THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

Fire escapes were this week put up on the Bellefonte Academy.

Mrs. Luther Dale, of Pleasant Gap, is suffering with an attack of quinsy.

"Miss Bob White" entertained a large crowd, at Garman's, last night.

Rev. Dr. H. C. Holloway preached in the Lutheran church at Salona, on Sunday.

Mrs. W. C. Patterson, of State College, is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

The borough auditors are hard at work this week auditing the accounts of the various borough officials.

Miss Lyon and Miss Rebecca Lyon have moved to the Bush house, expecting to make it their home for the present.

The Bellefonte ministerium held its regular semi-monthly meeting at the home of Rev. A. Davidson, Monday afternoon.

Mr. James I. McClure has gone to Greensburg to take charge of the sewing machine department in a large store in that place.

James Toner will move his livery stable, April first, from the Bush house stable to his old location on South Water street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Nagney will give a card party this evening to which thirty or more of their friends have been invited.

Miss June Donahy opened up her five and ten cent store, last Saturday and during the past week has been doing a good business.

Charles Haines, one of the men arrested for complicity in the robbery of the Eby brothers, at Woodward, was released on bail, Wednesday.

The Nittany Heat, Light and Power company have completed their plans for a central station to be erected at State College in the near future.

Mrs. George Israel Brown read a very interesting paper at the regular meeting of the local chapter D. A. R., at the home of Mrs. Rogers, last week.

Three itinerant musicians, with two banjos and a bass guitar, were in Bellefonte this week and in the evenings gave impromptu concerts in the hotel offices.

Mr. S. H. Williams, the wall paper man and painter, has a new ad. in this issue of the WATCHMAN. If you are going to have any papering or painting done, read it.

A force of painters are now at work repainting the old Burns house on Curtin street, recently purchased by John Porter Lyon, for the company of himself and family by April first.

Miss Dora Meyer, daughter of County Commissioner and Mrs. Philip H. Meyer, presided at the pipe organ in the Episcopal church, the past three Sundays, in the absence of Miss Mary Bradley.

Don't forget to attend the entertainment of the Colored Canadian Concert company, in the court house, Saturday night. It is for the benefit of the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church.

Geitzel and Beezer will have another sale of fine western horses at Millheim tomorrow, the 18th, and not on the 25th, as advertised in the Centre Hall Reporter. Prospective buyers will please take notice.

Last week when R. G. Tate was in Bellefonte on account of the illness of his mother, he was suddenly summoned to his home in Big Run, Jefferson county, where on Saturday his wife presented him with a bouncing baby boy.

The ladies of the U. B. Aid society will hold a chicken and corn soup supper in their hall, Saturday evening, March 18th. They will also have oysters, ice cream and cake and will be ready to serve supper at five o'clock.

Superintendent Samuel Rine had quite a force of men at work this week cleaning out the big spring and it was remarkable the amount of filth that was taken therefrom, and yet we think we are always drinking pure water.

Alfred Heverly has resigned his position as clerk in Shney's grocery store. He has purchased a home at Axe Mann where he will move and go into the chicken raising business. His place in Shney's store is being temporarily filled by W. W. Bible.

Mr. L. C. Bullock has just installed a Sunlight Omega acetylene gas plant in Spigelmyer's china store. The plant is located in the north window of the store, where it can be plainly seen by anybody who is interested, or even curious to know how it is operated.

Mr. I. Gardner has rented a room in the Masonic temple, on Allegheny street, where he will open up an office as his headquarters as general superintendent of the Nittany Valley railroad. He has also accepted the agency for several standard insurance companies.

On April first the Bellefonte Furnace company will move their offices from their present location in Temple Court out to the furnace, where they will establish permanent headquarters for the future. The Central Railroad of Pennsylvania will still retain their offices on the third floor of Temple Court.

DEATH WARRANT READ TO GREEN AND DILLEN.—Sheriff H. S. Taylor last Saturday received from Harrisburg the papers in the case of Ira Green and Wm. Dillen, now under sentence of death for the murder of Jerry Condo, and at 11 o'clock Monday morning, in the presence of two witnesses, read the warrants to the condemned men. There was a separate warrant for each man and the one for Green was read to him first. When the sheriff, accompanied by his witnesses, entered Green's cell and told him that he had come in to read the death warrant to him in accordance with the requirements of the law Green replied, "All right, sir;" and with a very indifferent smile on his face and a nonchalant air calmly leaned against the wall and heard the document read through to the end without so much as even the quiver of an eye-lash. When the sheriff finished reading the warrant he told Green that now that he knew when the day was and that the time was short he had better prepare himself accordingly. "Oh, that's all right," replied Green; "I'm ready anytime."

