KAUP .- The death of Mrs. George Kaup, of Spring township, last Friday afternoon, was a source of the deepest regret to her many friends. Always a robust woman and virtually in the prime of life her demise at this time seemed, indeed, premaago she picked a pimple on her hand. The result was blood poison in a most malignant form, death resulting as above stated.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Sarah Dorman, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dorman, of Nittany Hall. She was aged 53 years. Fifteen years ago she was united in marriage to George Kaup, of Spring township. They had no children but the husband and the following brothers and sisters survive:

Rebecca and Mrs. Wesley Mayer, of Clintondale; Mrs. Andrew Geiser, of Madison burg; Mrs. Adam Yocum and Harry, of -Bellefonte fishermen have tired of Hublersburg; William P. and Newton, of Avis. The funeral was held on Monday. The services at the house were at 12:30 o'clock and were in charge of Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, of the Reformed church, of which deceased was a member. The rem ains were taken to Snydertown for inter-

> LOUGHRY .- Joseph Loughry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Loughry, of Tyrone, but who lived for more than a half century in railroad at Plainfield, N. J., on Monday. He was employed as a fireman on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad and the accident occurred at a time when his train bad stopped to take water. Loughry was back of the tender to make the coupling and in some way was caught between the tender and first car and crushed to death.

> His tragic end was a severe blow to his almost fifty years continuous service as a railroad, had recently been retired and moved with his family to Tyrone to enjoy in ease the remainder of their lives. In addition to his parents he is survived by three br others and one sister, namely: John, Ed> ward W., Francis and Grace C. The remains were brought to Tyrone Wednesday morning and taken to the home of his parents and yesterday morning funeral services were held in St. Matthew's Catholic church by Rev. Father G. M. Kely, after which the remains were brought to this place on the 9:28 train and conveyed to the Catholic cemetery for interment.

OAKLEY .- Mrs. Harriet Newell Oakley. widow of the late Rev. Charles M. Oakley, d ied at the home of her son Charles, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Monday, July 17th, in the eightieth year of her age. Up until the time of her death she road, sprained his ankle, in consequence had been in comparatively good health considering her age, and was making arrangethree of whom survive, namely, Rev. James | surance. Potter Hughes, of this place; Mrs. Mary Fletcher, of Long Beach, Cal., and Mrs. Amelia F. Harshaw, of New York.

CLARK.-The following belated death notice is published by request: George i4th, 1905, aged 73 years. He was converted and joined the U. B. church fifty years ago. He lived a consistent christian life, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was sick for three years, and for the last nine months was unable to help himself in any way, but loving hands attended to his every want. He bore his sufferings with patience and trust in God and died in the triumph of a living faith. He has left an aged wife, three sons, seven daughters and a host of friends to mourn their loss, but their loss is his gain. A large congregation of relatives and friends attended the funeral, which was conducted by the

ANENT THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT .- A well attended meeting of the Soldiers' Mon ument committee was held in this place Saturday morning. Gen. Beaver, as chairman of the committee, reported that he had been in New York and had seen some the monument and that they were excellent. That the Van Amringe company were about ready to begin the shipments of the material to this place and expected to have the monument all up and completed for unvailing in October, possibly in Friday, at the home of her daughter in the early part of the month. Already about twelve hundred soldier's names have been sent in to be cast on bronze plates remains were brought there for burial. She and these will be sent in as fast as corrected until the total list of from thirty-five hundred to four thousand is complete. It was further reported that the sum of money so far raised and at the command illness of several months. The funeral was of the committee was about $7,000 short of the amount required to build the monnment and to raise this amount James Har ris, Col. James P. Coburn and Col. Austin Curtin were appointed a committee to see that Centre county was thoroughly canvassed and everybody given an opportunity to for Blanchard, and application for a charter contribute something, no matter how little or how hig a sum, toward the monument fund. A soldiers' monument has been agitated for the past eleven years and now when the building is assured all who can possibly do so should not hesitate to contribute their share toward the expense of erecting it.

THE MATINEE RACES.-Quite a good crowd assembled at the driving park, last Friday afternoon, to witness the matinee races held for the purpose of trying out the speed of the three local horses and Roebe, W. D. O'Brien's pet, of Snow Shoe. The contests were exciting enough though Roebe's victory over Frank C, Fred Mosebarger's horse, was as much of a surprise as it was unexpected.

The showing made by Mr. M. B. Garman's Noella was gratifying as it proved that Mart really knows a good piece of horseflesh though the contest might have been more interesting if W. V. Larimer's Roan View had not broken so frequently. As it was, however, the spectators got their money's worth and the horsemen know as much now about their horses as they did before. DeLaun Stewart was official starter and the events were as follows:

CLASS A. Roebe, bl. m., O'Brien..... Frank C, b. g., Mosebarger Time, 2:17, 2:20, 2:18. CLASS D. Noella, b. m., Garman..... Roan View, r. g., Larimer.. Time, 2:27, 2:32, 2:35.

BAGGAGE ROOM ROBBED .- Last Friday night robbers forced an entrance to the baggage room of the Pennsylvania railroad company in this place by prying off the staple which held the lock and carried away one telescope and a suit case. The thieves must have been frightened away as not another thing in the room had been isturbed. Saturday the charred remnan of the telescope and its contents were found on the cinder pile at the Nittany furnace, where it had been thrown on the hot einder and burned. The suit case is still missing. There is no suspicion as to the identity of
