Aentorratic Matchman

Bellefonte Pa., July 21, 1905.

COBRESPONDENTS.-No communications put lished unless accompanied by the real name o he writer.

it must be borne in mind that while this is THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY a very important adjunct it will be but one of the many features which those in charge -----Yes ; it was plenty hot enough for are planning to have. us. thank you The usual large exhibit of stock, machin

-There are now five patients in the Bellefonte hospital, four women and one and fancy articles promises to be excelled girl.

-Barber John L. Nighthart, who was reader of the WATCHMAN can take a part. laid up last week with a sore eye, is able If you have a good horse or a cow, a sheep to be at work again.

-Pionic parties are all the rage this hot weather, everybody living as much out of doors as possible

-Postmaster W. W. Montgomery has entirely recovered from his recent illness and is around again as usual.

-Mr. Frank P. Blair is seriously considering giving up the jewelry business and accepting a position as stationary engineer.

-Judging from the number of snake stories appearing daily in the newspapers of the State this is a very snaky year.

-Mrs. Rebecca Spabr, of Boalsburg, who has not been in good health for months past, is now so bad that her condition is considered critical.

-Masters Harold Storm, Roy Landis, William Daley and Jerome Dale are out in the mountains near Runville on a ten days camping out trip.

---- The air is rife with rumors of weddings soon to be in this community; so keep your eyes and ears open and learn who the fortunate ones are.

- Spring creek, as well as other streams throughout the county are very low, notwithstanding the fact that there have been numerous showers all summer.

-On Friday that old landmark, the big tree on the southwestern corner of the Diamond, at the corner of the Brockerhoff house, was cut down and removed.

-The Carpenters and Joiners union of this place have pre-empted September 4th, Labor day, as the date for the holding of their pionic at Heola park.

-If you want to have a real good en joyable time go down to Milesburg tomorrow evening and attend the festival of the Milesburg Hose and Ladder company.

-A valuable horse belonging to liveryman George A. Beezer had a leg broken. Sunday afternoon, while being driven from Roland to Bellefonte, and had to be shot.

-Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Gruver, of Howard, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Flora L. Gruver, to George X. Draucker, of Lock Haven, which happy event occurred recently in Wilmington, Del.

-Liveryman George A. Beezer spent the past week with the Second brigg

THE CENTRE COUNTY FAIR .--- It is now The farmers are about all through but very little over two months until the outting grain and the next thing on the lar session of borough council was held time for the big Centre county fair, which list will be oats harvesting. this year will be held October 3rd to 6th. Last week the WATCHMAN published an outline of a grand 'competitive township exhibit which the management have instituted as a special feature for this year, but ery and farm products as well as household this year. And in order to do this every you think your fruit a little the best of any other farmers, if your potatoes are bigger or if you have the biggest pumpkin, bring them in and get a prize. There is yet ample time in which to greatly improve the size and quality of most farm products, by devoting a little extra time to more cultivation, pruning, etc., and the result in the end will justify the additional labor.

making it one of the greatest.

doesn't warrant recourse to such a method of making these scalawags pay. Scalawags, we call them, because they are certainly honesty. It is equivalent to stealing that exhibit.

to emplation

-On Monday one hundred and fiftyeight car loads of lake ore were brought up over the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania for use in the furnaces here.

The Finance committee reported that the -Samuel Waite, of Rebersburg, who total assessed property valuation in the was injured on a lumbor job at Hyner a borough was $1,619,809, and that the last couple weeks ago, died last week in the tax levy was as follows: interest, $8,101.-Williamsport hospital. 40; borough, $4,052; street, $8,101.40. Mrs. Mary A. Hazel, of Madisonburg, ac-president Dr. Kirk was chosen to preside.