The sheriff and witnesses then crossed the narrow entry way to Dillen's cell when Green called out: "There comes the sheriff, Dillen; stand up and take your medicine, like I did." Dillen's greeting was not so ignorantly effusive as that of Green and when the sheriff told him that he had come to read the death warrant to him he merely bowed his head in acquiescence. Throughout the reading of the warrant, however, he stood with his pipe in his mouth, smoking. When the sheriff told Dillen that now that he knew how short the time was to prepare himself accordingly his only reply was to bow his head.

When the sheriff and witnesses came out of Dillen's cell into the corridor Green called out "Now, sheriff; read one of them things to John, there;" (meaning John Trafford, who is on day watch.) While the reading of the death warrants was an official act the sheriff had to perform it was not the first knowledge the prisoners had of the day set for their execution, as they had already learned the time in some way or other, so that the reading of the warrant was no surprise to them.

Neither of the men show any trace of their close confinement or worry. They are both the picture of rugged health and weigh over 175 pounds—much heavier than when they were put in jail. Rev. W. B. Cox, of the United Evangelical church, is the spiritual adviser of the two men and those who see them every day say that Dillen of late has shown a realizing sense of the serious predicament into which he has gotten himself and at times even exhibits signs of a penitential mood. Not so with Green, however; who through it all has displayed the spirit of same bravado that characterized his conduct the night of their recapture. That the carrying out of the sentence of the law will take place on the day set is hardly to be doubted, as the board of pardons will not likely interfere.

THEIR SIXTY-SECOND WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.—Mr. and Mrs. George B. Weaver, of Rebersburg, celebrated the sixty-second anniversary of their marriage, on Sunday, when friends from all the neighborhood around gathered at the Weaver home to make the event a joyous one. The Weaver's belong to two of the pioneer families of the eastern part of the county. Mr. Weaver was born in 1821 at what was then Wolf's Mill, just east of Rebersburg. Mrs. Weaver, who before marriage was Miss Sarah Harper, was born at Rebersburg in 1824.

Both were baptized by Rev. Henry Fries, a well-known Reformed church minister of that day. They were married March 12th, 1843, by Rev. Peter Fisher. They have three children, Fietta, wife of S. Krumrine; Joanna, wife of county superintendent C. L. Gramley, and Miss Della J., all of Rebersburg. They have two grandchildren, Geo. E. Krumrine and Mrs. Alma G. Haines, of Rebersburg. One grandchild, Gertrude S. Gramley, daughter of C. L. Gramley, died ten years ago.

Geo. B. Weaver was for many years one of Pennsylvania's leading farmers, but for the last thirty-seven years has lived a retired life. Both are members of the Reformed church.

LOST IN PHILADELPHIA.—Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McCormick, of Lock Haven, went to Philadelphia on Monday. In the afternoon they went shopping in a large department store and became separated. Mr. McCormick returned to the hotel Hanover, where they had registered, supposing his wife would find her way back, but she became lost and wandered about the streets until late at night when a policeman found her and advised her to go to the Windsor for the night.

Meanwhile Mr. McCormick, having become alarmed at his wife's absence, went to the detective bureau and reported her as missing. The police could not locate her. In the morning the clerk of the hotel at which she had been staying telephoned to other hotels and finally located her husband. They were reunited and went out together.

Again they became separated for some hours. This time, remembering the hotel, a policeman took her back, only to find that her husband had gone to the detective bureau and once more reported her missing. He was notified by telephone that his wife had returned, and he hurried back, but his wife had gone in search of him. Some time later she returned again, after having asked the way back of policemen and pedestrians, and that same evening they started for home.

"Quincy-Adams-Sawyer," at Garman's, next Wednesday night.

A marriage license was granted in Hollidaysburg, on Tuesday, to John Erb Jr., and Susannah Markle, both of Phillipsburg.

Frank Lansotto, the Italian who killed James Mansolio, a fellow country man, in Clinton county last December, was arrested in Pittsburgh last Saturday.

Arthur F. Bathurst, of Roland, and Miss Estella M. Hayes, of Howard, were married at the Methodist parsonage in this place, at 12 o'clock yesterday, by Rev. John A. Wood Jr.

