Paul Jones' Body at Annapolis.

Annapolis, Md., July 24.—The John Paul Jones expedition, commanded by Rear Admiral Sigsbee, completed its mission with the landing of the body of the distinguished dead today.

At 8 o'clock this morning Rear Admiral Sigsbee saluted Rear Admiral Sands with 13 guns and the salute was returned from the shore batteries. A salute to the squadron from the French cruiser was then given and returned. With these formalities over, the active transfer of the body was begun. The personnel of the fleet put ashore in small boats and formed an imposing guard of honor for the body. Its transfer to the shore was made on the naval tug Standish, and the landing made on a float draped and moored to the wharf. It was then placed in a hearse and transferred to the vault in the academy grounds. The only ceremony was the reading of psalms by Chaplain H. H. Clark of the academy. The ceremonies were simple, the "pomp and circumstance" being reserved for the time of the removal of the body from the temporary vault to its permanent resting place, the crypt of the splendid new naval academy chapel. This will likely be a year hence.

Rear Admiral Sigsbee's squadron, when met by the North Atlantic fleet, was given a salute of 15 guns from each of the home squadrons, in honor of Admiral Jones as a vice admiral.

John Paul Jones, though an admiral in the Russian navy, held no higher rank than captain in the United States navy, but was generally given the title of commodore as the commander of a squadron, and the French government when the body was borne away from Cherbourg on the cruiser Brooklyn two weeks ago accorded the deceased the honors of a vice admiral. The United States government decided to follow the same course in the ceremonies on this side of the Atlantic.

ATTEMPT ON LIFE OF SULTAN Brussels, July 22.—A telegram to the Petit Bleu from Constantinople says:

"During the Selamlik here a bomb was exploded in the court yard of the mosque, close to the sultan. His majesty was not injured, but several members of his suite were killed or injured. Several arrests have been made."

The killed include Beha Bey, tutor to the sultan's sons. The majority of the victims were coachmen, and 27 hackney coaches were blown to pieces and 55 horses were killed. Eye-witnesses describe the scene after the explosion as heartrending, with men and horses lying dying around. A hole two yards wide was made in the ground by the explosion of the bomb.

COL. DANIEL S. LAMONT DEAD

Former Secretary of War Dies Suddenly at Millbrook, N. Y.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 24.—Colonel Daniel Scott Lamont, secretary of war during the administration of President Cleveland, died suddenly at his home at Millbrook, Dutchess county, last night. Heart failure was the cause of death.

Colonel and Mrs. Lamont were out driving in the afternoon, and Colonel Lamont appeared to be enjoying the best of health. After dinner he complained of feeling ill, and Dr. Stewart, of New York, who is a guest at the house, immediately went to his aid. The physician diagnosed the case as an attack of heart failure, and in spite of the heroic treatment Mr. Lamont passed away within half an hour.

At his deathbed were Mrs. Lamont and two daughters, Frances and Bessie. Several guests at the Lamont home were also present when the end came.

Daniel Scott Lamont was born at Cortlandville, N. Y., on February 9, 1851. He began life in journalism, and from 1885 to 1889 was private secretary to President Cleveland, by whom he was appointed secretary of war on March 6, 1893. Mr. Lamont was vice president of the Northern Pacific railway and a director and trustee in many railroad and financial corporations. He leaves a widow and two daughters. He was a member of many New York clubs.

Fatally Shot in Mock Duel.

Big Rapids, Mich., July 25.—Frank, only son of Judge L. G. Palmer, was perhaps fatally shot in a mock duel. Palmer and Glen Carpenter, his life-long friend, in fun stood back to back, and after pacing off an agreed number of steps, turned and snapped the triggers of their revolvers. Witnesses were horrified to see Palmer fall, shot through the stomach. The revolvers had both been examined and were supposed to be empty, but evidently one cartridge had been overlooked. The young men were about 19 years old.

Double Murder Charged to Dead Man.

Scranton, Pa., July 25.—In a lengthy report by Superintendent of Police Day to Director of Public Safety Edgar, the police fasten the brutal murder of May Woodling and Emma Jay, which occurred June 30, on Anderson Carlin, a commercial drummer, who committed suicide the same day at his home in West Scranton. The accusation is founded on statements made by a colored man named Joshua Price, who alleges he left Carlin with the two women after the four had spent the night preceding the murder in a debauch in the women's apartments.