All the business of the evening was purely Burgess Walker requested council to hur-

the muzzling of all dogs within the Boro.

limits. Such an ordinance is now in the course of preparation. The burgess also council decided that under the state law it

Council ordered that a bill for $13 be vices of the fire companies at the Pleasant

View fire, it being outside the borough limits. The following bills were approved

SKUNKS GALORE.-It may sound strange every community, but the genuine thorough day night of this week, Howard Stover, miller for Gamble, Gheen & Co., who lives on east Lamb street, shot a skunk which was in the act of making a raid on his hen house. For some time past residents on east Lamb street have been missing young chickens and were at a loss to know what was stealing and killing them. Monday night Mr. Stover heard a noise among his chickens and securing his gun went out just in time to see Mr. Cat in close proximity.

The animal was promptly shot and now the 10 9

7 15

$1111 52

and orders drawn:

Police pay roll.... Bfte Electric Co.

Penn Tel. Co..... Jass. H. Corl...... Ben. Williams..... R. B. Taylor, coal. John I. Olewine.....

J. H.Gross

H.Gross. Allison supplies. C.Quigley. S.Knisely. T. Kelley, clerk

W. T. Kelley, clerk... Water works pay roll. W. F. Reynolds.... Index, time book.... J. S. Knisely... H. D. Brown, keys... John W. Morgan...

Hill an

R. B. Taylor, hauling engin

Index Store, blank books P. R. R. Co.

miscellaneous.

-G. W. Keister's saw mill, located knowledged the receipt of $41.00, fall payeast of Aaronsburg, was recently destroyed ment for damages sustained by falling on by fire, together with a large quantity of the pavement in front of the Y. M. C. A. chestnut boards and lath building last winter.

-There should be a good turn out at or a hog, keep him in prime condition and the meeting in the court house, this morn- ry the passage of an ordinance requiring enter him in the live stock exhibit. If you ing at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of organhave the best grain in the county save some izing a county historical society. of it to show at the Centre county fair. If

-Rev. A. C. Lathrop, of Milesburg, has been engaged to deliver an address at the Clinton county granger's picnic, at Agar's park on Thursday, August 3rd.

-Clarence Bickford and a party of The sum of $10 for fines and licenses was four gentlemen friends ran up from Lock turned in by the burgess. Haven, Monday evening, in the former's new thirty-horse power Winton automopresented to Mrs. Louisa Bush for the serbile.

-The First National bank of Winburne, of which J. Malcolm Laurie is cashier, has just closed its first year of business with a very good showing. A three per cent. dividend was declared and $1,500 added to the surplus.

his home in this place. He had been working in Colona, Beaver county, and was taken siek two weeks ago but did not think it anything serious until he was finally compelled to quit work, coming home on Tues-

---- Charles Lucas and Thomas Shearer, wo young men of this place who worked for the York Bridge company in putting in place the Race bridge, created such a good Every publisher of a newspaper has had mpression with the foreman of the gang experience with the people who take their paper for a few years or, at least, until they that they were engaged to go along and are in Huntingdon this week helping to put get a few years in arrears and then refuse to lift it any longer. Of course the law down a similar bridge.

provides a remedy for such cases but the -Miss Nettie Bathgate, daughter of amount involved is usually so small that it Mr. Archie Bathgate, of South Philipsburg, recently started on a trip through the west and now word has been received of her marriage, in Denver, Col., to Mr. J. S. nothing better. The action of any person Riddell, of that city. The young couple who takes a newspaper for any length of will come east and make their home at time and declines to pay for it is plain dis- Scalp Level.

much money from the pocket of the pub------Tomorrow afternoon a meeting of lisher. 'Twere better, far, for anyone who the general committee to arrange for this feels that they cannot afford to pay for a year's reunion of the Mattern family will paper to settle up with the publisher and be held in Herald hall, Tyrone. On the have it discontinued. That is the bonest. committee are the following Centre countians : Cap't. W. C. Patterson, State Col-The WATCHMAN has lost thousands of lege; Ex-Judge John G. Love, Bellefonte, dollars through scalawags, a fact which and J. Collins Mattern, Stormstown. makes it all the pleasanter to refer to the cases of the venerable Frederick Barclay and entative Philin E. Wom WITH THE BOROUGH DADS -The regu-News Purely Personal.

-Landlord John Uzzle, of Snow Shoe, was a Monday evening with but six members Bellefonte visitor on Monday. present. In the absence of the regular -Mrs. Lucy Moyer, of this place, is visiting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clara Moyer, in Tyrone. -Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bartley, of Lock Haven, pent Sunday with his parents in this place.