Mrs. Samuel Hood, who with her husband moved to Phillipsburg from Pittston some months ago, committed suicide on Saturday by taking an overdose of laudanum, while in her room at the Chester Hill hotel.

Fire at Lock Haven, on Sunday, did $2,500 damage to Pete Meitzler's Riverside hotel. The fire started on the roof about 5.30 o'clock in the afternoon and it took the firemen two hours to get the flames under control.

Don't forget that the appearance of the Alonzo-Hatch Musical company, at Garman's next Tuesday evening, is for the benefit of the Undine Fire company. The entertainment will be well worth hearing and you want to buy a ticket and go, if for no other reason than to help the boys along.

In the organization of the Phillipsburg council for 1905, Geo. H. Richards was elected president and C. U. Hofer clerk. The appointments were Charles G. Avery, treasurer; W. D. Crosby, borough solicitor; Geo. H. Ayers, borough engineer; Samuel Sankey, chief of police, with Charles McMullen assistant policeman, and William Ferguson, street commissioner.

The second game of basket ball in the championship series of seven games between the Bellefonte Athletic club and the Bellefonte Academy, for the silver loving cup trophy put up last year, was played in the armory last Saturday night and won by the former team by the score of 18 to 10. This now makes one game each for the contesting teams, with five games yet to play.

Thursday evening of last week Mr. J. Bruce Lingle and bride, Miss Sarah Haines, were given a royal reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lingle, in Boggs township, on their return from an extended honeymoon tour. A large number of people were present and the occasion was one of the most notable social events that has transpired in Boggs township in years.

Contrary to expectations Judge Ellis L. Orvis did not hand down his decisions on the licenses applications on Wednesday, owing to the fact that there was not time to take and digest all the testimony in the cases where remonstrances were filed against the applications. There will be a session of court tomorrow morning, however, when it is expected Judge Orvis will dispose of the entire list of applications.

What might have been a very serious accident happened to Mrs. Simon Neyhart, of Milesburg, Wednesday last week, when in overestimating her strength after having been ill for several days, she attempted to dress, and from an attack of vertigo fell forward breaking her nose, cutting and bruising the upper part of the face badly from broken glasses and otherwise injuring herself considerably.

Policeman Michael Crowley, of Renovo, who came into prominence two years ago by shooting William Ryan, was found dead in the borough building, Monday morning. Crowley had been twice convicted of manslaughter and just last week his case was heard in the Superior court on an appeal from the Clinton county court for a new trial and it was expected that a decision would be handed down some time this week.

The many friends of Elwood G. Mater, who a year or so ago was collector for the Pennsylvania Telephone company here, will be glad to learn that he has been given another deserved promotion, being sent to Bloomsburg as manager for the Pennsylvania Telephone company. The district includes Bloomsburg, Berwick, Danville and Catawissa. Mr. Mater has been most efficient as manager and his transfer comes as a reward for meritorious work.

Three of the finest horses seen in Bellefonte in many a day have been on exhibition here this week. They are three Norman Percheron stallions—one a light dapple-gray, one a black and the other a very dark bay, the latter weighing just 2100 pounds. They are from the stock farm of Hartman, the Petrus manufacturer, of Columbus, Ohio, and were brought here for sale, the very modest price of $3,600 being asked for each animal. While here they are being kept at the Garman horse stables.

Robert Lyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, of this place, recently resigned his position with the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne and Chicago railroad to accept a better place with the Hagan Manufacturing company, of Rochester and Buffalo, N. Y., the largest manufacturer of laundry machinery in the country. Last week, as a representative of the Hagan company, he attended a convention of manufacturers in Cleveland and one evening the shop men over which he had formerly presided, corralled him and presented him with a handsome gold watch and chain as a testimonial of their regard.

THE PRUNER ORPHANAGE.—On Tuesday the committee appointed by the Bellefonte council, namely, president W. R. Jenkins, Joseph Wise and Dr. M. A. Kirk with borough solicitor D. F. Fortney, went to Tyrone to confer with the committee appointed by the Tyrone council relative to the advisability of accepting the bequest of the late Edward J. Pruner of his home in this place as an orphanage for parentless children with a stipulated endowment of the income from certain properties located in Tyrone and Bellefonte.

