Books, Magazines, Etc.

McClure's for May offers a great variety of good things. It's a far cry from Lincoln Steffens' story of how New Jersey came to be the haven of the corporations—and a mighty unpleasant story it is—to William James' delightful and, of course, distinguished appreciation of one of the truly great men of our time, Thomas Davidson. Then "Colonel Lumpkin," John McAuley Palmer's reformed and satirical captain of industry, throws light on the street-railway problem. "Errors of Sea"—true tales of famous derelicts and historic ocean mysteries—opens up another field of human interest, and a description of "Hans, The Educated Horse of Berlin," adds another to the long list of varied articles—each one absorbingly interesting. That's the great thing about McClure's: anything in it is bound to be interesting. Even if the article is primarily instructive, it is, potent, timely or significant, it is, above all, made "good reading." And its fiction is the real thing, too. This month it includes a great sea yarn by Percival Gibbon, a Charles Stuart York story, illustrated of Little Lord Fauntleroy fame; "Paul's Case," a brilliant story; two love stories, and last, but not least, "Pardners," which is the title story in Mr. Beach's new book to be published this month.

The May St. Nicholas will publish the first of a series of authoritative and timely articles on "Our Friends the Trees," by Edwin W. Foster. The aim is to present to young readers clearly and interestingly, with plenty of helpful illustrations, the points of resemblance and difference of the common trees.

SUNLIGHT OMEGA SUNLIGHT

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, MILLIONS. MILLIONS OF MONEY, MILLIONS.

The way the Standard Oil Co. made their millions was by selling us coal oil. Every time we consume a gallon of coal oil we add to their millions. They have a net profit of over 100 per cent. on every gallon of oil we consume. Electric light and city gas are both sold at over 100 per cent. clear profit. If you buy a SUNLIGHT "OMEGA" ACETYLENE LIGHT MACHINE and make your own light, which is a beautiful, soft white light, and only costs about one-third as much as city gas or electric light. It is cheaper than coal oil. The Sunlight "Omega" light machine works automatically, no trouble and so simple to operate that any one can learn how to make the light in ten minutes. If you live in the country, city or town you can have light that is better, purer, cheaper, less dangerous and less troublesome than any light in existence. Acetylene fixtures, chandeliers, etc., furnished at cost. Any church in my district who will light with acetylene, can have a contribution from me of 10 per cent. of the price of their machine.

Inquiries promptly answered, correspondence solicited, estimates furnished upon application.
