

A WISH.
When of all life's many pathways
Which to tread thou dost not know,
May some gentle spirit guide thee
In the way thou should'st go.
And while onward thou art traveling,
May the spirit hover near,
Helps thee resist each temptation,
Keep thy heart from every fear.
And when thou hast reached the valley,
Where the river's dark waves roll;
May this ministering angel
Heavenward bear thy immortal soul.
M. V. THOMAS.

Pine Grove Mention.

Hammill Glenn is laid up with tonsillitis.
Wm. E. Johnson, on the Branch, reports another boarder at his home—No. 5. It's a boy.
Mrs. Wm. S. Tate, Mrs. J. G. Fortney and grandmother Yeakly are among the sick this week.
The lecture room of the Presbyterian church is being beautifully repapered and painted.
Miss Anna Dale is confined to her room with a bad attack of grip and other complications.
Mrs. Barbara Krebs is sick at her home on Chestnut street. Her dutiful daughter Mary is caring for her wants.
Jared Mayes, of Watsonstown, where he has a large marble trade, is spending a week among Centre county friends.
Almost the entire family of John H. Breen, on the Branch, are down with grip. Thus far Mrs. Breen has escaped the disease.
C. B. McCormick is closing up his duties as dog assessor, only to find the canine list much reduced. Of late strychnine laid many dogs low.
Jacob McClellan, Judson Williams and Ben Mattern sleighed over from Scotia and spent Saturday evening in town. A jolly trio, indeed.
T. C. Cronover, of Sauburg; John Strunk, of McLevey's Fort, and Harry Wagner, of Oak Hill, registered at the St. Elmo last Tuesday.
David Behers, a well-known farmer in Buffalo Run valley, was obliged to kill a valuable horse last week on account of a broken leg, caused by a kick by another horse.
Harry Cramer, of State College; Miss Ella Condo, Miss Katie M. Corl and Miss Helen Neece, of Penn Hall, were visitors at the Amos Koch home, west of town, this week.
Rev. E. K. Harnish will begin a series of meetings on Monday evening, Feb. 6th, to continue all week. He will administer the Lord's supper the following Sunday in the Presbyterian church here.
Farmer J. Wesley Miller, on the Knocho farm, has decided to move back to his father's, W. Harry Miller's old homestead in the spring. We are sorry to lose such good neighbors, but Harris township will gain thereby.
Mrs. Frank Swabb, on the J. H. Mitchell farm, near town gave a party to some of the ladies in town in the style of an old time quilting and a dinner fit for the Lords. Mrs. J. B. Smith's chair gave way, indicating that she got her full share of the good things to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. Price and grandson, and Mr. and Mrs. Somers, of Port Matilda, composed a happy sledding party who drove to Rock Springs, where they registered at the Red Lyon hotel. Mrs. Somers was Miss Nellie Koons, well and favorably known here.
Miss Jessie Woerner, accompanied by her sister Bella, went to a Philadelphia hospital last week, where Miss Jessie will be under treatment for a tumorous growth. Her many friends hope for her recovery and return home to her family and friends.
Mr. Jacob M. Musser and wife, of Dixon, Minn., for the first time in a quarter of a century are here greeting friends of long ago. Father time has touched them graciously. Although their locks are silvered they are sprightly and brisk and their legion of friends are glad to see them once again.
The Republicans met in caucus at Centre school house, on Saturday, and placed in nomination the following township ticket: For judge of election in east precinct, John Miller; inspector, J. A. Decker; registration assessor, Milton Shuey; For judge of election in west precinct, Wm. Gardner; inspector, Harry McCracken; registration assessor, Oscar Graziar; constable, David Reed; school directors, J. I. Reed and Homer Barr; road supervisors, Elmer Sunday and Ad Cramer; overseer of the poor, John E. Bressler; auditor, Samuel Elder; township clerk, W. D. Port.

