

Ten Sunday schools will hold their convention, likely in the Lutheran church, on Sept. 14th.

John E. Bressler has a bad lower lip, caused by a boy plunging the prong of a pitch fork through it while moving oats in a mow.

Emanuel Musser and wife, of State College, spent a day pleasantly at the home of his cousin, Capt. J. M. Kepler, on Tuesday.

Cap't. J. M. Kepler is spending this week in and about Tionesta, Forest county, on a tour of inspection of his coal and oil operations.

D. G. Meek and wife, Ada Koch and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fishburn, left yesterday for a week's camping at Ocean Grove campmeeting.

Andy Lytle has the contract to move the mining and engineering building at State from its present site on to the new lot opposite the Meek row.

Mrs. Mary Knoffinger, of Green valley, is visiting at the home of her brother, James Gordon Tyson. Although 76 years old she is quite spry for one of her years.

Frank Bowersox, after a two weeks outing among friends in this section, returned to Philadelphia on Monday, where he has charge of a large drug store.

Smalltown.

Mrs. Parks visited in Livonia over Sunday. Charles Gramley's little baby boy is very ill at present.

Newton Brumgard's had visitors from Glen Rock last week.

A number of Mrs. J. B. Winters' cousins spent last Saturday in town.

Mr. Smith, of Millheim, made a call at Mr. Charles Mallory's on Monday.

George Bair and wife, of the West, spent some time at Adam Greninger's recently.

Mr. H. H. Stover delivered extracts through Nittany valley on Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. C. H. Small and family are at present visiting at Albany, New York, with Mr. Frank Neese.

Mrs. Orpha Ocker and children, of Centre Hall, spent a day with the former's brother, Mr. Bierly.

Mrs. Annie Winkleblech and three children are spending a few weeks with the former's parents.

Luther Miller, who is at present visiting his family and parents, will return to his work on Monday.

Mr. Robert Hackenberg, while away for berries last week got lost on the mountains, and traveled to Pennsvalley for a baggy ride, as he was brought home the same evening.

Lemont.

Tuesday afternoon and evening brought us a fine rain.

The schools of College township will open Monday, September 4th.

Golla Osman and wife had a pleasant visit at the home of James D. Osman.

The Lemont Grammar school room sports a brand new floor now.

George Tate and family came Saturday, to spend their vacation under the parental roof.

F. Woods Bathgate returned home feeling much rested and ready to attack his work with renewed energy.

The United Evangelical Sunday school, as well as all others who attended, had a fine time at the picnic, Saturday.

Town was dull Tuesday, all places of business but the post office being closed on account of business men's picnic.

The Odd Fellows picnic was well attended by the members of the order from these parts and all were well pleased with the program.

John R. Williams, wife and daughter, took advantage of the Asbury Park excursion and went to visit friends in Totinville, States Island, N. Y.

It is reported that robbers tried to break open L. L. Houtz's house and E. C. Ross' store one night last week, in both of which cases they failed.

Robert Hoy, who is suffering with inflammation of the bowels and typhoid fever, is no better at this writing and it is feared that he will not recover.

The directors of College township have not secured a teacher for the Grammar school for the ensuing term, as C. H. Stahl, the young man who was to teach the school has secured a better position.

The Housewife United Brethren congregation secured eight hundred dollars, the indebtedness against the church and now they have one of the finest places of worship in this part of Centre county entirely free of debt.

A few days since an old grind-organ man passed through town on his annual trip, that he has not failed to make each year since 1840. Age is beginning to write its tokens on his brow as he is more than eighty years old. He will be missed, for everyone has begun to look forward to the time when he comes.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

WHAT'S IN McCLURE'S.—McClure's has always something that compels attention, something immediate and significant that is important to all Americans. The September number adds to an unbroken series of "McClure Articles" an illuminating study of commercial piracy, the first half of Miss Tarbell's study of the Kansas Oil War, and an excursion into the marvels of modern biology. "Prolonging the Prime of Life," which is an authoritative account of the discoveries of a group of scientists who have determined that old age is a disease.

Color printing has never achieved more perfect results than in the eight full-page reproductions of Lungen's paintings of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, which accompany William Allen White's description of the wonders "On Bright Angel Trail," a bit of descriptive writing which may well take place with the classics of our language.

Egmont Wood, George Randolph Chester, Mrs. Wilson Woodrow, Jean Webster, Arthur Train, and Norvell Harrison supply a round of short stories stirring, humorous, light or serious to fit every mood.

THE SIMPLE LIFE.—President Roosevelt says: "I commend this book to the nation." Beyond question, the most talked-of book of today, whether in the pulpit or out of it, is "The Simple Life," by Rev. Charles Wagner. It has caught the nation like wild-fire, and is constantly alluded to everywhere, backed by the endorsement of public men, literary critics and the press. President Roosevelt's promise to commend it to the nation has made it the best-selling book of the year. The well-known publishers of popular-priced books, Hurst & Co., 395-399 Broadway, New York, have just issued a new edition, which they will mail to anyone sending 35c. This firm will also forward a complete catalogue of their books upon request.
