Mr. J. A. Fackler, one of the kind of fellows one would walk across the street to shake hands with, is representing the Farmers Nursery Co., of Dayton, O.

It was a pleasant gathering at the home of Daniel Kustaborder last Saturday when all the children and some other relatives took the home by storm, bringing enough refreshments with them to feed a hungry crowd several days.

M. E. and J. B. Heberling, H. M. and N. T. Krebs, Dr. R. M. Krebs, Roy Goss and Mr. H. W. Morris constituted a jolly crowd that enjoyed a fishing trip along Stone creek, at the Ross saw mill. They came out Saturday with four hundred and fifty of the finny tribe.

The following persons registered at the St. Elmo recently: J. D. Miller, Nittany; L. A. Chase, Bellefonte; Geo. E. Homan, of Millheim; J. F. Herman and Squire Garshoff, both of Bellefonte; Geo. I. Moody and H. E. Reasick, both of Altoona; D. C. Keller of Centre Hall and Henry Swink, of Lebanon.

Memorial day has come and gone. Although the weather was inclement many people gathered at the various cemeteries to assist in strewing flowers over the mounds of the dead heroes. The decoration of the graves took place at 6 o'clock and was done by detail, after which services were held in the Lutheran church. Rev. E. M. Campbell, the orator, delivered an able address. A well trained choir rendered excellent music. Rev. W. C. Dunlap was present and made a few fitting remarks, after which all joined in singing "America." Rev. C. T. Aiken pronounced the benediction and the days work was ended. At Pine Hall a large crowd assembled to do honor to the soldiers dead. The services were held in charge of Capt. Foster Post, G. A. R. Clement Dale Esq., of Bellefonte, deliver the address, which was highly appreciated by everybody. At Realsburg a large crowd assembled to hear Capt. H. S. Taylor, in his usual eloquent manner, deliver the address. The Zion band furnished the music. The festival held by the ladies of the Reformed church netted them $75.00. The State College fire company had set up on the campus for an old time festival but the rain compelled their retreat to the armory where the evening's proceeds netted them about $110.00.

Tour to the Canadian Rockies, Lewis and Clark Exposition, and Yellowstone Park.

Via Pennsylvania Railroad, Account Convention American Medical Association.

ROUND—$215—TRIP.

On account of the convention of the American Medical Association, to be held in Portland, Ore., July 11th to 14th, the Pennsylvania Railroad company will run a personally-conducted tour, visiting the beautiful resorts in the Canadian Rockies, Seattle, Tacoma, and Portland, allowing four days in the latter city for attending the sessions of the convention and for visiting the Lewis and Clark Exposition, and five and one-half days in the Yellowstone Park, a full and complete tour of that wonderful land. Tickets covering every necessary expense en route, except hotel accommodations in Portland, will be sold at the very low rate of $215 from all stations on the Pennsylvania Railroad except Pittsburgh, from which the rate will be $210. A special train of high-grade Pullman equipment will leave New York, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Pittsburgh, Monday, July 3rd. The route will be via Chicago and St. Paul to Banff Hot Springs, Laggan, and Glacier, in the Canadian Rockies, thence to the Pacific Coast. Returning the route will lie through the States of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Montana, to the Yellowstone Park, and thence via Billings and Omaha to Chicago, reaching New York on July 26th. For further information consult Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agents. A descriptive itinerary will be sent on application to Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Pa. 50-21-34

Low-Rate Tour to Denver.

Via Pennsylvania Railroad, Account International Convention, Epworth League.

On account of the Epworth League International convention, to be held in Denver, Col., July 5th to 9th, the Pennsylvania Railroad company has arranged a tour to Denver under its personally-conducted system. A special train of high-grade Pullman equipment will leave New York, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Altoona, and Pittsburgh on Monday, July 3rd, arriving at Denver at 12:30 noon on Wednesday, July 5th. Tickets covering round-trip transportation, Pullman accommodations (one berth) going, and all meals in dining car when traveling on special train, will be sold at the following very low rates: New York, $63.50; Philadelphia, $61.75; Baltimore, $60.00; Washington, $60.00; Harrisburg, $59.75; Williamsport, $59.75; Altoona, $58.75; and at proportionate rates from other stations.

These tickets will be good for passage to either Denver, Colorado Springs, or Pueblo, and will be good for return passage on regular trains to leave either of the above-mentioned points not later than July 14th. Deposit of tickets with joint agent at either Denver, Colorado Springs, or Pueblo not later than July 14th and payment of fee of fifty cents secures an extension of return limits to leave either of the above points not later than August 8th. These liberal return limits will enable tourists to take advantage of the many delightful side trips to resorts in the Colorado Mountains, the Yellowstone Park, the Grand Canyon of Arizona, and the Lewis and Clark Exposition at Portland, for which special reduced-rate tickets will be on sale at Denver, Colorado Springs, and Pueblo.

For further information concerning specific rates, stop-over privileges, and returning routes consult ticket agents. A descriptive itinerary will be mailed upon application to Geo. W. Boyd, general passenger agent, Broad street station, Philadelphia, Pa. 50-21-34

Books, Magazines, Etc.

A REMARKABLE PICTURE WORTH MANY DOLLARS CAN BE OBTAINED FOR A FEW CENTS.—"The three most beautiful roses" by Paul de Longpre, at the urgent solicitation of the Woman's Home Companion, Mr. Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three most Beautiful Roses," and the painting is without doubt one of the masterpieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its original grandeur on the cover of the Woman's Home Companion for June. Although this cover is an accurate reproduction of a painting worth hundreds of dollars, yet the June number, which has this exquisite cover, may be obtained at any first-class news-stand or direct from the publishers for the trivial sum of only ten cents.

"Mr. Paul de Longpre is justly styled the 'King of Flower Painters.' He not only paints roses, but every flower that grows, and is the highest authority on flowers. His paintings are found in the most select homes. Some have sold for as much as seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500.00).

Artists, art critics and competent judges all agree that the covers of the Woman's Home Companion far excel those of any other magazine.

The Woman's Home Companion is a magazine which in beauty and excellence, art stories, illustrations and fashions, etc., excels all other home and family magazines. The Woman's Home Companion is published by the Crowell Publishing Company, New York City, also Chicago, Ill., at one dollar a year, and is the favorite magazine in nearly half a million homes, where it is read each and every issue by three million people.