The Tyrone committee consisted of president John H. Grazer, F. S. Armstrong and A. W. Beyer with borough solicitor W. L. Hicks. The first work the two committees did was to inspect the various properties left as the endowment fund and figure up what the income from the same would be as well as the cost of keeping same in repairs, etc. A careful computation showed that the income from the properties, as at present rented, is just $4,032.14, while the expense connected with the same for light, heat, taxes, insurance, keeping in repairs, etc., is $1,690.44, leaving a net annual income of $2,341.72.

After ascertaining the above facts the two committees went into joint session. W. R. Jenkins was elected president and F. S. Armstrong secretary. The advisability of accepting the trust was thoroughly discussed and a resolution was unanimously passed that the joint committee would recommend to the two councils that the bequest be accepted.

The Tyrone committee visited Bellefonte yesterday to inspect the late home of Mr. Pruner, the property left for the orphanage, and at the same time the joint committees drew up an ordinance to be presented to both councils at the meeting Monday night providing for an acceptance of the bequest and making provision for the faithful carrying out of the same.

THE KARTHAUS FIRE BRICK WORKS.—Good progress is being made in the construction of the Karthaus fire brick works and the building of the branch railroad to connect the plant with the Beech Creek railroad. The large main building is fully completed and the annex will be finished in a few days. The engine, boilers and brick making machinery are ready for shipment and as soon as the railroad is in working order the machinery will be shipped to the works and the placing of it will be begun at once. Smaller buildings, such as pattern shop, blacksmith shop, storage room and office have been contracted for and will be ready for use as soon as needed. The building of a tram road to convey the raw material, clay and coal to the works will be commenced as soon as the weather moderates sufficiently to make that kind of work practicable.

The branch railroad is fully graded, ties are on the ground and the laying of these with the rails it is expected will be begun within a week. It is the purpose of the Karthaus company to have their plant in operation in the early summer.

A BOOMING TELEPHONE COMPANY.—The Huntingdon and Clearfield Telephone company has sent notices to their subscribers calling attention to the fact that they are offering long distance toll service with Altoona, Johnstown, Tyrone, Bellefonte, Lock Haven, Jersey Shore, Williamsport, and intermediate points. In the wonderful success of this company Bellefonte can boast of a certain degree of pride, owing to the fact that Judge Ellis L. Orvis, of this place, is the president; Wilbur F. Malin the general superintendent, O. C. Campbell, superintendent of construction, while most every position of any importance is filled by a Bellefonter. Organized only about two years ago the company's growth has been marvelous. Since that time they have erected nearly 500 miles of poles, strung over 2,000 miles of copper wire, established nine central exchanges and installed 1,700 telephones in Centre, Clearfield and Huntingdon counties, and it is gratifying to know that the capital invested is in the main local.

FAMOUS NEW ENGLAND NOVEL ON THE STAGE.—In the stage production of "Quincy Adams Sawyer" the essential features of Charles Felton Pidgin's famous New England novel of the same name have been followed, and they are said to have been handled to extremely clever advantage. It is a distinctly enjoyable piece, both in itself and in the ingeniously natural work of the people presenting it. The production to be seen here, at Garman's, Wednesday evening, March 22nd, is the same in every detail of scenic production and cast as seen during the New York run at the Academy of Music. There is a laugh almost everywhere, despite the tender seriousness pertaining to Alice Pettengill's pathetic figure as the much loved blind girl and to her valance as the central feature of the love story. It is a most entertaining picture of rural life, and presented on quite a different plan from any other bucolic drama. Its features and typical characters are said to be exceptionally well presented.

DIED FROM BURNS.—James Bannon, hostler for Dr. H. H. Thompson, of Winburne, who was so badly burned in the destruction by fire of the latter's stable, last Saturday morning, died on Sunday morning at the Cottage hospital, Phillipsburg, to which place he had been taken immediately after the accident. The young man was burned from the waist up and at no time was there any hope of his recovery. Deceased was 19 years old and had been in Dr. Thompson's employ since last December. His parents died years ago and the young man made his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, of John Furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Heising are celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at their home in Spring Mills to-day.

In February it was just twenty-five years since Mr. W. B. Miles engaged in the mercantile business in Milesburg, and to-day the firm still has a number of customers who started to deal with Mr. Miles a quarter of a century ago.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.—Ex-Sheriff Robert Cooke, of Howard, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday.

Mrs. Julia Shuey, of Lemont, was in Bellefonte, on Wednesday, on a shopping expedition.

