You are caster, to be state superintendent of public invited to attend.

GREEN AND DILLEN.-Last Sunday afternoon, during the religious services held at the county jail, Ira Green and William Dillen, who are to be hanged on May 9th for the murder of Jerry Condo, were baptised by Rev. W. B. Cox, of the United Evangelical church, their spiritual adviser. Both men have made a profession of religion and as the time for their execution THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY draws nearer they are beginning to realize the very serious nature of their situation and to a great extent have lost much of the devil-may-care bearing that so characterized their conduct all along.

Last Friday Mrs. Green with her infant son, visited the jail to see her husband. Though the woman was not admitted into the cell, the child was given into the arms of its father who, for the first time, exhibited a natural paternal affection for his unfortunate offspring, taking the babe in his arms, kissing it and hugging it to his breast, while tears moistened his eyes.

In the meantime counsel for the prison ers and even the men themselves have not aban doned all hope of escaping the gallows and will make a fight before the Board of Pardons, at its meeting in April, for a commu tation of the death sentence

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS. - A party of six specialists in all lines of Sunday school work, under the auspices of the State Sa bbath School association, will visit Bellefonte Sunday, April 9th, in the inte rest of the advancement of Sunday school work. -It is stated that when the summer schedule is put in force on the Beech Creek railroad it will provide for a Sunday train to make one round trip between Patton and Williamsport.

-From personal knowledge we wish to state that "The Fortune Teller" is one of the brightest, most tuneful comic operas we have ever heard. The company that will sing it at Garman's, next Thursday night, is said to be both large and capable.

-Mr. L. C. Hindman led the Union Sunday school teachers meeting, in the Presbyterian chapel, Tuesday evening. The leaders appointed for the next three weeks are C. C. Shuey, Rev. W. B. Cox and Darius Waite respectively.

-W. H Fravel, of Philipsburg, has secured the contract for the laying of the three miles of pipe for the Snow Shoe water company, to connect their reservoir with t he town. He will also do all the plumbing for the company as well as a number of jobs for individuals

-Don't forget the entertainment by the Temple Quartette Concert company, male quartette of singers, who are also in Petriken hall, Monday evening. This will be the last of the W. C. T. U. Star course, and it should be well patronized. Single tickets, only 35 cents; reserved seats 15 cents extra. Be sure to attend and vou'll not regret it.

-Last Saturday night about 12 o'clock the house occupied by Charles Shearer, at Cedar Springs, caught fire and was totally destroyed with all the contents. Mr. Shearer, who a few years ago lived in Bellefonte, has the sympathy of many friends, as he had but very little insurance on his household effects.

-Boyd A. Musser, of York, a former Bellefonter, is the promoter of a company which has in view the building of a toll bridge across the Susquehanna from Shamokin dam to Sunbury. The capitalizati on of the company is placed at $275,000, one-third of which amount will be subscribed by residents of Snyder and Northumberland counties.

-Monday evening the coach on the Lewisburg and Tyrone train from Benore o Tyrone, left the track about three miles from the latter place and rolled down an e mbankment. About twenty people were in the car at the time and all were badly shaken up. John Lehman, of Warriorsmark, and conductor Dick Farrel were considerably cut and bruised and while all were badly shaken up none were seriously ipjured.

-By the way, this is the time of year that the average man who owns a horse and buggy is either thinking of buying a new vehicle or having his old one done over. Let us tell you that McQuistion & Co., right here in Bellefonte are the people you want to see. They have buggies of all kinds, new and second hand from $50 up and a corps of mechanics that makes all of their finishing and painting of the

-The funeral of the late Henry P. Harris was held from the residence on east Howard street, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were in charge of Rev. John A. Wood, Jr., of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. Dr. William Laurie. The floral tributes to the dead were most profuse, while sorrowing friends were present from many parts of the State. The honorary pall-bearers were T. R. Hamilton, S. A. Bell, D. W. Woodring, Wm. P. Humes, James Harris, Gen. Jno. I. Curtin, W. W. Montgomery, Dr. Jas. H. Dobbins, Charles Smith, A. O. Furst, John G. THE PRUNER ORPHANAGE vs. $10,000 -The joint committee of the Tyrone and Bellefonte councils met in this place, last Friday, to consider further the question of accepting the bequest of the late Edward J. Pruner, who left property with an approximate value cf $45,000 for the establishment and endowment of a home for friendless children. In connection with this bequest the fact has already been published that in the event of the two borough councils declining to accept the request the property would revert to the deceased's niece, Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes. On the strength of the fav orable report of the committees specially appointed in the matter both councils have already voted to accept the bequest, but a new feature was introduced in the case at the meeting of died in that place on Monday. the two committies, Friday, when Harry Keller, Esq., attorney for Mrs. Hayes, appeared before the committee on behalf of his client and submitted an offer in effect that if the two boroughs would release their claims upon the Pruner estate for the properties devised for the establishment and endowment of an orphanage, Mrs. Hayes would agree to pay to each borough the sum of $10,000 in cash, or a total of $20,000.

The submission of this offer was not a surprise to the committee, as something of the kind was expected. The offer liwas received and will be presented ito the two councils for their consideration. In the meantime, the joint committee completed its work of preparing an ordinance providing for the acceptance of the bequest for su bmission to councils at their first meeting in April.

Nor Guilty.-Tuesday afternoon David Chambers, George and James Uzzle, of Snow Shoe, and Dr. John Haag, of Willamsport, who were arrested the first week in March by state game warden Berrier on the charge of running deer with dogs during the season last fall, were given a hearng before Justice of the Peace John M. Keichline, in this place and were discharged, the attorneys for the prosecution asking for a nol pros, after they had heard the evidence.

AN EASTER BALL .- The Undine fire company will hold their 17th annual Easter ball in the armory on Monday evening, April 24th. Smith's orchestra will farnish the music. The committee composed of William Cunningham, Chas. Anderson, Harry Vallance, Frank Doll. James Lowry, and Thomas Smith is already at work making arrangements which they hope will make it a very delightful affair.

CENTRAL DIST. VOL. FIREMEN. -To get ready for their annual convention to be held in Philipsburg, August 24th and 25th, a meeting of the executive committee of the Central District Volunteer Firemen's association was held in Philipsburg last week.
