Getting Only What They Deserve.

From the Harrisburg Star Independent.
After a little harmless sparring Philadelphia Councils will today consummate the bargain recently made between Commissioner Durham and President Dolan, of the United Gas Improvement Company. It will be a trifle hard on the people of Philadelphia. It will be a sacrifice of property belonging to them of the value of a quarter of a billion dollars for a tenth of that sum. But it is no greater punishment than they deserve. If they were deprived of all their property and even sold into slavery they would deserve sympathy.
The business men of Philadelphia, the captains of industry and magnates in finance have been furnishing funds for years to corrupt the elections and entrench a band of political pirates in power. Their purpose was to perpetuate an iniquitous system of graft through the medium of the tariff. But the pirates have come to imagine that there was not a fair division of the plunder and to even up they conceived this plan of looting their benefactors or rather their partners in crime. There is plain justice in this retribution.

We can hardly hope for the success of this colossal scheme of plunder and yet there are reasons to rejoice that the promoters of evil are to be punished for their crimes. If they had never encouraged the electoral frauds and the predatory operations against others there would be no machine now of sufficient power to dislodge the city in the way they propose and will probably have consummated before sunset this evening. But they sowed the wind and are now reaping the whirlwind. It is a fit return for their perfidy.

When You Come to Think of It!

(From the N. Y. American.)
Children may be rude, untrained and mischievous, but what is the remedy to be? So ran the heading of Mr. Willis J. Abbot's able dissertation in the American. Beyond all doubt the average child that roams about the city's streets is either rude or untrained, or mischievous, and oftentimes possesses all three traits at once. But when you come to think of it—do children hold a monopoly of these qualities? When you consider the rude behavior of the daily crowds at the Brooklyn bridge entrance, the incivility of the passengers on all our city lines toward one another at all times of day, the surliness of hundreds of thousands of employees, the bargain counter manners that prevail in all public gatherings when there is something to be gained—in fact, the whole low level of our cosmopolitan intercourse, where each rushes for himself and the devil takes the hindmost—why single out the children for aping their elders?

And when, furthermore, you consider such widely different conditions as the crowds that gamble daily at the race-tracks and in Wall street, the premium that is put upon financial success and the sneer that greets him who has saved "only his soul," the rottenness of politics, the immorality of commercial life, the selfishness of most of us, and the absolute hideousness of the name life of some of us—why, in heaven's name, rail at the children?
Let's begin with papa and mamma. It is their life the child re-lives.

A Remedy Much Needed Horesbouts.

Munich Medical Magazine.
Dr. Wolfgang Weichardt, of Berlin, has discovered an antitoxin for physical exhaustion and consequent laziness. The antitoxin, dried in a vacuum, contains a poison, which he extracts in the form of brown scales, and keeps in sealed tubes, preferably in liquid air. This toxin, when injected into guinea pigs, produces symptoms of exhaustion. It cannot be got from the muscles of unexhausted animals. With it he obtains an antitoxin from horses after the manner of diphtheria antitoxin. This antitoxin, dried in a vacuum, also takes the form of brown scales, which can be kept for months. Injected under the skin by a hypodermic syringe, or taken into the stomach, it cures exhaustion or tiredness, enables a person to exert more strength than usual, and counteracts poisonous doses of the toxin. These results, of course, will require to be confirmed by careful experiments. Needless to say, if there be no illusion or mistake on the matter, if by taking a pill or picking the skin with a needle point we can banish fatigue, sleeplessness, or laziness, it should be a great boon all round in work or play, in peace or in war.

An Extraordinary Work of Art of Great Historic Value.

Few besides those who have visited Bayeux or have especially studied the subject have any idea of what this extraordinary work of art is really like or have any authentic knowledge of its history. It tells the story of Edward, Harold and William and of the conquest of William in a series of pictures, so that its value is great as a chronicle as well as a relic of needlework 800 years old.
The vicissitudes of the treasure have been many. It is a curious fact that from 1476 until 1724 it seems to have dropped entirely out of the world's knowledge. It was preserved with care among the treasures of the Bayeux cathedral and was brought out for eight days every summer and hung about the nave of the cathedral. No one but the peasants ever saw it, and the cathedral authorities cared for it only as a decoration. In 1724 an old drawing of part of the tapestry came into the hands of a learned antiquarian, who tried without success to find the original. The Pere Montfaucon also tried to find it and at last succeeded and told the world about it in his great book, "Monuments de la Monarchie Francaise."