G. G. Fink, one of Hutton township's prosperous farmers, was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday.

S. A. Bell was in Lock Haven Thursday last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. M. Holmes.

Mrs. Charles E. Dorworth, of Philadelphia, is in Bellefonte visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Orider.

Mr. John Hoy, merchant, station agent and general factotum at Waddles, transacted business in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

Mr. A. S. Garman has entirely recovered from her recent illness and on Tuesday returned to her home in Tyrone.

Messrs. Hard P. Harris, Philip D. Waddle and George R. Meek spent Sunday in Tyrone with their friend W. E. Tyson.

W. L. Daggett, of the Bush house, returned Monday night from a week's trip to Wellboro, Elmira, Lawrenceville and Watkins.

Mrs. Bentley, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Emma Yeager, for the past two weeks left for her home in Pittsburg Monday.

Rev. George Israel Brown attended the meeting of the State committee of the Harrisburg diocese of the Episcopal church, in Harrisburg, last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Hayes, after having spent the winter in Pasadena, Cal., have come East and are at the Chalfonte, Atlantic City, for the spring months.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Bollich, of Mt. Carmel spent Sunday in Bellefonte as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sourbeck, Mrs. Bollich and Mrs. Sourbeck being sisters.

Mrs. Grauer with her two children, and Mrs. Estella Lyon will go to Philadelphia next week. Mrs. Grauer and the children for two weeks and Mrs. Lyon for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Beezer and child, of Clearfield, were arrivals in Bellefonte, on Tuesday, called here by the serious illness of Mr. Beezer's father, the venerable Joseph Beezer.

Mrs. W. B. Dix, who has been in Bellefonte the past several weeks, called here by the sudden death of her brother, Mr. J. Wesley Gephart, departed, Tuesday noon, for his home in Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. George Tate and two daughters, of McKeesport; Mrs. Kate Thompson, of Tyrone, and Mrs. Watson, of Snow Shoe, were in Bellefonte on Monday attending the funeral of Mrs. John Tate.

Ex-Sheriff Cyrus Brungart came over from his Centre Hall home, on Tuesday, to attend to a little business and one of the first places he dropped into was the WATCHMAN office, merely to pay his respects.

Miss Rosalind Lawler, who for several seasons has had charge of Joseph's millinery department, has been spending the winter at her home in New York, with an arrival in Bellefonte on Monday.

Mr. A. J. Griest, of Unionville, who is still talked of as one of the best commissioners that ever served on the board in this county, was a Bellefonte visitor yesterday and dropped into the WATCHMAN office just for a little chat.

Mr. George Williams, of Worth township, who is around feeling the Democratic pulse as to the chances for obtaining the nomination for county commissioner, was in Bellefonte on Monday and called at the WATCHMAN office.

Miss Bessie Cooney, who last fall went to Philadelphia to accept a position as milliner in a department store, has been sent to Atlantic City by the firm with which she is employed and has been made head milliner over a force of seven or eight women.

Hon. A. A. Stevens, of Tyrone, was a Bellefonte visitor yesterday and while in town dropped into the WATCHMAN office to give us the assurance that the Bellefonte hospital appropriation this year would not be any less, and likely more, than it was two years ago.

Mrs. Mollie L. Valentine, Mrs. Fenlon and Mrs. Sadie Larimer composed a party leaving Bellefonte Tuesday at noon. Mrs. Valentine went directly to New York but will join Mrs. Fenlon in Philadelphia the latter part of the week for a visit there, while Mrs. Larimer went down to Philadelphia for a stay at the home of Mr. Andrew Curtin, Mr. Curtin having been seriously ill for some time.

Mr. D. L. Dennis, one of Ferguson township's staunchest citizens and a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, was in Bellefonte this week the first time in two years and did not fail to pay his customary respects to this office. Ferguson township has a reputation of turning out good men and Mr. Dennis is one of the most representative of this class, one of the kind of men whom it is always a pleasure to meet.

The many friends of Mrs. Gottlieb Haag, of this place, will regret to learn that on Thursday morning she took a decided change for the worse and that at the time of going to press little or no hopes of her recovery are entertained. It is but a few months since Mr. and Mrs. Haag celebrated their golden wedding and at that time the excellent health of both promised for the aged couple, many years of continued happiness. Verily, "we know not the day nor the hour."

