Mr. S. H. Williams now has a force of men at work re-painting the exterior wood work of the main building at State College. The job is a big one but they expect to complete it before the opening of college September 13th.

The congregation at Pleasant View chapel will hold a big rally meeting Sunday afternoon, September 17th, for the purpose of raising the sum of one hundred dollars which is the amount of indebtedness still hanging over that place of worship.

The ladies of Benner Grange will hold a festival in the grange hall near Meyer's cemetery, at Hunter's park, Saturday evening, August 26th. Ice cream and cake and all the good things of the season will be served. Everybody invited to attend.

Purchasers of the colts at the Gentzel-Bezer sale, on Monday, experienced about the same amount of trouble securing their animals and getting them away as did those who bought the chunks a month ago. And of course the rearing and plugging, balking etc., furnished lots of amusement for a big crowd of onlookers.

STEELE.—The venerable Perry Steele died at 10 o'clock, Monday evening, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henrietta Rhoads, of Mill Hall, of diseases incident to old age.

Deceased was a native of Huntingdon county, (now Blair county) having been born at East Freedom, in November, 1815, thus being close to ninety-one years of age. When a young man the family moved to this county and early in life the subject of this sketch started out as a contractor. He helped to build the Snow Shoe, the Bald Eagle and the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroads. He bought a home near Axa Mann where he lived for many years and where Mrs. Steele died. A couple years ago his house burned down and since then Mr. Steele made his home with his children.

In 1863 Mr. Steele furnished the stone with which the Humes mill at Axa Mann was built. In 1864 he was one of the contractors to build the reservoir in this place, while many buildings around town bear the marks of his handiwork. In 1892 when the turnpike between here and Pleasant Gap was so badly washed out Mr. Steele took charge and in eighteen months entirely rebuilt the pike and put it in the splendid condition it has been ever since.

At the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted as a private and served in the three month's service. In his day he was perhaps one of the best known men and most familiar figures in this section. At one time he worked over at Potter's bank where he was regarded as one of the most characteristic men that ever struck the place.

He was possessed of a most wonderful memory and up until his death could recount with wonderful accuracy incidents and happenings of his boyhood days while he was wonderfully adept in recounting the history of the county. Like all men he had his peculiarities and one of the most singular of these was that he always ate four cooked meals a day. He lived to a ripe old age and his familiar figure will be missed by all who knew him.

He is survived by six children, namely: Perry, of Axa Mann; A. Brittain, of this place; William, of Phillipsburg; Theodore and Newton, of Pittsburgh; Samuel of Tyrone, and Mrs. Henrietta Rhoads, of Mill Hall; also one sister, Mrs. Joseph Twitmer, of Bellefonte.

The remains were brought to Bellefonte, Tuesday evening, and taken to the home his son A. Brittain, on Pine street, from where the funeral was held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. John A. Wood Jr., officiated at the services and interment was made in the Union cemetery.

PARKS.—Mrs. Wm. Parks, formerly of this place, died at her home in Beaver Falls, Saturday morning, of blood poisoning. The family moved to Beaver Falls about a year ago, when the Standard Scale company's works were removed to that place. About six months ago Mrs. Parks had a bad fall, injuring her breast. The injury was such that it was finally deemed necessary to have an operation performed. The result of which was that blood poisoning set in and death ensued at the time above stated.

Deceased was a daughter of John and Caroline Delaney and was born near Roland fifty-seven years ago. After her marriage to Wm. Parks the family lived in Bellefonte until their removal to Beaver Falls. In addition to her husband she is survived by three children, Harry, John and Fred; also two sisters, Nancy and Mary Delaney, of Milesburg.

The remains were brought to Milesburg, Sunday morning, and taken to the home of her uncle, Irvin Delaney, from where they were brought to this place, Tuesday morning, and funeral services held in the Catholic church at 9 o'clock. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

LUCAS.—Miss Eliza I. Lucas died at her home in Altoona, last Friday afternoon, after a week's illness, aged 66 years. Deceased was a native of this county, having been born at Roland, and was a daughter of Robert and Mary Goodfellow. She was married to D. A. Lucas, of Boggs township, who died in 1892. Shortly afterwards Mrs. Lucas with her daughter Mary went to Altoona, where they made their home.