The church had no power to protect such a treasure in 1724, and the ancient length of linen with its quaint embroidery was dragged out of the cathedral and used to cover one of the military wagons belonging to the local battalion. M. le Forestier rushed to its rescue and substituted a canvas to cover the wagon and brought the tapestry to his study till he was relieved from his self appointed mission by a commission that undertook the protection of the work of art. Now the tapestry has been restored and may be seen framed under glass in a museum of its own.

—Last Monday Ira F. Davis, of Julian, was coming to Bellefont in a buggy to see the show. Coming up the pike his horse frightened and ran away crossing the bridge at the fair grounds to the old nail works site, where the buggy collided with some object, completely wrecking it. Mr. Davis was thrown out and badly injured. He was found unconscious, picked up and taken to Milesburg and later conveyed to his home. Just how serious his injuries are cannot be learned at this writing.

BARNER.—Mrs. Lucinda Barner, of north Spring street, widow of the late Joel Barner, died quite suddenly, Monday afternoon, of heart disease, while on a visit with her daughter, Miss Anna, at Jersey Shore. Mrs. Barner was walking along the street when she suddenly became ill and was carried into a doctor's office where she expired in a very few minutes.

Deceased was aged 59 years. She was a member of the Evangelical church and a conscientious christian lady. She is survived by the following children: Anna, of Jersey Shore; Elmer, of Charleston, West Virginia; Thomas, of Hablesburg; John, of Altoona; Mrs. Mable Aikay, Ellery, William and Perry, of Bellefont.

The funeral took place from the residence on north Spring street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in the Zion cemetery.

ROTE.—John Rote, one of the oldest and best known residents of Penn township, died at his home near Coburn, Saturday evening last, after a few weeks illness with gangrene. Deceased was aged 79 years. He was twice married, the first time to Miss Mary Shaffer, who died about twenty years ago. His second wife was Mrs. Sarah Snavely Cornan, who also died a little more than a year ago. Six children survive, as follows: Mrs. Lizzie Stover, Emanuel, Simon, Mrs. Maggie Vonada, and William, all of Penn township, and Lewis of Look Haven.

The funeral was held on Tuesday morning. Rev. F. F. Laffer conducted the services and interment was made in the Reformed cemetery at Aronsburg.

SCHIELE.—Mrs. Herman Schiele died at her home in Phillipsburg, at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon of last week, after a five weeks illness with paralysis of the brain. Deceased was 44 years of age and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, of Unionville. She was a most estimable woman and will be greatly missed in the community in which she lived. In addition to her husband she is survived by one daughter, Miss May, her father, three sisters and one brother. For a number of years past she was a consistent member of the Baptist church. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Rev. Higby officiating at the services. Interment was made in the Phillipsburg cemetery.

MARSHALL—WILLIAMS.—A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Young, of Port Matilda, on the evening of May 20th, when Mr. Harry Marshall, of State College, and Miss Ada B. Williams, of Port Matilda, were united in marriage by the Rev. A. C. Lathrop. It was generally known that the wedding was soon to be but only a few immediate friends knew when. The groom is a son of Mr. E. H. Marshall, of State College. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Williams, of Port Matilda. Both bride and groom are very much esteemed and many friends wish them a long and happy life.

DUNKLEBERGER.—Mrs. Harriet A., wife of Grant S. Dunkleberger died at her home at Pleasant Gap, Saturday night after a three week's illness. Deceased was about 34 years of age and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Griffith, of Spring township. She was a good, christian woman, loved and respected by all who knew her. She is survived by her husband and ten children, one less than four weeks old. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, interment being made in the Pleasant Gap cemetery.

