THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

Cherries are ripening and the home strawberries are appearing in market.

The coal mines in the Snow Shoe region are being operated only on half-time now.

Samuel T. Brooks is now running his auto livery regularly to and from all trains.

At last there is practical indication that the soldiers monument will be a reality.

The State College commencement and Bellefonte Academy centennial both occur next week.

John Parsons has resigned as postmaster at Julian. His successor has not yet been appointed.

The Washburn & DeAlma trained animal show, last Friday, did not draw a very large crowd to Bellefonte.

Burglars entered the meat market of J. O. Stanley, in Philipsburg, Monday night, broke open the safe and secured eight dollars in cash.

The big Logan picnic is less than two weeks away and you don't want to forget it; and don't forget to reserve that day for the Logans.

C. W. Atherton, of Philipsburg, has gone to Lake, Miss., to estimate a forty thousand acre timber tract for Merrell & Co., of Look Haven.

John P. Harris Jr., has moved his family to Beaver Mills, where they will live this summer as more convenient to John's charcoal operations.

Rev. George D. Pennypacker, of Philipsburg, has so far recovered from his recent accident that he is able to attend to his pastoral duties as usual.

Prof. David O. Eters, the recently elected county superintendent of public schools, was sworn in and assumed the duties of his office on Monday.

Miss S. J. Rankin, a graduate of the Presbyterian hospital, Philadelphia, has been installed as superintendent of the McGirk sanatorium, Philipsburg, in place of Miss Katharine Triebly, resigned.

Edward Whittaker, one of the efficient engineers on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, has moved his family from the rooms over the Daily News office to one of Benjamin Bradley's houses, on north Spring street.

Mr. A. M. Brown, of Pennsylvania Furnace, who recently purchased the Shippen tract of timber land adjoining Tyrone, has erected a saw mill thereon and will at once begin cutting and manufacturing the timber into marketable lumber.

A reception and dance was held in the hall in Bush Arcade, last Friday evening, by the colored people of the town in honor of Arthur G. Thomas and George W. Overton, who last week were graduated from the Bellefonte High school.

Samuel Rine, who has been acting street commissioner the past couple weeks, has a force of men at work this week fixing up Allegheny street from Bishop to the Diamond; an improvement in that thoroughfare that adds much to the appearance of that part of the town.

The corps of engineers from the State College, who have been engaged making the survey for the trolley line from Bellefonte to State College for the Bellefonte Traction company, have almost completed the survey and will soon be ready to hand over their report.

Dr. W. H. Koehler has returned to Bellefonte and on the 15th of this month will open a new office for all kinds of dental work, in the rooms in the Harris building, over Shuey's grocery store, formerly occupied by W. H. Hart. Special rates will be given on all kinds of dental work.

Talk about hard luck, the Baums have had their share. On Friday last Alf went to Huntingdon and purchased a gelding pacer, paying close to two hundred dollars for the animal. The horse was driven here on Saturday, but took sick when wearing Ax Mann and died on Sunday morning.

The Coleville band gave the first of their series of summer night concerts in front of the Bush house, Tuesday evening, and as usual, it proved a most enjoyable affair for the large crowd assembled to hear them. The band has a number of new and catchy pieces which were rendered very creditably.

Mrs. W. H. Earon, of Unionville, departed on Monday for Savannah, Ga., where she will meet her brother, Dr. C. H. Cambridge, and together they will sail for Liverpool about the 20th of this month for a tour of England, Ireland and Scotland, for the benefit of their health. They expect to spend the Fourth of July in the city of Dublin.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis I. Grauer are in receipt of an invitation to attend the annual commencement exercises of the Philadelphia High school for girls, which will be held in the American Academy of Music, on Friday evening, June 16th. The interesting feature in connection with the receipt of the invitation is that it was sent by Mrs. Grauer's niece, Miss Alma Lichten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lichten, who is one of the large class of graduates.

THE ACADEMY SURROUNDINGS.—When the movement to fix up the Bellefonte Academy grounds by popular subscription was inaugurated there was some doubt as to the feasibility of the plan, but an inspection of the surroundings now that the improvements have been almost completed will show what a wonderful change has been wrought. The old, worn-out fence that surrounded the grounds and which had been an eye-sore for years, has all been torn away and will be entirely dispensed with in the future. The grounds in the front of the Academy building have been filled up sufficient to make one wide large terrace, while the remainder of the ground has been cleaned up and sloped down gradually to the street. In the rear of the buildings hundreds of loads of filling were required to fill up the unsightly hole that had been used as an ash dump and for other refuse. This has all been filled up, nicely terraced and sodded. A six-foot flag-stone pavement is now being put down through the entire length of the grounds, from north to south, on the eastern side of the building, while a flag-stone pavement and steps run from the street up the north end of the grounds to connect with the main pavement. Branch pavements will be laid to each end entrance to the main building while a gravel walk will be put down around the rear. It is the intention to further beautify the grounds by the planting of shade trees wherever needed.