The kind friends to whom the WATCHMAN returns thanks for friendship and favors shown the past week, are Mr. S. J. McClintock, Centre Hall; Aaron Lutz, Centre Hall; Mr. Frank E. Taylor, Phillipsburg; Mr. John Johnson, Vancourt; Mr. Samuel Kuhn, Franklin; Mr. Ferguson, Potter, Linden Hall; Mr. John H. Bailey, Penna Furnace; Mr. Martin Hogan, Fleming; Mr. Jacob Wright, Milroy; Mr. Wm. Long, Bedford; Capt. John A. Hunter, Stormstown; Dr. W. B. Hunter, Erie; Mrs. A. W. Smith, Blacksburg; Mr. Jerry Donovan, Axe Mann; Mr. William Parks, Beaver Falls; Mr. John K. Thompson, Phillipsburg; Mr. S. L. Kessinger, Hubersburg; Mr. D. L. Dennis, Pine Grove Mills; Mr. Hiram Henderson, Milton; Mr. Jerry Young, Meyersdown; Mr. Frank B. Krebs, Spruce Creek; Mr. Peter Smith, Centre Hill; Mr. Louis H. Beck, Nittany; Mr. Robert Gilmour, Philadelphia.

GUISEWHITE-LAMBERT.—Samuel Guisewhite Jr., and Miss Emma Lambert, of Spring township, were married at the Catholic parsonage, Monday evening, by Rev. Father P. McArdle. The attendants were Miss Rose McCalley as bridesmaid and Joseph Guisewhite as best man. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lambert and the groom is an industrious young man, being employed as a pattern maker at Lingle's foundry. Mr. and Mrs. Guisewhite spent their honeymoon with friends in Lock Haven and Mill Hill.

ECKLEY-MILLER.—George W. Eckley and Miss Mary M. Miller were married last Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, of Phoenix street, Rev. W. B. Cox, of the Evangelical church, officiating. Only the families and close friends of the contracting parties were present.

Earle M. Aroby, of Mackeyville, and Miss Verda I. Long, of Nittany, were married, on Wednesday, by Rev. H. I. Crow, at the parsonage in Hubersburg.

THE CANADIAN CONCERT CO.—We want to again call the attention of our readers to the entertainment to be given in the court house tomorrow night by the Colored Canadian Jubilee Concert company, for the benefit of the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church. This company is one of the best colored concert organizations now traveling and of their appearance in New Castle, Ohio, the Herald says:

"The melody put into their plantation choruses, together with the spirit and soul of rendering same, is not often heard. The special features of the evening were the solos by E. S. Thomas, who has a wonderful voice for depth and power; the tenor singing of C. T. Moseley, who is a humorist and actor of merit, as well; the singing by Miss G. E. Fowler and the reading by Madam Lewis. They were compelled to return three and four times and did it as if they thoroughly enjoyed it. They can count on a packed house should they return again."

THE ALONZO-HATCH CO.—The Alonzo-Hatch Electro-Photo Musical company will appear in Garman's opera house, Tuesday evening, March 21st, under the auspices and for the benefit of the Undine Fire company. This company is justly celebrated for its piano, violin and harp solos while one of the most attractive features is the appearance of Masters Don and Alonzo Hatch, the sweet little singers, in illustrated songs. The prices are 25, 35 and 50 cents.

The marriage of Miss Leah Mildred Daggett to Maynard Hale Murch, of Cleveland, Ohio, will be celebrated in St. John's Episcopal church, at 7.30 o'clock Wednesday morning, March 22nd. Rev. George Israel Brown will officiate and only the immediate friends of the contracting parties will be present. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast will be served at the Bush house after which Mr. and Mrs. Murch will depart for their newly furnished home in Cleveland.

McAlmoot & Co. will have their first annual public sale of farm implements, etc., at their ware house near the old glass works site, on Saturday, April first. This is an innovation in this line and will undoubtedly prove a popular move. Preparations are being made for a large attendance of farmers from all over the county.

The annual Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will open at Berwick next Wednesday. Bishop Fitzgerald will preside.

JOHN DUBBS SPEAKS AT LAST.—He tells the farmers who want a spreader that thoroughly pulverizes the manure and reduces the breakage of the machine to a minimum to buy the "Success." He knows its best and invites you all to his place in Bellefonte to see it, as well as the Evans double corn planter and other implements he keeps. 9-7*

Announcement.—Summer school opens in High school building, Pine Grove Mills, April 10th. For particulars address, W. S. GERHARD, Pine Grove Mills, Penna.