WOODWARD.—Mrs. Woodward, widow of the late Major John V. Woodward, died at her home in Williamsport, last Friday afternoon, aged 89 years. She is survived by six children, as follows: Col. John A. Woodward, the well-known agriculturist of Howard, this county; York A., of New Orleans; Joseph W., of Spokane, Wash.; Anna Harriet and Mary Frances, at home, and Martha Dewing, of Paris, France. One son was killed in the civil war and one died in New Orleans several years ago.

LEATHERS.—Jacob R. Leathers, who was born and lived all his life in Howard township until several years ago when he went to Chicago to live, died May 15th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Stevenson, of Cleveland, Ohio, aged 83 years. Death was due to paralysis with which deceased had been afflicted for some time. The funeral was held on Wednesday, May 17th, interment being made in Cleveland.

M. J. Gardner has had plans completed for an extensive improvement of his property on the corner of Howard and Spring streets. He will tear away the old Rankin house on the corner, build an addition to the old Logan engine house, enclose the whole building with brick and convert it into a double dwelling house. This will compel the school board to hunt some other place for the accommodation of the Midway schools, but it will be a great improvement on that corner.

Members of the alumni association of the Bellefonte High school would do well to bear in mind the fact that today is the last opportunity they will have for securing guest cards for the annual reception in the armory next Wednesday night. It is important that the committee know just how many to provide for hence this time limit. Mr. J. H. Robb, at the Centre County bank, will issue cards to those who call today.

TO RAISE BEES.—At their meeting in Harrisburg, on Monday, the Board of Trustees of the State College voted to support a series of experiments in bee-keeping on the college campus, to be undertaken by Prof. H. A. Surface, State Economic Zoologist. The idea is to gain some accurate ideas about bee raising to the end that it can be made a more remunerative pursuit in Pennsylvania. Prof. Surface is to bear the expense of providing the bees and the bee house, which will be one large building, but later expenses will be borne by the college. It is the intention to import some rare queen bees from abroad.

Next Tuesday will be Memorial day, and throughout the entire length and breadth of the land old and young will gather in the silent cities of the dead to hallow the memories of the dead soldiers who fought for the perpetuation of this government and to strew flowers upon the graves of loved ones gone before. While so far the leaders in the work of decoration have been the old comrades it will not be many more years until the work will have to be taken up and carried along by younger hands, and it is to be hoped that when that time comes it will be as faithfully carried out as it is now, as the custom has grown into a too beautiful one to be omitted.

Only three weeks yet until the date of the celebration of the centennial of the Bellefonte Academy, which will occur on June 15 and 16. The management of the Academy are hustling to have everything in apple-pie order for that momentous occasion and it behooves the citizens of Bellefonte to do their part toward making the event a most fitting one. The Academy aside from being a good educational institution is a good business proposition for the town and deserves every encouragement possible.

Six weeks of the trout fishing season have gone by and up to this time no phenomenal—not even large catches have been reported, and one is constrained to wonder what has become of all the big trout that was to be seen in Spring creek, right within the borough limits, and the other trout streams of the county last fall. Then a man could walk along most any stream and see hundreds of trout while now it is hard work to see any let alone catch them. Verily Centre county trout must be educated as to the open and closed seasons.

The summer schedule which goes into effect on the Pennsylvania railroad system, May 28th, provides for several radical changes in the running of trains on the Philadelphia & Erie division, which will be of great convenience to travelers from this section going west over that road. There will be no changes on the main line that will effect travel from here at all, while on the Bald Eagle, Lewisburg and Tyrone and Snow Shoe roads there will be no changes at all in the time at this place.

Memorial day services in lower Pennsylvally will be held as follows: At Farmer's Mills at 9:30 a. m.; address by Rev. Snyder. At the Cross church in Georges valley at 2 p. m.; address by Rev. Heaney. At Spring Mills at 5:30 p. m.; address by Rev. G. W. Mollay. These services will all be under the G. A. R. Post at Spring Mills and the public as well as all organizations are invited to attend.