Lucidly these improvements have been so nearly completed that they will be finished entirely by the latter part of next week when the Academy will celebrate its centennial anniversary. And then, when the many strangers, old students and others, will be here to witness and participate in the celebration those who contributed so freely and willingly to the grounds improvement fund will have just cause to congratulate themselves that the results has been so marvelous, and no one can help but see that the money contributed for this purpose was well and wisely spent.

ACADEMY CENTENNIAL SOUVENIRS.—During the celebration of the Academy centennial next week there will be on sale three different souvenirs of the event and, as the number of each will be limited, persons desiring either one or all should make their purchases promptly or they may not be able to get them.

The first and most valuable souvenir will be a medal made out of pieces of the old bell picked up in the ruins after the fire. This bell was possibly the oldest in the county. It is not known just when it was put on the Academy but its age was fixed from the fact that on one side was a large cross and the word "España, 1802."

The souvenir medals will be about the size of a quarter. On the one side will be the old Academy building in relief with the date 1805. On the reverse side will be the new building and date 1905. The medals are handsome souvenirs and will make nice charms or pins.

Another souvenir will be a badge, consisting of a medallion on which will be a picture of the new building in bold relief. Attached to the medallion will be a silk ribbon streamer properly inscribed.

The third souvenir will be the centennial program. This will contain not only a brief history of the Academy with a full program of all the centennial events, but will be handsomely illustrated with sixteen large plates of buildings and people connected with the institution since its inception.

TYRONE WANTS PRUNER ORPHANAGE.—At Monday night's meeting of the Bellefonte borough council no mention was made of matters pertaining to the Pruner orphanage. The Tyrone council, however, voted to accept the bequest. Chairman Armstrong, of the legal committee, presented the opinions of ex-Judge John G. Love, of this place, and O. A. Hewitt Esq., of Hollidaysburg, in which they held that the trust was already vested in the boroughs and that only the court could relieve them of the obligation. After the reading of the two opinions, which had been secured by Mr. Waring and were quite lengthy, Mr. Armstrong offered a resolution that the offer of Mrs. Sallie M. Hayes to pay Tyrone borough $10,000 in case it rescinded its action accepting the trust imposed by the Pruner bequest, be declined; and that in the event of the continued refusal of Bellefonte borough to co-operate with Tyrone borough in conducting the home for friendless children founded by Mr. Pruner, the borough of Tyrone declares its intention to take charge of the properties, as surviving trustee and to execute the trust to the best of its ability. On Mr. Dolaway's motion the resolution was unanimously adopted.

And thus Tyrone has voted to accept the bequest and establish the orphanage while Bellefonte has voted to refuse the bequest. What the final developments will be is hard to predict.

JOY TURNED TO SORROW.—On Friday, May 26th, Dr. L. M. Holloway, of Salona, arrived at Akron, O., on a visit to his mother and brother. The same morning Rev. H. C. Holloway, of Bellefonte, reached Akron, neither one having any knowledge of the other's visit. The next day, Saturday, June 4th, Ferguson, Pine Grove Mills, June 24th; Ferguson, Pine Grove Mills, June 24th; Curtis, Howard, Howard Boro., Howard, June 27th; Liberty, Eagleville, June 28th; College and State College, Leontville, June 29th; Union and Unionville, Unionville, June 30th; Philipsburg, Rush and South Philipsburg, Philipsburg, July 7th. Special examinations will be held at Bellefonte, Friday, July 29th, Friday, August 18th, and Friday, September 1st.

THE ACADEMY CENTENNIAL.—Everybody in Bellefonte is interested in the success of the celebration of the centennial anniversary of the Bellefonte Academy next week. The Academy people have arranged a very complete program for that occasion, one with enough variation to satisfy all who will attend. On Thursday afternoon there will be a game of base ball between the Academy team and an Alumni nine, out on the glass works meadow grounds, to be followed by a tennis tournament on the Academy court between the Alumni and undergraduates.

The reception at the Academy will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public generally is invited and the program for the evening is as follows:

No invitations are being sent to the Academy alumni living in Centre county. The invitations to all Centre county patrons, students and friends are issued through the newspapers. A special invitation is extended to all teachers and graduating class of the public schools of Bellefonte.

BOROUGH COUNCIL.—The work of the borough council, Monday evening, was confined entirely to miscellaneous matters with nothing of very great importance. The Water committee reported the laying of the twelve-inch water pipe on Allegheny street completed, and the Street committee reported the abutments for the bridge over the race finished and the superstructure here ready to be put on.

