 50 ..$7 00 to $8 00 ...$2.00 to $2.25

Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co. Tallow, per pound.... Butter, per pound.

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:

SPACE OCCUPIED 3m 6m 1y One inch (12 lines this type... Quarter Column (5 inches). Half Column (10 inches).... One Column (20 inches)..... Advertisements in special column 25 per cent

Terms—Cash.
All letters should be addressed to
P. GRAY MEEK, Proprietor