

WHY?

Spend your time shopping from store to store and finding only one or two of the items you want?

Why not start in on your Holiday shopping at the place where you can find all the goods you are looking for. We have the goods—the right kind; the right quality and at the right prices. But we did not buy them to keep. We want to sell them quickly and buy more to keep business moving. And we want to sell some of this stock to you.

In fact YOU are the particular person we have in mind. We invite you, have made preparation for you, will expect you and will be disappointed if you do not come. But, of course, you will come. WHY NOT?

Our stock of pure foods are drawn from every country on the face of the earth. It includes hundreds of items unknown to grocerymen of twenty-five years ago.

Our line of CANNED GOODS alone would make a good sized store. Then comes our line of Fruits, Oranges, Lemons, Grapes, Bananas, Cranberries, &c.

CURED FRUITS—Such as raisins, currants, apricots, peaches, prunes, figs, dates and all kinds of foreign and domestic cured fruits.

IN CONFECTIONERY we have Chocolates, bon bon mixtures, boxes of fine confectionery for the Holiday trade and a full line of the latest goods.

Our TEAS, COFFEES AND SPICES are worthy of more space than we give them here.

What would Christmas be indeed, without a cup of fine coffee or fragrant tea? Or pure spices for seasoning. Fine table syrups, cream cheese, nuts of all kinds, flavoring extracts,, olive oil, olives, sardines, ketchup and a large line of condiments and relishes.

We conclude that you have now accepted our invitation and we are expecting you. We will be glad to see you and think you will be glad you came.

SECHLER & CO., Pure Food Store.

Lemont.

Jacob Shuey is some better at this writing. Earle Bathgate is enjoying a week's vacation in Altoona.

Mrs. Frank Kline visited Bellefonte Monday to do some shopping.

Harvey Shuey and S. C. Bathgate's children are suffering with chicken-pox.

Henry Evey, George Roan and James Grove are all on the sick-list this week.

Tuesday evening brought us the roughest evening of the season, and the heaviest snow storm.

William Garbrick and wife, of Altoona, are enjoying themselves among friends in these parts this week.

C. D. Houtz and wife returned from Fowler, Monday, where they visited at the home of their daughter.

The ice crop is now being harvested, some fine blocks being taken out of Jesse Klingner's dam near town this week.

Samuel Dale, one of DuBois' hustling school teachers, spent a few hours Saturday with his father, who was quite ill for a few weeks.

William Hoy, of Williamsport, is circulating among friends in these parts this week. He looks as though time was using him well, and just as young as ever.

Helen Wasson, aged 27 years, 5 months and 24 days, after more than a week's suffering caused by a fall, passed away Friday forenoon. The funeral was held Monday forenoon, Rev. Harnish, officiating.

The front windows of the stores in this town, fore-tell that Christmas is soon here and the display of toys and candies is the greatest that has been brought forth in our town for many years and it seems as though every child in the neighborhood can have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Considerable surprise was caused in Phillipsburg last week by the announcement of the marriage of Mr. William McCloskey and Miss Henrietta Hewitt, of Phillipsburg, at Elmira, N. Y., on the 25th of October. The two young people slipped away quietly and were married and did not apprise their friends of the fact until a few days ago.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

NEW FEATURE IN THE CENTURY.—Early numbers of the Century, it is announced, will bring, among other good things, fiction from Alice Hegan Rice, Edward W. Townsend, Edon Philipotts, Maud Wilder Goodwin, Caroline Abbott Stanley, Marguerite Arlita Hamm, Kate Douglas Wiggin, Maurice Francis Egan, Anne Warner, and Helen R. Martin; and articles of importance and use, on "Korea and Its Empire," by William F. Sands, former adviser of the Emperor; "The Everglades of Florida" and "Philadelphia in Art." A notable feature of the February number will be the story of "The Boston Symphony Orchestra and Its Founders" by Richard Aldrich, illustrated with numerous portraits and sketches. Early issues will contain, too, articles on the breeches wrought by Luther Burbank's work in breeding fruits and flowers: edible cacti, the white blackberry, the plumcot, etc., etc.

Few, very few stores will show you as many of the correct things for Man or Boy as you will see at Fauble's.

A Card.

The partnership heretofore existing between Fortney & Walker in the practice of the law, has been dissolved. All books, papers, suits, judgments of records, as well as orphan's court matters remain in the hands of D. F. Fortney for settlement, trial, etc. Parties desiring information concerning anything formerly in the hands of the firm, will call on the undersigned, who retains the old office and will always be ready, in the future, as he has been in the past, to attend faithfully to any business entrusted to his care.

Respectfully, D. F. FORTNEY.
