

Spring Mills.

Ivy Barges will positively allow no visiting on his fruit farm on Sundays.

The union picnic, Sunday schools of all denominations, will be held on the 24th inst.

Sheriff Taylor and wife were here, on Friday last, and were delightfully entertained by Miss Ida Condo.

Heavy showers every day of late accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning and startling peals of thunder.

Very few apples in this valley this year, not half a crop. Apple butter will be a scarce article here the coming winter.

Owing to the postoffice at Potters Mills being closed two of our letter carriers have had their routes extended over a mile.

The huckleberry crop is evidently immense. Last week they were brought to town by the bushel, and like the foes of Macbeth, the cry is "still they come."

John Smith, of Smith Bros., after an illness of a week or ten days, is able to attend to business again. Mr. Smith had quite a severe spell and it has left him in rather a weak condition.

Benjamin Donachy, of Lewisburg, grandson of Magistrate Hering whom he is visiting, had quite a lively birthday on Thursday evening last.

H. H. Rachen, of our village, present manager of the Fairview fruit farm and a thorough horticulturist, is about making arrangements to take charge of the orchards and superintend the packing of fruit for a heavy shipping firm in Georgia.

Workmen are now cleaning up the rubbish and removing the damaged foundation walls of the building formerly owned and occupied by C. J. Finkle—destroyed by fire a year or two since. John Rishel, merchant of Farmers Mills, purchased the property and will erect a large store room and residence on the site.

E. J. ECKENROTH, BELLEFONTE, PA. Dear Sir: We suspect you'd like the tale, how a woman beat two hardware dealers in Girard, Pa.

We tried our best to get those men to sell Devo's lead-and-zinc in that bright town; and failed. Reluctantly we took Mrs. E. R. Bowman, druggist.

They said they couldn't sell paint for more than $1.25 a gallon. Mrs. Bowman can. She has sold about all the paint that has been sold there since.

She knew Devo's; had sold our artists' materials. Had some sense and force, besides; she easily learned that cheap is dear paint, and told the people.

Mr. Bart Young bought a gallon of Devo's for rooms that had always taken a gallon of other paint; had half left.

Mr. E. H. Hiller, jeweler, painted Devo's, and says it goes further—no particulars.

Mr. John Hanna, grocer, thought it expensive before he bought it; brought back nearly half of his paint, and said it was the cheapest job he ever had.

Mrs. Bowman reports universal satisfaction. So much for a cheap-paint town with a bright woman in it.

writes a graphic description of the parcels-post in Europe, in which he shows that Germany heads the nations in an efficient parcels-post, Great Britain coming second.
