Mr. Diehl Answers.

THE WATCHMAN, in its issue of the 19th has asked two questions which I am very glad to answer:

First. Whether the debt at the end of the year 1904 includes all outstanding orders? It does. The auditor's statement shows a total debt of $161 13 for the department, but it also shows $53.74 of cash on hand and $2130 of assets, which would make a total of over $2000 to the good. By the end of this year, March 6th, 1905, we expect to have all our bills paid and a considerable amount due from the collectors in addition.

Second. Will another mill be added to the poor tax for next year if I am re-elected? No. Not under the present circumstances.

S. H. DIEHL.

A NEWSPAPER THAT SPEAKS OUT.—On February 2nd the Pittsburgh Times was 25 years old. Its owners claim that its undiminished popularity is demonstrated by the fact that it has a larger circulation than any other morning paper in Pittsburgh. During the past few years it has attracted a great deal of attention by the frankness with which it has discussed subjects of public interest. Whenever there is before the people some question of absorbing importance newspaper readers are on the qui vive to know what the Times has to say, and what the Times says is right to the point. It hits to the line. That, however, is only one of the merits claimed for it by its publishers. Its general news service is comprehensive and complete. It is accurate in its financial department and up-to-date on its sporting page. Its serial stories are by the best modern authors. It pays especial attention to the news and views of all the churches, and in this respect has won the admiration of the best people. Its editorial page is a daily feast of the best and brightest thought. It endeavors to avoid the "yellow" and caters only to the people of the home and the family. It has no Sunday issue. Six cents a week, $3 a year.