-Mrs. E. win F. Garman is over in Philipsburg visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H.W. Todd. -Mrs. Sarah Etters, of Lemont, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Houser, in this place.

-Mrs. James Sharp, of east Lamb street, is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Curtin Sprankle of Pittsburg. -Mrs. W. Harrison Walker left last week for a three weeks visit at the home of her parents in Pleasantville. -Thomas W. Fisher, of Unionville, ex-county commissioner, transacted business in Bellefonte on Wednesday.

-W. Homer Crissman and Mr. M. Fauble tte nded the funeral of the late Wm. Grauer, in Altoona, on Tuesday.

-Miss Ella C. Musser, of this place, and Miss complained that autoists were exceeding Edith Else, of Milesburg, are visiting the E. C. the speed limit within the borough and Poorman family in Tyrone. -Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Davis, of Curtin street was entirely within his province to stop it. the past week entertained Misses Lula and Hilda Thomas, of Philipsburg.

> -Word came to us that Richard T. Lane has ocated in McKeesport, Pa., with the National Tube Co. of that place.

-Mr. and Mrs. Morris Monash, of New York ity, are visiting Mrs. Monash's father, Mr. A. Baum, on Bishop street.

-Mrs. W. B. Dix, of Dayton, Ohio, is in Bellefonte for her annual visit and is at present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Munson.

-Miss. Cornelia Wilson, of Williamsport, spen 4 80 85 3 50 Monday in Bellefonte on her way to visit at the home of Frank Clemson in Buffalo Run. -Mr. George W. McGaffey, the efficient president of Philipsburg's First National bank, transacted business in Bellefonte last Friday. -Mr. Ross A. Hickok came up from Harris burg, Saturday, to spend Sunday with Mrs. Hickok and that charming little daughter at the nently. Hastings home.

-After a several months absence from Belle fonte visiting with friends in several States, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Holloway returned to Bellefonte on Monday. -Mrs. Wm. Kurtz and children, of Berlin, Pa.

who spent the past two weeks visiting at the home of Mr. Fred Kurtz, departed for their home on Tuesday. -Frank E. Naginey left yesterday for New to the average reader to learn that Belle-York to attend the National Furniture Associafonte, especially the eastern portion of the tion's exposition. On his way home next week he will stop over for a day or two in Philadeltown, is overrun with skunks. Not the phia. two-legged kind that unfortunately infest

-Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Grenoble, of State College, with their small son braved the heat of last bred pole-cat. Last week a resident of Saturday and made a business trip to Bellefonte Bellefonte got in a little mix-up with one -and we especially greatly appreciate such visits.

-"Pop" W. N. Golden, who has just returned to State College after a two weeks missionary trip, was in Bellefonte, on Tuesday, complaining with the rest of humanity about the excessive heat.

-Merchant A. J. Griest, of Unionville, was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday. And, of course, his trip was one of business because he is too ousy a man to come down here just for the fun of the thing.

-Mrs. H. S. Taylor spent Sunday with her au nt in Philipsburg, having been driven over the mountain by her father, Mr. Neil Cross, who last week spent a couple of days with his daughter in Bellefonte. -Miss Irene Reilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Ch arles Reilly, of Philadelphia, arrived in Belle-

-H. C. Quigley transacted business in Lock Iaven, on Tuesday

-Rev. Wardner Willard, of Altoona, visited his nother in this place this week. -Bruce Underwood and Russell Campbell, of Pittsburg, are visiting friends in Bellefonte -Miss Louisa Brachbill, daughter of W. R. Brachbill, is visiting friends over in Philipsburg. -Mrs. Katharine Rhoads, of Williamsport, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris. -Mrs. J. V. Thomas came up from Philadelphia, Wednesday evening, to spend the summer

-Miss Nellie Lebkicker is spending the week with her friend, Miss Mary Wenrick, in Lock Haven

-Mrs. James Harris is entertaining, at her me on Spring street, Mrs. Anna Hammer, of Philadelphia.