She is survived by the following children: T. G. Lucas, A. C. Lucas, Mary, Mrs. J. E. Wagner and E. R. Lucas, all of Altoona; and one brother out in Walla Walla, Wash. Funeral services were held at her late home at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning after which the remains were brought on the noon train, to Curtin for interment.

PEARSON.—Mrs. Sarah Pearson, wife of Arthur Pearson, who twenty years ago lived in this place and was in charge of the Valentine Store company when it was located in the Bush Arcade, died in the hospital at Lock Haven, Friday evening, of cancer of the bowels, after a long illness. Surviving her are her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Edwin S. Furst, of Cedar Springs; also her mother, Mrs. Simon Scott, and two brothers, Jacob and Lewis Scott, of Lock Haven. The funeral was held from the residence of her mother, at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning. The services were in charge of Revs. Jesse R. Ziegler and Lewis Nichols and interment was made in the Highland cemetery.

DEHAAS.—Mrs. John P. DeHaas, wife of the proprietor of the hotel at Beech Creek, died on Sunday night from peritonitis, after a four days illness. Deceased was less than thirty-three years of age and is survived by her husband and three children, Ruth, Jas. and Channey; also two brothers, Oscar McGhee, of Beech Creek, and Robert McGhee, of Mill Hall. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, Rev. H. I. Dudley officiating at the services.

PENNINGTON.—Thomas Pennington, who for years has been a familiar figure about town in his character of "Old Black Tom," died in the Bellefonte hospital, Tuesday morning, where both he and his wife were undergoing treatment. Deceased claimed to be eighty-two years of age. He was born and reared a slave in the South coming to Bellefonte after the war. He was a most interesting character and "always had" a fund of interesting southern experiences which he could relate most entertainingly. In his character as "Old Black Tom" he was the medium used by more than one mother to frighten her children to be good and he rather enjoyed the distinction.

The remains were taken from the hospital to the home of his son, Levi Pennington, on Penn street, from where the funeral took place at three o'clock yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

RESIDES.—Renben Resides died, Wednesday of last week, at his home one mile north of Clearfield, after a brief illness, aged 72 years. Deceased was born near Hunter's park and lived most of his life in this county. Surviving him are his wife, three sons and one daughter, as follows: James, of Seattle, Wash.; Miles, Joseph and Ida, at home; also one brother, William, of Union township, and the following half brothers and sisters: Henry and John Armagast and Mrs. James Knox, of Benner township; Mrs. Julia L. Bell, of Clearfield, and Mrs. G. W. Rumberger, of Unionville. The funeral was held last Friday morning.

WOLFE.—Otis M. Wolfe died at his home in Smullton, last Saturday morning, of consumption, aged 35 years. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Adam Greninger, of Smullton, and two brothers living in St. Louis. The funeral was held on Monday, interment being made at Rebersburg.

DORMAN.—Sarah, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dorman, of north Penn street, died Tuesday evening, after a brief illness of cholera infantum. The funeral will be held this morning at 10 o'clock, interment to be made in the Union cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Waite, of Pennsylvania Furnace, are mourning the death of their daughter, Miss Lizzie, who died on Monday. The funeral was held on Wednesday, the remains being taken to Warriorsmark for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fryberger, of Phillipsburg, are rejoicing over the advent into their family circle of a brand new little daughter.

Edmund Blanchard took a party of sixteen to the "House of Lords," on Nittany mountain, Monday evening, where he entertained Miss McCoy and her friends.

Henry Krape, a graduate of the Myerstown college, was recently elected principal of the Haines township High school, at Aaronsburg, at a salary of $60 per month.

On Sunday some miscreant attempted to blow up the Beech Creek railroad bridge over Curry run with dynamite. Though badly wrecked the bridge was repaired so that traffic could be continued on Monday.

The expert accountant that has been at work on the books of the Platt-Barber company since the arrest of John G. Platt, completed his examination this week and reported the amount of the shortage at $108,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCulley are mourning the death of their eight months old baby, Agnes, who died on Friday afternoon of brain fever. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, interment being made in the Catholic cemetery.

Monday morning the seven-year-old son of Alfred Keen, of Coburn, was brought to the Bellefonte sanatorium for treatment for a badly mangled leg. Last Friday he was playing in the loft over the barn floor when he missed his footing and fell through, breaking his leg in several places.