The Rt. Rev. James H. Darlington, the new bishop of the Harrisburg diocese of the Episcopal church, will visit Bellefonte next Thursday (Ascension day) and will administer the rites of confirmation to a large class now under instruction in St. John's Episcopal church here. This will be the bishop's initial trip to Bellefonte and he will likely be greeted by a large audience.

The real estate of the late John Bitner, located just east of Blanchard, was recently sold to the trustees of the Disciple church. The property comprises forty acres of land and brought $1,980. The land adjoins the church property and has erected thereon a brick dwelling house, barn and other out-buildings.

Judging from the thoroughness with which the committee in charge has completed the arrangements for the Alumni reception to the graduating class of the Bellefonte High school, in the armory next Wednesday evening, the affair promises to be one of the chief social events of the week.

CHURCH RE-OPENING.—On June 3rd and 4th the United Evangelical church at Curtin, which has been extensively improved, will be re-opened with services as follows: Saturday 8 p. m., Sunday 10 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend and enjoy these services.

Brigadier-General Jobu A. Wiley has announced that the encampment of the Second Brigade at Erie will be held July 15th to 22nd, and that the camp will be named "Camp C. S. W. Jones," in honor of the late captain of the Sheridan Troop, Tyrone.

BOUQUETS FOR THE COLEVILLE BAND.—The famous Coleville band left Bellefonte Monday morning for Look Haven where they accompanied the Hospitalier Commandery, Knights Templar, to the annual convocate at Williamsport. While in Look Haven the boys went around serenading and the Democrat, of Monday, pays them the following compliment:

"The celebrated Coleville band, of twenty pieces, immediately after arriving in the city over the B. E. V. road this forenoon, escorted by W. H. Klapp, E. B. Waters and W. M. Israel, marched up town and tendered the Democrat a delightful serenade, which was greatly appreciated by all, including the devil. The Coleville band has been in Look Haven oftentimes before and is held in high esteem by our people. While able to hold its own with far more pretentious bands, the organization is composed of a gentlemanly lot of musicians, who attend strictly to business. Hospitalier Commandery is to be congratulated on securing the services of the old reliable Coleville band."

GARBRICK—GENTZEL.—Harry E. Garbrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garbrick, of Spring township, and Miss Clara M. Gentzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gentzel, were married at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, at the home of the bride's parents, at Zion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Stoneycypher, of Boalsburg, in the presence of a number of invited guests. After a delicious wedding breakfast the happy couple were driven to this place where they took the 1.05 train west for a brief honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Garbrick will make their home in Altoona, where the groom is employed as a machinist.

DAVIS—BEHRER.—Rev. David J. Davis, pastor of the Lemont charge of the United Brethren church, and Miss Anna Behrer, of Houserville, were united in marriage by the Rev. A. Davidson at the United Brethren parsonage, this place, on Monday morning, May 22nd. Rev. and Mrs. Davis went to Ohio to spend their honeymoon.

WESTON—SPOTTIS.—Calvin Weston and Miss Mary Spotts were married at the home of the bride's parents, near Port Matilda, Thursday last week, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Durkee, of the M. E. church. About forty guests were present and the bride was the recipient of numerous valuable and useful presents.

ZIMMERMAN—GAYLOR.—Last Saturday morning Clyde C. Zimmerman and Miss Mary B. Gaylor, both of this place, went to Look Haven where they were married at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. H. R. Bender.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archey: Harry Marshall, of Bellefont, and Ada B. Williams, of Port Matilda. David J. Davis, of Lemont, and Anna Behrer, of State College. Michael D. Parrish and Olive Bumberger, both of Conemaugh, Pa. Andrew J. Lorigan, of Osceola Mills, and Anna M. Dittmar, of Phillipsburg.

Its great fun to stand out on the Stone school house grounds in the evening and watch the boys play ball—reminds one so vividly of the days when he was a youngster going to school; but when it comes to stopping a scorching foul tip with your eye brow, why that isn't so funny. But that's what one enthusiastic onlooker did, Tuesday evening, and the result was he took a vacation the next day.