-Miss Mary McMicken, of Washington, came Tuesday, to the McCalmont home on Linn street, for a short visit.

-Ad Fauble left for New York yesterday to buy a few odds and ends for the late summer trade and look over the fall clothing lines.

-Miss Emily Polk, who for two months has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Calloway, left for her home in Baltimore, Wednesday noon.

-Mr. and Mrs. Ed Neyhart, of Johnstown, have been with Mr. Neyhart's parents in Milesburg since last Saturday, expecting to make a stay of ten days.

-Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bellringer, of New York, are in Bellefonte for a two weeks visit with Mrs. Bellringers's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sourbeck

-Mr. and Mrs. John Meese with their grand aughter, Miss Nellie Conley, left the mountains, Thursday, hoping to find more comfort in the sea air of Ocean City

-L. Olin Meek, of Philadelphia, was in Belle" fonte between trains Tuesday, on his way up Buffalo Run, where he hopes to spend his vacation of one week or ten days.

-Miss Rebecca Pugh Lyon has arranged to go to Lock Haven, on Saturday, to endeavor to get up a class in instrumental music. If successful she contemplates locating there perma-

-Miss S. H. Bescherer, head nurse at the Bellefonte hospital, left yesterday on a two week's vaeation which she will spend with friends in Wilkesbarre and on a trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

-Mr. Millard F. Grauer, of Baltimore, who was in Altoona attending the funeral of his brother. the late William Grauer, came to Bellefonte yesterday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Grauer before returning home.

-That very efficient, good natured and jolly pedagogue, T. S. DeLong, of Romola, dropped in on us yesterday and planking down a strip of the long green remarked that "he was raised on the WATCHMAN and now it was good enough to live on." Our hat's off for that

-Rev. John A. Wood Jr., and Mrs. Wood attended the funeral of Rev. Dr. Leillich, in Lock Haven, on Wednesday, and in company with Rev. W. A. Houck and Mrs. Houck were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hipple.

-James B. Noll, of Milesburg, dropped in for a minute or so on Monday, then dropped out again minus one of his good simoleans. Jim is very busy just now making plans for the big fireman's festival down there tomorrow night and he says it is going to be finer than ever before.

-Rev. J. S. Lightbourn, rector of the Episcopal church at Mediua, Ohio, and Mrs. Lightbourn are here spending the month as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Noah H. Swayne II, at their home just south of town. Sunday morning Rev. Lightbourn will preach in St. John's Episcopal church.

-There were just a few who th ing the week, but they are deserving of as many thanks as if they had been millions, We refer to Grant S. Peifer, Wilkinsburg; Prof. Edwin Twitmire, Bellingham, Wash; Wm. Brouse Jr. Boalsburg; Miss E. L. Snook, Philadelphia; and the Elk Tanning Co., Ridgway. Here's hoping for more more next week. -Col. Edward R. Chambers, who the past two weeks suffered an attack of rheumatism so that he was unable to appear in the ranks as a member of Governor Pennypacker's staff at the inspection of the First and Third brigades last week, has so far recovered that he left, Wednesday afternoon, for Erie to be present at the Governor's inspection of the Second brigade yesterday and today.

some of the fastest horses in the State. So -Mr. William Houser is ill in bed at take our word for it as to what the fair will be and see if you can't do your part toward Two EXAMPLES .- We hope that it will not prove distasteful to the two gentlemen day. to whom we intend to refer. In fact we can see no reason why it should, for their case is one that should properly be held up of these odoriferous animals while on Mon-residents of that locality are wondering if Philip Womelsdorf Jr., a son of Reprethey will have to keep on watch all the f, of Philip burg, is spending the harvest time among friends at Port Matilda and has gained no little notoriety as a snake killer. He has already killed three big black snakes, the largest of which measured fifty-seven inches and is looking around for more.

Now is the proper time to go to work along this line if you wish to have the best In the amusement line the fair management promise more varied attractions this year than ever before while there will be the usual spirited and exciting races by Camp C. S. W. Jones, at Erie, he supplying the fifteen horses for the mount of the officers of the Fifth regiment.