The corner stone for the new A. M. E. church at Phillipsburg was laid on Sunday. The colored Odd Fellows had the ceremony in charge. Among the ministers who assisted in the services were Presiding Elder Anderson, Rev. Higby, of the Baptist church; Rev. Charles Streamer and the pastor in charge.

To-morrow will be the day for the Williams family reunion in Huston township. This has always been one of the largest reunions of any ever held in Centre county and to-morrow's gathering will likely be equal to those of other years. A cordial invitation is extended to the public in general to attend.

Two recent important business changes at State College was the buying out of the Krumm Bros. general mercantile store by the Pierce brothers and the purchase by Luther E. Eye of the general mercantile store of the Holmes Bros. The Pierce Bros. have already leased a store room in the new hotel building being erected where they will move their store just as soon as the same is completed.

Because you haven't yet seen the cars running don't think that the movement for the building of a trolley line between Bellefonte and State College has been knocked into a three-cooked hat, because it hasn't. It is just because it is away in the mountains somewhere on its summer vacation and when it comes back the promoters hope it will be bigger and stronger than ever.

LEITZELL—GRAZIER. — A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Grazier, at Huntingdon Furnace, at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Ethel J. Grazier, was united in marriage to Harry Allen Leitzell, formerly of Scottdale, but now of State College, where he is manager of the College co-operative association. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George F. Holmes, of Indiana, Pa., in the presence of a large number of guests. The attendants were Miss Mabel Grazier, sister of the bride, as maid of honor; Miss Ruth Loucks and Miss Bessie MacMillan, both of Scottdale, as bridesmaids, and Miss Juliet Marie Grazier, flower girl. The best man was Robert S. Skemp Jr., of Scottdale, and the ushers W. E. and Albert C. Grazier. Guests were present from Tyrone, Indiana, New Kensington, New Brighton, Scottdale and State College. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Leitzell boarded the train at Warriorsmark and came direct to State College, where they have gone to housekeeping in a home already furnished by the groom. The WATCHMAN tenders its congratulations.

MCCALMONT—WEAVER.—A quiet home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weaver, on north Penn street, at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elsie, to Roy McCalmont. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. John A. Wood Jr., was witnessed by only a few of the intimate friends and relatives. Following a delicious wedding supper the bride and groom departed on the 8:15 train for a brief wedding trip after which they will make their home in Rochester, where Mr. McCalmont holds a good position with the American Express company. The bride is one of Bellefonte's most charming young women and she will be missed particularly in musical circles here, as she is not only an accomplished pianist but possesses a voice of rare quality and culture. Both are deserving of the hearty congratulations they received from many friends.

KELLEY—KELLEY.—A pretty but rather unassuming wedding was celebrated in St. Mary's Catholic church at Snow Shoe, at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, when John P. Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Kelley, and Miss Elizabeth V. Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelley Sr., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Corcoran. The attendants were Miss Annie Redding as bridesmaid and Thomas Kelley Jr., the groom's brother, as best man. Only the immediate friends of the contracting parties were present.

Following the ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride after which Mr. and Mrs. Kelley drove to Milesburg where they took the train for a brief honeymoon in eastern cities. The groom is a member of the junior firm of Kelley Bros., coal operators, and is an energetic young business man, while the bride is a charming and accomplished young woman.

GRAMLEY—STURGIS.—Quite a fashionable wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Walter, in Millheim, on Wednesday, when S. Ward Gramley, of Spring Mills, and Miss Bessie E. Sturgis, of Millheim, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. C. Piper in the presence of a small number of invited friends. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gramley left on a brief honeymoon trip.

The bride is a daughter of Charles A. Sturgis, of Watsonstown, but has made her home with her aunt, Mrs. A. Walter, in Millheim, ever since childhood. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gramley, of Spring Mills, and is a school teacher by profession, having just recently been elected principal of the Mt. Union, Huntingdon county, schools, where the couple will go to housekeeping in the near future.

WAY—RIDER.—Edgar J. Way, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Way, and Miss Mary E. Rider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rider, were married at high noon, Thursday of last week, at the home of the bride's parents in Stormtown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Taylor, of the M. E. church, in the presence of only the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. Both young people are well known and highly esteemed in the Halfmoon valley. After a brief wedding tour they will go to Altoona where they will make their future home.

