

Lemont.
Saturday morning the thermometer registered 10° below zero.
Many of the people in this community are on the sick list at present.
Mrs. John Klinger and son Harry transacted business in Bellefonte Thursday.
The sleighing is fine and the fall of snow, Sunday night, improved the roads so that the farmers are making fine use of them.
Jacob Klinger, E. C. Ross' right-hand man, and his daughter have been sick with the grip for the last two weeks, and at this writing are very little better.
Rev. A. Davidson enjoyed Friday evening at Houserville, attending the protracted meeting in the U. B. church, at which there have been about seventy conversions.
A sled load of ladies from this town enjoyed Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. James M. Williams, of Bellefonte, and report a very pleasant time at the county seat.
The Prohibitionists have nominated the following ticket for College township: Judge of election, Jacob B. Ray; inspector, G. C. Williams; school directors, David Wagner, J. R. Roan; supervisors, Jas. C. Gilliland, C. D. Houtz; overseer of poor, W. H. Mokle; auditor, S. B. Weaver; township clerk, I. J. Dreese.
Spring Mills.
On Tuesday last, Miss Mabel Allison treated her Sunday school class of twenty-four scholars to a sleigh ride of a dozen miles or more. Of course the children were delighted and highly appreciated her kindness.
Sleighing parties every night seem to be all the rage. Nearly everybody and their cousins are continually on the move. The jingling of sleigh bells enliven the pike from early evening 'til breakfast time next morning.
His Hogship after viewing his profile last week, evidently retired to his habitation in disgust, for we have had "all fired" cold weather ever since, and then to have a continuation of it for six weeks longer. Great Scott!!!
C. L. Finkle, having another enterprise in view, will dispose of his stove mill which he recently erected above the railroad station and fitted up with entirely new machinery, etc. The boiler is 30 and the engine 25 horse power.
Pumps were frozen up right and left last week, and in thawing some folks used very little hot water but plenty of force, and of course broke the chain, making bad worse. Plenty of red hot water and some salt is all that is necessary.
E. S. Shaffer, of Madisonburg, for several years manager of the Musser house at Millheim, was here on private business for a day or two last week. Mr. Shaffer is a candidate for the nomination of sheriff. His Democracy is unquestionable, and he ranks high in character and ability, and would prove a formidable candidate.
Howard.
I. S. Frain, retired farmer and all-around business man, spent a short time in Howard last Saturday.
Howard has been elated that no lives were lost in last week's collapse, and the outlook now is for a bright future.
The speedy cleaning away of the wrecked brick plant has about been completed, and the order to rebuild has gone forth.
Cal Wilson, who holds the plow on ex-shepherd Schaeffer's farm at Nittany, was in Howard last week on business.
Charles Yearick, of Walker, an all-around business man, merchant included, spent last Sunday with his wife's relatives here.
Ezra Auman, the man from Millheim that ships an excellent grade of flour to our town, was here last week, but not a murmur of "poor bread" was heard.
Roderick Gardner, former bookkeeper for Joe Diehl, has purchased a portable saw mill and will at once proceed to cut out small timber tracts in this locality.
John Wetzel, our up-to-date machinist, is busy repairing engines and answering calls in various parts of the State, where only a first class machinist can fill the bill.
Clarence Roseman, postmaster of Clintondale, spent Sunday with his uncle, W. B. Roseman of this place. Clarence had joined the ranks of the public school teachers but owing to the death of his father he now stays at home and assists his mother, for which he deserves much credit.
Joe Dunkle, the tenant on the farm of the Bernard Lauth estate, has added a new industry for the benefit of the citizens of the town, by opening a first class dairy. Last week he made his first trip in a brand new outfit, a handsome wagon with all modern conveniences attached.
The Mission band, under the training of Mrs. Hensyl, entertained the crowded house last Sunday evening. The little children recited and sang very pleasingly and everybody present was delighted with the exercises. The choir was composed principally of young singers who sang their parts very well.
P. J. McDonald, of Unionville, dropped down in our town, Saturday about 2 p. m., just as if he had fallen from the clouds, his explanation being that just after dinner a freight stopped at Unionville and the crew, knowing a good thing at sight, saw Pat, and invited him along for a ride. Mr. McDonald viewed our town by strolling around and examining the new industries, returning home on mail train at 4 p. m.
Frank Confer, the man who lives three miles west of Howard and takes pleasure in raising the many little birds that lays the honey which has satisfied our wants in the past, was hauling logs to the saw mill near the station when a through freight came rushing by and his team ran away, keeping parallel with the train until in front of the hotel where they turned and ran to the right, away from the town, up Walnut street to be caught by Ward Shank.
As repairs are being pushed to set machinery in motion at the rolling mill, one mile east of Howard; the canned goods of the canning factory, the stock of last season, are nearly all sold with a promising dividend to the farmer for the first season. This is very encouraging to all stockholders as well as citizens; then another discovery has been made recently, one mile south of town, on land of Thomas Allison, seven large veins of gneiss rock of the very best grade have been unearthed. With all these untold resources why should not every resident of our town look forward to a bright future; invite your friends to call and inspect the excellent sample in possession of Thomas Allison.

Habersburg.
Mr. William Decker is recovering from an attack of erysipelas.
Squire Minnich and family visited friends at Nittany last Sunday.
Yes; we can give the reason why so few people attend church these Sundays. Small-pox!
D. M. Whitman has been confined to his home the past ten days a sufferer with jaundice. It is to be hoped he will soon recover.
Harry Weaver, who is in the employ of the N. Y. C. railroad, at Oak Grove, came home on Tuesday for a few days rest. Harry says too much work and too many hours without sleep will kill any man.

ANOTHER "TRUST BUSTER."—Another "trust buster" has cast its shadow upon the horizon of industrialism, this time in the form of a little book by W. V. Marshall, of Berlin, Pa., editor of the Berlin Record. Mr. Marshall styles his book "Competition," naming it after what he asserts to be the only force which should govern in the regulation of trade. By a plan of tax which he proposes, he would paralyze the trusts as effectually, believes he, as he sets forth the trusts have been paralyzing things in general, not excepting their trustships themselves. The book is interesting as dealing with the trust question on new and original lines and should therefore be read on that account if for nothing else, by those who aspire to be posted on general and political affairs. To the anti-trusts it appeals with especial force, and is really a strong presentment in their behalf. The price of the book is 75 cents, post-paid, and can be had by addressing the Berlin Publishing Company, Berlin, Pa.