The building of sewers on Thomas and south Spring streets was referred to the Street committee with power to act. Applications for two lights on Bishop street were also referred to the Street committee. On recommendation of the Water committee J. Kennedy Johnston was appointed collector of water rentals for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Hazel, of Madisonburg, through her attorney, presented to council a bill of $41.00 for damages sustained by falling on the ice on the pavement on High street, opposite the Y. M. C. A. The matter was referred to the borough solicitor for investigation.

The following bills were approved and ordered paid: Street and bridge.....$184 02 A. Allison supplies for water work..... 12 45 Bellefonte Gas company..... 48 30 W. T. A PASTOR'S EXAMPLE.—Everybody in Bellefonte will be pleased to learn that in his pastoral work at DuBois Rev. Morris E. Swartz is meeting with exceptional success; and that more than that he is setting an example for the right that others are beginning to follow. Speaking of his work in that place the Patton Courier says that on the Sunday prior to Memorial day he preached a sermon in which he took a stand against the desecration of the day. Righteously indignant that no other observance of Memorial day had been arranged for in Patton outside of ball games, picnics and dances, he announced that as a personal protest he proposed to be at the church at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of May 30th and from there go to "God's acre," and decorate the graves of those who had answered the last call of the great commander. He would do this if he had to go alone, but he invited his parishioners to accompany him. It is needless to say he did not go alone, but was accompanied by a large crowd.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS.—County superintendent David O. Eters announces that examinations of teachers for provisional certificates will be held as follows: For the townships of Half Moon and Patton, at Waddle, June 9th; Boggs and Milesburg, June 16th; Burnside and Snow Shoe, June 17th; Haines, Aronsburg, June 18th; Miles, Millheim, June 20th; Gregg, Spring Mills, June 21st; Centre Hall and Potter, Centre Hall, June 22nd; Marion and Walker, Hulbersburg, June 23rd; Bellefonte, Benner and Spring, Bellefonte, June 24th; Ferguson, Pine Grove Mills, June 25th; Curtis, Howard, Howard Boro., Howard, June 27th; Liberty, Eagleville, June 28th; College and State College, Leontville, June 29th; Union and Unionville, Unionville, June 30th; Philipsburg, Rush and South Philipsburg, Philipsburg, July 7th. Special examinations will be held at Bellefonte, Friday, July 29th, Friday, August 18th, and Friday, September 1st.

—Rev. R. Crittenden departed, yesterday, for the Pine Creek region, Lycoming county, where he will hold Sunday school mission services over Sunday.

—Harry Rine, now living in Kane, and who was called here on account of the death of his brother Charles Rine, spent the past week visiting among his friends in this place.

—Mrs. Ralph Mallory and her two bright children accompanied by Miss Nannie Mallory departed, on Wednesday, for an extended visit with friends in Philadelphia.

—Wallace Reeder, who is now time-keeper for Thos. A. Shoemaker on his big railroad contract at Lewistown, was home to spend Sunday with his mother in this place.

—Mrs. R. Crittenden and her daughter, Mrs. Burns Crider, went to Granville, Ohio, last Saturday, in response to a telegram announcing the death in that place of Mrs. Crittenden's brother.

—Ex-register John A. Rupp, looking better than he has for some time back, was a Bellefonte visitor, Tuesday, and took so much interest in the Democratic county convention as if he were a candidate himself.

—Sheriff H. S. Taylor accompanied by his wife, his mother and his sister Berenice, departed yesterday noon for West Point, where they go to see the yearly inspections and graduating exercises of the class of 1905.

—Among the Democrats in town on Tuesday was John Smith, the hustling Spring Mills furniture man, and while he didn't have time to get into the convention he had quite a little to say during the usual lobby that goes on before the hour of calling to order.

—Michael Dempsey, of Osceola, one of the Democrats who count for something over in Rush township, dropped in for a minute on Tuesday; but he was so busy with politics that he couldn't spare more than time enough to drop a dollar into the Watchman till.

—J. G. Dauberman, the man who will do his part toward keeping the people of Centre Hall from falling prey to the beef trust, was in town on Tuesday acting as a delegate to the convention. He is a good Democrat and a good butcher and that is a combination hard to beat.

—Squire O. H. Nason, of Martha Furnace, was in town on Monday looking as if the sundry medicines he has been dosing himself with for the past few years have at last combined to effect a cure that will be permanent. We hope so, because the Squire is a good fellow, and too young to die.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. Murray Andrews came up from their winter quarters in Philadelphia to spend last Sunday at their home in this place just to see that everything was in first class shape. They returned to Philadelphia, on Monday, and tomorrow they will sail for Europe, expecting to be absent three months.

—George Richards, of Philipsburg, was one of the prominent figures in the Philadelphia delegation on Tuesday. It was his first offense as a delegate, but we are sure that he had such a pleasant time mixing up with the Democrats here that it won't be his last. Mr. Richards conducted a meat market in Philipsburg that does a business worth the while.