On Tuesday John J. Kane, who represents the Singer sewing machine company, came over old Tussey's mountain and reported seeing a large black bear on a tree. Of course he made the information as soon as he landed at the St. Elmo. In less time than he could tell his "fib" a party of our crack shots, armed with their martins, waded the snow over the mountains to where bruin was reported treed, only to find that it was a catard, and now the aimers are saying ugly things of the Singer agent whose truth and veracity is beyond doubt.

To Please the Women.

The Pittsburg Dispatch has beyond all doubts solved the problem of pleasing the women. Commencing Sunday, February 5th, The Dispatch will increase the size of the paper by adding an entirely new six-page 42 column section which will be a delight to the hundreds of thousands of women who read that paper and which, if possible, will make it more popular than ever. It is by far the most pretentious woman's section ever incorporated into a Sunday newspaper. Expense has been a secondary consideration with The Dispatch, its one purpose being to furnish something that will be just what women like. The Dispatch has succeeded in doing this and the large increase in its circulation which is bound to result from the new section will evidence its success. Those who secure a copy of next Sunday's edition can judge for themselves, for it is not possible to give a faint idea of the delightful, entertaining features which will make up The Dispatch's New Woman's section.

Lemont.
Sleighting is not very good in these parts at present.
This last week has been very cold—Wednesday registering 4° below zero.
Abraham Houser, of Bellefonte, was seen in town Thursday of last week.
Thos. and William Houtz transacted business in the county capital Tuesday.
Harry Musser is this week confined to his home with an attack of quinsy.
John Breen's family are all suffering from an attack of the grip, at this writing.
Mrs. James Lenker and Miss Helen Dreese drove to Bellefonte, Tuesday, to do some shopping.
Mrs. John R. Williams has been on the sick list this last week but is now improving.

Mrs. Jacob Herman was called to the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Longwell, who is critically ill at her home in Philadelphia.
L. F. Roan has been circulating among the farmers this week buying up produce to ship to Altoona and he reports the market fair to good in that city.
Saturday the Democrats and Republicans held their caucus meetings, but politics is at such a low ebb in this township, that it is hard to find out who the candidates are.
Jared Mayes, the hustling marble dealer, of Watsonstown, has come back to see how the old town is moving along, and he and his family will enjoy a week in our midst.
The protracted meeting at Houseville is steadily growing in interest and the church will scarcely hold the crowds who gather to attend. Thus far there have been between fifty and sixty forward and thirteen united with the church.

Hublersburg.

Mr. John Fravel has been confined to his house for several days with neuralgia.
Mrs. George Harpster, of Bellefonte, was visiting at her daughter's, Mrs. P. I. Eavers, this week.
Mrs. Struble, from Flemington, visited her daughter, Mrs. George Kessinger, a few days this week.
Farmers' institute is over. It was a success, especially at the night sessions, the good sleighing bringing lots of the young people out.
Wm. Decker, who has been confined to his house for several weeks with erysipelas, is some better. His face had been so swollen that he could not see at all.
Sunday evening two of Bellefonte's young men came to this burg looking after a couple fair maidens. Come again, boys; but have a better understanding the next time.

The entertainment given by the quartet of young ladies from the Ithaca, (N. Y.) Conservatory of Music, in the Lutheran church, last Monday evening, was a most enjoyable one.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.—The Philadelphia Record will publish a supplement with its Sunday edition of February 5th which will be the most novel, interesting and instructive ever given away by a Philadelphia newspaper.
This novelty, so baffling to science, consists of an apparently blurred picture and the photograph or "Magic Spectacles." Upon properly adjusting the wonderful spectacles in accordance with the directions and looking at the picture at the proper focus, a result, entertaining and interesting, will be at once produced.
Save the pictures, as the Record will continue this supplement indefinitely, giving its readers an opportunity of collecting a novel and entertaining series.
In view of the probable demand for next Sunday's Record, place your order at once with your newsdealer for a copy.