MARRIED IN TYRONE.—Thursday afternoon of last week while Rev. Bergtresser was in the basement of the new Lutheran church, at Tyrone, giving directions to workmen employed there, William F. Kinney and Miss Anna Pearl Biglow, both of Port Matilda, presented themselves and asked to be married. Calling some of the workmen as witnesses the reverend gentleman performed the ceremony which united them for life, the young couple enjoying the novelty of their surroundings in the basement.

TITTLE—WYLE.—Charles Tittle and Miss Mary B. Wyle, both of Millifield, were married in Aaronsburg, last Thursday, by Rev. F. W. Brown. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wyle, who formerly lived in Aaronsburg.

The Wallace brothers, of Milesburg, are now at work relaying the pavement around the Reynolds block, on the southeast corner of the diamond. There are quite a number of other pavements in town that would not be hurt any to be relaid.

News Purely Personal.

—Mrs. James P. Irvin, of Snow Shoe, spent Tuesday in Bellefonte.

—Dr. John A. Thompson, of Stormtown, was a Bellefonte visitor on Wednesday.

—John Jenkins Esq., the Milton iron master, spent Sunday with his brother, W. R. Jenkins, in this place.

—George H. Hastings, of Buffalo Run, spent Sunday in Phillipsburg, the guest of George G. Postgrove.

—Edward Fleming, of Altoona, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming, of Reynolds avenue, this week.

—Miss Virginia Lingle, of Patton, spent Monday and Tuesday in Bellefonte, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Garman.

—Mrs. Bridget Kane, of Altoona, was the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, of east Logan street, Monday and Tuesday of this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will Furey, of Pittsburg, were visitors the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Furey, south of Bellefonte.

—After work Saturday evening Charley Wetzel dropped in to leave a little of the income of those carpenter tools with which he is so handy.

—Mrs. William Hamilton and Miss Katharyn Ryan, of Lock Haven, were guests of Mrs. Wm. Bezer, on Spring street, a couple days this week.

—Mr. Burdine Butler, of Howard, transacted business in Bellefonte, on Tuesday, and did not get to drop in and see how we were all getting along.

—Samuel Snyder, of Williamsport, a member of the Reopas band, made a visit to Bellefonte this week and was entertained by councilman Henry Brown.

—Mrs. H. A. McKee and daughter, Mrs. Jean McKee Beck and child, of Wilkingsburg, are making their annual summer visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer.

—H. M. Bidwell returned home, last Saturday, from Windsor, Conn., where he had gone to attend the funeral of his father, Samuel Bidwell, who died at the age of eighty-seven years.

—Mr. H. W. McCracken, one of Ferguson township's old-time residents and most up-to-date farmers, was a Bellefonte visitor, on Tuesday, and while here paid his respects to the WATCHMAN office.

—William Parks, who formerly resided in this place but now of Beaver Falls, and who was called to Centre county on the very sad errand of burying his wife, spent several days among old friends in town this week.

—James Rowan was a caller on Saturday and we were surprised to learn that he has decided to go back to his old peaceful pursuit of farming. He had been operating in lumber and had a taste of the small grocery business.

—Mrs. George Reed, of Arizona, who was formerly Miss Grace Alexander, of Centre Hall, is east visiting her father, Dr. John F. Alexander, and, Tuesday evening, came over to Bellefonte for Miss McCoy's reception.

—Miss Corrie Smith, of Baltimore, was visiting friends in Bellefonte; a fact which would account for any confusion of orders that might be made by the bookkeeper in the coal office of the Bellefonte Fuel and Supply company.

—Andrew Broese, of Coatesville, is here for a few days to visit Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris. He is interested in the Coatesville glass works and as they have suspended operations for the hot season he is spending the time as leisurely as possible.

—Wm. F. Smith, of Millheim, was in Bellefonte, on Monday, to do the wind work at the Gentzel-Bezer horse sale. Of course, after the sale was over he devoted his leisure time to frequenting his old haunts and meeting his friends as of yore.

—If all the folks who were like Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia, it would only be a pleasure to run a newspaper and the editor would never go hungry; for, on Saturday, he came in and renewed his subscription a full month before the old year had expired.

