Another Suit Against Equitable.

New York, Aug. 1.—An action was instituted by State Attorney General Julius M. Mayer in the supreme court, New York county, in the name of the people of the state of New York, against the Equitable Life Assurance Society, its officers, directors and members of the executive and finance committees, all of which are named in the complaint.

The complaint contains 21 sections and covers 33 pages of type-written matter, refers to the Frick committee report and the investigation made by State Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks, is based on information and belief, and Attorney General Mayer in his prayer to the court says that the action was brought on behalf of the people of the state of New York, in the public interests and pursuant to the provisions of law. He therefore asks:

- 1.—That the defendants, each of them, other than the defendants, the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, account for their official conduct in the management and disposition of the funds and property committed to their charge. 2.—That the individual defendants, and each of them, be compelled to pay the defendant, the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, any money and the value of any property, which they or any of them, have acquired to themselves, or transferred to others, or lost, or wasted, by a violation of their duties. 3.—That any defendant, or defendants, now a director or directors or officer in the defendant society, upon proof of misconduct, be removed, and that a new election be held by the board of the defendant society, purely authorized to hold the same, in order to supply the vacancy or vacancies created by the removal. 4.—That the net surplus of defendant society, after deducting a sufficient amount to cover all outstanding risks and obligations, be paid to, or credited to, or applied for the benefit of, the present policyholders in equitable proportions, in accordance with the charter and with law. 5.—That the plaintiff have such other or further relief as may be just, equitable and profitable.

The individual defendants are further charged with having "acquired to themselves, or caused or permitted to be transferred to others, in violation of their duties, money, property and the value of property belonging to the defendant society."

The complaint also charges: "That the defendants wrongfully caused the defendant society and a number of other societies and corporations in which the defendant society was a large stockholder, and in which some of said individual defendants were also directors and stockholders, to pay large sums of money to themselves, or some of their number, and to other persons, under the guise of salaries and fees for attending to their duties as officers and directors and members of committees of the defendant society, and of several other societies and corporations."

Allegation is also made of the payment of "illegal and excessive pensions to various persons," and of the payment of "excessive, improper and unwarranted sums to various attorneys and counsellors at law, the aggregate amount of which far exceeded and was entirely disproportionate to the services rendered."