—Mr. Lawrence L. Brown, of Sandy Ridge, was a visitor in Bellefonte Wednesday and yesterday. His trips here are so infrequent now that when his friends saw him this time they hardly recognized him as he looks if anything even more youthful than he did when he was one of the coal barons of Bellefonte and incidentally manipulated the Republican politics of the county.

—Mrs. Sarah Shaffer, of Vilas, who was the guest of Mrs. James Kellerman for a few days was called home before she had concluded her visit; owing to the illness of Mr. Shaffer. She is well remembered as Miss Sallie Weaver, a daughter of the late Squire Weaver, of this place, and in years gone by was one of the most efficient of the Watchman's very excellent corps of women workers.

—Among the Bald Eagles who attended the Democratic county convention, on Tuesday, were ex-treasurer John Q. Miles and ex-sheriff W. M. Cronister. The latter did not make his appearance until Tuesday morning but the former came down Monday evening with the Philadelphia delegation in tow and it is needless to say that in keeping close to John Q. they did not miss anything that went to the making up of a royal good time.

—On Sunday editor T. H. Harter and Mrs. Harter departed to join the National Editorial association excursion on the trip to Guthrie, Okla., where the annual convention is being held. From Guthrie the excursion will be to San Diego, Cal., and thence north to Portland, Or., to take in the Lewis and Clark exposition. The return trip will be by way of the Yellowstone park, the Dakotas and the Mississippi river to St. Louis.

—William B. Gingerich, of Martha Furnace, was in town on Tuesday serving as a delegate to the convention and attending to a little business for his honored father, our friend Samuel Gingerich. William is a worthy son of a worthy parent and it was especially pleasing to us to see the evidence that the senior Gingerich has started the junior off on the path of Democracy; where there is need for just such intelligent enthusiastic young workers.

—When ex-prothonotary W. F. Smith, of Millheim, failed to come to Bellefonte on Monday evening it looked very much as if the Democrats would have to hold one county convention without his presence, if not his assistance, but when Tuesday morning's train came in over the Lewisburg Hill was one of the first to "bob up serenely," and though he was not a delegate he was so busy as a wood chopper all morning—so much so, in fact, that he failed to get around for even a game with his old cronies in the pool room.

—Perry Wood, who has been visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. John A. Wood, at the Methodist parsonage since the burial of his brother Gilbert, departed Wednesday morning for his home in Pasadena, Cal. He had expected to prolong his stay for two weeks more, but was summoned home by a telegram announcing the trial of an important case in which he is interested. The health conditions at the University of Philadelphia must be in a deplorable condition—for another senior, the third since Gilbert died of typhoid fever there this week.

THE LOGAN PICNIC.—The Logan boys are making great preparations for their annual picnic at Hecla park, Thursday, June 22nd. They contemplate a vastly bigger affair in every way this year than they have had for some years. Among the features of the day will be racing, field events, trap shooting, a sack race, boat race, a game of ball between a team of Logans and one of Undines, and various other sports. There will be plenty to eat for all who will attend. Special trains will be run to suit the convenience of all comers and goers. Everybody is invited and all are urged to attend.

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.—A very pleasant surprise party was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hoover, of near Filmore, in honor of their son Philip's nineteenth birthday. The young man was away at a neighbor's house until after the guests had arrived, and upon returning found the parlor full of his friends. It was indeed a surprise to him when he returned home. There were guests present from Bellefonte, Pleasant Gap, Oak Hall, Hunter's Park, Port Matilda and Filmore. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing various games and music. At eleven o'clock the company assembled adjourned to the dining room where refreshments were served. The table was decorated with ferns and pink roses. A GUEST.

This occasion will bring about three hundred representative men from all parts of the State to our town, in addition to which there will be quite a following of members and friends of the order from nearby points. Our town is noted for the cordial, open-hearted reception extended by our citizens to gatherings of this kind and it is hoped our good reputation will be maintained upon this occasion.

BELLEFONTE SCHOOL BOARD REORGANIZED.—The Bellefonte school board held its first meeting for the fiscal year, sworn in the two new members, T. M. Longwell, of the North ward, and Geo. R. Parker, of the West ward, and reorganized by the election of the following officers: President, William C. Heinle; secretary, D. F. Fortney; treasurer, A. C. Mingle. The election of teachers for the ensuing school year was postponed until the next meeting night. John D. Meyer was elected principal instead of David O. Eters and his salary fixed at $1,500 per year.

"GOLD AND WHITE" ASSEMBLY.—The committee in charge of the Gold and White assembly, to be held in connection with the Bellefonte Academy centennial celebration, next Friday evening, June 16th, request that all those desiring tickets to same to make their application at once to Edmund Blanchard, chairman, in order that proper allotment can be made. Remember that whenever the capacity of the armory has been reached no more tickets will be given out, so it will be wise to put in your application early.