—T. Frank Kennedy, of State College, former postmaster of the town and a contractor who did much of the figuring up there when State's boom first began, was in Bellefonte Tuesday, shaking hands with his many friends here and looking after a few business matters.

—Mr. Frank Cori, of Iowa, concluded his five weeks' visit with friends in Centre county and started for home at noon Wednesday. He was originally from the vicinity of Bousburg. Mr. Cori is a cousin of Robert F. Hunter, with whom he spent the last day of his visit east.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Smith and Mrs. G. W. Keifer, of Sunbury, were over Sunday guests at the home of Mr. S. A. McQuiston. The three are on their way home from a trip out West and while Mr. Smith had to go on home to look after a fruit farm he owns near Sunbury, the ladies are staying for a longer visit.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bricker, of Buffalo Run, spent Sunday with friends in town. Mr. Bricker is now monarch of all the surveys on the Glenison farms and will be until Frank's return from Beech Haven, and to say he will take the best care of them is only saying what everybody who knows Jay knows for himself.

—Mr. and Mrs. Noah H. Swayne II left for Buffalo on Saturday, and after visiting a few friends in that city for a day or so took the Lake trip to Duluth; expecting to return next week. In the absence of Mr. Swayne Treasurer Waddle and Sup't. Grimm are keeping up the record breaking output at the Nittany furnace.

—Frank Knoche, of Harrisburg and Gatesburg, was in town Friday morning on his way to Buffalo for a little trip. While here he left an advertisement which is published on page 5 of this issue and just because it reads a little funny and because we know Frank will enjoy the joke as much as you do we call your attention specially to it.

—Alfred Bezer, with his wife and two bright little children, were callers on Tuesday. He came in to take advantage of the opportunity to see us fifty cents on his paper by paying for it in advance and the same kind of thrift that prompted him to making that saving can be seen on all sides of his pretty little home along the road near Roopburg.

—C. B. Williams, who got his initial railroad training when he was stenographer and typewriter and general factotum in the office of the Centre Railroad of Pennsylvania here six years and more ago, and who now holds the responsible position of chief clerk to the superintendent of motive power on the New Jersey Central railroad, spent from Saturday until Tuesday in Bellefonte visiting parents and other friends.

—Mrs. Mary M. Dolan, of Pleasant Gap, was in Bellefonte, Wednesday, on a shopping expedition and though she was as busy as a woman always is when she starts out to buy a new gown or such like, she made it suit to find time to make a call at the WATCHMAN office, as she is one of those exceptionally accurate women in a business way that she believes in renewing her subscription the very day it expires. Combined with this she is a most generous woman and the only wonder is that some good man has not been able to persuade her to change her name.

—Miss Nellie Conley left, Wednesday evening, for a visit with friends in Tyrone.

—Ward Fleming has returned home from an extended visit with friends at Chantanooga, N. Y.

—Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Tate will leave on August 25th on a ten days trip to New York and the sea shores.

—Mrs. Katharine Malze, of Carroll, Iowa, is visiting Miss Jane McCalmont, on east Linn street. Mrs. Malze was formerly Miss Gibson, of Jacksonville, a daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Gibson, a prominent minister of the Huntingdon Presbytery.

—Mr. J. H. Martin, of Clearfield, with his two bright children are visiting friends hereabouts this week and yesterday paid his respects to the WATCHMAN office while dropping a dollar into our pockets. Mr. Martin is a native of this county and lived here a number of years. He now is one of Clearfield's most expert tailors.

—The postage stamp market must have been a little easier during the past week for the mails have been quite good to us and we have sort of a suspicion that there are more to follow: We have heard from C. H. Hiller, of Boston, Geo. Dimmeling Esq., of Clearfield; Joseph Wilkenson, of St. Benedict; J. B. Leathers Sons, Mt. Eagle, and Mrs. Ada Dolan Keithley, of Scottdale; some with large accumulations and others small but all helping amazingly in our efforts to keep square with the other fellows.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dunkle, of Nittany, were in town yesterday; having driven up to do some shopping. They had quite a pleasant surprise at their home some time ago when Mr. Dunkle's brother Mrs. Wootter, Ohio, dropped in on them unexpectedly after an absence of twenty-eight years. The brothers had not met for a long time but they did not recognize one another at first, but the happiness that followed was only heightened by the presence of James, of Clearfield, who was making his first year in Centre county in four years.
