Co., BELLEFONTE, PA.—Dear Sirs : Messis. Leachman & Edelin, Grafton, W. Va., had been selling a paint which they thought well of; and this occurred.

They had sold a customer 18 gallons of it to paint his house. A few years later they sold the same man Devoe lead-and-zinc, the same number of gallons to paint the same house. He had 7 gallons left.

The point of the tale is: 11 gallons Devoe paints an 18-gallon house. Do you want to sell it?

Of course, that isn't all.

Why does 11 gallons Devoe go as far as 18 gallons of other paint? Because it is all paint, all true, no sham, and full measure,
Do you want to sell it?

But that im't all Devoe lests lenger Why does 11 gallons Devoe go as far as

But that isn't all. Devoe lasts longer. No, no; you haven't got to wait ten years know it. We've got their names. Our agents know them; they think a heap of Devoe. There's no difficulty in showing years townserve the state of the court of the your townspeople what to expect of Devoe. $10 will paint a $15 house; and the paint'll at 1 o'clock p. m. last twice as long?

Do you want to sell it? Yours truly, F. W. Devoe & Co., New York.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

-The Journal Publishing Company of Annville, Pa., announces the forthcoming publicaion of a new magazine "The American School." While there are in this country numerous publications in the interest of teachers and others engaged in school work, there is none that directly represents the schools of our country in the manner contemplated by the publishers of The American School. The new publication is to be a clear ing house of foundation on all topics connected with our schools. Through its columns unique features of different systems will be brought home to every student, that the boys and girls of Pennsylvania, New York and Massachusetts may know what is being done by their fellow students in the South and West. Interesting articles will appear on all the important branches of study; the Sciences, history mathematics, etc. One page will be devoted to suggestions for [Friday afternoon exercises with special reference to the work of debating societies. Another page will be given to school room anecdotes and jokes, to which students are ask ed to contribute. A special feature of the new publication will be the choice literature for supplementary reading, and for memory exercises and public declamation Part of the magazine will be given to current history and biography, including the most important current literary writers with their produc

School boards will find this magazine of special value in supplementary reading.

The first number of this publication will appear September 1, and any persons desiring sample copies will please order soon, so that their name will appear in the first sample copy list.

OF HOUSEHOLD INTEREST.-Housecleaning is no the pleasantest of the housekeeper's tasks, but none the less necessary on that account. In the September Delineator Isabel Gordon Curtis offers in her series, "The Making of a Housewife," some suggestions that will tend to lighten the labor and lessen the disagreeableness of this household duty. Other items of domestic interest in the same number are illustrated cookery and a variety of recipes under the topics "Deli ious Cream Jellies," "Decorative Color Salads" and "The Potato." In addition, Alice M. Kellogs explains "How to Select Finishing Hardware" and Ward MacLeod writes on "Growing Bulb