----- The McEntyre family have decided to change their place of residence from Bellefonte to Wilkinsburg. Guy holds a good position in that place and Misses Martha and Luln went out last week and have already secured situations while the rest of the family will join them in the near future.

-Last Friday a party of eight geology students from Harvard, under the direction of Prof. William M. Davis, were in Bellefonte studying the geological formations hereabouts. They are making a study of the formations of the Appalachian range and from here they went to Lewisburg and northeast from there

-Mr. A. V. Smith, formerly of this place but now one of Howard township's farmers, celebrated his sixty sixth birthday anniversary July 6th. Among the guests were his three sisters, Mrs. Frank Confer, Mrs. J. L. Smeltzer and Mrs. Hayes Schenck; as well as Mrs. Kate McClintic and Mrs. L. E. Bolopue, sisters of Mis. Smith.

-William H.Miller, who the past several years has been express messenger on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, has been transferred to the run on the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg road, from Punx sutawney to Indiana, with headquarters at the former place. Walter Armstrong has been given the run on the Central Pennsylvania.

years past has been one of the efficient clerks in Joseph Bros. & Co's store, purchased from Jared Harper the Harper grocery store, on Allegheny street and that morning took possession of the same. The stand is one of the oldest in the town and we wish the new proprietor all success possible.

-----Saturday evening a party of about fifteen young men of this place went up Spring creek to the forked springs for a part of the night fishing and the latter part in keeping each other from getting any sleep. Sanday morning about twenty others went up and the entire party spent a very pleasant day, returning to Bellefonte Sunday evening.

-Mr. and Mrs. W.V. Larimer are off on a novel vacation this week. Starting Wednesday, morning they drove to Snow Shoe and from there their route led through Karthaus, Philipsburg. Clearfield, Curwensville, DuBois, in Clearfield county, taking in all the small towns enroute and seeing all the sights possible to see. They will return by way of Altoona and Tyrone, expecting to be away a week.

cate with this effice

William Crawford. Both of them are pool yet they have that which riches could not buy: An honest character. Both were greatly in arrears with their manly thing to do.

subscription to the WATCHMAN and both of them voluntarily cffered to make payments just as they could to liquidate the bill. Pegging away, often with a dollar at a time, they have kept at it until they are both nearing the honor roll.

Now either one of these men could have refused to lift his paper from the postoffice and had it returned with that contemptible mark "Refused" had they so desired, but they are not made of that kind of stuff. They are men who recognize a just debt and have the honor to pay it as well as they can and that is the reason we refer to them here when there are so many shysters in the world who seem to have lost all sense of fair and square dealings with their fellows.

NARROW ESCAPE. - Monday MIS. horse in a buggy to drive over the mountain to Centre Hall. They got along all right till they reached the watering trough going up the mountain when the horse got out of the buggy and went forward to. the borse's head to loosen the rein when the animal began to back and though the whip was applied and Miss Bible undertook to hold him by the rein he backed across the road and over the end of a bridge down ately the animal stopped an instant on the -Last Saturday George Hazel, who for very brink of the bridge and Mrs. Foreman with her two children in her arms jumped out on the bank and thus escaped injury. The buggy was badly broken up but the horse was not injured, though so entangled in the harness and buggy that it took three men, who fortunately happened along right after the accident, the biggest part of half hour to disentangle him and get him back on the road.

mer and that already plat

ANENT THE FISH HATCHERY .- Ten day's camping out. They spent the fore days ago Mr. Wm. H. Noll bought from S. H. Hoy the remainder of his farm and the dwelling house recently erected by him for the use of the Bellefonte fish hatchery. This will not only give the hatchery additional and much-desired ground but also more and a better water right than ever.

April 1st, 1906, and immediately thereafter paint. Costs less for the job, and you that place. Everyone is cordially invited the grounds will be fitted up with fish don't have to do the job so often. ponds, etc. The purpose now is to eventuaccomplished before many years

-All the carriers on the mail routes in the lower end of Pennsvalley have been chauged. C. W. Hosterman succeeded A. M. Yearick on the star route from Woodward to Coburn; c. M. Sheets succeeded J. F. Miller on the route from Madisonburg to Millheim, and M. C. Haines succeeded C. H. Smull on the route from Rebersburg to Coburn.

-Charles Ginter, employed at Lingle' foundry, had his left hand hadly mashed on Monday. He was wheeling a large casting from one part of the room to another when it slipped and [fell catching his hand and crushing it till the flesh on the fingers bursted open, though no bones were David Foreman and two children accom-broken. He was taken to the office of Dr. panied by Miss Elsie Bible started with one Harris where the injured member was dressed and bandaged.

-Local firemen are making (a strong effort to have the district firemen's conventopped at the trough for water. Miss Bible tion held in this place in 1906. The convention this year will be held in Philipsburg next month and at that time representatives of Bellefonte's two companies will go there prepared to present their claims for recognition a year hence. It is a long time since the convention was held precipitous ten foot embankment. Fortun. here, hence Bellefonte is entitled to it. 9

> -At the Gentzel-Beezer horse sale here, on Tuesday, twenty-two three and four year old "chunks" were sold at an average price of $104 a head. The colts were right off of western ranches and unbroken and when the purchasers undertook to take away the colt or colts they bought they furnished more divertisement for a large crowd than could be found in a wild western show. One animal bought by Thompson, the liveryman, could not be induced to go a step forwards but backed all the way from the Haag house stables around and into Thompson's barn. A number of others were equally as stubborn.

WHAT IT MEANS .- We're tired of an- 10 o'clock. wering questions ! "Fewer Gallons ; Wears Longer" means that you don't have to paint your house so efore. Mr. Hoy is to vacate the premises often, and you don't have to use so much The new paint is not new at all. Tt' ally make the Bellefonte station one of the the biggest-selling paint in the United best and largest in the State, a fact that States, and the firm that makes it is 149 years old. work that will be done this summe or if that was the only maravder. Residents on east High street, east Howard and east Linn street are nightly pestered with the "varmints," which put forth an exceedingly bold front, doubtless because Schmidt. Mrs. Stauffer, Mrs. Schmidt's mother, of their very strong offensive character. They not only prowl, around in search of spring chickens in the dead of night but begin their perambulations early in the evening. In fact so bold have they become and so defiant of the orthodox code of law as well as scornful of the borough officers that they have built a nest and are now hibernating right under the front porch of the Burgess'residence; necessiating that official to vacate the premises and take lodgings at the Bush house. IN SOCIETY'S REALM .--- While we men have been plodding along, puffing and sweltering with the heat of the past week the women have kept things moving in their own inner circle, apparently all unconscious of the fact that the thermometer part of the time was chasing between the 95° and 100°.

Devoe Lead

mark. On Monday Mrs. Blanche Hayes Hiller gave a dinner to a balf dozen of her lady friends at the Country club. Monday evening Mis. H. E. Fenion entertained the card party at the Bush house. The same evening Mrs. Mollie Valentine gave a small bridge party at the Speer home on west Bellefonte will be glad indeed to welcome High street, and Misses Mame and Henrietta mountain where they had refreshments ere while Temp came on to Bellefonte, spent Sa returning home.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. George Israel Brown entertained a few friends with a tea party and Wednesday evening Mrs. Howard Lingle gave a card party at which thirty-six were present. Last evening Miss Anna Sechler entertained, at cards, about thirty of her friends, and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Shogert gave a dinuer in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Lightbourn guests of Mr. and Mrs.

Noah H. Swayne II. Miss Myra Humes lso gave a dinner party last night at which twelve covers were laid. To finish up the week Mrs. Joseph Lingle Montgomery has sent out one hundred and twenty-five cards for an "At home" this evening, from 7 to will be a festival at Filmore on Saturday evening, July 29th, for the benefit of the Methodist Sunday school of to attend and enjoy the good things that will be served.

ness, the announcement being made that he onthly magazine, at State Co.

oon issue the Quaker State, a fifty page

-Frank E. Bible is again about to fonte yesterday for a visit at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brouse, on Thomas street.

-Mrs. Levi Nagle, of Washington, with herson Ralph, are guests at the home of Rev. Ambrose has also returned from a two months visit with her son at Chambersburg.

-Miss Mary Hunter Linn and Miss Clara Valntine having spent last week at the club house on Spruce run, returned to Bellefonte Monday; Miss Linn going the same day to Allegheny Furnace for a short visit.

-Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Kahn, of Coffeeville, Kan., arrived in Bellefonte yesterday for a visit at the home of A. Baum, on Bishop street. The Baums are also entertaining Miss Mollie Gold. stein, of Lock Haven, a sister of Mrs. Kahn.

-Robert F. Hunter departed, Tuesday evening, on a business trip to Philadelphia. Of course it is somewhat of a secret but don't be surprised if Bob should astonish the natives when he turns home with a four cylender Franklyn.

-Miss Minnie Broenel, who was at home on --Miss Minnie Broenel, who was at none on a visit to her sick mother, Mrs. Joseph Fullmer, of Milesburg, departed, last Saturday, for Phila-delphia where she is one of the force of Foster and their three children, Catharine, Helen efficient sterks in Snellenberg's large department and Harold, are now sojourning at Atlantic City, store.

road to recovery.

-M rs. Robert Urell, of Mansfield, Tioga came to the Bush house, Tuesday, to visit h husband for a short time. Should Mr. both as its towns people.

Butts, Mame and Helen Ceader, Emma —Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Cruse, of Pittsburg, Holliday and several others enjoyed a returned from a two weeks sojourn at Atlantic moonlight auto ride to the top of Nittany City, last Saturday, Mrs. Cruse and son And day night and Sunday with friends here and left. Sunday evening, for the Smoky city.

-Roger A. Bayard has started on a six w trip to California to visit his brother, W. W. Bayard. He is away on a six week's vac from his position in Somerset county, which will be held open for him until September first; but if he likes the Golden State and can get a lucrative position there it is more than probable he will remain.

-Mr. Gottlieb Haag managed to get away hat garden of his long enough the past week to take a trip down to Williamsport to visit brother, leaving last Thursday and returning on Monday. While there the two men took a down to Sunbury and made jaunts to othe the nearby towns, so that the time passed pleasantly for Mr. Haag.

-The irrepressible W. F. Subary, coming to was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday; coming to the Control-Beezer horse sa -The irrepressible W. F. Smith, of Millhe that afternoon. Of course after the sale was it was too late for Bill to go home that day even if it hadn't been he likely would have staved over until the early train the next mo inst for a chance to meet the boys as of yore

-Wm. Tressler, of Filmore, one of Be town ship's ablest farmers, was in Bellefonte latter part of last week and after he had at ed to his other business he came into the make a venture into the publishing busi- MAN office and left a reminder with us the will not be able to forget as long as 1905 is

-It is not often that men are so anxious to keep even with their paper that in finding your place of business closed they will hunt you up at home to square off, yet that is exactly what Wm. Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, did on Saturday night-It was not such a surprising act for one of the re- Kerstetters, however, for they are all "tarred with the same stick" in that respect and keep their subscriptions paid up so well that their

and are stopping at the "Hallwoode," the hotel -James McKee, of Wilkinsburg, is in Belle-fonte for his annual summer vacation at the ping place for Centre countians as one is always home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer. His brother H arry could not come to Bellefonte this time be-c ause he has been quite sick, but is now on the more pleasant one. Just now in addition to the Fosters the list of guests there includes Miss Belle Weaver, of this place; Mr. Claude Jones Urell with his mother and sister, Miss Angle, W. F.

Minary and J. F. McDonnell, of Tyrone; Mrs. J. F. Short and son Frank, of Clearfield, and Mrs.T. Harter and Mrs. Torrence Shearer, of Lock Ha-

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Wheat-R--Mixed new 61%@ - Winter, Per Br hay-Choice

7.00012.50 YONNALTY ME

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, following are the eat babaoa ars, per bushel..... l and new, per bushe l and per bushel...... d Plaster, per tor per bushe 8 50 to 9 50 $7 00 to $8

v seed per bushel

ellefonte Produce Markets

toes per bushel

moter relanded. All drappiece.